MEMORIES

— LAST FOREVER

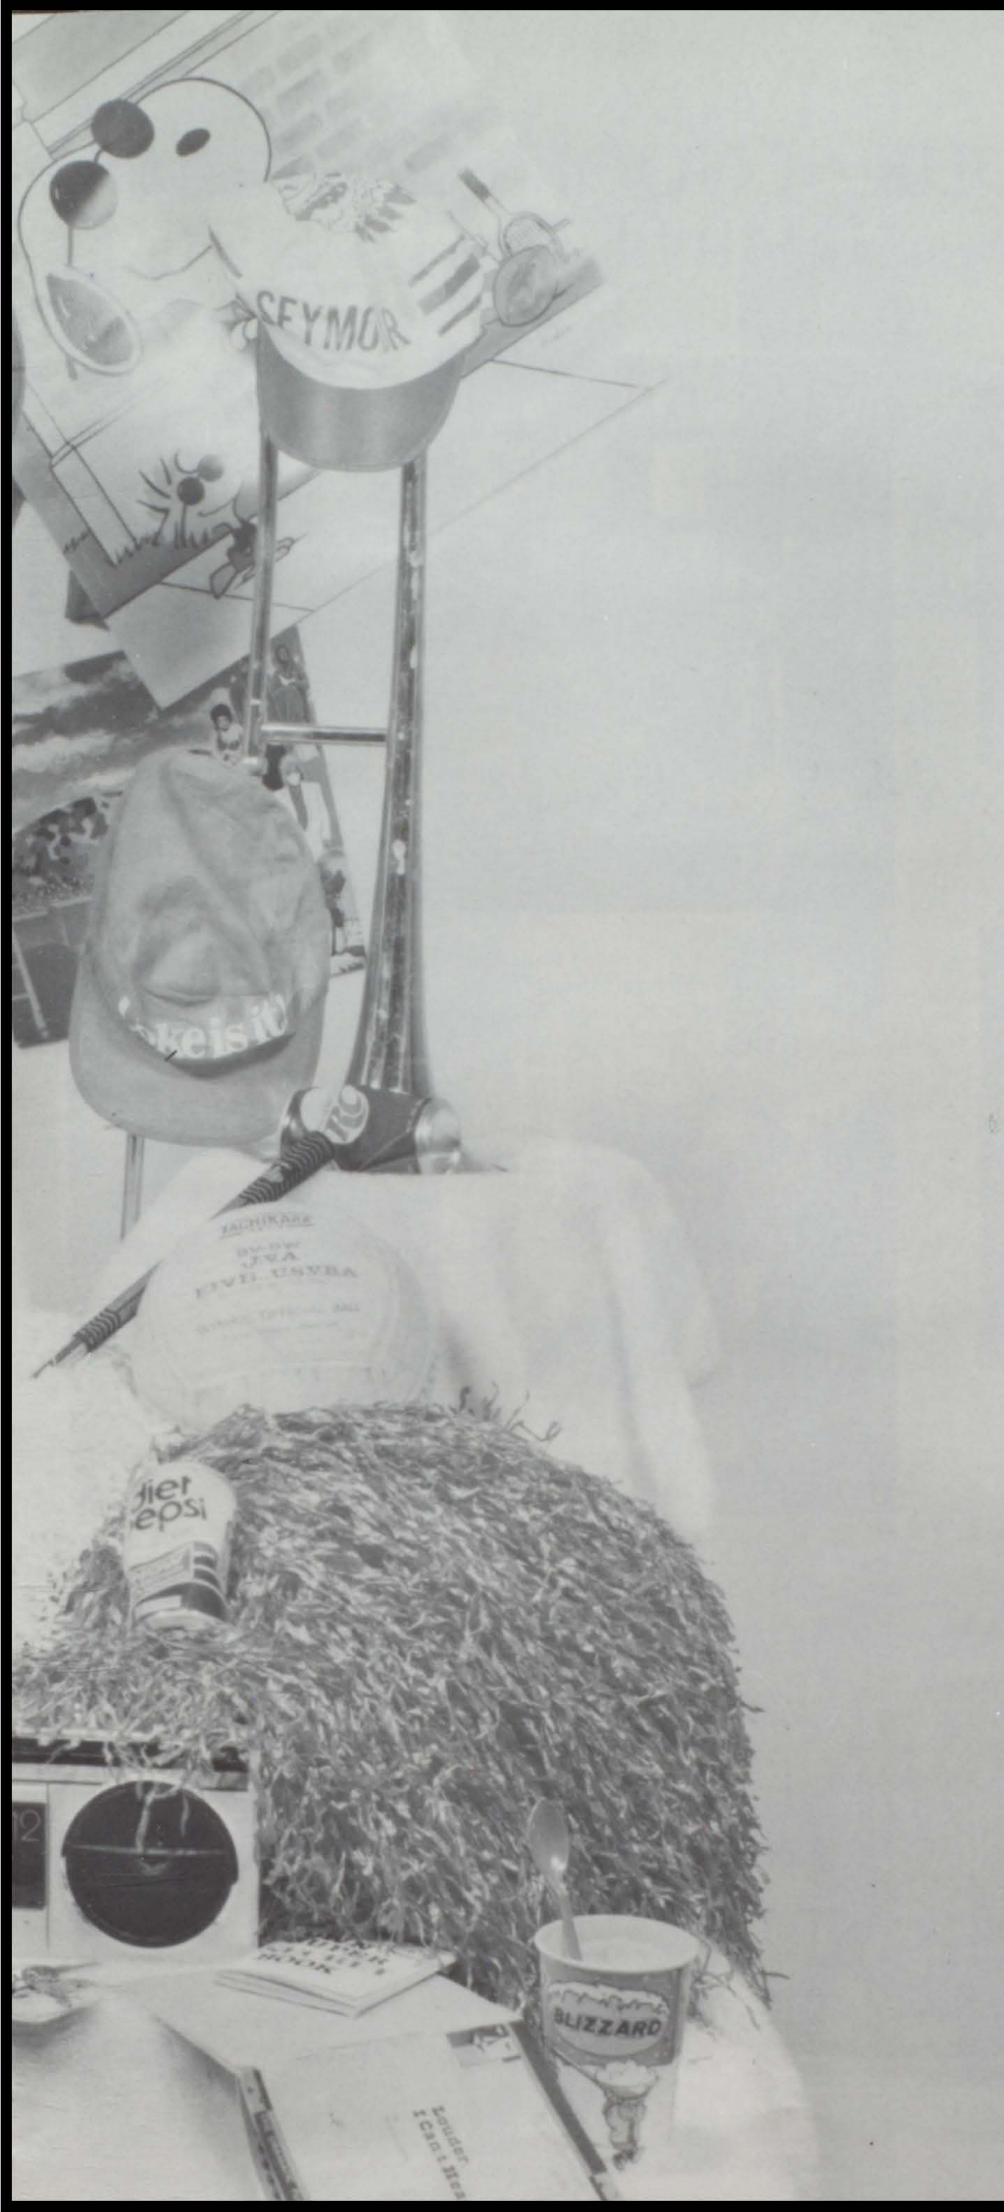

Classes, sports, and activities ---
All eroded our time.
Though our endeavors kept us busy,
There remained a hidden sign.

Through planning and work
We completed each task;
And while working with others,
We lifted our masks.

Learning about each other
Gave us a feeling so strong;
We never knew what had happened
'til we'd been carried along.

Our classes, sports, and activities
Will be things of our past,
But the friends that we've gained
Will undoubtedly last.

19

Amidst the lavender and silver auro of spring-filled romance, the twenty-seventh day of April 1985 was an enchanted evening to remember. Every time we hear the lyrics of "I Can't Fight This Feeling," we will be taken back to the moment when Scott Bartelme and Amy VandenLangenberg were crowned King and Queen and were joined by their court of Mark Lahay and Corene Chartraw, Eric DeBruin and Kim Novak, Todd Holtz and Tami Manders, Harlan Drepfal and Chris Ambrosius to music by Starfire.

PROM

85

ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT

The 1985 Junior Prom was planned by Chairmen Stacie Hasser and Chris Ambrosius. They also headed the decorating committee.

HOMECOMING — IT'S A CELEBRATION

Seymour's 1985 Homecoming will long be remembered. Students started the week with "Hat and Shades Day." Tuesday was "Beach Day," Wednesday was "Formal Day," Thursday was "Toga Day," and Friday was "Red and White Day"

Aloha, Carol!

Back In Time

California Girls!

Because of the triumphant victory over the Redbirds, Seymour vaulted heroically to the top of the Bay Conference with a 4 and 1 record, thus making this year's homecoming all the more exciting.

CHERISH THE NIGHT SEPTEMBER 27, 1985

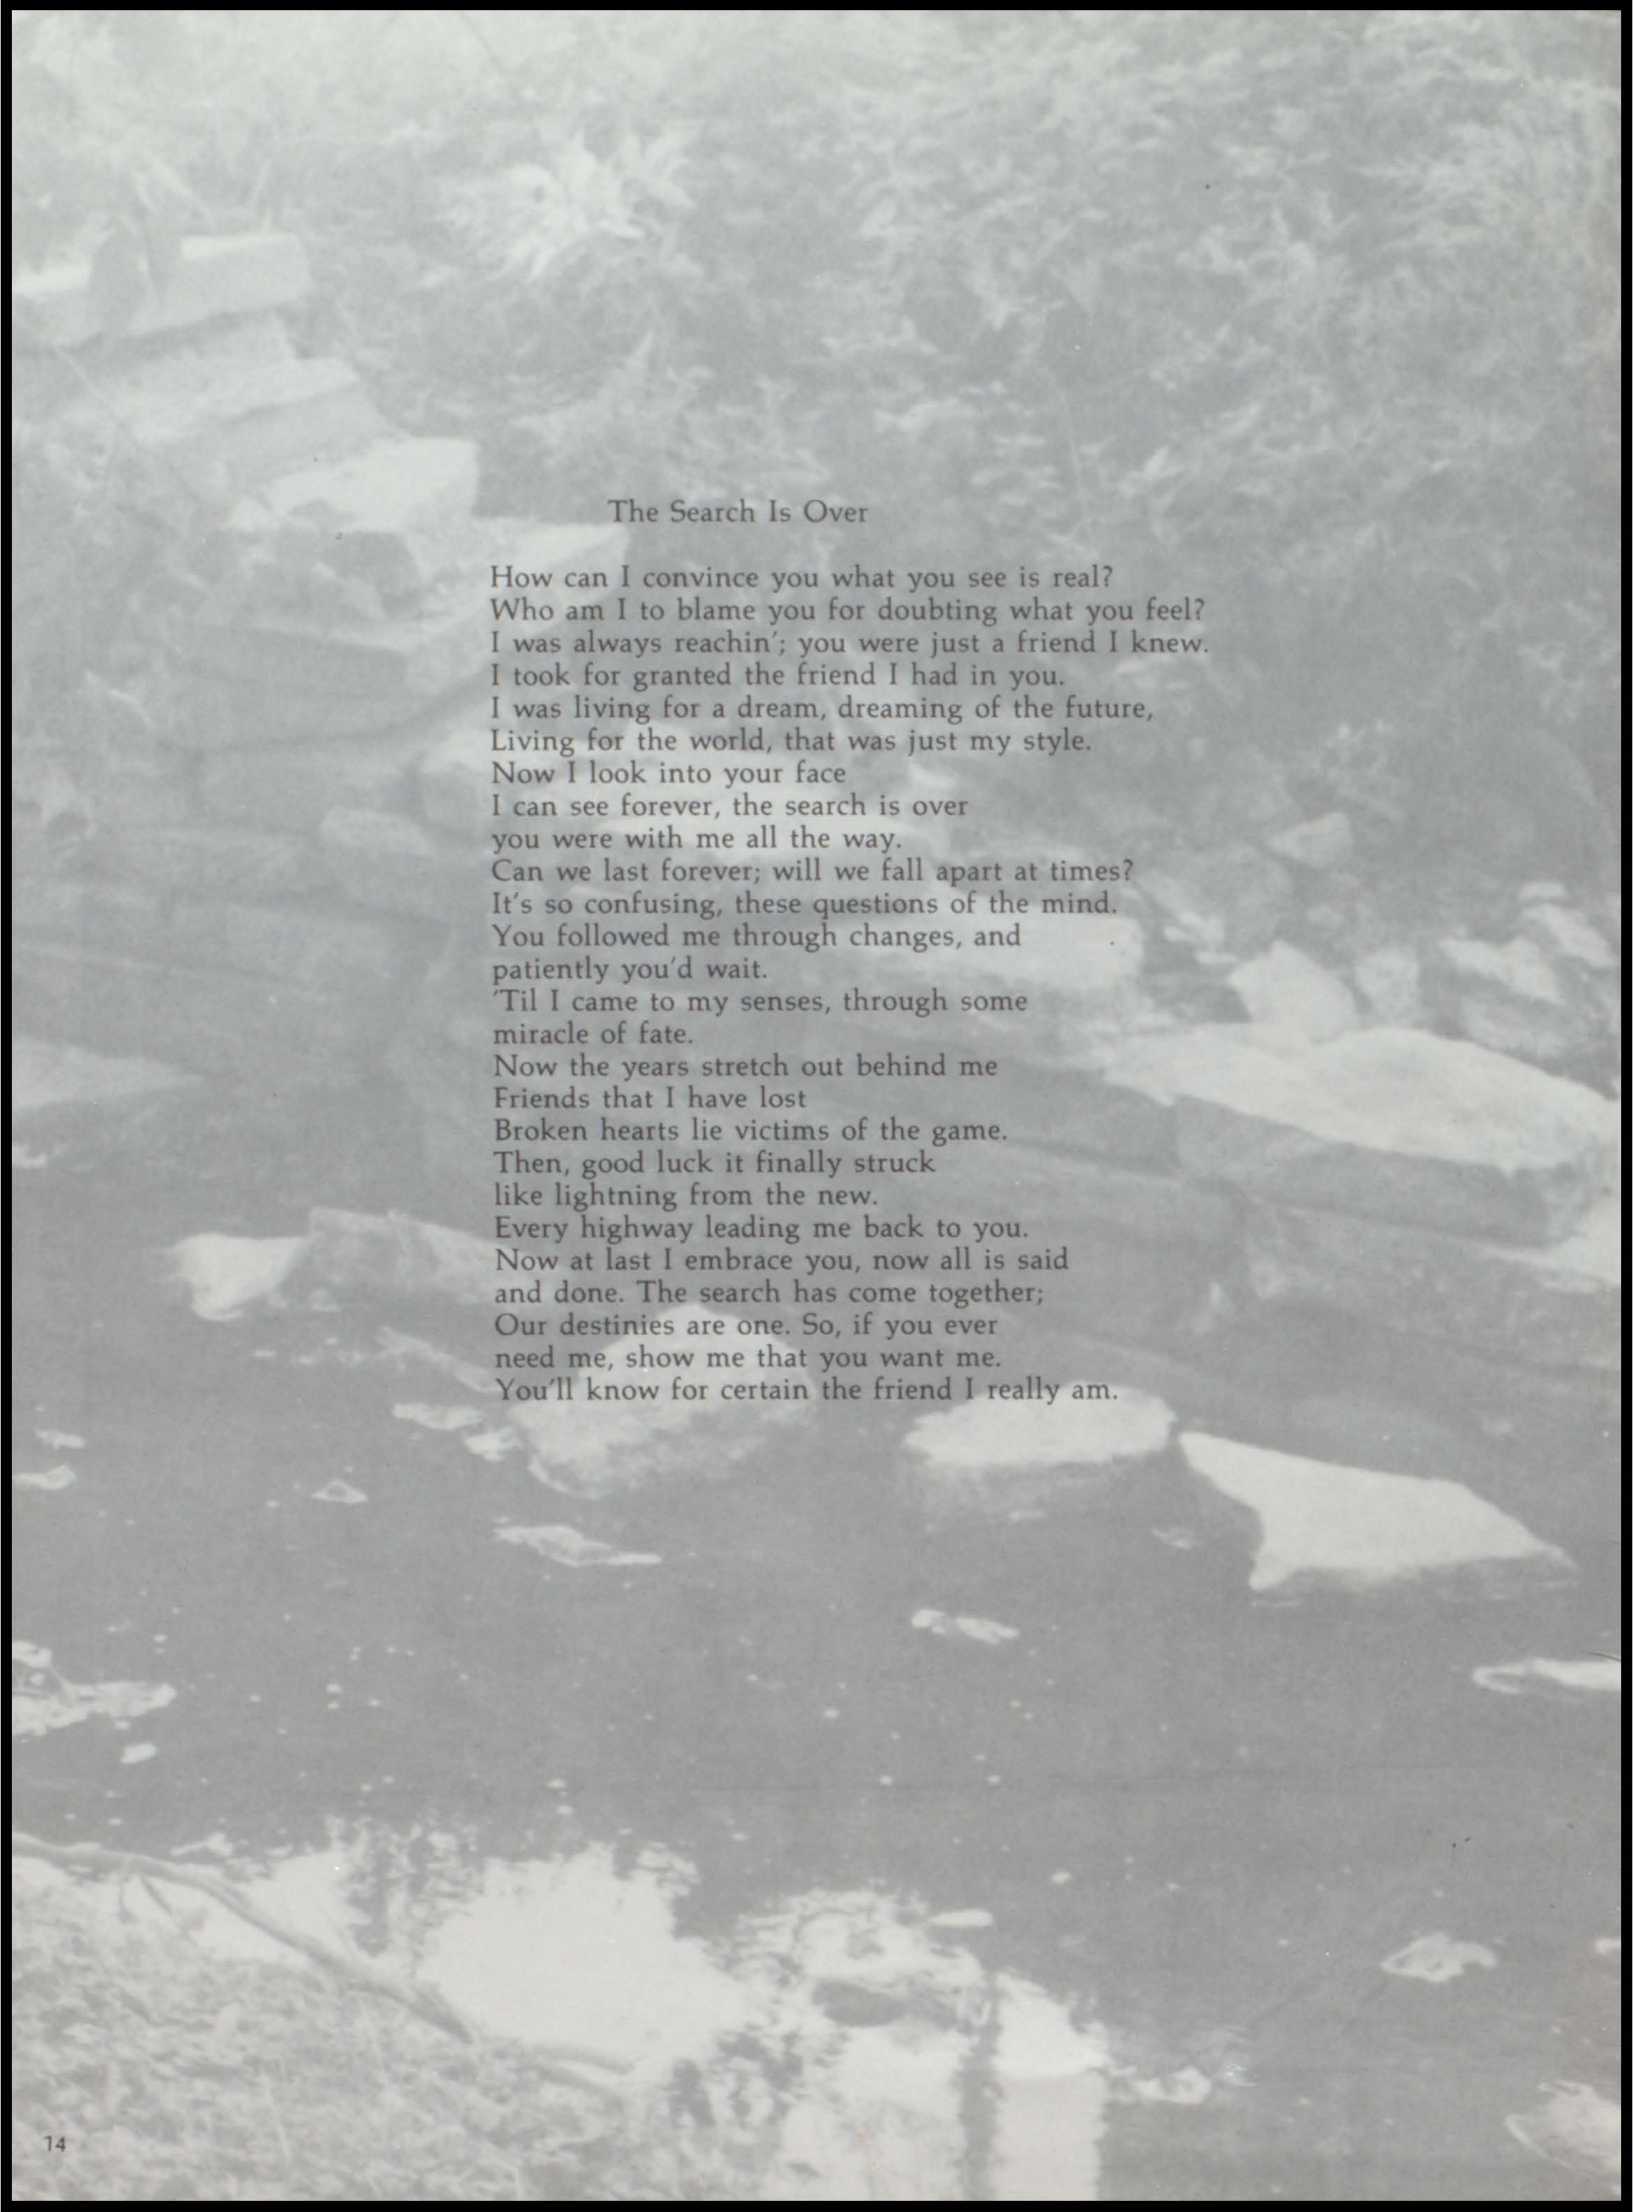

Through the team's performance both in the assembly and on the field — not to mention the participation and spirit shown by the students -- and the Homecoming Band Headliner, it is clear without a doubt that Seymour's Homecoming '85 was indeed a smashing success.

The Search Is Over

How can I convince you what you see is real?
Who am I to blame you for doubting what you feel?
I was always reachin'; you were just a friend I knew.
I took for granted the friend I had in you.
I was living for a dream, dreaming of the future,
Living for the world, that was just my style.
Now I look into your face
I can see forever, the search is over you were with me all the way.
Can we last forever; will we fall apart at times?
It's so confusing, these questions of the mind.
You followed me through changes, and patiently you'd wait.
'Til I came to my senses, through some miracle of fate.
Now the years stretch out behind me
Friends that I have lost
Broken hearts lie victims of the game.
Then, good luck it finally struck like lightning from the new.
Every highway leading me back to you.
Now at last I embrace you, now all is said and done. The search has come together;
Our destinies are one. So, if you ever need me, show me that you want me.
You'll know for certain the friend I really am.

SENIOR CLASS — WE

Sing a song of six pence

My singing buddy.

Oh ... Monday morning blues!

ARE THE WORLD!

Singing our life away.

"Let's Dance"

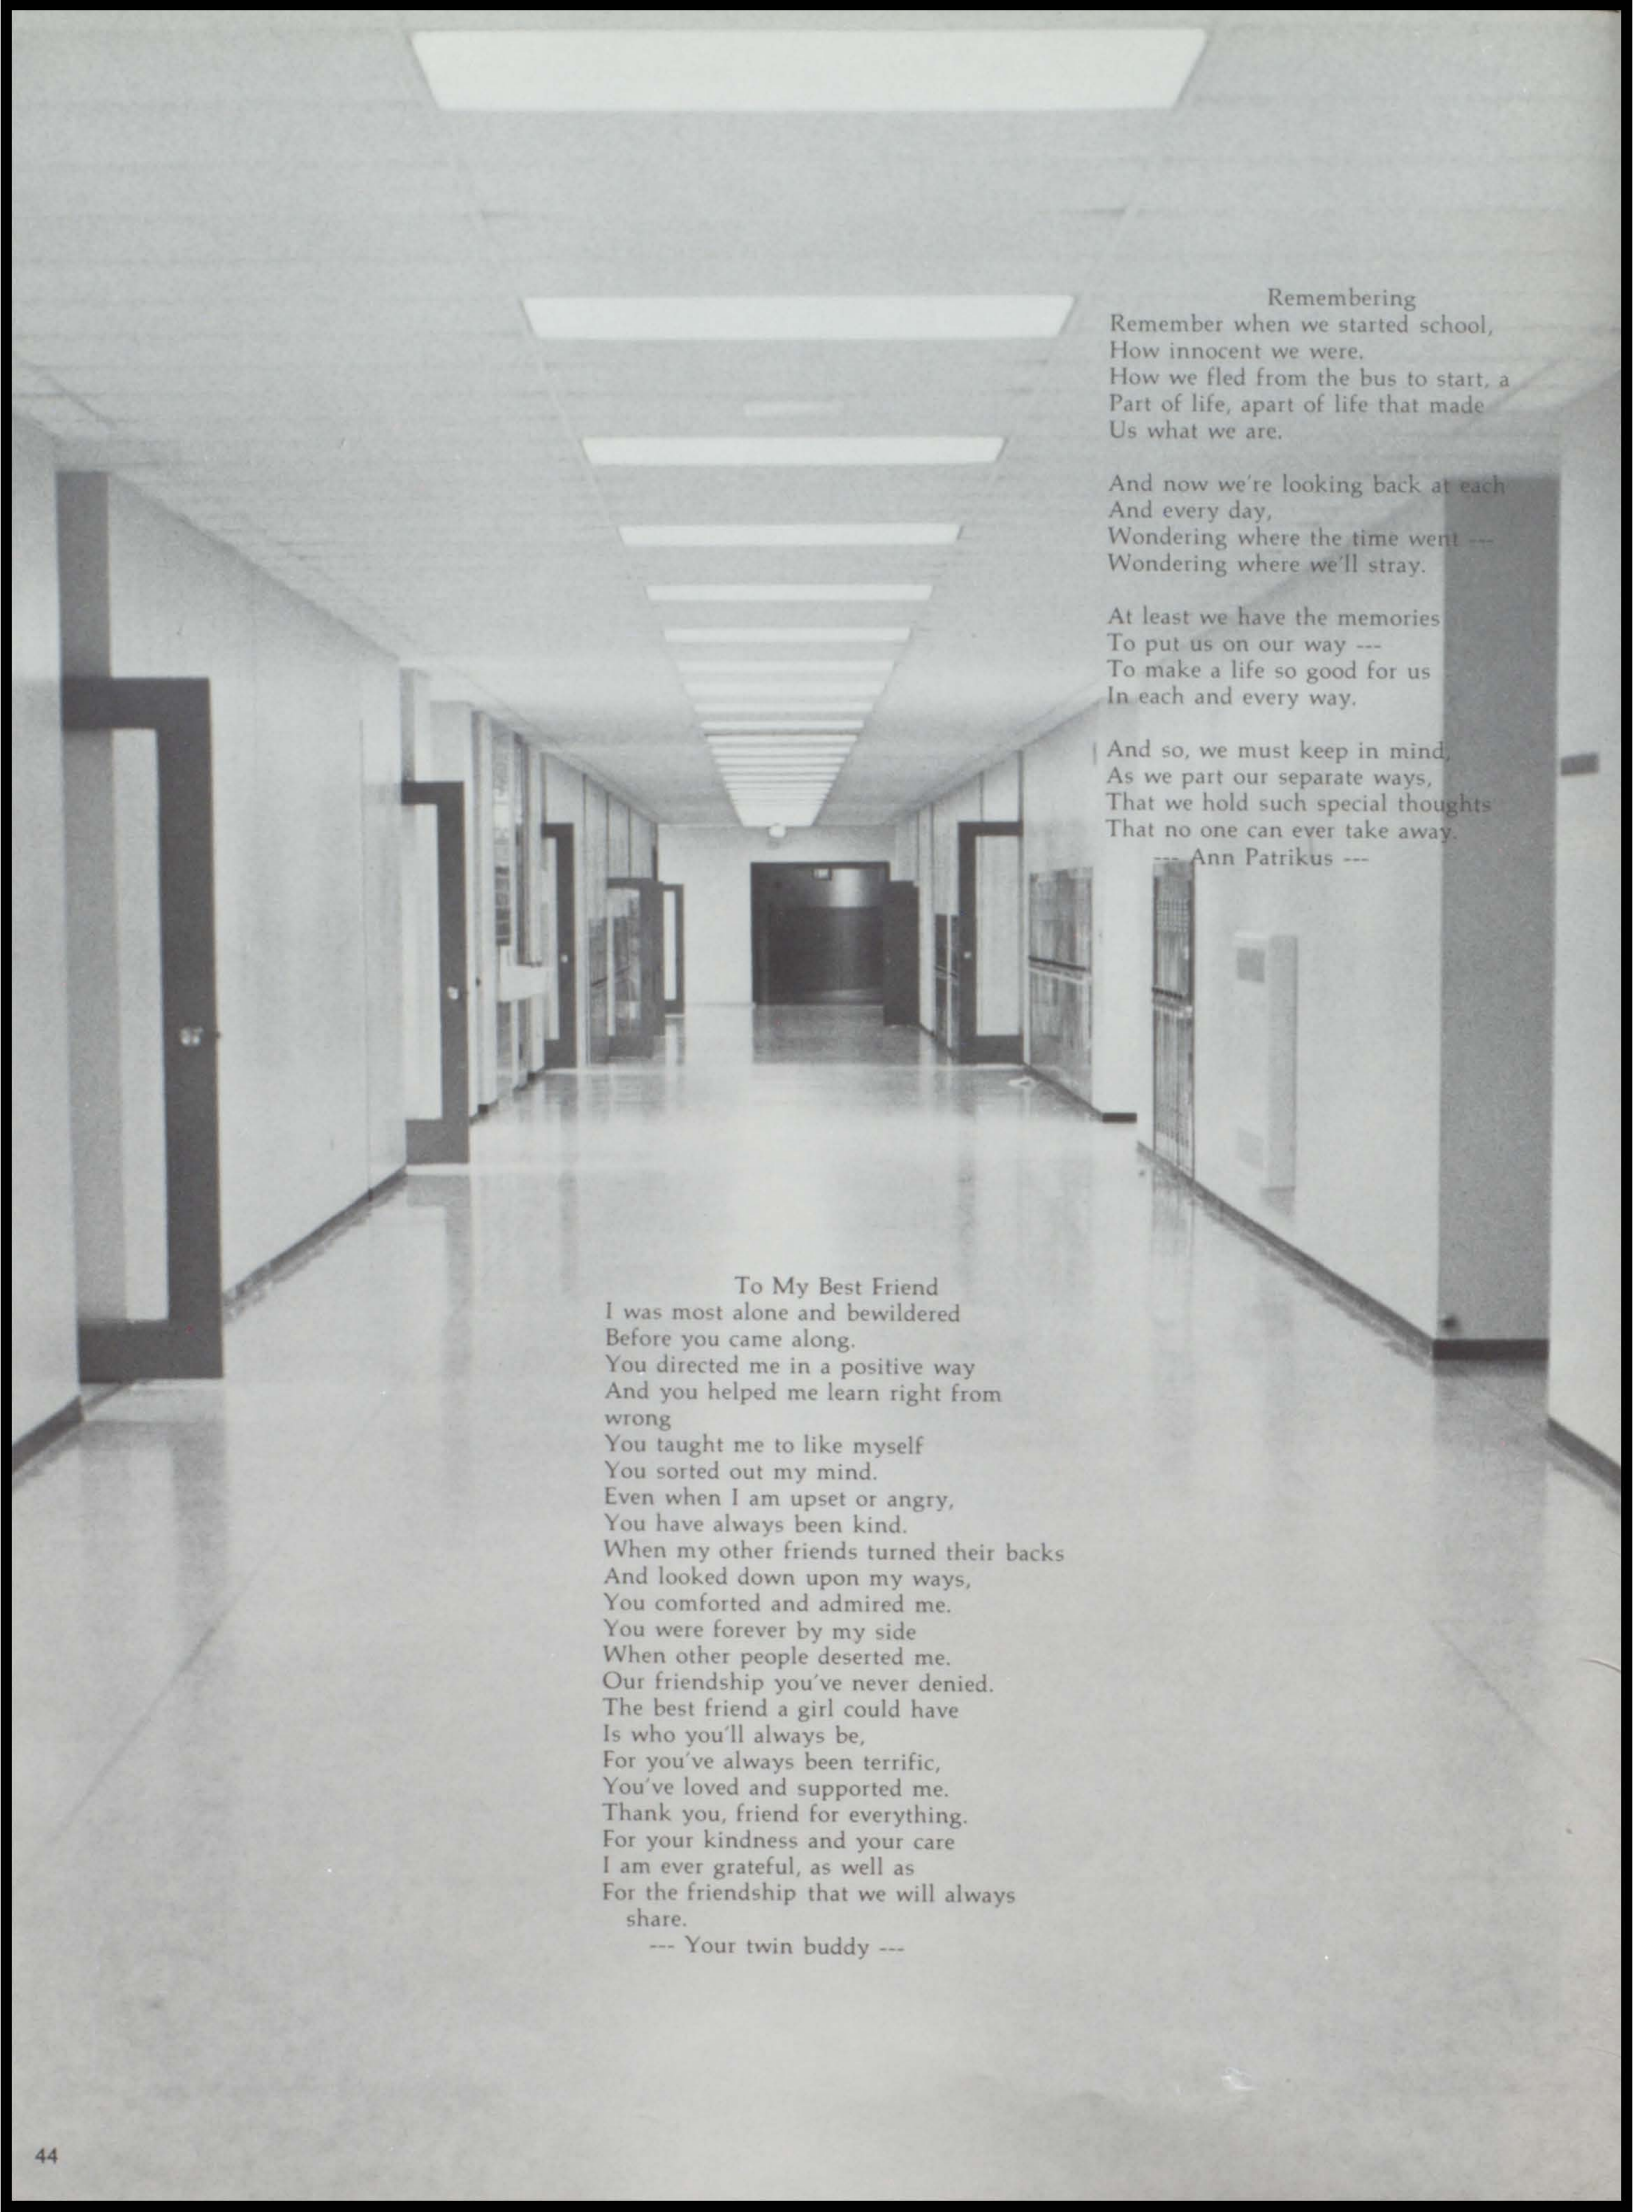

Anybody for the...

we don't even have...
We're blinded with science.

Remembering
Remember when we started school,
How innocent we were.
How we fled from the bus to start, a
Part of life, apart of life that made
Us what we are.

And now we're looking back at each
And every day,
Wondering where the time went ---
Wondering where we'll stray.

At least we have the memories
To put us on our way ---
To make a life so good for us
In each and every way.

And so, we must keep in mind,
As we part our separate ways,
That we hold such special thoughts
That no one can ever take away.

--- Ann Patrikus ---

To My Best Friend

I was most alone and bewildered
Before you came along.
You directed me in a positive way
And you helped me learn right from wrong
You taught me to like myself
You sorted out my mind.
Even when I am upset or angry,
You have always been kind.
When my other friends turned their backs
And looked down upon my ways,
You comforted and admired me.
You were forever by my side
When other people deserted me.
Our friendship you've never denied.
The best friend a girl could have
Is who you'll always be,
For you've always been terrific,
You've loved and supported me.
Thank you, friend for everything.
For your kindness and your care
I am ever grateful, as well as
For the friendship that we will always share.

--- Your twin buddy ---

Seymour teams win big!

The Ripper Yearbook Staff would like to dedicate this page to our champions in football and volleyball. To Coach Collar, to Coach Gillespie, to the football players (state champions of Division 3), and to the volleyball players (second best team of the Class B schools) --- thank you for making this year a great one. We are proud of your accomplishments. Congratulations!

THE WAY YOU DO THE THINGS YOU DO

Identifying students in pictures was only one job that staff members like Diane and Karen (shown here) did on the yearbook.

"Our Golden Year" was the theme of this year's RIPPER. It turned out to be an appropriate theme.

By using various song titles for headlines of the sections, the book was transformed into a one of song.

Coeditors Karen Kneisler and Ann Patrikus spent part of the summer attending a yearbook workshop in Ripon and collecting ads for the yearbook.

The yearbook staff spent time after school on Tuesday and Thursdays recording the 1985-1986 year. Mr. Payne also spent those Tuesdays and Thursdays helping the staff.

SHOUT!

Student Council, headed by Mr. Diedrick, is a group elected to represent the student body. The group makes decisions for the improvement of the school and community. Student council is responsible to ensure that all school activities and special events are handled successfully.

Badger Girls' State, held at UW-Madison, and Badger Boys' State, held at Ripon College, are week-long seminars on our governmental system. The students, chosen on the basis of leadership ability, were Molly Sass, Scott Langteau, and Brandon Cooper. The students spent a week experiencing mock government, elections, and trials. It was also a fun-experience.

ON, WISCONSIN!

"GIVE MY REGARDS TO BROADWAY"

"Louder, I Can't Hear You" was the title of this year's one-act play. The plot was that of an every day family in which the mother is often taken for granted. The mother tries to alert her family that she has feelings too. But, alas, she realizes things will never change.

The cast and stage crew and director (Mr. James Bowker) put in many hours of practice. They participated in the conference and the regional contests.

Forensics is an activity that consists of much more than just giving speeches. The students who go out for this activity have many categories to choose from. Expressing feelings, gaining self-confidence, and learning to take criticism are only a few benefits that the members gain from this activity.

The students participate at local, conference, sub-district, and district competitions. There is also a state competition in Madison at the University of Wisconsin.

As well as it being quite a year for the football team, it was quite a year for the Seymour Band. After receiving first place at the State Fair in the Class B category, the band started the school year by attending Band Day in Madison and seeing a University of Wisconsin football game there. However, this wasn't the only trip the band would make to Madison this year.

NEW UNIFORMS AND PLAYOFF GAMES!

As it turned out, the band was kept busy by playing for the football team and the volleyball team state championship play-off games.

Along with all of this, the band received new uniforms that were worn for the first time at a concert that was held in March of 1986.

The group put motion to various popular hits such as "Ease on Down the Road," "I Can't Fight This Feeling," "Rhythm of the Night," and others throughout the year. The group was invited to many meetings and banquets of local organizations to perform. The group has worked out after school, on weekends, and during vacation periods in order to improve.

Mixed chorus, made up of both male and female voices, supplies our ears with many exciting concerts each year. This year's group, directed by Miss Diane Mael, made an effort to enhance its singing ability. The group traveled to nearby schools to see various musicals and other vocal productions to help improve its own techniques. Much class time was spent not only singing but also learning about how and why they sound the way they do. The group's aim is to not only sing but to learn about music and regard singing as a very special talent.

1986: "OUR GOLDEN YEAR"

As we looked back upon our school year, we realize that we had many times to celebrate. The football and volleyball teams going to state were just the start of good times to come. The concert presented by 'Free Fare' also added a highlight to our school year. The pictures on this page, expressing some of our good times, should spark your memory.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society, under the direction of Mr. George Behrendt, is a group of inducted students who have qualified because they possess leadership, scholarship, and good character. These students are invited to join the group through an induction ceremony in the spring.
