Seymour High School's Prom — 1987

A Special Night To . . . Get A Little closer

The night of April 25, 1987, marked the Junior Prom. Co chairpersons Trisha Blake and Lisa Lemmens led the decorating of the gymnasium in hundreds of black, red, and white decorations. Under the canopy the crowd danced to the theme song, "This Could Be the Night", played by the band XL. Later in the evening 1986 Prom King and Queen David Klemp and Connie Schultz gave up their crowns to the new King and Queen Brad Stephani and Laura Chartraw. Couples were King Brad Stephanie and Queen Laura Chartraw, Terry Burmeister and Jodi Stingle, Bob Oskey and Kim Reed, Scott Palubicki and Lisa Lemmens, and Keith Moehring and Chris Van-DenBosch. The Junior Class was privileged to be the first class to use the gymnasium for Prom since 1969.

A Spécial Memory

Time endears
But cannot fade
The memories
That love has made.

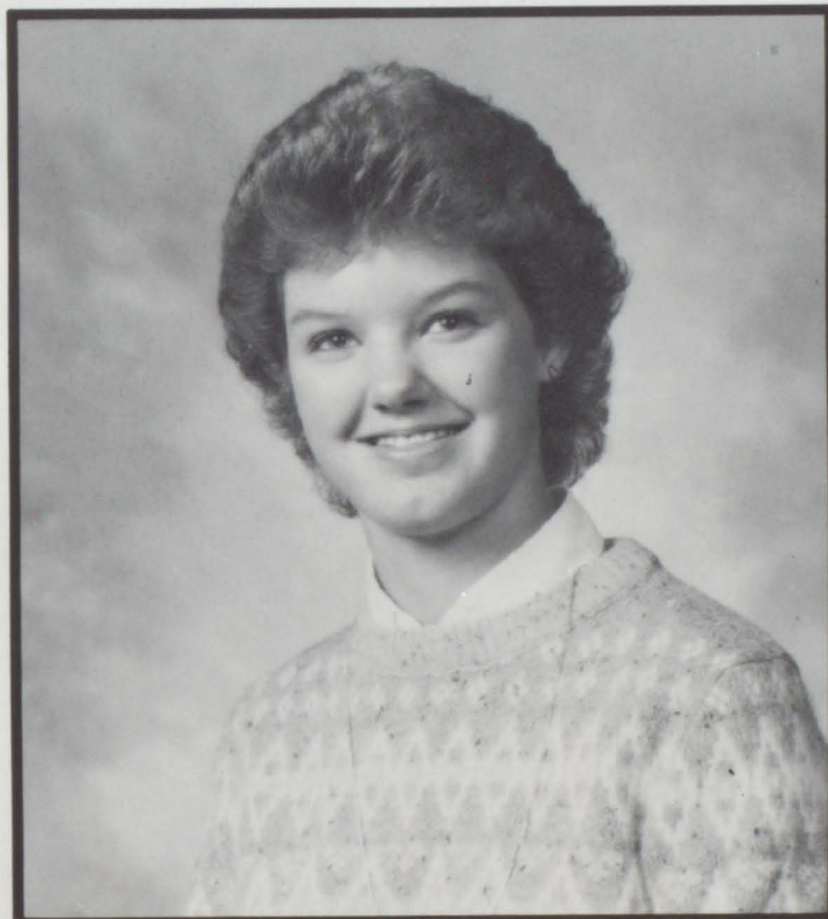

So young,
So much to live for,
Her hopes, her dreams,
Taken away.
No longer will she laugh,
Or cry, or love.

For her short time here,
She cared about others,
And made them care.
Those who loved her
Remember her
And the love is taken
Before it has begun.
But the lives she touched
Will never be the same.

The innocent die young,
And she was chosen
To be a victim of violence,
Pain and suffering
In the last moments
Of her short life.

To her graduating classmates,
She lives in our memory,
And to her we dedicate
These few words.

We love you, Diane

D.A.R.

Staci Sievert was chosen by the students and faculty on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism for the DAR Good Citizens Award. Staci then wrote how she had portrayed these qualities and what services she had done for her home, church,

I wonder if he knows what I know.

I left my teeth at home.

Must be a blonde.

Which one looks more like me?
