Seymour's football season wasn't too great, considering the games won and lost, but when the statistics came out, they showed that the Indians had outplayed most of their opponents. When the season closed and the all-conference selections were made, Seymour landed Bob Rohloff, Vic Hein, and LeRoy Ciesielczyk on the first eleven, with Don Wickesberg gaining a second team berth.

Don Wickesberg was named captain for the year as the annual football banquet closed the season of 1949. The senior players were honored at a banquet at the Shawano County Club along with five other schools.

The Indians dropped their opening game to the Cherry-Pickers of Sturgeon Bay 30-7. Playing host to Kiel, Rohloff and Johns combined to defeat the visitors 21-0. Against the Papermakers of Kimberly we outplayed them but still took a 20-0 loss. Playing a team that hadn't been beaten for two years, the Indians rallied to dump the Omro "11" 20-7. A lucky break gave the Pulaski Raiders a 7-0 decision. The annual Homecoming against Bonduel was a heartbreaking 25-20 loss in the final three minutes. Playing at Minahan Stadium against the West De Pere Phantoms, Rohloff piled up close to 200 yards, but they licked us 25-13. The season closed with the Oconto Blue Devils taking a 7-0 win over the Indians.

BASKETBALL

With 8 lettermen returning, Seymour had a successful basketball season, winning 18, losing 5. The Indians took first place in the Mid-Valley Conference and ended in second place in the Little Nine. The Indians' two games with Kimberly were the highlights of the basketball season, the games being played at the Appleton gymnasium. Over flow crowds attended both games. Seymour lost the first game 49-38, and dropped the second game by a 38-27 count in the final 25 seconds after leading the entire game. The Indians scored a total of 1,100 points to their opponents 843.

SENIORS

We entered Seymour High, a crew of green Freshies, 88 strong. Initiation took us down a peg right away. Everyone told us how lucky we were because no lipstick smearing was allowed, but initiation seemed pretty terrific to us anyhow. Remember all those clownish costumes, baby bonnets, high heels, and halls smelling of perfume? . . . Class officers were: Joyce Vande Leest, president; John Frisbie, vice president; Donald Kunstman, secretary; and Donald Wickesberg, treasurer.

Back as Sophs we were set to conduct the new Freshmen through everything—and we do mean everything! It was fun to see them bowing to the floor everytime they saw one of us, and how cute they looked in bathrobes and women's long dresses! Officers for that year were Donald Wickesberg, president; Allen Burns, vice-president; Helen Mory, secretary; and Carol George, treasurer.

Our Junior year seemed to be busiest of all. We started early on our prom—"Far Away Places"—and it was a huge success. "White Iris," Seymour's entry in the Little Nine One-Act play contest received high honors in both sectional and state contests. Joyce Siebers, Shirley Severson, Loretta Kurowski, and Marian Barth were the all-star cast. We were glad to see Elaine Behm back with us after being gone a year. Those guiding our class were Le Roy Ciesielczyk, president; Alvin Olson, vice-president; Allen Burns, secretary; and Lee Nagel, treasurer.

Now, as Seniors, we are winding up our high school career. Ken Conrad was president, Duane Wussow, vice president; Jean Lotter, secretary; and Donald Wickesberg, treasurer. We enjoyed that field trip to the Oshkosh State Teacher's College and the Mental Hospital with Miss Farrell and Mrs. West accompanying us. We discovered we have pretty famous people in our class—Rosemary Haase, our representative for Homecoming; Lawrence Johns, F. F. A. president and Blue Jay editor; Carol George, F. H. A. president; Jacqueline Frisbie, Ripper editor, and Lar Rayne Leyers, her assistant.

Alvin Olson is the master artist and Lee Nagel has become widely known for his "smart remarks." Ciesielczyk, Rohloff, Burns, Rohm, Kunstman, Wickesberg, and Werner are famous for their "A" team playing. With the pep and energy of our senior cheerleaders, Shirley Severson, John Frisbie, Patsy Klaus, Jean Lotter, and Eugene Gilbert behind them, how could they lose? Duane Wussow and his tenor saxophone and Keith Barth with the bass horn are two more of our celebrities.

Plans for graduation are nearing completion so with sad hearts we say "good-bye" to Seymour High and "thank-you" for all it has given us.

CLASS PROPHECY

I want to relate a little story to you. Back in the summer of 1958 I decided it would be a good idea to make a survey of what my old classmates were doing.

Gerald Jaskolski's newly formed Detective Agency began immediate work on the project.

Our first report came from Hawaii where our investigator saw Mary Ulmen and her sailor boy strolling along the beach. Another Private Eye spotted Iva Jean Mauthe as the vice-president of the Seymour Woodenware.

The three bosom friends, Blanche Welhouse, Janet Schmidt, and Shirley Henning are married and operating some of the most productive farms in this area. Of course, Beverly Peterson and her guy are living in the prosperous fishing town of Shiocton.

The coast to coast network, WSEY, is run and operated by that famous radio technician, Don Brocker. Working on his staff is Ken Conrad as sports announcer for the Seymour Nuggets, that great pro team coached by our former teacher, Mr. Fisher. Ruby Haas is starring in a soap opera "Cal's Other Wife." Donald Wickesberg is now known as the second Arthur Godfrey.

Detective Clarence Swiecichowski has located Helen Mory, successful Metropolitan Opera Star, who also is a hit on television—and guess who's selling the television sets on the moon? Why, none other than Gene Fenn! He says her music is "out of this world!"

The "Lips" Burns is now starring for Paramount Studios as the tough guy—still featuring the lips that have never been shattered by a woman's kiss. (We think!)

Carol George, Joanne Spaude, and Elaine Lembcke have also been tracked down. They're teaching Mrs. "Butch's" children who are the tough guys of the class.

Floyd Kahler was located developing a new rocket to Mars. With him are his assistants, Roger Matuszak, Lawrence Hartl, and Dave Coleman.

Margaret Abel, Ardyce Moeller, Romaine Holl, and Mary and Betty Felton have all found the men of their dreams and are the society ladies of Seymour. "Pierre" Rohm now operates a swank beauty shop in New York City. Employees are his wife, Barbara Schroeder, who curls his hair, and Lola Blom.

Jackie Maass is still the "Number Please" girl in Seymour. Shirley Severson now plays her bassoon in Xavier Cugat's Orchestra. (By the way, her Pomeranian has replaced Xavier's Chihuahua as mascot.)

Don Kunstman has taken over his brother's Carmel Corn shop and married the cute blonde girl who works for him. "Dit" Kimball was rescued while rowing across the Atlantic to be near her navy boy. Mary Ann Parker and Delores Schuyler are modeling Bikini Bathing suits for Eldon Albert's Modeling Agency.

Ruth Stingle now operates a dress shop on Fifth Avenue with Margaret Leisgang, Audrey Schmidt, and Elaine Behm as chief designers and Norma Roepcke as alteration woman. Lar Rayne Leys is managing the Five and Ten Cent Store and Mary Powless is her assistant.

Dallas Werner, the famous surgeon, assisted by nurses Marjorie Reynolds and Karleen Rusch, is providing business for Nagel and Klarner, Morticians, Incorporated. (People just die to see them.) Burial services are conducted by Rev. Donald Marcks.

Pretty Boy Ciesielczyk is star of the Oshkosh All-Stars. Last season he made 754 points and was highest scorer in the world.

Because enrollment at Seymour High has increased, Mr. Patchett now needs two secretaries; Jean Lotter and Pearl Wagner fill the positions adequately. Robert Ganzel, Harland Gehl, and Frank Leisgang are bachelors, owners of large farms near Seymour where they raise a unique breed of cats.

Lawrence Johns is sports editor of the Chicago Sun with Rosemary Haase as his secretary. Shirley Peotter is fashion editor while Jackie Frisbie has taken over Dorothea Dix's column. Johnny Frisbie has found that it's easier to deal with animals and so has become a veterinarian.

Two of our star women investigators, Loretta Kurowski (alias Sherlock) and Edna Kitzinger have uncovered the latest news. They found Duane Wussow—now known as "Johnny Banana and the music that a-peels." In his orchestra he has Alvin Olson, Keith Barth, and Gerald Goerl, with Carole Shaw as the torch singer. They are now playing at the Black Dahlia, a classy night club, operated by Pat Reed.

Dorothy Wendt is proprietress and hostess of an exclusive restaurant. Beulah Sachs and Betty Land are her waitresses. Pat Klaus has taken Dorothy Lamour's place as the Sarong Girl and "Baby Face" Braun is owner of the "You Get It—We'll Take It" gambling joint. Violet Surman is selling popcorn in the "Terrace," famous theatre off Times Square, which is owned by Eugene Gilbert.

Another investigator has located Donald Hartleben rustling cattle for Bing Crosby, famous crooner of our high school days, now retired because of old age. Nancy Ward was located in the Waves, a well-known branch of the U. S. Navy. Bob Rohloff and Marian Barth were found selling air-conditioned igloos up in Alaska and Rosemary Walter was seen in Chicago where she is working as a dental technician.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of '50 of the City of Seymour in Outagamie County in the State of Wisconsin, do hereby declare and set forth this, our last will and testament.

Helen Mory gives her beautiful soprano voice to Leo Yerken while James Braun leaves his brown eyes to Marilyn Schreiber. Ila Mae Plamann receives Donald Bocker's camera to take pictures of the happenings around school and Harland Gehl gives his sweater to all the girls that get cold in classes. Lawrence Wirth will receive Alvin Olson's drum-sticks and Doris Jochman gets Shirley Henning's chair in the cornet section in band. Donald Hartleben's love for the Sophomore class is bequeathed to anyone that's interested, as Elaine Lembcke leaves her love for Isaac to Ken Melotte.

Marvin Rohm and Barbara Schroeder leave their high school romance to Carol Rusch and Neil Blohm. Marian Barth and Bob Rohloff give that morning after look to other young couples. Lola Blom and Norma Roepcke share their interest in Nichols with Markie Blazek and Dalores Drephal as Clarence Swieczichowski wills his love for Bonduel to Darlene Roepcke.

Ronald Kasperek is to receive Gerald Goerl's deep bass voice. Dorothy Wendt's job at Reese's goes to her sister and Esther Felton gets Betty's place on the Black Creek bus. Jacqueline Frisbie's interest in the FHA goes to Mary Short, while Donald Marcks' interest in the F.F.A. goes to all future farmers. Robert Ganzel wills his way with the women to Glen Rohm.

The beautiful blonde locks of Mary Felton are left to Bruce Buttles while Bill Guyon receives the rhumba ability from Ken Conrad. Carol George's ways and manner in arguing goes to Joyce Kropp who wouldn't think of arguing. Lar Rayne Leyers shares her shyness with men with Suzanna Larkin. Janet Schmidt and Blanche Welhouse will their motto "my one and only 12 Corners" to Marian Bloedorn and Lorraine Griffiths. Ruby Haas gladly shares her skiing ability with Mr. Fisher. Keith Barth's quiet ways are being bequeathed to Janet Blair. Lee Nagel yields his car to John Veitch, while Roger Matuszak's car will go to Mr. Kratochvill. Lawrence John's ambition and editorship of the Blue Jay are given to Weyno Ohlrogge, while Ronald Jens is left Ardyce Moeller's "gift of gab."

Eugene Thomas will get Karleen Rusch's ways with the teachers. Carol Mott is to receive Lawrence Hartl's ability to talk. Donald Wickesberg's football shoes go to Dick Sachs, while Jimmy Wolff will get Dallas Werner's basketball suit. Eugene Fenn wills his well-groomed appearance to Jack Cleven, while Romaine Holl's, Edna Kitzinger's, Beulah Sachs's and Margaret Leisgang's pleasing personalities and ability to make friends go to all underclassmen.

Eugene Gilbert and John Frisbie give their white cheerleading pants to the next boy cheerleaders, while Patsy Klaus, Shirley Severson, and Jean Lotter give their technique in cheerleading to the new A-Squad. Gerald Jaskolski and Iva Jean Mauthe leave their "love for alumni" to Barbara Koss and other coming Seniors.

Floyd Kahler and Eldon Albert leave their custodianship of the movie projector and recording machine to Joan Jaskolski and David Consoer. Duane Wussow bequeaths his direction of the Herman Hepcats to Donald Blohm, while Donald Kunstman's dancing ability is shared with Noreen Gilbert. Jim Van Straten will receive the position, President of the Student Council, from Allen Burns, while Duane Miller is bequeathed David Coleman's mathematical ability. Love for geography is willed to Carole Tickler by Betty Land and Rosemary Walter. Feature writing will be carried on by Helen Weihing, left by Pearl Wagner.

Pat Reed's shortness is shared with Darrel Doersch, while the quietness of Elaine Behm and Audrey Schmidt is yielded to Johnny Wurtzel and Buddy Severson. Vim, vigor and vitality of Loretta Kurowski is given to the coming Junior Class.

The power and strength of Franklin Leisgang is given to the coming Seymour High School football team. Rosemary Haase wills her place on the Homecoming Court to next year's Senior Queen. Nights of good sleep are given to Helen Reis by Cyril Klarner, while the prompt arrival at school of Shirley Peotter is to be shared by her sister.

Love for Black Creek is given to Carol Stingle by Carole Shaw. The out-of-town interest of Beverly Peterson and Violet Surman is willed to any one who needs it. The office work of Marjorie Reynolds and Nancy Ward is willed to all forthcoming office workers. LeRoy Ciesielczyk wills his beautiful sports physique to Pat Duffey and future Seymour sportsmen, while the squirming and giggling ways of Jacqueline Maass are willed to Barbara Blohm.

The happy disposition of Mary Ulmen is willed to Shirley Blohm, while the fair way of dealing with fellow students of Mary Powless goes to Patsy Lotter. Doris Kimball wills that mischievous look in her eyes to Joan Wussow.

Ruth Stingle gives her red hair to Joan Reed, while Nancy Cook will get Mary Parker's long hair. Wanda Rollo will receive Delores Schuyler's driving ability and Joanne Spaude and Margaret Abel offer their unbreakable companionship to Butch and Mrs. Butch.

We, the Seniors of Seymour High, bequeath our good reputation and ambition to the forthcoming Seniors.

Signed and sealed this thirty-first day of May, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine-hundred and fifty.

"Far Away Places"

Everyone journeyed to "Far Away Places" on May 13, 1949, for the Junior Prom. King Jim Braun and Queen Patsy Klaus led the Grand March and last year's queen, Orla Mae Ohm, crowned Patsy the new queen. Members of the court of honor were: Bob Rohloff and Marian Barth, Lee Nagel and Carol George, Alvin Olson and Geraldine Ciha, Le Roy Ciesielczyk and Doris Kimball, and Marvin Rohm and Shirley Severson.

The many promenaders danced to the tantalizing music of Searl Pickett and his orchestra. The sides of the gym were transformed into scenes of various countries. In one corner couples reclined in tea chairs in a French restaurant. In another, tulips and a windmill took us to Holland in imagination. Sweet peas climbing a picket fence, tall pillars and a stately mansion represented the romantic South. Palm trees, a moon, magnolia trees and orchids brought dreams of Hawaii, not to mention the grass skirts. There was also a Spanish scene.

The evening was a grand success even though the background of our stately Southern mansion collapsed and the punch was so plentiful a large amount was left. Wasn't that punch delicious? All in all, our prom was a big hit and holds many memories.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen certainly broke all records this year with their enrollment of 142. They started out with a bang in all activities and are successes already. Some members of this class are: Leo Yerken, "Streaky"; Nancy Cook, one of those Freshmen beauties; and Neil Blohm, the "Romeo" of the Freshies. Remember Lois Verbeten, Freshman candidate for Homecoming Queen and her escort, Kenny Braun? Some of these Freshies are up in the world by the yardstick too—Darrel Doersch, Merle Krueger, Glen Rohm, and Harold Fredrickson. LaVern Sassman has shown us what "hot" basketball-playing Freshmen can do. Officers were: Glen Rohm, president; Kenneth Braun, vice-president; JoAnn Van Straten, secretary; and Nancy Cook, treasurer. We wish the Freshmen loads of continued success in high school.

Clockwise: K. Braun, G. Rohm
 J. Van Straten, N. Cook

B TEAM

The "B" team, under the careful guidance of Assistant Coach Don Fisher, finished a successful season with a record of 14 wins and 4 losses. Their record matched A team, taking the Mid-Valley Conference and second in the Little Nine. The best game played by the B team was the second game against West DePere. They lost the first game 14 to 18, but ran wild in the second, scoring 53 points, the highest score in B team history.

The team was led in scoring by Jensen and Brick, who scored 151 and 90 points, respectively. The other players who scored were: Bruce Wickesberg, 51, Bill Guyon 36, Jim Van Straten, 30, Jerry Wickesberg 29, Bud Severson 28, David Husman 27, Don Blohm 18, Dick Sachs 14, Harold Fredrickson 12, Glen Rohm 11, LeRoy Blohm 4, John Wurtzel 2, Tom Welhouse 2, Vic Hein 2, Bobby Weishoff 2.

BASEBALL

Last year the Seymour High School baseball team finished second in the Little Nine Conference with a record of four wins and one defeat. The season was completed at Kimberly when Seymour lost to Kaukauna after a tight pitching duel between Cieseczyk and Mahn.

This year the team has ten lettermen returning to form a strong nucleus for the team. Most of the lettermen played during the summer on County League or Legion teams. This experience will help this year. Also, the team is getting new suits to replace the overalls and sweat shirts they used last year.

The home games will be played at the Seymour diamond, rather than at Black Creek. This will make it more convenient for the team and also for the student body.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming opened with the usual Hobo Day, Thursday, October 13. Jackie Frisbie, Darlene Roepcke, Loretta Kurowski, Michael Zey, Bob Lepak and Roger Matuszak won prizes for being the best dressed, funniest, prettiest and most handsome hobos. The pep band led the students in a snake dance to the fairgrounds that evening, where a huge homecoming bonfire prepared by Rohloff, Johns, and committee, was burning. There the speeches, cheers, and songs of our Senior Pep Rally were led by the cheerleaders.

Friday, the parade started at 1 o'clock. (We'll miss the fun of getting the floats ready, running around trying to find a pair of scissors, tacks, etc.) Practically every organization in school was represented by a float and prizes for the best floats went to the Freshmen, Science Club, and Sophomores. The Indians, with Rohloff as captain, really gave the Bonduel Bears a fight. It was a great game though we did lose 24-20. We saw more than one leave the field in tears.

Searl Pickett's orchestra again played for the dance. The grand march, led by Queen Belvina Tyczkowski and King LeRoy Ciesielczyk, included the court of honor: Rosemary Haase, Cyril Klarner, Phyllis Kimball, Terry Brick, Lois Verbeten, and Ken Braun. The gym was decorated to represent the football season with pennants, balloons, bleachers, and goal posts, but probably the highlights of the decorations were the caricatures of Senior players done by Alvin Olson.

F H A

FHA, a thriving organization for girls, is under the supervision of Miss Loebe and Mrs. Wolk. Carol George was president; Marian Barth, vice-president; Shirley Peotter, secretary; Margaret Leisgang, treasurer; Arlene Henke, parliamentarian; Ruby Haas, historian; and Pearl Wagner, reporter.

November 9th, girls attended the District Rally at Shiocton. Thirteen schools from Wisconsin participated.

Members so'd food at football and basketball games and sponsored the movie, "The Inside Story." We served at the football banquet and the annual Father-Son Banquet in the fall.

At Christmas time we "adopted" 8 children from the Child Center at Sparta and sent gifts to each. A climax to our year's work was the Mother-Daughter Banquet in May, when girls met each other's mothers and mothers saw what their daughters were doing.

F F A

The FFA year started with the county fair where many boys received ribbons and our booth received a first place ribbon. Some boys attended the state fair for two days. Magazine sales went over with a bang, and the trip to the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago was a lot of fun and educational too.

The Basketball season was exceptionally colorful, our suits adding much of the color. The annual banquet was held December 7, with 135 fathers and sons attending. Greenhous raised to Chapter Farmers, and awards were given out. Our swine weighing program has been progressing very well and our annual movie had a very good turnout.

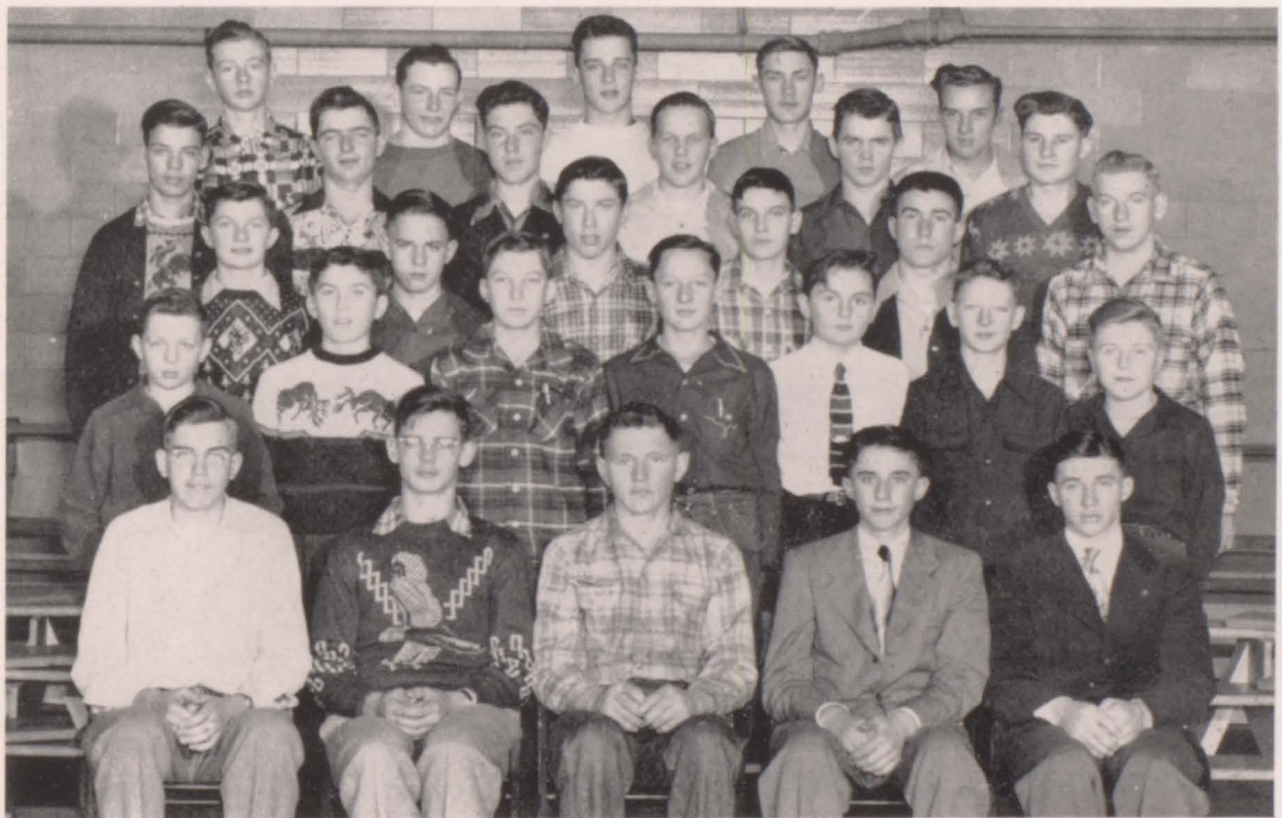

Officers were Lawrence Johns, president; Duane Wussow, vice president; John Frisbie, secretary; Eldon Albert, treasurer; Eugene Gilbert, reporter; Keith Barth, sentinel; Donald Marcks, chaplain. Advisors were Mr. Hanson and Mr. Kratochvill.

Miss Elizabeth Wilke was advisor of debate this year. The topic for the year was: Resolved: The President of the United States should be elected by direct vote of the people. Students on the main debate team were Carol George and Madelon Karczewski, affirmative; and Ardyce Moeller and Barbara Blohm, negative.

The State Debate was held at Appleton High, January 21st. Seymour was the smallest school represented. Each team debated three times, the affirmative debating Kewaunee, Two Rivers, and Ripon, while the negative side debated Clintonville, Kaukauna, and Waupun.

The first project the dramatics club worked on was the Homecoming float. Remember Ila Mae sitting under the table? ... what a ride she had. For Thanksgiving the student body was entertained by the radio script, "We Thank Thee" and for Christmas we put on the play, "More Blessed."

The officers of the first semester were: President, Clarence Swiecichowski; vice president, Patsy Klaus; secretary, Loretta Kurowski; corresponding secretary, De'lores Schuyler; Ila Mae Plamann was our photographer. When second semester started we changed officers, this time electing Delores Schuyler, president; Clarence Swiecichowski, vice president; Patsy Klaus, corresponding secretary; and Lola Blom, secretary.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club has come a long way since its organization three years ago. Its members have taken part in many interesting projects. Among these are photography, model airplane building, and as a business project we made and sold student telephone directories. The members engaged in photography spent many interesting hours developing and printing pictures for fun and profit. We learned to operate the movie projector and sound system. Our Homecoming float won second prize. Officers were Floyd Kahler, president; Lawrence Hartl, vice president and student council representative; Rosemary Walter, secretary and treasurer.

B A N D

Remember the fun we had in band? . . . The squeaking clarinet as the curtains were rising at the Christmas Concert . . . The trouble Buddy Severson and Quinton Adamski had keeping their elbows off their knees. Oh, yes, and how could we forget the drum section always forgetting their music . . . Also the solo cornets' red faces when they hit a high note.
