SENIORS AT THE TOP

SENIOR YEAR, SENIOR SPIRIT.

For 12 years, this is what every kid prepares for. The fun, the work, the friends, the best and worst of times-they all come together senior year.

This Senior Class is like all the others; a bunch of kids on the brink of adulthood, ready for responsibility-but only after one last fling.

SENIOR FUN.
SENIOR FRIENDS.
SENIOR PRIVILEGE.
SENIOR FEAR.

All of these sum up what a teenager feels and experiences while "at the top". Being a senior doesn't just mean graduation; it means Homecoming and celebration, picking on freshman and causing trouble, changing times, and anxiety over what lies ahead.

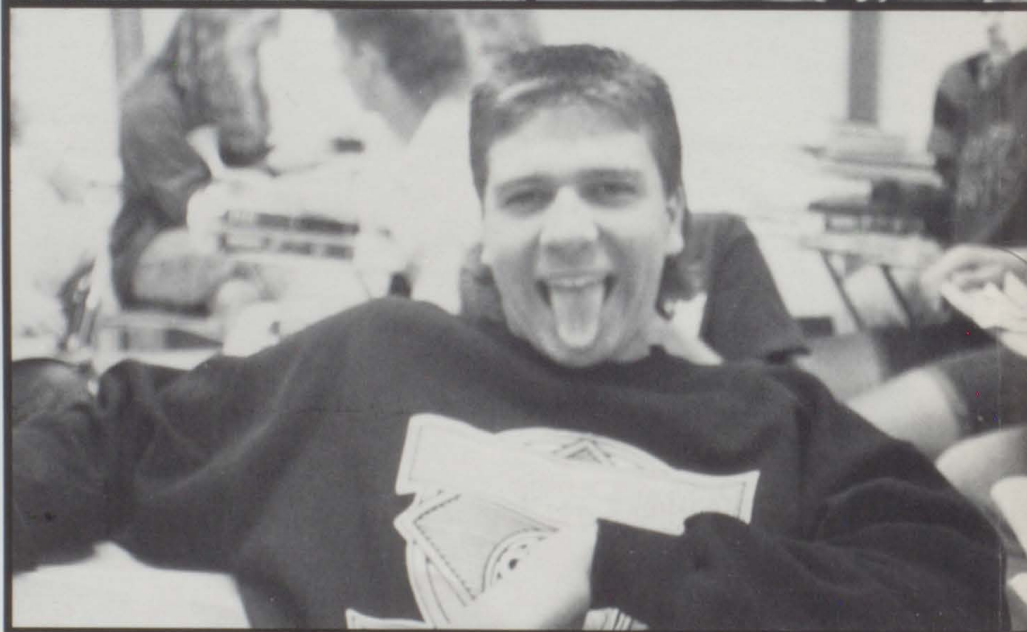

As the Class of '91 nears the end of its 12 year adventure, it is only appropriate to wish them luck for the future.

This yearbook is then dedicated to this year's graduating class. Perhaps this book will help them savor the good times of 1990-1991. And to the juniors, sophomores, and freshman left behind:

HA! WAIT 'TIL IT'S YOUR TURN!

Good luck to all of those seniors leaving this year and to all of those who have just a few years left to the best time of their lives.

WITHOUT YOU

Queen Tammy Beyer and King Scott Stevens presided over the 1990 Junior Prom. "WITHOUT YOU- Junior Prom 1990" was held in the Seymour High School gym.

Former King and Queen Jesse Nitzke and Kelly Ciesielczyk performed their crowning duties amidst emerald green and black. Jenny Luepke and Keith Blake, Ann Powless and Chris Linsmeyer, Jessica Brooks and Dean Diermeier, and Darlene Zahn and Brian VanBoxtel joined in dancing with Scott and Tammy as the theme, "Without You", by Motley Crue, began the Grand March.

Jody Schneider and Patsy Socha were dedicated co-chairpersons who made Junior Prom 1990 a special night for all.

HOMECOMING 1990

Homecoming 1990. Huge victory posters covered the walls. Once again students set out the banks in toilet paper. Wednesday's snow was only a slight setback, not nearly enough to dampen our spirits!

Among all this fun, students were participating in dress-up days. Participation was counted, and the Freshman Class came out on top. They earned free admission to the dance.

A memorable two hour assembly provided the team with spirit, and the Indians bombed the Marines 45-14.

Celebration was with Audio Experience in the commons. King and Queen Scott Stevens, and Annie Riehl were crowned. Other court member were Dean Diermeier and Sandee Spaulding, Brian VanWendt and Sarah Coller, Brian VanBoxtel and Dar Zahn, and Keith Blake and Jenny Luepke. "More Than Words Can Say" by Alias put the finishing touch on a spectacular week.

In Memory Of

Mr. Paulson

On May 24, 1990, Seymour High School's students and faculty suffered the loss of a great teacher and friend when Mr. Paulson was killed in an automobile accident.

Mr. Paulson was an avid hunter and fisherman, and he spent a great deal of time outdoors when not busy at school. He is sadly missed by family, friends, and students.

SEYMOUR
DEFENSE:
RED
RIPE READY!

The 1991 season was the most exciting ever for Indian Boys' basketball. Since he arrived in Seymour, Coach Murphy has implemented a rigorous basketball program for his team. This year, the hard work, practice, and long hours are paying off.

The success of this year's basketball team not only ignited the Indians' fans, but also kept the newspapers busy. Articles covered Shawn King's 30-point outing against Shawano, Dean Dorn's last-minute free throws against Bay Port, and TY Cornell's outstanding performance as the last in a long line of Cornell athletes here in Seymour. Stemming from all of this individual success is a 15-4 record for a team trailing only undefeated Pulaski.

The typically competitive Bay Conference was no different this year. A tough Raider team topped the conference the entire season, behind them a logjam between Ashwaubenon, DePere, and our Indians. The year was highlighted by an exciting 1-point loss to Pulaski early in the season and a double overtime victory over the Jaguars.

In looking ahead to the state tournament, the boys had to prepare for Pulaski. Another tough matchup against the same tough team- but this year, our team is capable and ready to take on the challenge.

GIRLS' HOOPS ON TOP IN THE BAY

VARSITY

The girls' basketball team had an uncertain start to its 1991 season but rallied back to win 12 consecutive games and end with a 16-3 record. Seniors Jenny Luepke, Jodi Minlschmidt, Sandee Spaulding, and Cindy Otto led the team, and junior Tanya Kuhn provided the finishing touch to this talented group of athletes. Additional support from Leslie Anderson, Stephanie Linsmeyer, Jessica Rudnick, and Tina Genske solidified the Indian attack.

Numerous victories put Seymour in position to take first place in the Bay Conference, and with an exciting win at home on February 1st over top ranked Bayport, the girls created a logjam in the Bay. A four-way tie between the Indians, Bayport, DePere, and Pulsaki set the stage for a competitive finale to the season and provided an exciting glimpse into the upcoming state tournament. Hard work, talent, and dedication enabled the girls to succeed. Congratulations on a super year!

DARE
DIFFERENT!

Co-Editors Teresa Hilgenberg and Tammy Beyer led a team of students in creating the 1990 Seymour High School Ripper. "Dare To Be Different" is the theme; hopefully it is a fitting one for our school. The yearbook is not only dedicated to the class of '91 but is also a chronology of the people and events which shaped the 1990-1991 school year. As you look through this book, you will be able to remember the fun of Homecoming, friends, teachers, and all the others who were a part of your life. That's the purpose of a yearbook: to provide a lasting remembrance of high school. I hope we have been able to achieve this. Finally, a special thanks to Randy and Debbie Peterson.

FACING GRADUATION

Faces of old and faces of new,
People we know and people we knew.
Growing together then drifting apart,
Always an ending and now a new start.
At graduation we all grow nearer,
And all of our friends seem so much dearer.
And as we say our final good-bye,
One last embrace and one more cry.
A "keep in touch" and a "promise I will,"
A "remember when," but better still
"A place in my heart, you'll always stay,"
This is what's said as we go our own way.

ORTEK ENVIRONMENTAL LABORATORY

While the rest of the world is just beginning to realize the importance of preserving the Earth, the Oneida Tribe is assuming its spiritual responsibility of caring for the Earth and blending it with the science of conserving the environment. This is being accomplished through the tribally owned business call ORTEK-the Oneida Environmental Technology Center. From our Iroquois teachings, we know the importance of respecting and caring for the Earth for the next seven generations. ORTEK has incorporated this philosophy into the basic motivation behind a expanding high-tech environmental analytical testing laboratory.

ORTEK provides chemical analytical testing services to private industries, engineering firms, and city, state, federal, and tribal governments. Soil, sludge, sediments, air and water samples are analyzed for contaminants. The laboratory also researches the effect and source of these pollutants. ORTEK does underground storage tank leak testing and groundwater and wastewater monitoring. New methods of environmental protection and pollution reduction have been developed based on ORTEK's test results.

ORTEK was created as a partnership between the Oneida Tribe and Foth and Van Dyke of Green Bay. The Oneida Tribe was looking to broaden its economic base outside gaming and to create opportunities for career fields for tribal members. Foth and Van Dyke, a national engineering firm, was looking to expand its existing environmental laboratory. The Oneida Tribe retains majority ownership and managing control of ORTEK.

ORTEK has three principal goals to accomplish. The employment goal is to employ Indians and non-Indians in an atmosphere blending all cultures. The business goal is to maintain a prosperous and profitable company. The spiritual goal ties it all together by attending to the responsibility of protecting and honoring the Earth for seven generations in to the future.

ORTEK is part of a tribal vision which blends culture and tradition with science and technology to conserve and repair what has always been a primary concern of Native American people--the Earth and its environment.
