DEDICATION

M. A. Patchett

W. T. Reese

Because of the many hours you have spent helping us, and in making our high school days both profitable and happy, we, the senior class of 1945, feel it is an honor to dedicate our annual to you.

FOREWORD

School days at Seymour High end all too quickly, and memories of these days and years fade as the years go by. In this edition of the Ripper we have endeavored to portray life at S.H.S. In future years may this yearbook help to bring back happy memories of the days when we were together.

HONOR ROLL

The Senior Class of 1945 wishes to dedicate this page of the "Ripper" to the alumni and former members of the faculty who are now serving in the Armed Forces.

"Oh! How can I ever get this locker opened?" "Which room do I go to for science?" "What is that teacher's name?" These were a few of the questions which were asked of the upper classmen by the eighty freshmen during the first few days of school last September.

Initiation took place September 17. The freshmen were an awful looking sight. The boys wore pajama tops, women's hats, dresses and silk stockings. The girls wore overalls rolled up to their knees, pajama tops, and ties. Both had their hair parted in the middle, and were plastered with makeup. The annual freshmen-sophomore party was held that night.

The freshmen have worked hard during their first year and have made a good start at Seymour High School.

After three months of sun tanning and rest, eighty sophisticated sophomores returned to complete their task of getting an education.

This year it was their turn to initiate the "greenies", and they sure did a good job. Wow!!

The sophomores are one of the most active classes in school. Basketball, chorus, band and dramatics constitute their major interests. They have shown their ability in every way to help promote better school spirit at Seymour High.

Way back in 1942 these sixty juniors, then known as "greenies" to us, entered Seymour High School.

They have proved their ability by being in athletics, band, chorus, dramatics, and Student Council.

The freshmen and juniors won in the "Weasel Drive", and Lois Mueller was elected "Queen of Stamps and Bonds".

The theme of the prom was "Song of the Islands" with an Hawaiian scene. Lee Van Vuren was Prom King.

We, the class of '45, wish the juniors the best of luck in the future.

Three cheers for the Liberalists! Yea--United! The Loyalists for me! These were the cries that filled the school last September. Yes, Seymour High witnessed its first all-school election in the last week of September with much ado. The election was the result of a new constitution which had been written and adopted by the Council of 1943-1944. It was carried on almost exactly as was our national election. The result--the Liberalists won and everyone had an enjoyable time participating.

The Student Council is made up of fifteen students and two advisors, who meet once each month to discuss the current problems of the school.

The Council of this year has done much to promote better school spirit and good will. They have set up committees which have strived to gain a better school by inaugurating hall monitorship, a better social program and by instilling a lively school spirit in all the pupils.

Wanta buy a ticket? Hurry up and learn your parts kids, for pete's sake! Where'd you put that bingo sign? Who left the paint brushes here? Did you order that junk for the fish pond yet? (psst, I think the Carnival's gonna be a flop.)

Yes, these were some common expressions during October. At last the great day arrived, and our Carnival went off with a bang! Under the management of Paul Groat and his assistant Burton Wiese, our efforts were proved a great success.

Down in the office as money kept rolling in Gerry Murphy said that she never saw so much money before and didn't ever want to see that much again.

Slap! Slap! Splash! Ray, where are those towels? Hey, does anyone know where these glasses belong? Oh, no, not another pie plate! Can you imagine Mr. Hawkins, Miss Schwedland, Miss Loebe, Miss Rauschert, Ray Beyer, Audree Meyer, Helen Kimball, Gerry Murphy, and Jim Hittner still doing dishes at 3:30 A.M.! Ask Ray. He washed over one hundred pie plates that night, and got a reward of a brand new one.

Thus closes the last scene of our Carnival of 1944. Here's wishing Burt the best of luck in next year's carnival.

THE GREAT JOANNE

Lucy is giving a house party to which the Great Joanne has been invited. Thornton Gorman thinks Joanne has been invited just as a way of getting him there. To make matters worse, he accidentally learns that Joanne cannot come, and that they are planning on passing off Lucy's cousin from Iowa as Joanne. Things get mixed up, and you never know just who Joanne really is until the end of the play. In the end it all turns out for the best.

TIME FOR EVERYTHING

It's the night the boss is coming over for supper. Alexander Hollis has is all planned. He is going to ask the boss for a raise. But, what a night! First his children, Faith and George, don't behave! Then the boss's wife and Mrs. Hollis get into a fight about their husbands and jewels. A burglar appears, and they are all locked in a closet. Everything turns out for the best as it ends. The burglar goes to jail, Alex Hollis gets a raise, and everyone is happy again.

MINSTREL SHOW

"The Dixie Land Minstrels" were really "hep cats" this year. Besides the jazz band they had two jitterbugs called Petunia and Hiedecliff. Did you see the boys swing and sway to "Is You Is or Is You Ain't My Baby"? The featured number was Kenny Stanelle playing "Boogie Woogie."

VARIETY SHOW

Can you imagine being in the army and being called to get up by a beautiful flute call instead of a bugle blast? Or doing exercises to "Sweet and Lovely"? Or having a general tuck you in with a teddy bear? Well, neither can we, but that's what happened in "This Ain't the Army" given as the Variety Show.

The play takes place in the living room of the house occupied by Miss Briggs, her niece Eileen and their hired girl, Liza. According to reports given by George Baker and Miss Sample, the ghost of Benjamin Jones appears to create quite a disturbance in this particular house. Mid peals of thunder, crashes of lightning, the rattle of chains and other strange noises, a white form glides airily from one side of the room to the other. This creates very much excitement. The ghost is the means of bringing everything to a happy ending.

The play won first at Hortonville in the Little Nine Contest.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

1945

The boys at Winsocki High are making frenzied preparations to receive the girls who are coming up for the big annual dance. Amidst the hustle and the bustle of it all, Bud Hooper suddenly announces that he is bringing a movie star, Gale Joy--the "wham girl"! The complications which set in when his real date arrives unexpectedly and the girls decide to get souvenirs from Gale, get Bud into very deep trouble. However, all things have a way of smoothing out, and the play ends with a happy solution to all of Bud's troubles.

Thus the seniors of '45 presented their class play on the night of March 9 under the direction of Miss O'Connell, English instructor.

WILL

We, the class of '45 of the City of Seymour in Outagamie County in the State of Wisconsin do hereby set forth this last will and testament.

Eugene Roepcke leaves his love of gray Fords to Ed. Peotter. Harry Meyer's yearning for Black Creek girls goes to the junior boy who gets there first. I think he just wants to Park. Donald Rohm's ability as a leader and friend of all is given to the next S.A.F. president with best wishes for the next school year. Mary Jane Vandenhoy gladly gives her technique in bookkeeping class to Miss Wegner who may distribute it as she sees fit in next year's class. Otto Raether shares his shyness with bold Fred Bunklesten. Between the two of them there may develop two perfect gentlemen. Marcella Helein bestows upon Mr. Reese her nimble fingers so that he may type up his own reports. Merlin Heiden sadly leaves his job as FFA treasurer to anyone who likes to fool with money. Gosh! too bad we can't all be treasurers. Paul Groat sorrowfully gives up his hamburgers and orange, but not his Rogene. Laverne Weishoff wills his curly hair to Vernon Blohm. Kathleen Jensen believes in one for all and all for one. Kathleen hopes that Donna Blom believes it too, because Donna will receive Kathleen's ability along that line. Upon his solemn promise to use it always, Lavern Beyer will be presented with Helen Kimball's way with the teachers. No trouble for you next year, Lavern. Caroline Blohm doesn't want to will anything, but we all know she is a weather forecaster because she always thinks it's storma. Kenneth Stanelle wills his position as King of Absenteeism to Ray Sears and hopes he doesn't spoil the record. Val Adamski requests he bestow his saxophone technique on Rogene McBain. Ruth Schneider passes her clarinet to La Verne Gilbert. We wonder if it was Ruth's gift of gab that made her a good clarinet player, so we're giving that to La Verne too. With a brisk of the brush and comb Bob Piehl's crew cut turns into the beautiful brown locks of Darrel Pasch. Daryl Sievert gladly gives up his chair in the office to Charles Golonka who is making good use of it at the time we go to press. Audree Meyer really has a way with the "SKI's" so she leaves her love to anyone intrested in Pulaski. Geraldine Murphy really is a hard working girl. She gives her willingness to work to Calvin Kloehn, so that he get busy in study hall. With a flash we see Ray Beyer dashing down the hall on another errand. Veryl Sievert will benefit by Ray's speed and efforts, and we are sure he will make good use of it. Vernon Beyer seems to be the teacher's pet peeve. Burton Wiese has gained this position through Vernon's teachings, so Burt is entitled to this honor. Neva June Witthuhn's alto voice is given to Elmer Mueller so he can make use of the music he holds in chorus. Ted Haase's love for Merchant Marines will be an asset to Lee Van Vuren who wouldn't think of leaving school. Hazel Zeigenbein's quiet ways in school will be cherished by Harland Barth so he may quiet down a bit. Don Lubinski, the Einstein of the Senior Class, will part with his vast stores of knowledge only if Ralph Mory can have access to them. If Ralph finds this too much of a burden for him he can divide it up with Jaon Cleven. They could really go places. Shy Lois Dalke leaves her partnership with Gene Hilgenberg to Rosalie Reed and Audrey Karrow, two inseperable friends. Margie Brockman's height is to be divided with Joanne Blair so she can grow up and learn to know better. Norbert Schaumann wills his Model A and his motorcycle to anyone who has a life insurance policy that is payed up. Roberta Blohm's freindliness will help Ivan Drews so people will know he is in school. Violet Reis blushingly bestows upon Lois Mueller her cheerleading ability with the best of luck for next year's basketball games and pep meetings. Self-confidence will help Jerry Huhn greatly if taken from the hands of Marvin Lubinski. Lenny Kuntsman gives his number 20 on the A squad to Coach McGillivary for anyone capable of preforming the feasts he has in this uniform. Donald Burns really is really a neighborly chap-even with his neighbors. Tom Duffy will receive Donnie's neighborly affections. With a true country heart Donald Rettmann will leave his love of country life to David Schmidt. Germaine Ebert can really pop corn. Her ability is bequeathed to Janet Schroeder and Oraletta Berry. Janet has got the pop and Oraletta will furnish the corn. Erma Druckrey's interests in the cheese business are satisfying enough for Ervin Oskey who is also compelled to be satisfied with it. Eat, drink, and be merry is Elwook Raither's motto. He knows that Ivar Bergsbaken will gladly accept this slogan and make good use of it. Margaret Sievert's glasses are going to be a special gift to Mr. Patchett. She thinks he will look more like a professor with them. Edwin Kurll wants Marie Frisbie to have his ability in forensics if she dramatizes "The Burgulmaster". Mary Ann Hein says that Bill Jensen is welcome to her French horn technique so that this section of the band doesn't collapse next year.. Dolores Seefeldt wills her quiet manner to Fred Weishoff. Carl Volkman's sense of humor goes to Darrel Wendt so that he gets more of a kick out of school.

Signed and sealed this first day of June 1945.

PROPHECY

"Time Waits for No One", not even for the class of 1945. You of course remember that timid little lad, Don Burns. Well, to everyone's surprise he is leading a colossal acrobatic show called the "Jet Propelled Burnses". I stopped to see him act one day, and ran into those inseparable friends, Ken Stenelle and Darrell Pasch, who have become A-1 corn shuckers. It has been said that on one broadcast last spring the corn sprouted on the edge of the script. Audree Meyer, who is also in this show, is a bareback rider who gallops into the arena on the white horse. As I was walking around the circus, I ran into Otto Raether, who was selling peanuts and popcorn, with Elwood making change. I met one of my good friends, Paul Groat, who has become very successful as a ballet dancer and as a lawyer. Kathleen Jensen is a "Wolf Tamer" with the troupe. As I left the circus I met Ray Beyer who has just returned from an unsuccessful expedition into Arabia to find the lost race of Hula Dancers. His cousin Vernon who went with him, found the Hula Dancers and remained in Arabia. Later the same evening I went to dine in a new night club in down-town Manhattan. I rode in Norbert Schaubman's new black and blue cab service. At my expense it lived up to its name. I shared my ride with Eddie Krull who is now a Physical Education teacher in the Bronx College of Musical Knowledge. Upon arriving I found that they were serving steak, made in delicious old Swiss style, with Mary Jane Vandenhoy as head cook. The Night Club was owned by Don Lubinski who is now teaching Einstein his theory of Relativity. Our host was the new manager, Don Rohm, who guaranteed us interesting entertainment. The lights are dimming and a new flame song is being sung by Helen Kimball, accompanied by that hot stull at the piano, Marvin Lubinski. At the next table I see that famous heavy weight wrestler, Merlin Heiden. At my right is that successful contour farmer, Eugen Roepcke; it shows all over him. He seems to overcome by Ruth Schneider, that hot clarinet player, and her all man orchestra. I also see that new Secretary of the Treasury, Marcella Helein, coming in the door and Daryl Sievert, the number one play boy, who also knows figures. "Order, Please", and to my surprise it was Margie Brockman, the head waitress. She had all the latest gossip about Delores Seefeldt's new Seafood Cafe, and Neva Witthuhn's success as a tobacco auctioneer. It also is a fact that Violet Reis is now champion pool player. Gerry Murphy is a famous designer specializing in slacks, shorts, and bell bottom trousers. Hazel Ziegenbein is now a first class welder who is helping Roosevelt run Montgomery Ward in her spare time. Don Rettman is a hair designer using Laverne Weishoff as his model. Harry Meyer is working in Hollywood helping out the three stooges. Jean Hilgenberg, making use of her pretty eyes, has become a hypnotist. Men are her speciality. Leonard Kunstman, a tough cop, is married, and has a "Van" of kids. Ted Haase, owner of a string of cheese factories across the United States, is specializing in Limburger, the only source of vitamins "S-M-E-L-L". Mary Ann Hein is now a hot drummer in the New York Symphony Orchestra which now plays jazz. To my surprise Margie Brockman told me that Roberta Blohm is now a criminal lawyer and her cousin Caroline Blohm is the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Lois Dalke is an international jazz harpist and bazooka player; she formerly took lessons from that great master, Bob Burns. Germaine Ebert is now in Hollywood producing pictures for a chain of theaters across the land. Erma Druckrey and Margaret Sievert are wrestling squids in a noted underwater show. Carl Volkman, that young man about Twelve Corners, runs a pants factory, making pants with the cuffs. (This is strictly off the cuff). Valerian Adamski now has his own band which is doing quite well playing at the burlesque show. Thus the members of the class of 1945 pass in review in their "March of Time".

CLASS of '45

1941

CLASS HISTORY

1945

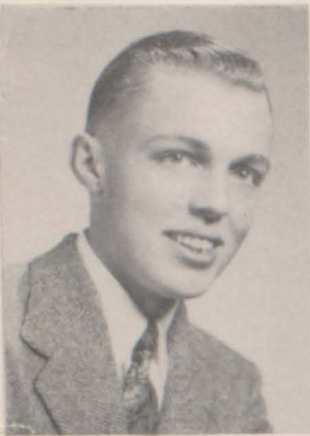

We were a happy group of freshmen that pushed open the doors of Seymour High that memorable day, September 2, 1941, to begin our high school careers. To be exact there were fifty new "Greenies." After the usual initiation we settled down, and became familiar with the routine of bells, rules, regulations, and a few lectures on the side.

When school opened in the fall, we gleefully initiated the freshmen. Most of us joined the Victory Corps and threw ourselves wholeheartedly into the different scrap drives to do our part for the war effort.

As juniors we were represented in all school activities. The main event of the year for us was the prom. We chose "Apple Blossom Time" for our theme. Our royal couple, Carl Volkman and Violet Reis, led us through a very successful evening with the help of Tom Temple and his orchestra.

Our senior year started out with a bang. The first event was the S.A.F. election. Our 1944 Carnival now holds the record of being the biggest and best S.H.S. has ever had. The other activities made our school year a busy and happy one. Our president, Don Lubinski, led us very successfully toward our final goal-----Graduation.

Adamski, Valerian
 "Fritz"
 All great men are dead
 and I feel sick myself.

Brockman, Margie
 "Marg"
 Wherever she goes, whatever she's done;
 She has a bright smile
 for everyone.

Beyer, Raymond
 "Ray" Here, there, and everywhere.

Burns, Donald "Bones"
 To grow or not to grow,
 That is the question.

Beyer, Vernon
 "Victory"
 I came, I saw, and gee whiz!

Dalke, Lois Bashful and quiet--but noticeable.

Blohm, Caroline
 "Carrie"
 It's love that makes the world go round-Horrors, how she's humming.

Druckrey, Erma
 "Blitz"
 Her hair is too dark to make a good angel.

Blohm, Roberta
 "Birdy"
 A worker; always doing her level best.

Ebert, Germaine
 "Mimi"
 A girl worth while is a girl who can smile.

Groat, Paul
 "Lefty"
 Who said there were only three wise men-count me in!

Hilgenberg, Jean
 "Jeannie"
 Bashful and shy
 Oh, what a lie!

Haase, Theodore
 "Ted"
 Blonde to boys and blind to girls.

Jensen, Kathleen "Chet"
 True to how many???

Helein, Marcella
 "Cella"
 Extremely busy but quiet about it.

Kimball, Helen "Queenie"
 It's nice to be natural when you're so naturally nice.

Heiden, Merlin
 "Short Stuff"
 I'll do big things when I grow up.

Krull, Edwin "Eddie"
 Seen but not often heard.

Hein, Mary Ann
 "Annie"
 For many you'll search before you'll find,
 One so jolly and so kind.

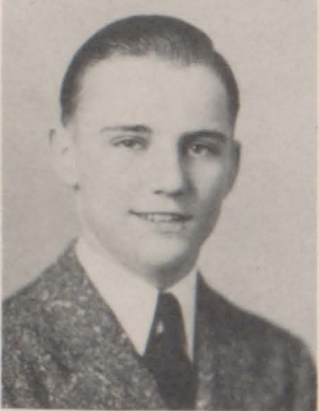

Kunstman, Leonard
 "Lennie"
 An athlete, and an all around good sport.

Lubinski, Donald "Einstein"
 Don't look at me, girls - it makes me nervous.

Pasch, Darrell
 "Ed"
 A bashful bachelor

Lubinski, Marvin
 "Marv"
 There are three great men living-myself, and I've forgotten the other two.

Raether, Elwood
 A country gentleman and among the best.

Meyer, Audree
 "Blabby"
 Here's to the girl with the heart and the smile.

Raether, Otto
 "Ot-toe"
 There must be a lot of work in him for none ever comes out.

Meyer, Harold "Harry"
 Love 'em all, you might miss a good one!

Reis, Violet
 "Vi"
 She can make the sun shine in a shady place.

Murphy, Geraldine
 "Gerry"
 She's an open book; she says what she thinks.

Rettmann, Donald
 "Don"
 I'm just naturally quiet.

Roepcke, Eugene
 "Bud"
 Well Napoleon was small too.

Sievert, Daryl
 "Darry"
 Lead me not into temptation, but show me where it is.

Rohm, Donald
 "Romeo"
 A quiet boy - but quite a boy!

Sievert, Margaret
 "Sievert"
 A friendly disposition brings its owner many friends.

Schaumann, Norbert
 "Twerp"
 For silent men are after all the best men

Stanelle, Kenneth
 "Bozo" Saying is one thing, but doing is another.

Schneider, Ruth
 "Sneezy"
 A good mixture of sense and nonsense!

Vandenhoy, Mary Jane
 "Mary"
 Giggling and full of fun
 Known by everyone

Seefeldt, Delores
 She's not a flower, she's not a pearl
 But she's a noble all around girl.

Volkman, Carl
 "Cookie"
 The harder I try the gooder to be
 The worser I become.

Weishoff, Laverne
"Weishoff"
Ambition is his middle name.

Witthuhn, Neva June
"Witty"
Ready to work, ready to play
Ready to help wherever she may.

We, the Senior Class of 1945, pay tribute to two of our former classmates who are now among "Those Who Serve". John and Ronald are no longer studying history but are helping to write it.
