In Memory Of Chanda D. Keeney

May she walk in the sunshine, and the flowers around her grow, for the happiness she brought us, no one will ever know. It broke our hearts to lose her, but she did not go alone. For part of us went with her the day God called her home. Though her smile is gone forever and her hand we cannot touch, we have wonderful memories of the classmate we loved so much. If we could have one lifetime wish and dream that would come true. We'd pray to God with all our hearts for yesterday and you.

Cherish Yesterday

Dream Tomorrow

Live Today

Class Motto Of

Ninety Four

The memories we've shared,
The times we've had together,
They will stay with us always,
— goodbye is not forever.

I will always remember the times we shared.
We are the best of friends for I know you cared,
In times of good and times of bad,
When I was happy or when you were sad.
Always remember that I am here.
You can lean on me through every tear.
The future will take us our seperate ways,
But you will be in my heart for always.
We don't know what we will be,
But do not forget these memories of me.

Karen Burger

If You Were At The Gates Of Heaven And God Granted You One Phone Call, Who Would You Call?

Call my mom and dad to tell them I'll be late. -Robyn Radeske

1-800-COLLECT-that's a long call!
-Marty Otto-

1-900-HOT-HOT and the rest would be history. -Jeff Rafeld-

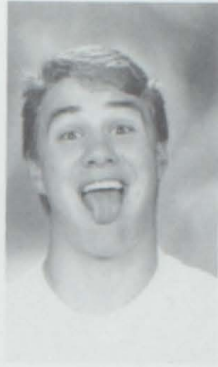

Call Mr. Sass and ask him to memorize where Heaven is.

Ghostbusters! -Nicky Vandermoss-

At Face Value

What Has Been Your Most Embarrassing Moment

At the BayPort Cross Country Meet I dropped my shorts 30 seconds before the race. -Laurie Fischer-

When I was the first one to realize Mr. McQuillan's zipper was down- XYZPDQ! -Robyn Radeske-

When I fell on the Christmas tree in the library. -Eric Lambie-

Finding blown-up colored condoms in my locker. -Jeff Rafeld-

I had a book accident and rolled down the hall like a bowling ball. -Richie Samson-

In Memory Of Scott Ryan Rettler

We loved you, Scott, for the 16 years we had you. Scott, you made our lives a joy, a pleasure to have all the loving memories of you.

Our precious son Scott, we gave your eyes for another to see because you were such a giving, loving son and brother.

If you only knew how much we cared,
How much it meant, the time shared.

A place in our hearts there will forever be,
If I could have my way you'd be here by me.

As we remember back throughout the years,
We remember the good times and fight back the tears.

Your cocky smile we'll always remember,
And your birthday on the 12th of September.

Who would have thought it would end this way,
You had so much left to say.

This all seems like a nightmare,
But sometimes life is just not fair.

Who would have thought it would happen to the most popular guy.
Thinking about it makes us want to cry.

In our hearts there will always be a place,
For your unforgettable, familiar face.

We'll always remember you, Scott Rettler,
Because this goodbye is not forever!

Badger State

Jeff Marsh, Holly Schaumberg, Jesse Upp.

The candidates for Badger State are three students chosen on the basis of leadership, academics, and character. Each person spends a week participating in mock political campaigns, party caucuses, and elections with students from all over Wisconsin.

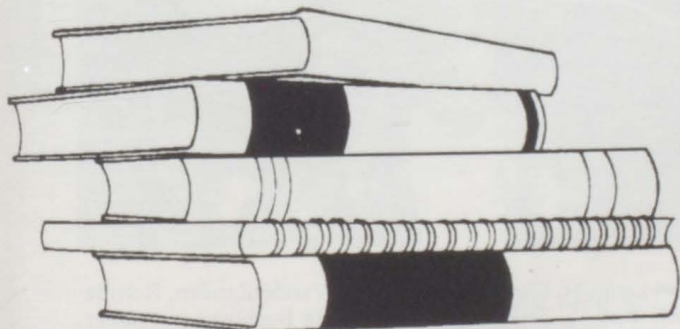

D.A.R.

Each year the Daughters of the American Revolution Award is given to an eligible senior. This year Jessica Rottier was chosen. She was elected by the faculty at Seymour High School based on dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA

NOV. 12, 13, 14
1993
 A SEYMOUR HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL PRODUCTION

Steve Willis portrays Curley, a ranch hand, who loves Laurey Williams (Sarah Krause).

Other cast members include: Rachel Nachtwey as the naive Ado Annie, Jim Schulte as Will, Annie's fiance, Brandy Kline as Matronly Aunt Eller, and Matt Swett as the peddler-man, Ali Hakim.

"Oh, What a Beautiful Morning"

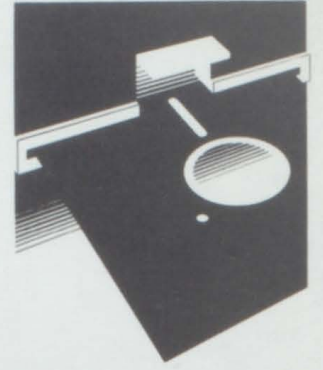

"Oklahoma"

This year's musical, Oklahoma, was performed November 12, 13, & 14 by High School and Middle School students. This refreshing production reminded Seymour how well a musical could be done. The success is to be credited to the director Mrs. Bankhead for her numerous devoted hours put into this production. From all of the cast, we love you Mrs. Bankhead.
