IN MEMORY OF LUCAS R. SCHMIDT

FRIEND DYING YOUNG

CLASSMATE AND FRIEND
SHALL WE NEVER COMPREHEND
WHY LIFE DID END?

COMPANION GONE TO REST
AND ALL WE'VE LEFT
A SILENT SHOUT OF PROTEST
A HOLLOW ECHO BURIED DEEP INSIDE
AN EMPTY VOID, PERPETUALLY BARREN

YEARS DRIFT BY
TORN HEARTS STILL MOURN
A SOMBER AUTUMN DAY
INNOCENCE STOLEN AWAY

AS EACH DAWN BRINGS FORTH NEW LIGHT
WE'VE RE-DISCOVERED
YOUR LIFE IS SUNLIGHT TO ALL

TIME EASES PAIN
DEAR MEMORIES REMAIN
YOUR CHARM, SMILE, SPIRIT, PRESENCE ...

ALL DEARLY MISSED
CLASS OF 97

In fond remembrance to our friend — Lucas
Schmidt
Seymour RITE Club
Sam Wickesberg, Shaun Swanson, Mark
Klesmit, Chris Maass, Amy Hilgenberg, Patty
Scheelk, Troy Eggert, Lee Stevens

I don't know how many of you believe in God or Heaven or anything, but what I do know is that we all search for a reason why. Why did he die so young? Why someone so nice? Why does anyone have to die at all? I don't know if you will agree with me but the way I see it is this: There are some people who are so good, that God loves so much, that He wants them in Heaven with Him. Some are just too good to go through all the rough times, the heartbreak, and all the other problems in this world. So He takes them home early. We all know what kind of guy Lucas was friendly, honest, and funny. He never had any enemies, only friends. And we all should be honored that we were blessed with one of these "good ones."

Only the good die young.
Shaun Swanson

Lucas,
It has been a long time since I saw you last. It seems like it was yesterday that we were all playing football in the mud. Your memory never fades and thoughts of you are as bright as day. I come to visit you sometimes. I know you are not there but it seems right to talk to you there. I know someday our paths will cross again and when I get up to the gates of Heaven, you make sure they let me in. I miss you.

Your Friend,
Jason Barry Schabo

We will always remember Luke for his caring heart, his considerate ways, and his thoughtful mind. Most of all we will remember him for his outgoing spirit, which will always live in our hearts.

Kristy VanSchyndel '97

A great looking man
always on our mind
who could never be forgotten
never be replaced

The memories always there for he never hurt anyone
for the tears we gave him
to only miss him now

To one days hope
to meet with him again
to see his gorgeous smile
to just once feel his presence again

We miss you always
Tara Rettler and the whole senior class

IN MEMORY OF JASON D. AGOSTINE

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready in heaven far above. And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away a tear fell from my eye. For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for, and so much yet to do. It seemed almost impossible I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad. I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday, I thought for just awhile. I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile. But then I fully realized this could never be, for emptiness and memories would take the place of me.

And when I thought of worldly things that I'd miss come tomorrow, I thought of you and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow. But when I walked through "Heaven's Gate" I felt so much at home.

When God looked down and smiled from his "Great Golden Throne", he said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you. Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrows on earth to anyone. So many live each day so sure of seeing one more sun. Yet, each one knows that I will call and no one knows just when.

But they never stop to pray and ask for forgiveness for their sin.

And many I have turned away so sad at heaven's gate, for when I called they weren't prepared and it was much too late.

But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true. Though there were times you did something you knew you shouldn't do.

But you have been forgiven and now at least you're free. So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me."

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

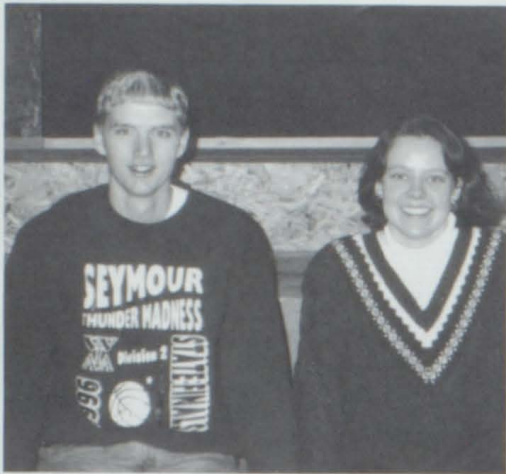

Anonymous

Maybe I'll come to you in a dream,
 or on the touch of a cool breeze.
 Maybe you'll see me in a memory,
 while you close your eyes to sleep.
 Maybe my voice will echo as you hear my favorite song.
 Maybe you won't see me at all.
 My voice will not be heard.
 I will always remain.
 Watching over you and
 within your hearts forever.
 Remember me always,
 for I will always be with you.

IN MEMORY OF . . .

EVELYN KUETER MULLEN

Youth
By: Sara Mullen

A young, pretty face
No wrinkles to be found
A carefree smile with dancing eyes
She has no idea of what is to come in her future.

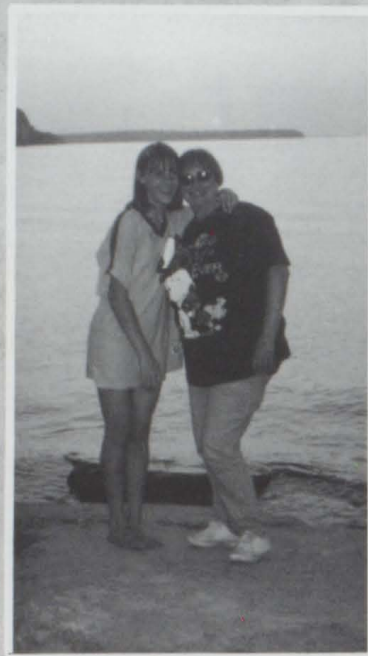

A beautiful, grown woman
Scars of pain, but a heart of gold
She has a sense of being and responsibility.
Her life is overflowing with joy and love,
But she still has no idea of what is to come in her future.

An aged, but handsome woman
looks at the reflection of herself with shock.
All her joy and happiness is gone.
She now knows her future,
Her fate is set.

The lifeless body is covered with white.
Tears are heard but not comprehended.
Lights are all around the weightless soul,
She feels a warm embrace.
She is not lost anymore.
She has found home.

Sharing the good times with Santa (Bill Collar).

She always knew she wanted to be a teacher. She loved it when students would go off to college and report back that they were getting easy A's in their college English courses because they had been prepared so well. She loved being great at her job and being a significant part of her students' lives.

Johann von Goethe once said, "A teacher who can arouse a feeling for one single good action, for one single good poem, accomplishes more than he who fills our memory with rows of natural objects classified with name and form." This quote illustrated the sense of awe and wonder that Mrs. Mullen stirred up in each of her students. Her lessons went beyond books.

-Erin Selmer

Teachers Who Inspire Their Students To Fly Are Rare: Her Students Were Given Wings.

She loved the ocean.

Jason, the highest reward for person's toil is not what they get for it, but what they become by it. If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door. Nothing lasts forever-not even your troubles. The man who removes a mountain begins by carrying away small stones. Motivation is what gets you started. Habit is what keeps you going. Thanks for the memories. LOVE DAD, MOM, JESSE, BRIANNA, and MOLLY. WE ARE PROUD OF YOU. BE HAPPY, HAVE HOPE, DREAM, AND NEVER QUIT TRYING.

The best in life, Pat, is what we hope for you. Now and forever.
