

“The Monkey’s Paw”

Groups 1-4

FULL Names:

Hour:

- 1) Open your book to page 43 and complete the vocabulary assignment n the bottom of that page. ENG 10 students just complete vocab 1-6 and lit students complete vocab 1-6 and the WORD STUDY found below that. NOTE READ THE DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY. You are using the VOCAB WORDS found on page 30 to complete the analogies

ALL STUDENTS

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

WORD STUDY – LIT ONLY

- 1.
- 2.

1. There are LOTS of examples of foreshadowing. There are four examples of it on pages 34-35. Find at least two
 - List an example of foreshadowing on pg 34 or 35 word for word and put it in quotes and have a citation. [example of a passage from p 33 “The words died away on his lips, and he hid a guilty grin in his thin white beard” (Jacobs). Note the period goes AFTER the ().
 - EXPLAIN how / why this is an example of foreshadowing.
 - List a second example of foreshadowing from pg 34 or 35 using exact wording, quotes, and a citation.
 - EXPLAIN how /why this is an example of foreshadowing.
2. Look on p 36 and tell me what the first wish was.
3. Read the very top of pg 39. Was the wish answered? Was it answered in the way they expected or hoped it would be? Explain what happened.
4. Reread the 2nd ½ of pg 40 and tell me what the second wish was.

5. INFERENCES: re-read p 42. What INFERENCES can you make about what happened at the ending.
 - Using inference skills what do you think he wished for?
 - Using inference skills do you think his wish was answered? EXPLAIN what you think happened

6. Name one THEME from this story. (Reminder a theme is a GENERAL lesson we can apply to our lives like: We should appreciate our differences or Don't act impulsively.)
 - Provide textual support for the theme listed above.

7. What is the mood and tone on the final two pages (p 41-42). Provide THREE PASSAGES (short phrases or single words) from this section that demonstrate the mood or tone.

8. Re-read the TOP of page 37. What is the mood or tone on the top of page 37? Provide THREE PASSAGES (short phrases or single words) from this section that demonstrate the mood or tone.

9. What is the main purpose of this story? (i.e. inform, persuade, or entertain)

10. This story was told from what POINT of VIEW? 1st person or 3rd person?

