Autographs

Now, ye handwriting specialists, judge us!

You can always spot a Senior
By the things he says and knows.
You can always tell the Juniors
By the way in which they pose.
You can always tell the Sophomores
By the sense they try to show,
But you cannot tell a Freshman
Things he doesn't want to know.

—R. M. C. '22.

The Juniors

You will surely notice if you can see
 The wonderful class of '23
 With it's jolly members full of fun
 But ready to work, yes, every one.
 Our class is one of greatest fame
 We seldom have sorrow and never have shame,
 We possess excellent standings as our first name
 Just ask any teacher, she'll tell you the same.
 —Theodore McCord.

SENIOR CLASS POEM
MEMORIES OF CLASS '22—Ruth M. Carter, '22

Our first day of high school four years in the past,

Has not yet quite left us, though Seniors at last.
More were the faces of Freshmen that day,
Than belong to us now; for all did not stay.

The paths numbered many, Some went other ways,

But memory of each one, with us ever stays.

So now to the honor of we who are left,
Some noted for lightness, others for heft.

If you're ever to look for someone that's tame
Don't look for Myra at a basket ball game;

She becomes so enthused with our boys every step,

That she fills all around her with real "high school pep".

She is all through a sweet, innocent lass;
But time is fast fleeting, to the rest I must pass.

There was never a question in Physics to pass
Chap's knowledge of wireless, and all in that class;

He's jolly, he's funny, he'd laugh 'till he'd cry,
If he had to sit still long, he'd fidget and sigh;

He kept up the spirits of Class of '22,
We feel sorrow deep in saying adieu.

The typewriter keys you will search for in vain
When Lillian's hands are behind;

For down fall the letters like pattering rain;
A better typist you scarcely will find.

Wynema has worked hard for four high school years,

And over her books she has wept,

If she had not her lessons, down came the tears,
Not unless she had studied she slept.

We're proud to announce that her hard work
Has brought fair reward to her now.

Whatever the duty, she never would shirk,
So, to our valedictorian we bow.

Genevieve, we're sorry that your company we must leave.

But in memory of high school days, we'll keep "Sweet Genevieve".

A stands for Alta, so jolly and gay,
Her motto: "Don't grumble-it never will pay".

She always could find some good reason to smile,
And once she was started, she'd laugh all the while.

B stands for Bernice, short, round and jolly,
As for being too sober, she thinks it a folly,

She hollers so loud when she sees a mouse,
That she can be heard within a block of the house.

When Bernice once giggles her whole body jiggles
So much for the laughing young "Polly".

C stands for Clinton, solemn and sad,
And, yet, Clinton, certainly is a good lad.

Raymond is great in basket ball vim;
Defeat never could get along well with him.

"Sweet Genevieve", which is his favorite song,
You can hear him singing all day long.

We find our hearts and minds in vain,
Will pass away from Wyman.

We hope to hear your jokes again
Our jolly "Simple Simon";

And when upon the stage of fame,
Your violin and you.

Remember us in face and name,
The Class of '22.

We are quite sure that Donald will take
The life of a preacher, and a good one he'll make;

He hasn't been very long in our ranks,
But we're going to miss him and all of his pranks.

You may talk of blonds and admire them,
But you'll stand in awe of Alice,

A sweet brunette. She'll make a queen
In some nice young man's palace;

She's labored hard and now appears
As Salutatorian for her trials;

So men may come and men may go,
But she'll go on for MILES.

As for dear Alma, so small and so meek,
Not a morning nor noon pass 'thout a smile on her cheek;

She can take shorthand so accurate and fast,
That very few in that line will ever surpass.

Now comes Floyd. Is he studious? Yes!
A very good President he made our class;

He's almost as fond of walking, no doubt,
As one of our girls; someday they'll walk out.

Dorothy, dear Dixie, we'll ever remember,
For hiking in summer, coasting in December.

A good, all around girl, Dorothy is there;
We wish that our parting with her we could spare.

We congratulate Freda on her good luck to keep,
The same faithful beau, so she's no need to weep;

We're beginning to see we will lose her for good;
Here's to Freda and principles for which she stood.

It seems to me that I never saw,
A person excell Fritz for good use of his jaw;

Can Frederick debate? Well, I should say so,
We think that into a great lawyer he'll grow;

He always did know the affairs of all others,
But in class '22 we are sisters and brothers.

But now we are parting, we must say adieu;
Farewell, then, farewell, friends, may we ever be true.

For we want you to know how we think every one.

For giving us knowledge as well as good fun.

Dear teachers, dear classmates, we must part at last,

For our days together are now in the past;

But ever remember, the good we all do

Is just what you've taught us. Adieu, friends, Adieu.

With apologies to all for personal glimpses,

I remain ever true to the Class of '22

Sincerely, Ruth Carter.

SOME VALUABLE LESSONS WE HAVE LEARNED IN OUR FIRST YEAR IN SEYMOUR HIGH SCHOOL:

1. How to conduct a class meeting.
2. How to make excuses.
3. How and when to tip our caps.
4. To laugh at the age of the jokes if we can't laugh at the joke of the age, but, anyhow, to laugh.
5. Eileen Hanson—to skip out of the assembly room.
6. Hilmer and Wilmer—to tell each other apart.
7. Miles—"Though gentlest hands reknit the silken chain of severed friendship; still the knots remain.

---

Oh, we'll be juniors by and by, for all it takes to make a junior is one pound of Freshman evergreen mixed with two pounds of hayseed, one quart of milk, and one pint of grape-juice. Stir this mixture rapidly for fifteen minutes. Then add ten drops of sophomore flavor. Mold this dough into the shape of a human being and heat for ten minutes with thirty watts of sophomore temper. Behold a Junior.

WE CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHY

Dorothea Holz spoils our attendance records by persistent tardiness.
Harold Melter has a "stand-in" with the faculty.

Elmer Spaude doesn't hurry.

Winifred Hall ALWAYS gets her lessons.

Ted Ohlrogge is so tall. (When most of us are so small.)

The teachers "pick" on us.

We don't know what we ought to know.

Buelah Ohrmundt isn't a newspaper reporter.

The day breaks and doesn't fall.

Seldon Powell is always despondent.

---

SOME CHOICE CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE RIPPER:

Are you mad at Prof? Cheer up. The world won't look rosy if you see red.

---

Fritz Ohlrogge, who is so frail and shy
(You'd almost think that he would cry.)

If some auburn haired damsel looked his way,
Would be happy the live-long day.

---

Gerald Huettl, whom you know so well,
Surely can a good story tell;

But if you'd hear him sing a song
You'd rightly think that somethin's wrong.

Five Temporary Teaching Positions Open in Frog Corners School.

Our school board is looking for five temporary teachers to take the place of our own five who are in a serious state of unconsciousness as a result of the severe shock received yesterday when the seniors cleaned their desks for the first time this year.

READY FOR PUBLICATION.

My latest poem entitled Beulahland.
 Basil Milbiser.

POETS CORNER.

Eileen Hansen is a pretty girl,
 At least she thinks she is;
 Tho on her foot she has a corn,
 She doctors with some "TIZ."
 But when at night she goes to bed,
 That dear old corn bothers her head;
 But still she calmly bears the pain
 As if it were a cooling rain.
 And when at morn she does arise,
 That darned old corn does still survive,
 And drives her into misery deep,
 Which makes her very, very weak.
 —Basil Milbiser.

Discovered—

A bright Ray, by Lillian Fiedler.

PERSONALS.

Walter Daniels applied for a job in a factory in Green Bay. He asked the manager how much he would pay him. "All you are worth," answered the manger. "That's too cheap," said Walter and walked on to the next place.

Claude Ohlrogge lost his glee club credit because he refused to give an adequate and comprehensive excuse the day he went to Green Bay.

One day when a Sturm came up and it began Heling, Alvin tried to Neta batch of bread made of Muehl and Reis. He put it into the oven and said, "I will either Bake or Melter." About an hour later he put the loaves into Sachs and proceeded through the Hall and down the streets almost knocking over an old Fiedler in his haste. He ran for many Miles and finally sold the loaves to a grocer in Wussow. Later the bread was bought by Tom(p)son and John (son) for two Marcks.

LOST—My ambition. Finder keep.
 Frederick Axley.

FOR SALE—Some of Roger Benedict's heighth. (See Everett Johnston.)

Answered By Annie Laurie.

(With apologies to the Press-Gazette)

Dear Annie Laurie:

I do not seem able to concentrate in the Main Room. I am at my wits' end, what can you suggest?

Fred Bartels

Try a little less library and quite a bit less of girls.

Dear Annie Laurie:

I'm all out. Where can I get some witty sayings?

Harold Melter.

Read the Rural Weekly.

Dear Annie Laurie:

How can we finish the Algebra book before the end of the year?

Everette Johnston

Get zeros in English.

Dear Annie Laurie:

Will you suggest where we can go to give some of our highly entertaining musical and dramatic performances? We prefer situations near Green Bay.

Claude Ohlrogge,

Raymond Strelke,

Ted McCord,

Thomas Duffey

Have you tried some of the suburbs of Green Bay? There are Goose Town, Mushrat City, and Swiss Hill which would surely appreciate your professionalism.

Dear Annie Laurie:

How can I make my shoes stop squeaking? I have tried everything from paying for them to goose grease.

Alta Sturm.

Sell the shoes to some one less modest than you.

MOTHER FORSAKES SON.

Mrs. Benedict says she doesn't want Roger any longer.

(He's long enough.)

HE'S RIGHT.

What is the synonym of wisdom?

A senior.

Friendly Bill.

The man I like
is Bill McGuire;
He stops and helps
Me change a tire.

One Better.

Manager—This magnet will draw three pounds of iron from a distance of ten feet.

Rube—That's not much. I know something that draws me every Saturday over three miles of plowed field, and I weigh 125 pounds.

Local Young Man Leaves to Study in Paris.

Theodore Ohlrogge, Frog Corners' sign painter, leaves next week for Harvard University where he will work for the degree of Doctors of Arts. His specialty is painting women's faces.

FROG CORNERS' CAFETERIA.

Pop-overs—Dorothea Muehl, Tonita Freiman.

Salted Nuts—Harold Melter, Earl Bartels.

Indian Gruel—Basil Milhizer.

Fish (any kind)—The twins.

Chicken—Elmer Spaude.

Sunshine Cake—Wyman Huettl.

Lady Fingers—Miles Simpson.

FAMOUS SAYINGS.

The saddest words from first to last, so often are "I might have passed."

"We would reform our politics," the Seniors.

"Do you suppose a man who makes light of everything could set the world on fire?"

Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may have to diet.

We toil not, neither do we spin. The Freshman.

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association was organized in the fall of 1921 and has been doing good work in promoting all branches of athletics. The officers are:

PRESIDENT, Wyman Huettl,
SECRETARY, Ruth Carter.

VICE PRES., Genevieve Lotter
TREAS., Alvin Huth

LOCALS

Hilmer Grunwaldt received first prize on rye at the Farmer's Institute, Wilmer Grunwaldt third prize on oats, and Elmer Spaude first prize on Rural New Yorkers (potatoes). first prize on yellow flint corn, and second prize on silver laced Wyandotts.

Rodger Benedict, Harold Miracle, and Donald Brownson represented Seymour High School in the stock-judging contest at Green Bay. Shiocton, high school, Marinette Training school, and Algoma Training schools also sent teams. The Seymour team got second place, Harold Miracle receiving third individual honors.

Due to Mr. Paulson's mechanical skill, our electric bells, (attached to the office clock) have been working all year.

We have no regular manual training department but under Mr. Paulson's direction the farm mechanics class and other boys in school were drafted into making flower boxes, a large table, black boards, shelves for the music room, a sand table for the primary room, standards for the athletic association, and all sorts of odds and ends for the various school programs and plays.

A real Jap gave us a most interesting talk on Oct. 11. Some of the girls decided they would never want to live in Japan for there is no gum-chewing or kissing there.

On Oct. 18 we heard a lecture on "Foot Efficiency" or something of the sort. McCords sold a lot of Blue Jays and Tizz tablets thereafter.

Mr. Axley, Mr. Paulson, and the Misses Carey, Summers and Detert attended the state teacher's meeting at Milwaukee. in November.

Miss Heise attended the National Music Supervisor's Conference in Nashville, Tenn. in March.

Miss Detert arranged a very helpful and interesting program for Wednesday morning in Educational Week.

Through the energetic efforts of Walter Daniels the people of Seymour were able to see one of the Field and Stream movies on March 25. The proceeds will be used toward a radio set for the school.

The Orchestra

	Huth.	Kuene	Simpson	Kuene
Muehl	Schwartz	Huettl		Eick	Holz

The orchestra was organized by Miss Heise in the fall of 1920. It is still small in number but hopes to increase steadily and surely. The organization went on the Boy's Glee Club trips and has played at the speaking contests, school programs, plays, and the like.

Good music is a vital element in the education of the people.

—P. P. Claxton.

Pupils in Violin Classes (Grades and High School)

Pupils in the violin and piano classes are receiving free instruction once a week from Miss Heise in groups of from two to four members. This is the second year for the violin classes, the piano classes being a new experiment this year.

The Last Gasp

A N N U A L

A Stands for Athletics of dear Seymour High,
N is for Nonsense—that takes the pie.
N comes again. This time it means Nice we have cut out the “ruff stuff”
and still have the spice.
U stands for Union. And proud are we all
That our Seymour High School
Has stood through it all.
A for each Ambitious lassie and lad
That make every bit of our high school life glad.
L is for Love of our Dear Seymour High.
Ever we'll look back to her with a sigh.
Put them all together and they will spell
The thing we have tried to do so well.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF—

Mildred Snell couldn't powder her nose?
Walter Daniels didn't try to make someone laugh?
Raymond Strelke, Claude Ohlogge, Tom Duffey, and Harold Miracle couldn't raise mustaches?
If there were no such word as if?
Wyman Huettl couldn't laugh?
Prof. Axley couldn't lecture?
Lyceum nights weren't “Beaux” nights?
Arline Luedke couldn't dance?
Alvin Huth couldn't whisper?
Fritz A. didn't keep track of all the love affairs and ask questions?
Wynema Hall couldn't weep?
Louis Brockmann didn't have time to curl his hair?
Walter Daniels was'nt always caught at some mischief?
Doris Melter forgot and talked in her natural voice?
Myra Reis couldn't cheer at a Basket Ball game?
Our Basket Ball teams weren't the very best ones in the state and then some?
Agnes Strelke couldn't stand in front of the mirror?
Floyd Archiquette couldn't act stubborn?
Chap didn't continually break the laboratory utensils?
Bernice Tubbs couldn't giggle?
Maymie Strelke would lose her temper?

Teacher. “Who wrote The Village Blacksmith?”

Frel O.: “Roger Benedict.”

Teacher: “No, Longfellow did.”

Fred: “Well, that's who I meant.”

No more Latin, no more French, no more sitting on a hardwood bench.
No more pencil, no more chalk, no more teacher's sassy talk.

"A sound mind in a sound body, is a short, but full description of a happy state in this world."—John Locke.

A proper education is necessary for this, and this Bank wishes to express its approval of every measure and every act of State that will achieve it.

Virtue, Wisdom, Breeding and Learning, are the essentials of education. Through virtue, we gain goodness; through wisdom, we acquire knowledge; from breeding, deportment; and by learning, we become scholarly.

Not all, however, can reach the stage where they can claim to be endowed with shining ability; but if we can acquire great prudence, united to much firmness, great regard for reputation and unwearied perseverance, we will have endowed ourselves with that which is better than gold.

LIFE

Is What YOU Make It

IT CAN BE A SUCCESS OR A FAILURE.

WHICH WILL IT BE WITH YOU?

Look at the men who are successful in the eyes of the world. Ninety-nine out of every hundred started a bank account when they were young—and stuck to it.

And now, look at the failures. Mighty few of them have a bank account now. Not speaking of when they were young.

Perhaps you think you have not enough money to start an account. Haven't you a dollar? That's all it takes.

Just try it for a year or six months. If you do not wish to continue it you have lost nothing by the trial.

WHICH WILL IT BE—SUCCESS OR FAILURE,

IT'S UP TO YOU
