April 28, 1980 was a beautiful night to remember. Couples gathered under a starlit sky to go to our Junior Prom.

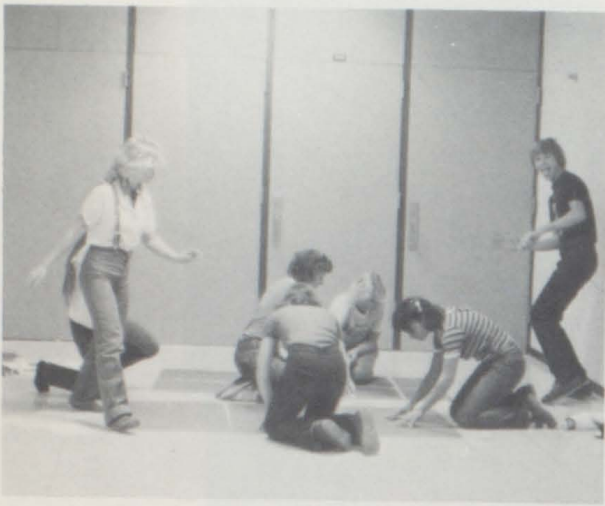

King Terry Witthun and Queen Dana DeMets were crowned by last year's royalty, Steve Coonen and Lori Schultz. Chris Naparalla and Keith Pingel, Barb Diemel and Terry Helein, Katye Schmit and Ron Spranger, and Tina Rupp and Joel Schultz completed the elegant entourage.

A moonlit beach and a quiet stream are traced in the memory of the night. A walk into the galley of a ship provided special refreshments. We danced to the music of Magnum.

Baseball Team Sacrifices Season

The Indians got off to a slow start in 1980. The only wins came at midseason against New London and Pulaski. The Indians had a strong offensive attack which enabled them to get an early lead in most games but inconsistency on defense allowed the opponents to catch up in the late innings. The team had six seniors, three juniors, and three sophomores. Jim Theobald was selected to the All-Conference Team as an outfielder.

Coach, I think you need me.

Keep it coming.

Just waiting for some action.

Only two of their conference losses came in the second half of the season.

Seymour girls' basketball had a few disappointments early in the season but progressed considerably in the late second half. Although we were a young team with three seniors and seven juniors, our juniors improved steadily to create a more competitive atmosphere. Senior guard Staci Eick, who is our leading scorer, added much potential to the team. Although Seymour won only a few games, they did offer challenges to other teams.

Go for it, BO.

The team gets sandwiched.

Here it comes . . .

Be-bopping Betty gets ready.

It looks so simple.

In the Course of Time

The feeling
Of time rushing past
So quickly — too quickly!
Many friends will soon leave
To go out on their own,
Bringing closer thoughts of my future.
Senior year rushes to meet me,
College just around the corner.

I feel
As if I'm sprinting through the days
Out of breath, wanting to slow the pace,
Slow the hours to minutes
To savor each more fully.

Jackie Anthony

To postpone the future —
Scared of what will come,
The changes I may not like.

I wish
For everyone and everything
To remain the same,
To keep the closeness
And affection of my friends,
For time to stand still.

If not,
Then for life always to be as good —
As now.

"There is a friend who sticks closer than a brother."
Prov. 18:24
Courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Neal

"For fate has torn your living self from me,
And snatched you, brother,
O, how cruelly!
Yet take these gifts brought as our fathers bade
For sorrow's tribute to the passing shade;
A brother's tears have wet
them o'er and o'er.
And so, my brother, hail,
and farewell evermore."

UNDERCLASSMEN

Two Down-One To Go

1980 proved to be a challenging year for the Junior Class. They took first place in homecoming mural competition and powder puff football. They also sponsored a car wash and a movie to raise funds for the prom. We congratulate the Junior Class on a successful year and wish them the best of luck in their senior year.

Reflections Of The First Year

Reflecting back on our first year, we were lost and wandering. It was the beginning year in the big time. We had many different experiences — like purchasing a yearbook and a class ring. Many of us became acquainted and involved with extracurricular activities — band, sports, cheerleading, FFA, GAA, and FBLA. Excitement, newness, and involvement all “hit” us in a hurry.

Reflections 1981

The 1981 REFLECTIONS staff put forth a lot of effort this year to make this year's book the best one ever. The sophomore pages were created by Karri Kepler. Patty Langteau, Lynn Mastey, and Diane Newton used their skills to develop the junior pages. The sporting life of Seymour High was tackled by Jodi Bathke, Brenda Tremel, and Darlene Van Boxel. Our social life was recorded by Laurie Melchert and Debbie Knapp. The employees of this fine high school were captured in print by Duane Rohm and Sue Maas. Lynn Rottier and Tina Rupp spent long hours designing the senior pages hoping that they would be memorable. The ad pages were laid out by Chris Naparalla.

Kaye Karweick, financial editor, sacrificed much of her spare time searching for advertising revenue. The special pages were inspired by Vicky Olson, layout editor. Extra thanks to Lynn Rottier because she typed the student index and senior activities pages, helped with the candid and homecoming pages, and headed the senior section.
