SEYMOUR
HIGH SCHOOL

FORWARD

TIME HAS ADDED THE FOLDING LINK TO OUR DAYS AT SEYMOUR HIGH SCHOOL. WE HAVE ENDEAVORED TO CATCH OUR MEMORIES OF THOSE DAYS AND BIND THEM TIGHTLY BETWEEN THE COVERS OF THIS ANNUAL.

IF OUR ACHIEVEMENTS HAVE BEEN ACCOMPLISHED, THEN WE KNOW WE HAVE ENDED OUR DAYS HERE PROFITABLY AND ALTOGETHER SUCCESSFULLY.

R. T. WOLK

W. T. REESE

DEDICATION

IT IS WITH THE DEEPEST APPRECIATION OF YOUR PATIENT, UNERRING GUIDANCE AND FRIENDSHIP THROUGHOUT OUR DAYS OF HIGH SCHOOL THAT WE, THE CLASS OF 1947, DO SOLEMNLY AND RESPECTFULLY DEDICATE OUR ANNUAL TO YOU.

GONE ARE THE DAYS

We were an animated, peppy group of Freshmen, 85 strong, as we began our high school career on September 7, 1943. After learning the general rules, rooms, and teachers, we felt quite sophisticated. But we were brought down a peg by a royal initiation and became very settled in a few weeks.

Upon returning we found ourselves genuine Sophomores, ready and able to conduct a supreme initiation of our own. Although we were minus several members, we were second in line for the "Spirit Cup". In fact, we distinguished ourselves royally in all activities and classes.

As Juniors we were perhaps the busiest. Long before Christmas we were planning our prom and in May we put on the colossal event. Our theme was "Moonlight and Roses" and the Grand March was led by Queen Mary Jo Zillmer and King Bill Jensen to the music of Claude Le Duc. Though deeply engrossed in our prom, we did not let our participation in other activities lag and ended our Junior year most successfully.

Now as Seniors, we are writing the last chapter of our history. We began our crowded schedule by putting on a very successfully first homecoming with the aid of the other classes. The whole year was filled as usual with extra activities of which the first "All School Play" was a part. Then work on the annual and graduation plans filled the remaining time. As we look back on our history, we are left with a very contented feeling of having filled to the capacity our days at Seymour High School.

MOTTO

THE FUTURE IS OURS.

FORETELLING

We listen in amazement as Chief Katchewanee of the Navaho tribe exhibits his power of fortune telling by means of the moon. He tells us what our former classmates are doing in the great year of 1957.

Rosemary Norris owns a large horse ranch. Her foreman is Bob Tubbs and the assistant foreman is Le Roy Hartleben. The person responsible for her well-trained horses is Pete King, the nationally famous trainer.

Russell Ahlm is the president of the National FFA organization. This year the national convention is being held at Seymour. Among those attending are Calvin Kloehn, known for his ability to grow "Ready-peeled" potatoes; Alfred Philipson, Agriculture teacher, well known for his study of the contours, of the land, that is; Eugene Barth, noted authority on raising chicks; and Alden Moeller, writer of the radio program "Just Plain Alden, Farmer of Seymour".

After the convention the men are going to "More-Ti", nationally known nightclub, owned and managed by Ralph Mory and Carl Thiel. This nightclub, Seymour's finest, is nationally known for its excellent food and entertainment. The one responsible for the delicious food is Verna Heisler, the head cook. Recently returned from an engagement in Paris is Phyllis Vanden Heuvel, the star of the show. Phyllis is known as the "second Hildegard". Among those gorgeous gals in the chorus are Betty and Doris Glasbrenner and Joyce Blohm. They are directed by Ervin Oskey and Clyde Helein. Focusing the spotlight on them (Ahem!) is Loyal Weishoff. Naturally, there must be a master of ceremonies and so you will find Bill Jensen filling that position. Every year the club is redecorated by the renowned interior decorator, Oraletta Berry.

The newest addition to Main Street is the Piehl-Hill Building, designed by the noted architect, Ray Sears. (We always knew that Bob and Harry would someday have their own desks to rest their feet on.) In the building you can also find Dr. James Hittner and his two nurses, Ruth Stingle and Betty Plamann. You can make your appointments with Esther Mae Coonen (to see the doctor, of course.)

From the next office comes the sound of moans and groans. Lavern Leisgang, the dentist, is filling a tooth for the famous actress, Janet Schroeder. In the darkroom, Rogene Mc Bain, his dental technician, is developing X-rays while in the outer office Bernice Arnoldussen is busy with the bookkeeping.

Next you can find Ralph Huth, the great lawyer. His slogan is, "Come to Ralph Huth and you will not get more than life." The two women who keep his records straight are Marion Griffiths and Joyce Krueger.

In the photography studio, Ruth Kuehne can be found posing for shampoo ads. Gordon Weihing is responsible for those ads and for those of that luscious model, Joyce Wickesburg. Joyce is gowned by the marvelous dress designer, Audrey Mullen.

John Dunbar now owns a chain of filling stations. Dressed in their gold and purple uniforms you will find his assistants, Vernon Blohm, Leslie Kitchenmaster, and Marvin Markgraf.

Seymour now has a private girl's school. The Dean of Women is Betty Schmidt, who is ably assisted by her staff of teachers. They are Mary Jo Zillmer and Grace Lubinski. They teach the girls to be intellectual without showing it. Helen Gehrke teaches the culinary art and Helen Leisgang, physical education instructor, rejuvenates their figure after each cooking class. Ruby Park, dramatic instructor, has taught the girls the art of swooning, which they practice on Professor Darwin Techlin. The latest addition to the faculty is Bob Kailhofer, the greatest authority on "Atoms and How to Split 'Em".

The Public Library is managed by Bernadine Albert. Almost every Saturday night, Fred Weishoff, the famous football player, can be found reading the "classics".

Earl Woltdt, philanthropist, is sponsoring the career of Kathleen Rusch, newest find in the field of fiction. June Meyer is Kathleen's competent secretary.

David Schmidt has proved to be a very successful auctioneer. Colonel Schmidt is ably assisted by Bob Schneider and Earl Sigl.

Preparing for the 1958 presidential election are Arlys Ohm, candidate for President, and Virginia Lotter, candidate for Vice President. Jerome Lubinski, their counselor and campaign manager is busy managing their affairs.

The three girls who have succumbed to men's charms are Dolores Dietrich, Pat Zey, and Rogene Krause.

Chief Katchewanee definitely has the power to foresee the future. We hope that his predictions will come true as favorably as he has prophesied.

TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

We, the class of 47 of the city of Deymour in Outagamie County in the State of Wisconsin, do hereby set forth this, our last will and testament.

Joyce Wickesburg, who is usually bubbling over from top to toe, bequeaths her art of giggling to Arvilla Roskom to liven up the Sophomore Class. Donna Blom is to receive Janet Schroeder's ability not to let her school work interfere with her social life. Marion Griffiths's and Joyce Krueger's inseparable friendship goes to Rosalie Reed and Tillie Short. Bernice Arnoldussen's faithfulness to her one and only she bequeaths to her sister Dolores. Rosemary Norris wills her strawberry blonde tresses to Melvin Beyer to help glamorize him. Flash! Whissh! There goes Jimmy Hittner streaking down the hall. I think Norman Blohm could use a little of that speed. Darwin Techlin shyly leaves his shyness with the girls to Jim Fleming. Now, we don't want to hurt anybody's feelings, but don't you think Don Beyer would find school less of a headache if he had some of what Arlys Ohm has in the upper deck? Ruth Stingle gives Shirley Severson the opportunity to give the yell "Black and White" at all the basketball games next year. Leslie Kitchenmaster turns over the responsibility as movie operator to Tom Duffey, who also likes to monkey around! Ervin Oskey's seat, close to the teacher's desk, is left to Norbert Vande Yacht. Rogene Krause's bookkeeping technique is passed on to Ella Forstner. Ralph Huth, "Thee Brains of Thee Senior Class", gives up his title to Kennen Wiese, the Sophomore Einstein. Harry Hill's speed (in football, that is) is left for coach to distribute in next year's squad as he sees necessary. Fred Weishoff's length and ability on the basketball team is left for Don Kunstman so he may fill the position as center in a few years. Joyce Blohm and Earl Woltd will their motto, "Variety is the Spice of Life", to Audrey Karrow and August Denny. On Gloria Mielke, Bernadine Albert bestows her quiet and studious ways. This year's "King of Absenteeism" is Eugene Barth and he willingly passes the title along to Irvyn Thompson. Esther Mae Coonen wills her interests at St. Norbert's to her sister, Helen, just in case—. Betty and Doris Glasbrenner will their sisterly love for each other to the Welhouse sisters. Marvin Markgraf wills his ability to sleep any time and any place to Bob Kimball. We are all sincere in saying that Bob Arndt could do wonders with Betty Plamann's refined and quiet ways. Pete King has promised Leroy Ciesielczyk his physique so that the basketball team next year will look as good as this year's. Alfred Philipson passes his red hair along to Leland Gilbert to light the way for him in case his school days become dark and dreary. We wonder if Jerome Lubinski's quiet ways and ability wouldn't help Philip Rollo. Bill Jensen's motto, "Love Them All, You Might Miss A Good One", is presented to Bill Hein who is also talented along that line. Ray Sears bequeaths his ability of trying to get along with the girls to his brother Dave. He hopes he has better luck. Audrey Mullen bequeaths her nice dark hair to Bob Holding so he could be "Tall, dark, and Handsome". Helen Leisgang's whole-hearted interest in Home Ec is passed on to her sister Mary Ann. Ralph Mory's beautiful wavy hair, which have been the admiration of many boys for the past four years are bequeathed to Walter Helein to help glamorize him. Russell Ahlm passes on his interest in FFA to Vernon Schneider with the best of luck to the entire Chapter for next year. Alden Moeller has promised to part with his silence providing Lee Mueller will accept it. To Ruby Haas, so she can flirt, Verna Heisler wills her coquettish eyes. We hope Pat Zey's happy-go-lucky spirit will draw Marilyn Zocholl away from her serious study. Betty Peotter is to receive Ruby Park's ability in forensics with a word of good luck. Leroy Hartleben, Betty Peotter's stage Papa, wills this right and his acting ability to anyone in the Junior Class. To Eileen Timmers we give a share of Grace Lubinski's love of Hofa Park. Jim Klarnar will have to do double duty as sports manager now that Carl Thiel will be gone and Carl hopes Jim will have as much fun as he has had this year. Bob Piehl passes on his number 50 basketball suit to Bob Gavronski with a word of good luck. We received permission from Calvin Kloehn to give his position in band to Keith Barth in hopes that the basses continue to boom out. To Beverly Peterson we bequeath Virginia Lotter's congenial and sunny disposition. To the entire Black Creek gang Dolores Dietrich wills the Dietrich car. For how else could the gang get to school? Rogene Mc Bain is the donor of a summer's vacation at Pickeral Lake to Alvin Blohm. My, what friendships can be made, isn't that so Rogene? June Meyer's interest in commercial work is left to Harriet Albert. Dave Schmidt's ambition and friendliness is bequeathed to Bob Reynolds. Mary Jo Zillmer leaves her way with the teachers to Ruth Kroner. No teacher trouble next year. We all think that Helen Gehrke's soft voice would be an asset to Silvan Adamski. Phyllis Vanden Heuvel and Oraletta Berry will their love for Juniors to Joan Cleven and Verla Satorius. Bob Tubbs wills his saxophone and chair in band to Donald Wickesburg, who doesn't play the sax, but looks as though he should. Loyal Weishoff is sure that his love for the opposite sex would be appreciated by Carl Wagner. Bob Schneider cheerfully gives his love of plaid shirts to Junior Steward. Bob Kailhofer's original ideas and remarks are willed to Veryle Sievert so he won't run out of them before his senior year is up. Vernon Blohm's passion for multi-colored, home-knit, all-wool socks is bestowed upon Donald Marcks. Lavern Leisgang wills his interests in sports to Eugene Burns and Clyde Helein leaves his love of Fords to Melvin Blohm. Gordon Weihing and Earl Sigl leave their interest in FFA to two up-and-coming future farmers. Kathleen Rusch has generously given up some of her height to Johnny Frisbie who will appreciate it very much. John Dunbar leaves his 10% interest in the gas business to Frankie Vanden Heuvel who will make use of both the interest and the gas. Betty Schmidt and Ruth Kuehne will their chairs in band to Jacqueline Frisbie and any one who is interested.

The Senior Class as a whole wills all their Corn to Duffey, Sievert, and Vande Leest, the three Colonels of the Junior Class.

PROM

The class of '47 presented a spectacular prom, which delighted the five hundred couples who attended. The theme, "Moonlight and Roses," was beautifully carried out with rose trellises at the entrances; roses entwined in the window screens; and rose bushes, surrounded by white picket fences, along the side. "Moonlight" was provided by a life-sized, friendly moon hung in one corner of the gymnasium. The highlight of the decorations was the awe-inspiring colored water fountain, which was much admired and praised.

The reigning pair for the event was Bill Jensen as king, with Mary Jo Zillmer as his queen. They were supported by a royalty of ten couples.

The music of Claude Le Duc and his Orchestra completed the romantic mood of the evening. The Grand March was the longest ever seen here, with the orchestra playing the theme song over and over again.

Through the combined efforts of the Junior Class, their advisors, and the janitors our prom proved to be a complete success.

JUNIORS

Our serious-minded Sophomores returned as zippy juniors and have done their bit in making Seymour High run smoothly and with a maximum of fun.

The members have taken an active part in sports, debate, music, and speaking. Their main event was their prom for which Allen Monigal provided music. The gym was nicely decorated following a theme of the South.

We the class of '47 pass our very best wishes and regards along to this class as seniors.

SOPHOMORES

The class of '49 ably took over the title of Sophomores and defended it through their active participation in all extra-curricular activities and being capably represented on the honor roll.

They have distinguished themselves by taking an interesting and active part in the selling of Homecoming tickets and "All School Play" tickets. With all this unusual initiative the class is sure to be a success and come out on top.

FRESHMAN

A happy-go-lucky group of 88 freshmen knocked and entered the doors of Seymour High School on September 3. Although they were a quiet reserved group upon arrival, we soon found a variety of hidden talents among them. A majority of their number has found interest in music, speech, and sports.

We know this class of '50 will prove its merits and be a great asset to the school.

HOME COMING

This was the first homecoming Seymour High had ever put on, and it proved to be quite a success. Ralph Huth and Joyce Wickesburg were king and queen, with Joan Cleven, Patsy Holding, Barbara Schroeder, Ralph Mory, Bob Holding, and Leroy Ciesielcyk in the Royalty. Yes, it was different and just as much fun as the usual Carnival. The Seniors of Seymour High wish the students the best of luck with the future homecomings.

F. H. A.

The FHA is an organization for girls who take Home Ec and is under the supervision of Miss Alice Finger. Officers for the past year were: Betty Peotter, President; Virginia Lotter, Vice-President; Ruth Stingle, Secretary; Marjorie Peotter, Treasurer; and Helen Leisgang, Historian.

One of the activities carried on this year was serving lunch to the basketball players after all home games. The girls also sold food at the football games. They sold pencils with the basketball schedules printed on them and sponsored a movie "The Return of Rusty". As the climax to their year's program, the girls held a Mother-Daughter banquet.

FFA BASKETBALL SQUAD

The FFA is the largest organization in Seymour High. In this organization the members learn, through active participation, how to conduct and take part in a public meeting; to speak in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; finance themselves and to assume civic responsibility. Our chapter is the only one in Wisconsin that was chosen to enter the National Chapter Contest.

Officers for the past year were: Russel Ahlm, President; Clyde Helein, Vice-President; Ralph Mory and James Fleming, Reporters; Lavern Leisgang, Secretary; and Harry Hill, Sentinel. Mr. Bill Reese is the Advisor.

FOOTBALL

The 1946 football season started out with a bang with victories over Shawano "B" and Kiel. On Kimberly's muddy field, the Indians met their Waterloo, but came back to win over Bonduel and Chilton and then lost to West De Pere. The season was brought to a climax at the Homecoming game with Pulaski, the final score being an exciting 6-6 tie. The season was officially ended with a banquet in honor of the team, coach and cheerleaders, at which Harry Hill was chosen captain. The Indian football squad finished fourth in the Mid Valley Conference and second in the Little Nine Conference.

BASKETBALL "A" TEAM

The "46" basketball season was one filled with thrills and excitement from the first to the last seconds of play.

The season started out with a thriller in our local gym by beating Coach Smiley Nicodem's Cadets 33-32 in a real season opener. In mid-season Kimberly came to Seymour and defeated the Indians 36-35 on a last second basket by Schelfhout from the center of the floor.

After completing the season with 14 victories and 6 defeats Seymour competed in the Regional Tournament at Marinette. The first game found the Indians matched with Niagara. After the yelling and the excitement had cleared away the scoreboard showed an overtime. Seymour won by one point on a free throw by Jensen in the clearing seconds. Final score: Seymour 38, Niagara, 37.

On Friday night Seymour played Oconto in the Semi-finals, only this time the score was reversed, Seymour had one point less. Final score: Seymour 35, Oconto 36. This ends the tale of the '46-'47 season with all its color and glory going down in history

The "B" team of Seymour High proved to be one of the best in this section. With Bob Rohloff and Bob Gavronski paving the way and also leading the scoring, the "B's" ended their season with fourteen victories and six defeats.

Much of the success of the Varsity Squad is because of the Seconds. Their tireless efforts night after night proved to be worthwhile when the final records were recorded.

Next year when practice starts, Coach will be greeted by a number of experienced second team players, who will be ready to take the places of the Seniors, who will graduate in May.

Best of luck next year to the remaining varsity and the up-and-coming "B's".

First row: J. Grunwaldt, P. King, W. Helein, R. Piehl, H. Hill, K. Wiese,
R. Kailhofer
Second row: Mr. Wolk, C. Thiel, W. Jensen, D. Sears, J. Marcks, W. Hilgenberg,
R. Gavronski
Third row: E. Woldt, S. Adamski, L. Maas, R. Sears, D. Farrell

TRACK

Track rolled around rather early this year, and hot sunny days saw the boys working out for their annual event. First we see Sunny in his old form in the shot, disc, and high hurdles and King and Woldt stepping the half mile. Next we see a few underclassmen running their hearts out on that quarter mile jaunt.

Last but not least, we see our sprinters, Hill and Piehl. Hill is specializing in the 100 yard and 200 yard dash and Piehl is cutting those hurdles, trying to better the records they set last year.

Coach asserts that track will be a big success this year as we see him giving Weishoff a few pointers on high jumping and Jensen tips on Pole Vaulting.

Nice jump, Bill.

Ooh--what form. Let it swing, Ray
