SEYMOUR HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOK

The 1997-1998 yearbook staff selected the theme "Life is a stage and we are merely actors." Various yearbook students showed their interpretation of what that quote means. "How we are all different and play an important role in people's lives," Sara Koeller. "Everyone hides behind a mask. We don't want anyone to see the real person inside of all of us," Christina Rodemeier. "This means that life is just something we go through. How we live it determines the outcome. If we make good decisions or bad decisions, it's our own choice," Kristin Muenster. "We all perform in stages of our life. Whether we are young or old, we put on an act to withstand the negative things in our lives," Caley Lom. "People are just acting, and not being truthful and just lying," Chrissy Vandeng. "Life is a drama and each of us simply assumes our own role as a part of a big cast," Tracy Huettl.

This year's yearbook is dedicated to two of the School Board Members, Mr. Philip Sachs and Mrs. Jean Melchert. Mr. Sachs was on the board for thirty one years. Mrs. Melchert is the board's president. She has been on the board for forty two years. While they were on the board they made extraordinary contributions to the lives of children of Seymour Community School District.
