Members of the student body:

Another year has passed. To some this is the final year of their high school adventure, and to others the path looks long and narrow. But for everyone there will come a time to look back and relive these years.

The members of the Ripper Staff have worked many long hours to capture the memorable events of this past school year. We hope that within these pages you will find memories to look back on in the years to come. We would like to thank everyone who made this book a success. Special thanks go to William Meyer and Michelle Greendeer for adding their artistic talent to the yearbook.

We wish the seniors the best of luck in their future hopes and dreams. To the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen: good luck in the following school years.

We would like to dedicate the following poem to the members of the senior class:

*Good Luck,
Penny Schampers
Melanie Stover*

In The Course Of Time

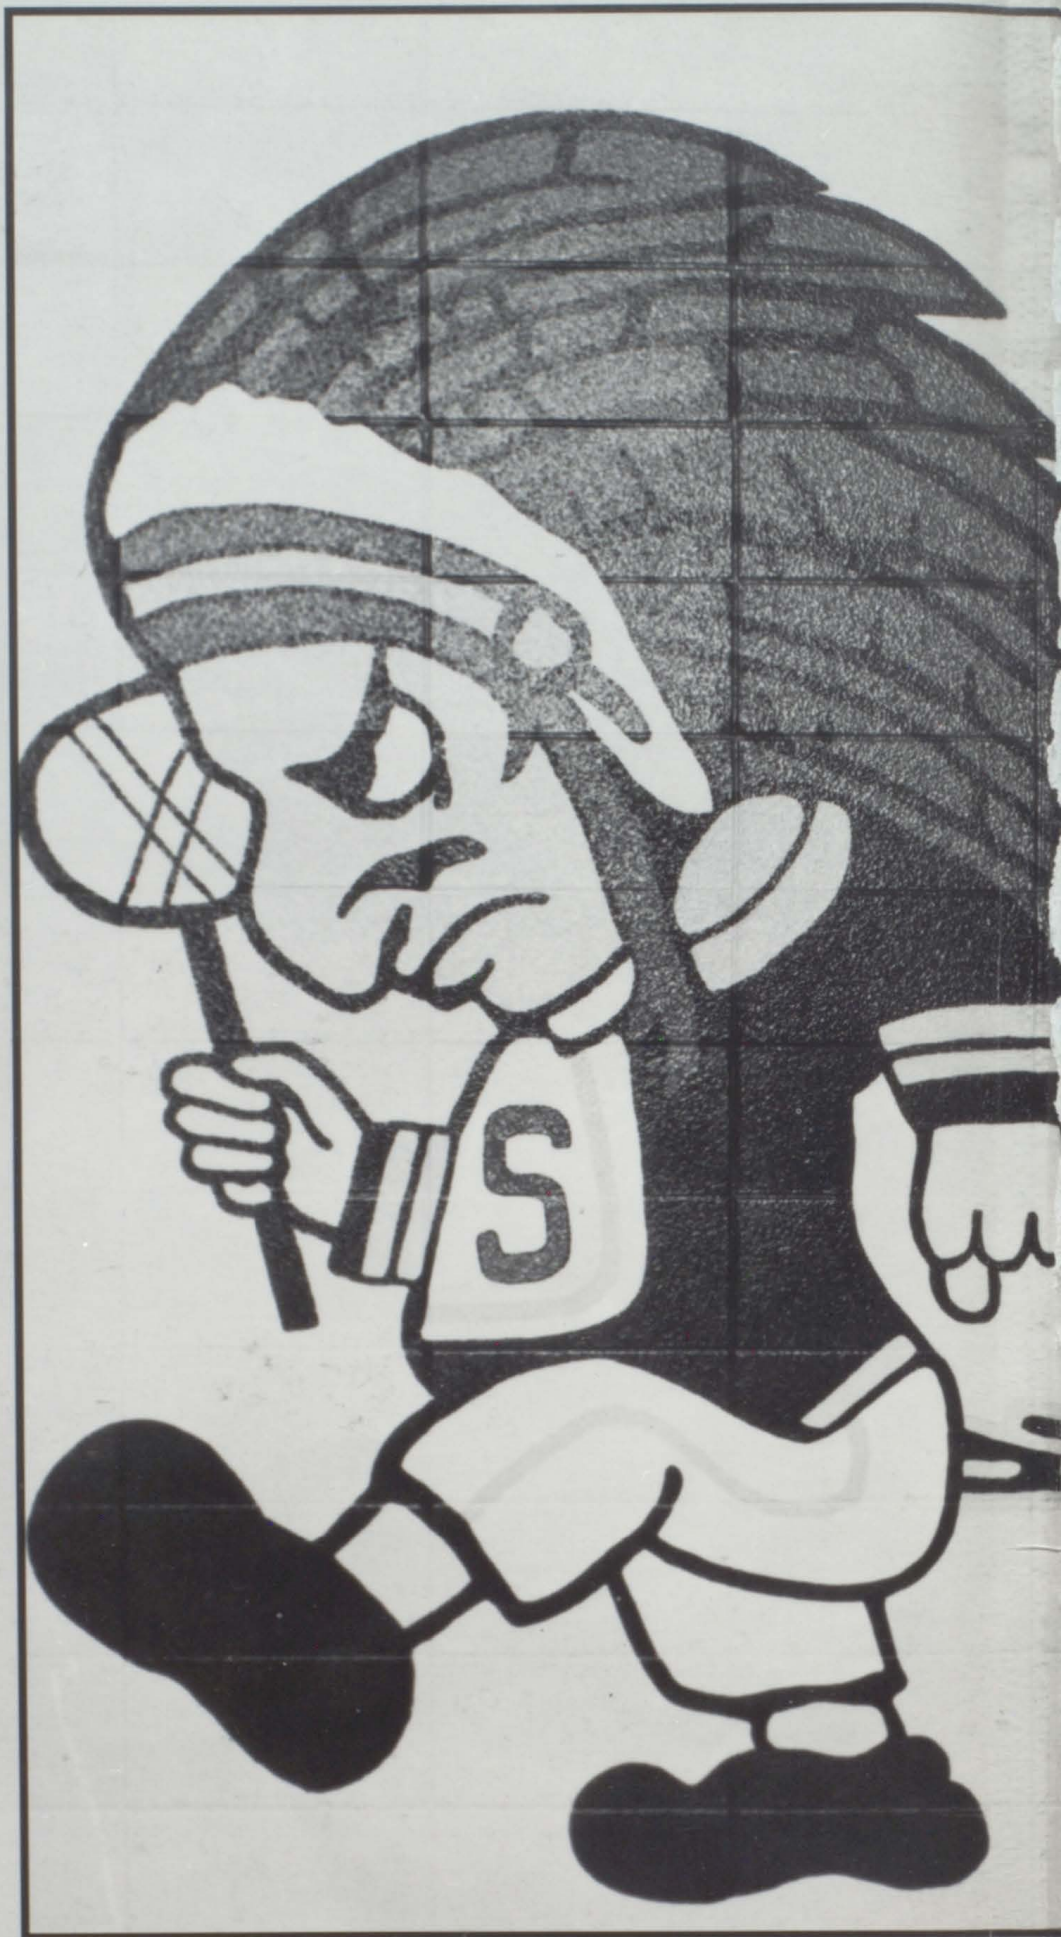

The feeling . . .
Of time rushing past
So quickly- too quickly!
Many friends will soon leave
To go out on their own,
Bringing closer thoughts of my future,

I feel . . .
As if I'm sprinting through the days
Out of breath, wanting to slow the pace,
Slow the hours to minutes
To savor each more fully.

To postpone the future-
Scared of what will come,
The changes I may not like.

I wish . . .
For everyone and everything
To remain the same,
To keep the closeness
And affection of my friends,
For time to stand still.

If not,
Then for life always to be as good
As now.

Seymour Sinks The Pirates: 23-20

Homecoming 1989. The excitement began with week-long night excursions of toilet-papering the entire town white. A pep assembly Friday, 7th hour, helped rally the Indians to victory in their September 29 game against the Bayport Pirates. Through a tight game, Indian spirit pulled the team together to edge out the Pirates: 23-20. Halftime entertainment was provided by the band and pom-pom squad.

Celebration for the awesome victory started with the annual homecoming dance at which Jesse Nitzke & Kelly Ciesielczyk were crowned King and Queen. Other court couples were: Glen VerVoort & Julie Johnson, Chadwick Campbell & Dawn Malcheski, Scott Coonen & Sue Mullen, and Vaughn Zuleger & Nikki Bergsbaken.

May the Pirates parrot perish, in the hands of the invincible, indestructible Indians!

Go, Tim, Go!!

Pep Assembly

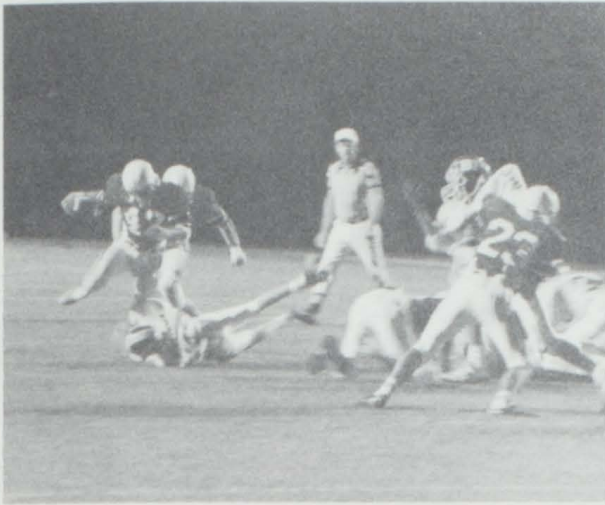

Coach Collar fires-up his team for the volleyball challenge.
The court plays Win, Lose, or Draw a teacher!

Senior football players judge world class cheers.

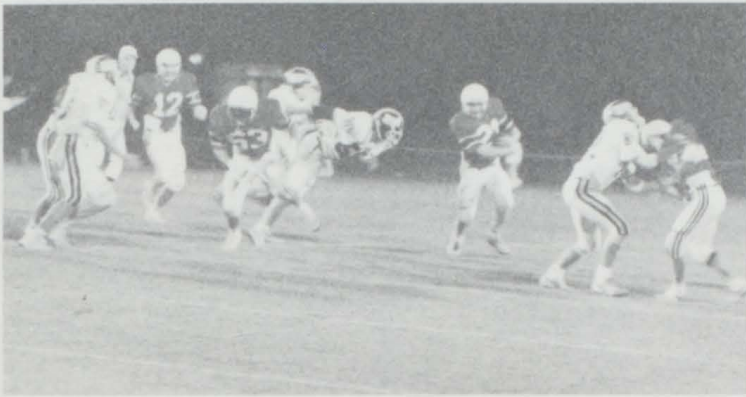

The Big Game

Just a tip-toe through the Pirates for yardage.

Come on, ref, give us a break!

It's my ball. You can't have it!

Wave good-bye to this one!

Well, what cheer should we do now?

"When I'm With You" Junior Prom - 1989

The lights were dimmed and the couples moved closer as the Junior Prom of 1989 began. King and Queen Jesse Nitzke and Julie Johnson received their crowns from former King and Queen Jared Blake and Kelly Reed, amidst royal blue, satin black, and shimmering silver decorations. Jesse and Julie began dancing to the theme song "When I'm With You," by Sheriff, as the rest of the court joined in: Chadwick Campbell and Kelly Ciesielczyk, Glen VerVoort and Dawn Malcheski, Scott Coonen and Laurie Sterr, and Jim Kaczrowski and Stephani Grall.

Co-chairpersons Amy Marcks and Laurie Sterr worked endlessly to make Prom night, Saturday, April 22, 1989, a night to remember.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The Interpretation of Myth

The important thinkers Carl G. Jung and Claude Levi-Strauss have presented relevant theories of mythic thinking and have proposed useful methods for analyzing myths. For the purposes of this paper I will first present the theoretical foundation of each of these men, then I will use the example of the White Buffalo Woman Myth in the book Black Elk Speaks to demonstrate how the theories apply to a specific myth, and finally I will compare the interpretations and theories of Jung versus Levi-Strauss.

Jung puts primary stress on the origin of mythic thinking as proceeding from the unconscious psyche. Jung, interested in the workings of the mind, came up with a theory (based on Freud) in which the mind is divided into the rational, individualistic consciousness, and the dual unconscious consisting of a personal and collective unconscious, and the unconscious also consists of a sexual personality the opposite of the conscious (animus versus anima). Jung, interested in the workings of the mind, came up with a theory (based on Freud) in which the mind is divided into the rational, individualistic consciousness, and the dual unconscious consisting of a personal and collective unconscious, and the unconscious also consists of a sexual personality the opposite of the conscious (animus versus anima). Personal repressed aspects of the ego. Myths are important in the way they cause the unconscious to know projections closely to these projections.

In the spring of 1989, three groups participated in the O.M. regional competition. The group seen in the photographs chose to solve the problem "Cause & Effect." For its style, the group had two aliens land on Earth and give a three Earthlings a peace offering in the shape of a billiard ball. This ball rolled down three tracks and, through the 12 tasks, stopped hunger and poverty, cleaned the environment, and achieved world peace. This group was Amy Nachtwey, Dan Kirchner, Jody Schneider, Vicki Moeller, Anders Westby, Jenny Kurczek. They placed 2nd and received a Renatra Fusca award for their creativity.

The "Ye, Gods" team, with Jerry Kneisler, Jodie Schadrle, Tracy Wagner, Katea Moeller, & Jenny Zahn, also received 2nd place and a Renatra Fusca award. The Seymour High School Band performs for the Christmas and Spring Concerts, and Graduation. Some members participate in the annual Solo and Ensemble competitions for various medals. The entire band performs at Festival to compete with other bands in the area. The members voluntarily play Pep Band for sporting events throughout the year. The band livens up the spectators and participants with its loud, obnoxious, yet tasteful playing. Each year Ripon College invites the Pep Band to play for them. Being in the Seymour High School Band is an experience the members will never forget.
