SENIORS

September 2, 1947 was a most memorable day for the class of "51." This was the day eighty freshmen began four long and happy years within the doors of S. H. S. After trying to remember all the rules, teachers' names, and who was who in school, we were further confused by an event called initiation. We carried textbooks, bowed low to sophomores and were sprayed with perfume. It all seemed quite terrible then, but it is one of our pleasant memories now. Class officers that year were: Jim Jensen, president; Collen Marsh, vice president; Mary Short, secretary; and Terry Brick, treasurer.

The next year we took advantage of being sophomores when we led the freshmen through their many paces on their initiation day. Bruce Wickesburg, president; Lorraine Griffiths, vice president; Colleen Marsh, secretary and Phyllis Kimball, treasurer, were chosen to lead us through our second year.

To the music of Ted Wayne and his orchestra, we danced at our prom in our junior year. The theme was "Blue Moon" and was led by our royal King and Queen, Jim Van Straten and Phyllis Kimball. Bruce Wickesburg again guided our class as its president. His helpers were Kenneth Boman, vice president; Doris Mae Jochman, secretary; and Marion Verbeten, treasurer.

We have been waiting for this day! Here we are as seniors in our busiest and best year.

Members of our class have participated in many extra curricular activities and have enjoyed them all. In athletics, we have dropped from the Little Nine Conference and are participating in the Northeastern Wisconsin Conference this year. Mary Ann Gavronski is our president; Duane Miller, vice president; Madelon Karczewski, secretary; Carol Mott, treasurer. As the year draws swiftly to a close we are working on our Senior class play and on plans for one of the most important days of our high school career . . . Graduation!

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Senior Class of '51 of the Seymour High School, being of sound mind and memory do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament in manner and form as follows:

James Arndt gives his witty remarks to Pat Duffey while Eunice Zuleger leaves her bashful ways to Dorothy Powless. Carol Arnoldussen bequeaths her pleasing personality to Ronald Jens. Janiece Bast and Vic Hein leave their high school romance to Barbara Braun and David Husman while Douglas Shufelt gets Norman Rohm's beautiful footwork in dancing. Ken Melotte and Bob Lepak would just like to leave.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year 1960. Life is rather dull, so I decided to visit the "Believe it if you please" fortune tellers that were with the carnival in town. It rather surprised me to find Joan Euclide selling tickets and Joan Jaskolski showing me to the crystal ball. Dressed in appropriate costume by the crystal ball, was no one else than "know it and tell it" Kym Maass. As Kym was an old classmate of mine, she agreed to tell me the whereabouts of the rest of the class of '51. As she gazes into the crystal ball, the mist vanishes, bright lights appear and a stage takes shape.

John Veitch, "Doc" Sieb, and Duane Miller's detective agency seem to have had quite a time trying to hunt up Lawrence Klarner, whose "Horse" ran away with him. Ah yes, they found him on some Vanden Heuvel road east of Seymour.

Gerald Fischer, Bob Lepak, and Ken Melotte are working on a plan whereby students will be allowed five days a month on which to skip school. Dorothy Lubinski's dream furlough came true and she is busy keeping her own house and doing book work for her father's business in Marion. Mary Ann Gavronski is working as office girl in Seymour High.

Our faithful twosome, Jim Arndt and Merlin Drews, are still trying to find an easier way to write shorthand. We knew it all the time, boys!

Don Gehring is inventing a pep pill to keep him awake.

La Verne "Giggles" Biese, Carol Arnoldussen, Marion Verbeten, and Betty Baumann are keeping their own homes now. Carol Stingle is now living in Shiocton. While Rosie Philipsen is tending her little Milts out by Oneida, Markie Blazek and her soldier husband are happily settled in Kentucky.

Joann Reinke and Phyllis Kimball are now graduate nurses. Barbara Blohm is a clothes designer in Chicago, while Joan Gritt is singing with Guy Lombardo. Dorothy Dietrich is working in a New York dress shop.

Vic Hein is playing All-American hard football and has Janiece Bast as his one and only nurse. Mary Short is editor of the "Flair" magazine.

Arlene Henke is teaching Home Ec back in good old Seymour High, while Carol Mott and Doris Jochman are models for the "Smart Clothes Shoppe" in Los Angeles. Carol Tickler is art editor for "Seventeen" magazine.

Ken Boman, Eugene Thomas, Donald Blohm, and Eldred Mullen are busy working their own dairy farms, using their wealth of knowledge gained from F.F.A. Norman "Snort" Rohm, is operating an all-machinery farm so he can just sit back and relax while his work gets done.

Jim Jensen is still working with "the Cooks," while Terry Brick has an all Mueller Cheese diet. Bruce Wickesburg is playing college basketball as is Jim Van Straten.

Jim Farrell and Bill Grunwaldt are running a garage in Seymour and have Barbara Koss employed as their secretary. Tom Martin and Don Holding are working with Inventors Incorporated, while Mike Zey is still writing literature for Mrs. Jensen's second hour English class to laugh at. Ronald Kasperek is the expert mathematics teacher at Kimberly.

Eugene Kropp is running his own milk route, his only complaint being having to wait for "Pee Wee" Mullen to finish up.

Shirley Eick has taken over Shirley Temple's spot in the Corliss Archer movies. Her motto; "Kiss but don't tell."

Marion Bloedorn and Lorraine Griffiths are each married and living by Twelve Corners. Ann Tucholski is working in a restaurant in Appleton, owned by Rosella Klarner. Dolores Krause has taken over Emily Post, while Carol Mailahn is the modern Dorothy Dix. Joy Moede and her husband have a large Jersey dairy farm.

With the carnival was Joyce Helein, feature bare back rider, while Helen Weihing is their famous acrobat.

Ralph Lorenz, Bernard Zey, and LeRoy Frost are in the Marine Reserve Corps. Alyce Woods is a saleswoman working with the Chevrolet Truck Division in Appleton.

Norman Reitz is the president of a concern. Any time, any place, just so he can sit with his feet on the desk. Bill Guyon is still a Fisher-man.

Dalores Drephal has said her "I do" but seems to be having a little difficulty with the termites in her house. Madelon Karczewski is an office worker with the Kimberly-Clark Corporation, while Colleen Marsh is a stenographer for a corporation on the county line.

Ronald Pierce is helping out the "Three Stooges" in Hollywood, and Eunice Zuleger is found as an expert bookkeeper in Washington. Norene Zahn is a secretary at the Hofa Park Oldsmobile plant.

The crystal ball grows misty, the bright lights grow dim, and I find myself thanking Kym for her telling me the whereabouts of the senior class of 1951.

PROM

“BLUE MOON”

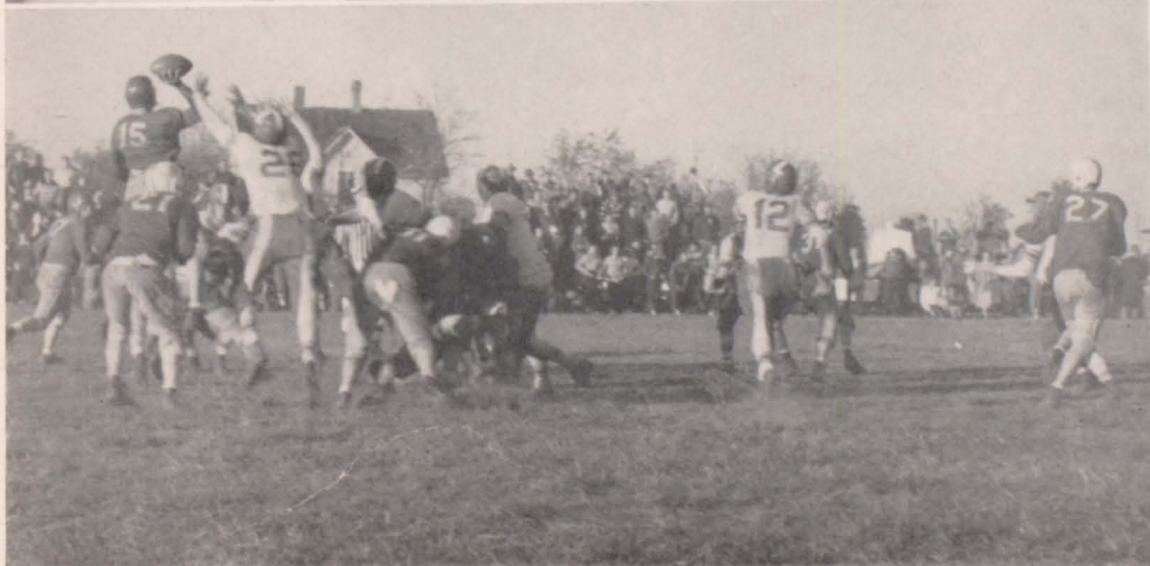

April 21

We, the Class of 1951, chose “Blue Moon” as the theme of our Junior Prom. Our theme was carried out with a blue moon shining down on all the promenaders.

No senior will ever forget the two thousand roses we made for decorations. We put rose covered trellises on the walls of the gym and by the doors. On one side of the gym was a wishing well with climbing roses behind it. On the other side bubbled a fountain surrounded by white rocks and yellow daffodils.

The formally attired prom-goers danced to the music of Ted Wayne and his Orchestra. King Jim Van Straten and Queen Phyllis Kimball led the Grand March. Members of the Court of Honor were: Ken Boman and Mary Ann Gavronski; Norman Reitz and Doris Jochman; Victor Hein and Janiece Bast; and Ken Melotte and Shirley Eick. Patsy Klaus, last year’s queen, crowned Phyllis the queen of the 1950 prom.

Through the leadership of our advisors, Miss Loebe, Mr. Hanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Kratochvill and President Bruce Wickesburg, we, the Class of 1951, feel that our prom was a grand success.

JUNIORS

Leading the juniors this year were Morton Munger as president, Belvina Tyczkowski as secretary, Dallis Goerl as treasurer and Dick Sachs as vice president.

The largest event of the year was the junior prom for which Bob Stevens furnished the music.

The junior class lost several members, but was strengthened by the transfer of Gunars Eidemanis from Latvia, Bob Gritt and Dorothy Powless.

To help lead the team to victory were Helen Reis and Darlene Roepcke as lively cheerleaders. Audrey Sobieck is working hard as assistant editor of the Blue Jay. Dallis Goerl and Donna Mae Mueller were elected vice president and secretary of the Student Council.

The sophomores have certainly showed ability in their activities. In October they started out with the Freshman-Sophomore party. The class advisors, Miss Wilke and Miss Wormwood, were assisted by Miss Haderlein, Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan.

Nineteen hundred and fifty's Homecoming queen was a sophomore, Carol Jean Kimps. The sophomore representative on the court was Russell Parker whose partner was Noreen Gilbert. Their Homecoming float featured a coffin and the slogan was, "Of corpse we'll win."

FRESHMEN

On September 8, 1951, a group of one hundred and thirty quiet boys and girls entered the portals of Seymour High School to begin their long and tedious job of learning.

However, they weren't quiet for too long. They made themselves known by winning the plaque for their Homecoming float. Their candidate for Homecoming King was Jerry Klarner and his date was Beverly Bartman.

Two of the freshmen boys, Glendon Ward and Delmar Mueller are doing fine jobs as "B" squad cheerleaders. Their star football player was Buddy Bliss and in basketball it was Steve Rohloff. The officers leading their class are: Chester Bliss, president; Janet Tubbs, vice-president; Terry Kuehne, secretary; and Glen Mullen, treasurer. All in all, we wish the freshmen all the luck in the world.

Janet Tubbs, Terry Kuehne, Glen Mullen, Chester Bliss.

FIRST ROW—Mrs. Fisher, Madelon Karczewski, Donna Mae Mueller, James Van Straten, Dallis Goerl, Chester Bliss.
 SECOND ROW—Thomas Welhouse, Eugene Kropp, Glen Mullen, Mary Ann Gavronski, Joann Reinke, Carol Mott, Mr. House, JoAnn Van Straten, T. Kuehne.
 THIRD ROW—Donal Sieb, Richard Sachs, Morton Munger, Kenneth Braun, Robert Coonen, Weyno Ohlrogge, Bruce Wickesburg.

The victorious Loyalists placed Dallis Goerl and Donna Mae Mueller on the 1950-51 Student Council. After three full days of campaigning, the race between the Loyalists and the Federalists was brought to a close when the student body elected Dallis, vice-president and Donna Mae, secretary. Jim Van Straten automatically became president after being elected vice-president last year. Madelon Karczewski was appointed to the office of treasurer by the faculty.

There was a lot of activity in the 1950-51 Council. The most important event was the matter of changing the system of representation from organizations to homerooms.

FOOTBALL

Seymour opened against Sturgeon Bay with 15 lettermen. Four regulars from last year were included in the starting eleven: Lawrence Klarner, Jim Jensen, Vic Hein and Dick Sachs. Bud Severson's long pass to Eugene Kropp set up our touchdown as we bowed 18-6. Freshman end Chet Bliss caught six consecutive passes including one for a touchdown during the East DePere game. Jim Van Straten kicked both extra points as Seymour won 14-12. Although Seymour was down to the ten yard line and Eugene Kropp ran an intercepted pass back 53 yards, we lost to Kimberly 6-0. Jim Jensen's running and defensive end play and Lawrence Klarner's line play plus the stopping of a touchdown on a kickoff return helped Seymour to a 19-13 win over Bonduel for their first Mid-Valley victory. It was truly a team triumph as the whole Seymour team gave everything they had.

Seymour took the opening kickoff from West DePere and scored a touchdown in a drive taking 17 plays to cover 83 yards. Vic Hein, all conference guard last year, played an outstanding game on defense as the final tally was 18-6 for a West DePere victory. In our Homecoming game the Indians held Pulaski to less than 100 yards and only four first downs. Bob Lepak deflected a pass to Jerry Wickesberg, who ran it 37 yards for a touchdown. However, Pulaski took a 12-7 win over Seymour.

Seymour was handicapped by three injuries. Dick Sachs, starting fullback, cracked his ankle in the Sturgeon Bay game and was out for the next three games. Chet Bliss, valuable pass receiver, injured his knee just before the Homecoming game. Don Holding was the third injured victim as he hurt his knee in practice with two games in the season remaining.

Vic Hein, Lawrence Klarner and Jim Jensen earned recognition on the Associated Press honor roll. The season was officially closed at the annual football banquet. It was highlighted with the appearance of three Green Bay Packers. The seniors were honored with gold footballs.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming started off with a bang this year! Hobo Day was the best evening for the best dressed, funniest, prettiest, and most handsome Hobo going to Darlene Roepcke, Joan Gritt, Marion Verbeten, Tom Martin, Bob Weishoff, Melvin Briggs, Sharie Maass, and Leo Yerken.

The pep band and cheerleaders led the snake dance to the fairgrounds in the evening. A large bonfire had been prepared by Vic Hein and Bill Guyon. Speeches, cheers, and songs were led by the cheerleaders.

Friday the parade started at 1 o'clock with floats from every organization in the school. The prizes were given to the freshmen, F. H. A. and Science Club. The Seymour Indians gave Pulaski a great fight all the way, but Pulaski won 12 to 7. It was one of the greatest games of the year. In the evening Searl Pickett's orchestra played for the dance. The grand march was led by Queen Carol Kimps and King Eugene Kropp. Included in the court of honor were Darlene Roepcke, Richard Sachs, Noreen Gilbert, Russell Parker, Beverly Bartman and Jerry Klarner.

The gym was decorated with pennants, balloons, and goal posts under the direction of Mrs. West and Mary Short. The event was a big success for all who participated.

BASKETBALL

Seymour's first season in the North Eastern Wisconsin Conference was not too successful. Lacking height and with no returning lettermen, the team finished the season with a record of 17 losses and 3 wins. The team was further hampered by the loss of two regulars early in the season.

Seymour's scoring punch was centered around senior forward Brick and the junior center Husman. Altogether 17 men broke into the scoring column. Of these, 7 were Seniors, 5 Juniors, and 5 Sophomores.

The Indians' outstanding game of the season was played against their northern rival, Bonduel, with Seymour edging out a 55-53 victory.

B TEAM BASKETBALL

Seymour's "B" team used underclassmen exclusively this year. The final totals in the won and lost column were not the best, but the players gained valuable experience for next year's varsity play. Seymour featured a lot of height on this year's "B" squad, which will undoubtedly prove a large factor next year. The boys knocked the Oconto team out of first place in the "B" team conference, trouncing them 51 to 42. They also broke a record, set last year, by beating West De Pere 65 to 40.

The team was led in scoring by Weishoff and Rohm, who scored 123 and 84 points, respectively. The other players who scored were: Bennett Severson, 71; Dick Sachs, 61; Dallis Goerl, 44; Darrell Doersh, 53; Lavern Sassman, 37; Ken Braun, 37; Harold Grady, 36; and LeRoy Blohm, 29.

BASEBALL

1949-50 Season

Seymour's Indians started the 1949-50 season on a new field, with new suits and ten returning lettermen. After finishing a 3 win-3 loss regular season, the Indians dropped a heart-breaker to Kimberly, their old rival, in the opening game of the W.I.A.A. tourney by a score of 2 to 1. Marv Rohm, Seymour hurler, held Kimberly scoreless for 5 innings until finally they broke the ice and scored. The game went into an extra inning before Kimberly could edge out a 2 to 1 victory.

Some of the regulars were: Kuntsman, Ciesielczyk, Van Straten, Rohloff, Rohm, Nagel, D. Wickesberg, Burns, Conrad, Grunwaldt, Johns, and B. Wickesberg.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Dramatics Club was twice as much fun this year because there were two clubs preparing programs and presenting skits. Third Hour Club presented our Thanksgiving play, "Turkey Turns the Tables." Who could forget how JoAnn Van Straten walked on stage carrying the murderous axe. "The Christmas Pearl," presented by the Fifth Hour Club, added a lot of laughs to the annual yuletide party; particularly Janiece Bast with her recitation of Samuel Coleridge's "Rime of the Ancient Mariner." Other members of the Fifth Hour Club will never forget their practices for the Washington Day program. Their play, "A Living Room Valley Forge", was originally intended for an all boy cast, and it was quite confusing at the first practice to change all the parts for girls. Noreen Gilbert proved to be a convincing burglar.

Of course, with two clubs, we had two sets of officers. In the Third Hour Club our officers were: President, JoAnn Van Straten; Veep, Joan Gritt; and Secretary, Madelon Karczewski. Officers of our Fifth Hour Club were: President, Janiece Bast; Veep, Joan Jaskolski; and Secretary, Arlene Henke. Both officers and "crew" have done a nice job this year.

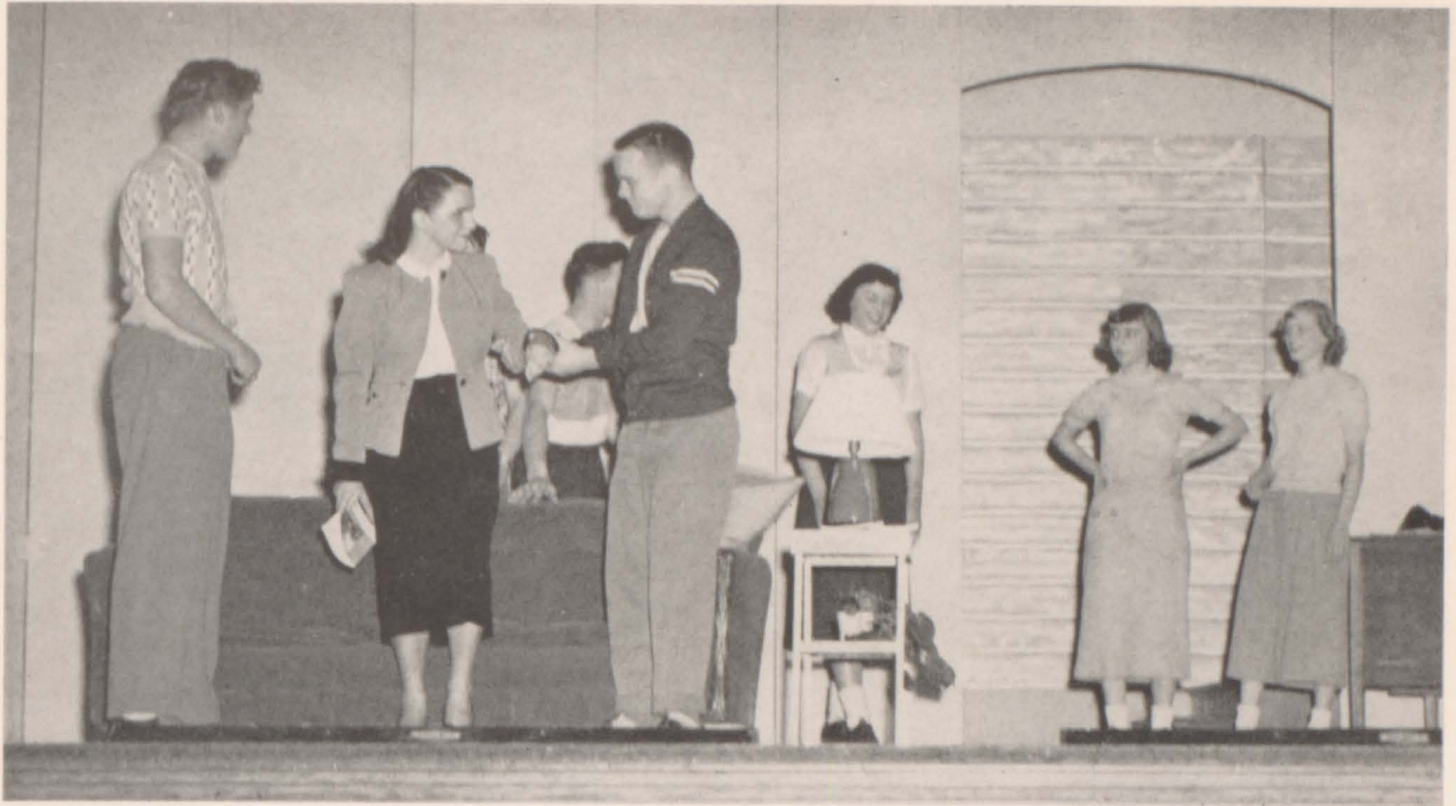

We are very proud of the people who participated in and worked for our One-Act Play this year. Phyllis Kimball, Suzanna Larkin, Ila Mae Stephani and Shirley Pingel gave the excellent performances in "The Bond Between," that took us to two contests, first to Brillion and then to Shawano (with the help of two automobiles driven by Eugene Thomas and Ken Boman).

CHORUS

This group consists of fifty-six girls who meet on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. These girls are the most select vocal group. They sang on three special occasions: the Christmas, Midwinter and Spring concerts. The Spring concert soloists are chosen from the highest winners at the April tournament. Soloists at the Christmas and Midwinter concerts included Joan Gritt, Marion Bloedorn, and Nancy Cook. The Chorus music librarians were Shirley Eick, Dorothy Lubinski, Mary Ann Gavronski and Eunice Wendt. Their accompanist was Jean Strutz.

B A N D

Every day during fourth period, as regular as time itself, the student body was serenaded by lovely music drifting up from the gym. You see, fourth period is the period the band rehearses.

We will all remember Mr. Flanagan saying "Don't wait until the night before the concert to start practicing." It must have done some good, though, for our concerts turned out well.

We all enjoyed playing the music although there were some pieces we didn't like, especially if they were hard to get.

However, our course in one of the finer arts was a rewarding experience and one which we shall not soon forget.

“Don’t eat before playing”, is a saying well known to all pep band members. Remember the extra note which someone always added to our songs; and the time we were all “scared stiff” when we marched onto the field for Homecoming? This year will go down in history for everyone.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America, Seymour chapter, is not only the largest organization in school, but also a very active one. We are ever working toward our over-all purpose, "Learning to live better today; that our lives and those of our family may be better tomorrow." We had some outstanding members in our club. Joan Gritt was a state officer last year and attended the National Convention at St. Louis. Arlene Henke, president of our chapter, and state secretary, spent part of her time attending state meetings and typing out minutes.

The members turned out in great style for the Pulaski rally. At Christmastime, we sent attractive gifts to girls at the Sparta Orphanage. The year came to a climax with the Mother-Daughter Banquet and the installation of the new officers. Let's hope next year is a valuable one for the members.

F. F. A.

At the first summer meeting of the Future Farmers of America this year, Mr. Hanson furnished refreshments in honor of his son Paul, a future F.F.A. member.

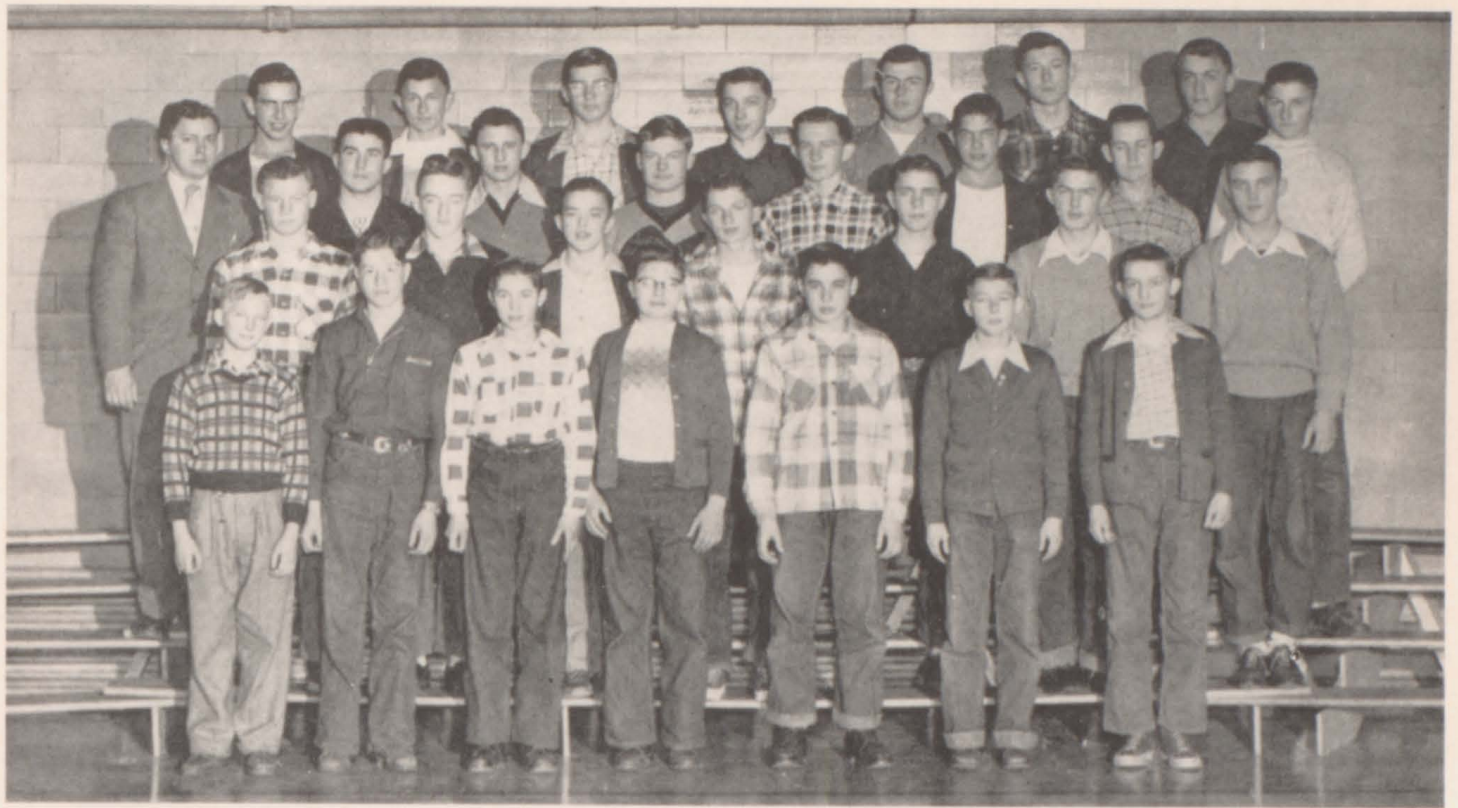

Our booth at the Fair took top honors again this year, while other F.F.A. projects received ribbons. Leroy Rahn led the field in magazine sales while milk and pop sales hit new peaks. Don Holding seemed top hogman, having the top litter in the swine weighing program.

Greenhands were initiated into the chapter with a special ceremony and Leonard Landwehr recited the F.F.A. creed.

Vic Hein led the chapter this year with Mr. Hanson and Mr. Kratochvill as advisors.

SCIENCE CLUB

Our Science Club officers for this year were: Tom Martin, president; Bob Nagel, vice president; and Kym Maass, secretary-treasurer. Don Sieb was elected as Student Council representative.

Meetings were held twice a month on Wednesday nights. Movies on juvenile delinquency, photography, and so forth were shown.

We received an honorable mention for our Homecoming float. It consisted of a sausage grinder and a stand where the sausages were sold. The sausages of course, were the Pulaski players. Decorations were in red and white crepe paper.

Some of our other projects were: Operating the movie projector, record player, and sound system. Others were: radio, water culture, and photography. We took a radio apart and assembled it on a large board so that it could be used for teaching radio. Mr. Korth is our new advisor this year.

Al Strutz, Bill Kasten, and Frank Baker.
