

BELL RINGER:

If ALLITERATION is the repetition of the same sound at the beginning of a word, why would feathered and finned be an example of cached a check would NOT be an example of alliteration?

CHALLENGE QUESTION #1: Would FUN PHONE be an example of alliteration?
Why or why not?

CHALLENGE QUESTION #2: Is COLORFUL CHIPS alliteration?

Need a hint? The key word in the definition is: sound.

BELL RINGER

Check for Understanding

The words HOUSE and HOME

- a) Have the same CONNOTATION
- b) Have the same DENNOTATION
- c) Have the same CONNOTATION & DENNOTATION

Be prepared to justify / explain your answer.

CHALLENGE ZONE: What is a mnemonic strategy to remember what DENOTATION means?

BELL RINGER:

Check for Understanding

They were like Romeo and Juliet.

He was like The Boy Who Cried Wolf.

These are examples of:

- a) Alliteration
- b) Onomatopoeia
- c) Allusion
- d) Illusion

BELL RINGER:

Check for Understanding

How are inferences and foreshadowing
DIFFERENT?

How are they ALIKE?

Challenge Zone: What is a pneumonic strategy to remember what FORESHADOWING means?

BELL RINGER:
Check for Understanding

A theme from Animal Farm might be:

- a) Napoleon is not to be trusted.
- b) Corruption and Deceit
- c) Be careful what you wish for because things might not turn out as expected.

How would you define theme?

BELL RINGER:

Check for Understanding

Using vivid language that paints a picture with words and appeals to the senses is an example of:

- A) Imagery
- B) Allusion
- C) Onomatopoeia
- D) Alliteration
- E) Personification

BELL RINGER:

Check for Understanding

The bee buzzed.

The horn honked.

The cereal snapped, crackled, and popped.

Are examples of:

A) Imagery

B) Allusion

C) Onomatopoeia

D) Alliteration

E) Personification

BELL RINGER: Check for Understanding

The sterile stale smell of cleaners invaded my nostrils as I proceeded down the hospital corridor. As I passed each room and slowly approached room 304 my heart beat quickened as the golf ball sized lump grew in my throat. The echo of my footsteps were drowned out by the thunder of my heart pulsating through my chest, throbbing so forcefully I could feel my heartbeat in my moist trembling palms.

Is an example of:

- A) Imagery
- B) Allusion
- C) Onomatopoeia
- D) Alliteration
- E) Personification

BELL RINGER:

Check for Understanding

The sound of my bones shattering under the cold steel hammer sounded like slush crunching under a car's tires on an icy morning.

Is an example of:

- A) Metaphor
- B) Allusion
- C) Onomatopoeia
- D) Alliteration
- E) Simile

BELL RINGER:

Check for Understanding

The thick clouds were melting ice cream in the summer sun.

Her anger was a tornado that destroyed everything in its path.

Are examples of:

- A) Metaphors
- B) Allusions
- C) Onomatopoeia
- D) Alliteration
- E) Similes