DEDICATION

Because you've stood beside us,
To guide us all the way,
And taken such an interest
In our work and in our play—
We gratefully dedicate this book,
Of all our high school years,
And hope in this small measure
We have thanked you, Parents Dear.

STUDENT COUNCIL

"Technical Advisors"

After a week of campaigning the Loyalist party won over the Federalist and Progressive parties. Jim Wolff was elected vice president and Helen Reis, secretary. Dallis Goerl automatically became president and Audrey Sobeick was appointed treasurer of the Student Council by the principal and commercial teacher. This was the first time for a number of years that three different parties ran for elections.

The representatives this year were chosen from the various homerooms instead of organizations.

SCIENCE CLUB

"MASTER ELECTRICIANS"

The Science Club is organized for those students interested in scientific work beyond their regular classroom work. Special duties of the club are operating the movie projectors, the tape recorder, and the record player for noon hour recreation.

Meetings are held twice a month on Wednesday night. At these regular meetings a scientific movie is usually shown with work on various projects. Some of the projects have been hydroponics, photography, radio, culture of bacteria and the mounting of a small animal skeleton.

SECOND ROW—F. Murphy, M. Weishoff, P. Lotter, R. Gritt.

SPANISH CLUB

"SPECIAL CONSULTANTS"

Spanish Club, the newest organization in school, had the following officers: President, Nancy Burmeister; Vice-president, Judy Burns; Secretary, Loretta Malueg; and Treasurer, Marlene Sherman.

Miss Kieffer led the group in many activities. The singing of Spanish Christmas carols, the breaking of the pinata, and the eating of Spanish food prepared by club members highlighted the Christmas party. An original skit in Spanish courting customs was given later in the year. Spanish dances and songs were learned and the members studied the customs of Spanish speaking people.

DRAMATICS CLUB

"MAKE-UP ARTISTS"

Again this year we have two Dramatics Clubs, but this time we seem to have four times as many members. Even some boys! Remember the Academy Award performance Bob Gritt gave as "Aunt Minerva" in the Thanksgiving play, Orchids for Thanksgiving? He kept his stocking seams straight too! That program took a lot of planning and hard work from the members of the Tuesday Club. As student director, Lynette Veitch did a nice job of directing the play. The stage crew took care of the costumes, properties, and make-up. Their hardest problem seemed to be to find a wig for Aunt Minerva.

Then it was the Thursday Club's turn to perform, and they prepared the Christmas play, Lift Thine Eyes. Never before did we have so many "aged" students in Seymour High. Jean Martin was very convincing as the oldest member of the Sunny Oaks Private Rest Home. And remember Joanie Wussow as Pheenie Purdy when she trimmed the Christmas tree? Another capable student director, JoAnn Van Straten, took charge of this play.

Officers for the two clubs are: Tuesday Club President, Kathleen Vanden Heuvel; Vice President, Carol Jens; Secretary, Lynette Veitch; and Reporter, Geneva Platten. Thursday Club officers are: President, JoAnn Van Straten; Vice President, Mary Elyn Weishoff; Secretary and Reporter, Suzanna Larkin.

Our One-Act Play group did an especially fine job this year, and we traveled to three out of four contests. The parts in Over the Teacups were very ably acted out by the cast which consisted of: Virginia Babbitt, Jean Strutz, Noreen Gilbert, and Shirley Pingel. Our many thanks go also to the fine crew who did all of the "behind the scenes" work.

All in all, Dramatics has had a very active and prosperous time this year and we hope to do as well in the future.

F.H.A.

"WARDROBE MISTRESSES"

Each year the Seymour chapter of the Future Homemakers of America plans a complete program of work. This keeps one of the largest organizations in school busy throughout the year.

The purposes of the FHA are to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership, to encourage democracy in home and community life, to work for good home and family life for all, to promote international good will, to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life, to provide wholesome individual and group recreation and to further interest in home economics.

Special consideration by the group was given to the Mother-Daughter Banquet. The homemakers sponsored the movie, "As Young As You Feel" during the FHA Week beginning February 11. During this week they took a special Valentine Day collection for Kay Seidl. The group sent Christmas gifts to Sparta, prepared special bulletin boards, served at banquets, sold pencils with the basketball schedule and attended the Green Lake Convention. The joint FFA-FHA party and picnic were two big events along with the annual spring style show.

F.F.A.

"MASTER CARPENTERS"

Seymour's F.F.A. has completed another active and progressive year. As we look back, we can easily pick out some of the highlights of their program.

The first major event of the year was the annual F.F.A. Father-Son Banquet with an attendance of two hundred and twenty-five. This was followed by magazine sales, a corn-growing contest, and continuation of the hog program. "County Fair" was the movie sponsored by the group.

Officers Leadership training school was again held at Seymour. Our officers were Dick Sachs, President; Dallis Goerl, Vice-President; Glen Rohm, Secretary; James Tubbs, Treasurer; Tom Welhouse, Reporter; and Harold Grady, Chaplain.

Two chapter farmers, Dallis Goerl and Vernon Court won Wisconsin Farmer Degrees.

PEP CLUB

SOUND EFFECTS

Sixty strong — that's the Seymour High School Pep Club! It became a bigger and better club as it advanced to a second year organization! The officers for the year were: President, Ila Mae Plamann; Reporter, Gwen Spaude; and Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Philipsen. Miss Peterson advised this "sound effects" group along with the cheerleaders.

Some of the main projects for the year were selling pep badges for Homecoming, wearing red and white beanies for basketball games and giving some skits at Pep assemblies.

FOOTBALL

"A" SQUAD

Seymour started its 1951 season with about nine returning lettermen. Among the nine were Dick Sachs, John Wurtzel, Jerry Wickesberg, Jim Tubbs, Larry Wirth, Bud Severson, Dave Husman, Dallis Goerl and LaVern Sassman. This year we started off with a new coach, Mr. Pieper and a "Split T" formation instead of the "Straight T." Mr. Wolk was named Athletic Director, head basketball coach and assistant coach in football.

Our first game with Gibraltar was a big success with the score 31-0. Dave Husman played a fine game. At Sturgeon Bay the rain hindered our speed and we lost by one touchdown. A freak pass lost the Algoma game for us. Oconto was next on our list and during the opening minute of the game, Dick Sachs made a ninety-seven yard run. We played the champs at Kewaunee in a hard fought game. Wickesberg and Wurtzel distinguished themselves throughout the entire game.

Bud Severson sparked the team to a brilliant Homecoming victory by defeating East De Pere 18-6. This was the first Homecoming victory in the school history.

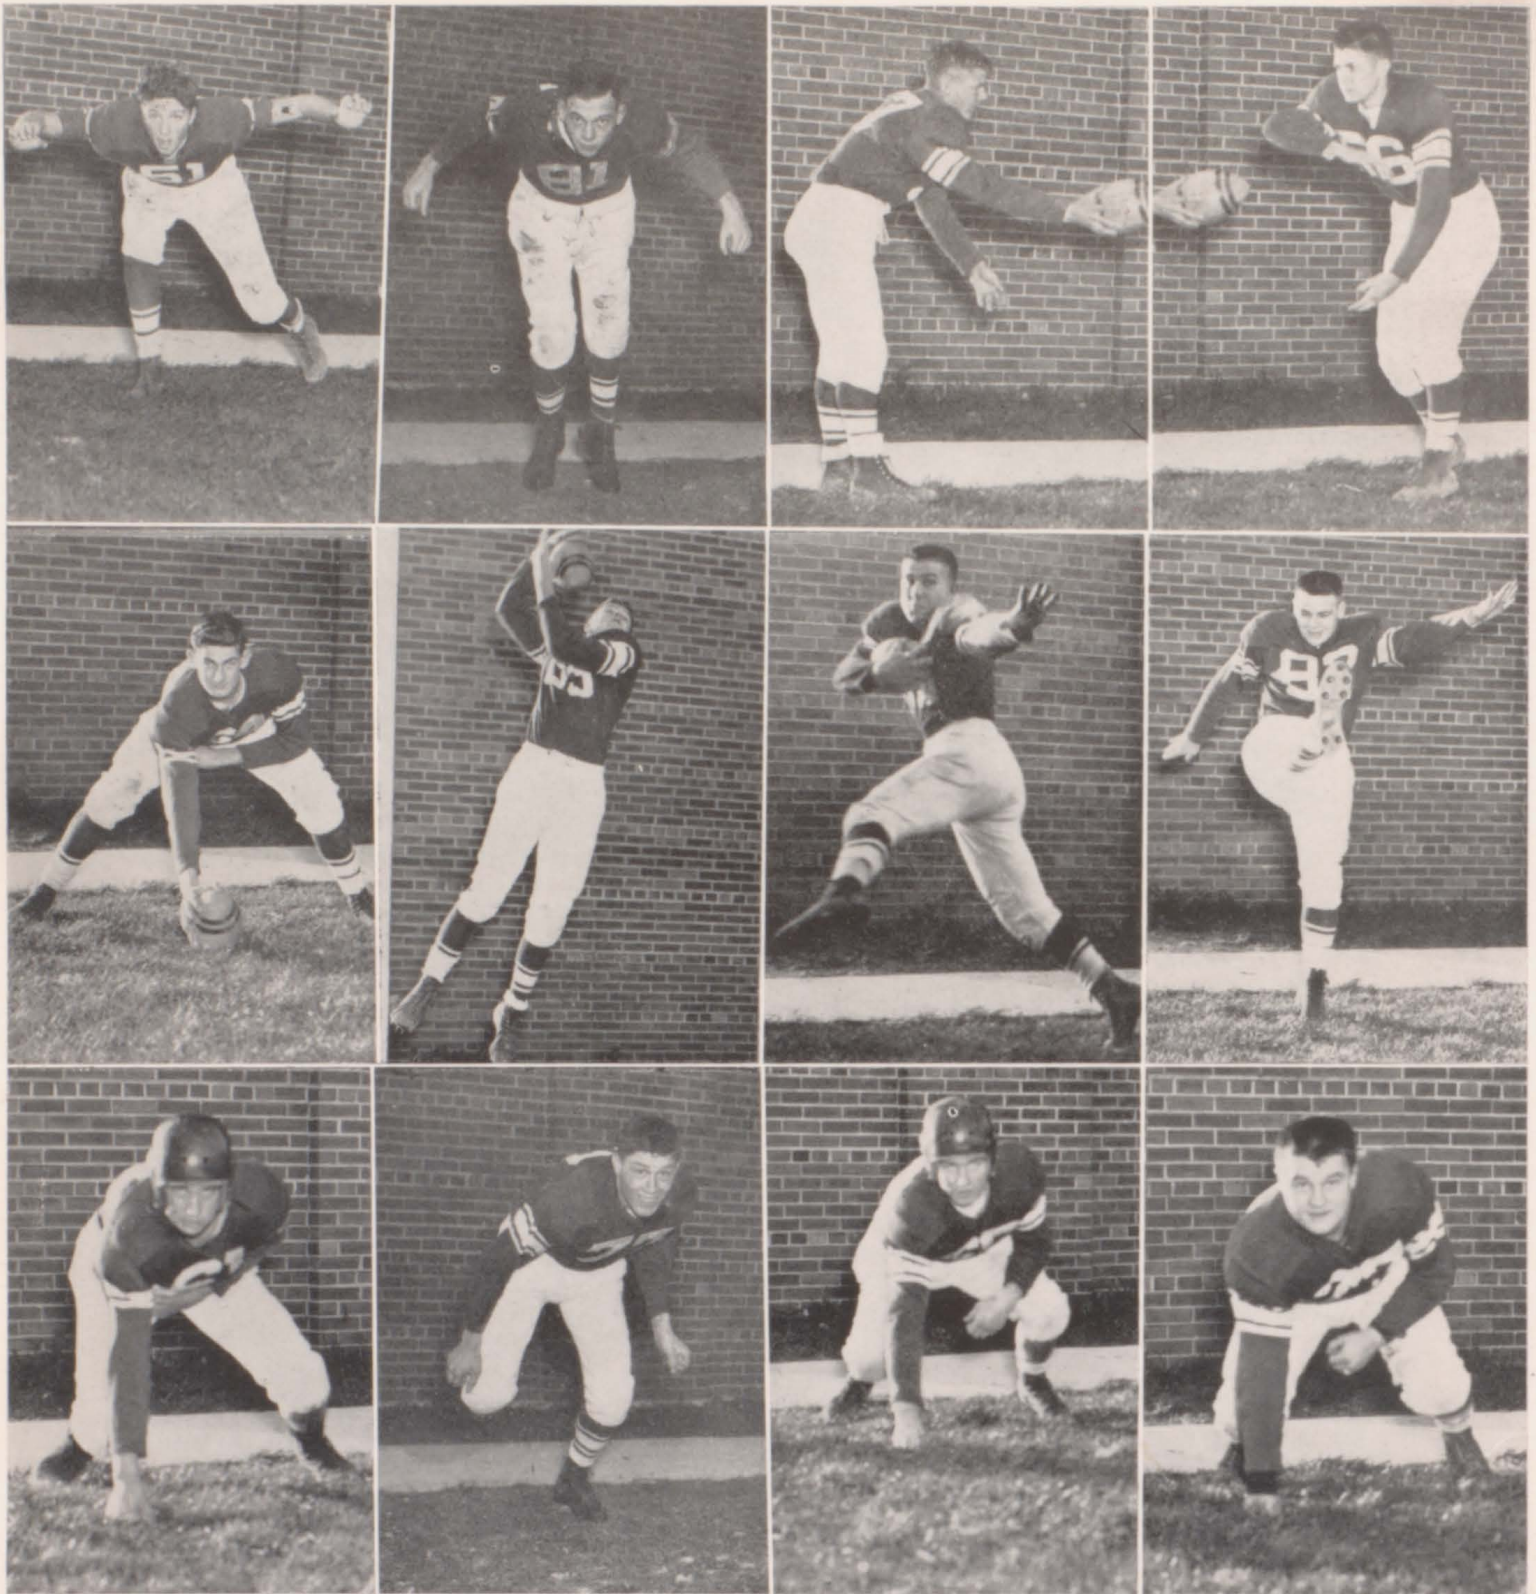

Dallis Goerl caught Severson's pass for Seymour's only touchdown against Oconto Falls. Larry Wirth and Jim Tubbs played an outstanding game. The season ended with a loss to Pulaski, despite Shufelt's and Ward's excellent play.

Other standouts during the season were Dreisow, Droeger, Coonen, Blohm, Braun, Weishoff, Malueg, Hebel, and Melotte.

The co-captains for the 1951 season were Dick Sachs and Bud Severson. Dick Sachs was chosen for the first all-conference team, while John Wurtzel and Jerry Wickesberg made the second all-conference team.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

At the end of the 1950-1951 school year a new organization, the Lettermen's Club, was inaugurated at Seymour High School. The purposes of this organization are to promote the athletic interests of its members and provide good fellowship and reunions, to promote better athletics and higher standards of sportsmanship, and to elevate and support athletics for Seymour High School.

One of the Lettermen's Club's annual projects is the Lettermen's dance. The purpose of this event is to raise funds for the betterment of athletics. The Lettermen's Club, also, presents the outstanding senior athlete with an award blanket each year. To become a member of this club a boy must win a letter in one of the major sports at Seymour High School.

Present officers of the Lettermen's Club are: President, Dick Sachs; Vice-president, Lawrence Wirth; Secretary, Bud Severson, and Treasurer, Bob Coonen.

BASKETBALL

"B" SQUAD

Seymour's "B" team showed a lot of pep and enthusiasm despite their 5-12 record during the season. The most impressive victory of the season was the defeat of West De Pere by a 53-52 score.

The team was led in scoring by Darrell Doersch and Winton Severson, who scored 126 and 80 points, respectively. The other players who scored were: Harold Grady, 47; LaVern Sassman, 44; Robert Weishoff, 43; Steve Rohloff, 41; Don Malueg, 39; Dave Wendt, 36; Ken Braun, 32; Robert Herning, 28.

BASKETBALL

"A" SQUAD

Seymour's second year in the Northeastern Wisconsin Conference proved to be a rugged one. Seymour ran into a streak of bad luck, losing six games by a margin of less than five points.

Dave Husman was the outstanding player for Seymour, breaking the school individual scoring average with a 19.25 average per game. He also wound up in second place in conference scoring with 316 points.

Seymour's outstanding performance was its game against Kewaunee, which was the only team to defeat West De Pere this season.

CHORUS

"VOCAL ARRANGEMENTS"

There is only one vocal group in school this year. Due to class conflicts, the mixed chorus could not be organized. Thus, there is only one large group of sixty-five members and that is the Girls Chorus.

The group sang six songs for the Christmas concert. Other highlights of the year are the mid-winter concert and spring concert.

The piano accompanists are Gwen Spaude and Jean Strutz. The assistant conductor is Lynette Veitch. The robe custodians are Jeanette Herning and Dorothy Heuser. Belvina Tyczkowski keeps the attendance record. The librarians are Nancy Melter, Suzanna Larkin, Joan Wussow, Mary Jane Ziegenbein and Wanda Rollo.

This group has elected the following officers: President, Janet Blair; Vice-president, Gwen Spaude; Secretary-treasurer, Carol Peterson; and Press Correspondent, Janice Tubbs.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

WALK-ONS

One hundred and twenty-five freshmen made their debut in this theater on September 4, 1951. Their initiation was one of the most memorable events of the year as the girls appeared in long underwear and trunks and the fellows in pajamas and sun glasses.

Certain members of the cast demonstrated their ability immediately. Nancy Melter and Ronald Thomas were the homecoming candidates. Donna Van Straten became a B-team cheerleader, a twirler and a member of the band. Guilford Mueller and Richard Van Dreele were elected B-team cheerleaders. Virginia Babbitt displayed her dramatic ability in the one-act play contest. Jean Graunke became an A-team debater. David Wendt played on the B-team basketball team. Many freshmen participated in the band, pep club, sports, and other activities. We are proud to have this group become part of our production.

The class officers are: Robert Herring, president; Allan Mott, vice-president; Judith Prelipp, secretary; and Gerald Marsh, treasurer. The advisors are Miss Peterson and Mr. Kratochvill.

BIT PLAYERS

The sophomores really took the honors when they started the social activity of the year off with the Freshman-Sophomore party. Members of both classes enjoyed games, dancing and refreshments.

Wayne Conrad and his partner, Judy Wurtzel were the homecoming representatives from this class. Sophomores that hit their mark in sports were Glen Mullen, Richard Mullen, and Steve Rohloff. Chester Bliss, Ralph Hallada and Richard Sutliff were football managers. Delmar Mueller and Glendon Ward became A-team cheerleaders. Yvonne Jenquin was a member of the A Debate team. Spanish Club included many class members, as did chorus and the All School Play. We certainly have great hopes for these players.

The class officers are: Judy Burns, president; Wayne Conrad, vice-president; Richard Mullen, secretary; and Janice Tubbs, treasurer. The advisors are Mr. Korth and Mr. Flanagan.

UNDERSTUDIES

The junior class proved themselves to be veterans of the stage when they received honorable mention on their Homecoming float this fall. The slogan read, "We'll make it hot for the redbirds." Class members still chuckle over the roasting of the redbird. The delegates for the Homecoming were Donald Malueg and his partner, Donna Mueller.

After much delay, Sonny Mason was selected as the orchestra for the prom. The date for the big event was set for May 2. Committees started working at the beginning of the second semester.

Sports claimed many juniors as participants. Larry Wirth, Bob Weishoff, Tom Welhouse, Ken Braun, Bob Coonen, Jim Tubbs, Stewart Droeger, Glen Rohm, and Don Malueg were regulars. JoAnn Van Straten, Jean Eick and Joyce Kropp helped lead the cheering section. Jim Wolff was elected Vice-President of Student Council and was chosen Associate Editor of the Blue Jay. Ila Mae Stephani, Kathleen Vanden Heuvel, Jean Martin, Lois Verbeten, Noreen Gilbert and Lynette Veitch were active in the Dramatics Club, but what would they have done without the juniors on the make-up crew?

The class officers are President JoAnn Van Straten, Vice-president James Wolff, Secretary Audrey Fischer and Treasurer Joyce Kropp. The advisors are Miss Haderlein, Mr. Weaver, Mr. Koepke and Mr. Pieper.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

"Once In a Lifetime," according to the legend, there reappears out of the earth, the lost city of Centuria.

Konrad, a gypsy, was adopted by the Rosses and brought up as their son. He is surrounded with kindness, generosity, and love, but still his longing to follow the trail of his own people grows into a passion with him.

So when a band of gypsies come to the village, Konrad slips away in the night to the gypsy camp. There he falls under the spell of the gypsies. While the gypsies plan to relieve him of his money, Konrad falls asleep and is transported in his dream to the fabled city, Centuria.

The entire third act is Konrad's dream scene, and from this dream rises Konrad's awareness of the lovely Laurie and realization that the way down the gypsy trail leads only into unreality.

"ALL CAST PARTY"

Homecoming time! The red and white trimmed halls were constant reminders of the coming event and the millions of things to be done before the Indians would meet East De Pere's Redbirds for the most exciting game of the season. There were floats to work on, slogans to be dreamed up, and a King to be chosen.

Busiest of all was Marlin Wagner, Homecoming Chairman, and probably the most excited person was Dolores Lembcke who was chosen Homecoming Queen. Jerry Wickesberg was her King.

Tradition reigns supreme at this time of year and so it was that Hobo Day was scheduled for Thursday. At 7:30 on Thursday evening the annual snake dance made its twisting path up Main Street and ended at the Fair Grounds. With the peppy music of the band, the huge blazing bonfire, and the cheers led by the cheerleaders, the students, faculty, and alumni alike felt some of the Homecoming spirit being transferred to them.

By Friday afternoon the parade was ready to wind its way down Main street and announce to all that Homecoming week at Seymour High was in full swing. The Senior class' cleverly decorated float won first place. Mort Munger and Joann Vanden Heuvel convincingly told the tale of how "We Aim to Win."

The main event took place on Friday evening when the Indians played host to East De Pere's Redbirds. Captain Bud Severson led the team to a victorious final score of 18-6. The football team played an outstanding game including seniors David Husman, Dick Sachs, Jerry Wickesberg, Ivan Ward, Douglas Shufelt, John Wurtzel, and Dallis Goerl.

PROM

"ALL CAST PARTY"

The Class of '52 chose "Pagan Love Song" as the theme for their 1951 Junior Prom.

After many long hours of work the Juniors had the gym completely decorated with swaying palm trees, bamboo huts, pink azaleas, and bamboo chairs, all of which took the couples to the isles of the South Pacific, a land of make believe and enchantment.

The reigning pair for the evening was Marlin Wagner as king, and Helen Reis as his queen. Members of the Court of Honor were: Jim Tierney and Joan Wussow; Ronald Sievert and Joann Fassbender; David Husman and Barbara Braun; Quintin Adamski and Belvina Tyczkowski; Morton Munger and Joan Thomas; and the king and queen of 1950, Jim Van Straten and Phyllis Kimball.

Bob Stevens and his orchestra together with the beautiful scenery helped set the romantic mood of the evening.

With the aid of the class advisors, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Halle, Mr. and Mrs. Wolk, and class president Morton Munger, the prom was a huge success. It will always bring back many memories to the juniors, who spent so many nights cutting palm leaves, sewing gunny sacks and making hundreds of azaleas.

Ruth Philipsen, Dallis Goerl, Gwen Spaude, Dolores Lembcke.

"THE STARS"

On September 7, 1948 ninety shy freshmen began four long, happy years within the doors of S.H.S. Initiation brought hair styles for the girls, high heels for the fellows and the air was scented with perfume. The first freshmen honor came when Donna Mae Mueller and Bud Severson reigned as the king and queen of the 1948 homecoming. Our class officers were: Donna Hancock, president; Richard Kuehne, vice president; Janet Blair, secretary; and Quintin Adamski, treasurer.

Eighty-nine returning sophomores enjoyed the experience of initiating the future class of 1953. It was fun seeing them bow to the floor in their flattering outfits of burlap and high heels. This year Belvina Tyczkowski and LeRoy Ciesielczyk were the homecoming king and queen. Officers for that year were: President, Dick Sachs; Vice-President, Dallis Goerl; Secretary, Ronald Jens; and Treasurer, Helen Reis.

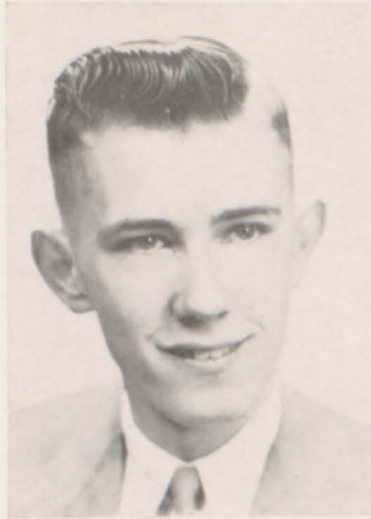

Bob Stevens and his orchestra provided music for the highlight of the junior year — the prom! King Marlin Wagner and Queen Helen Reis led the grand march. Our theme song was "Pagan Love Song." Darlene Roepcke and Dick Sachs were our homecoming candidates. Morton Munger led the class during our junior year. His helpers were: Dick Sachs, vice-president; Belvina Tyczkowski, secretary; and Dallis Goerl, treasurer.

As seniors we near completion of our high school life. Jerry Wickesberg and Dolores Lembcke filled the royalty position for the 1951 homecoming. After four years we find we have some famous people in our class. The list includes Morton Munger, the master artist; Audrey Sobieck, Blue Jay Editor and Student Council Treasurer; Shirley Coonen, F.H.A. President; Helen Reis and Darlene Roepcke, cheerleaders; and Dallis Goerl, Student Council President. Some of the athletes are Dick Sachs, David Husman, Bud Severson, Jerry Wickesberg, John Wurtzel, and Ivan Ward. Quintin Adamski is student director of the band. Guiding our class through its final year are: Dallis Goerl, president; Ruth Philipsen, vice president; Gwen Spaude, secretary; and Dolores Lembcke, treasurer. The advisors are Mrs. Kratochvill, Mr. Halle, and Mr. Patchett.

Now, as the grand finale of commencement draws near and we walk out of the doors of S.H.S. for the last time, we recall the fun and anxiety of the last four years — especially the fun!

IN MEMORIAM

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,

Mild and gentle, as he was brave,
When the sweetest love of his life he gave

To simple things; where the violets grew
Pure as the eyes they were likened to—

Think of him still as the same, I say;
He is not dead — he is just — away!

—James Whitcomb Riley

CURTAIN CALL

In the year 1960 we find these stars, who had their debut in their home town theater, now at their peak of stardom. We find them in many different parts of the world working successfully at their chosen careers. Gunars Eidemanis has returned to his native land of Latvia to display his American learned talents. Morton Munger has become one of the most popular American artists, specializing in the art of perfecting the "Petty Girl." Dolores Lembcke and Geneva Platten have taken their secretarial work to heart and are working in one of the M.G.M. Studios in Hollywood. Gwen Spaude and Jeanette Rohm have acquired a secretarial position with the Rockerfeller Oil Concern in Dallas, Texas. We find Doris Domke braving the jungles of Africa, as a missionary, bringing hope and happiness to the natives. Jeanette Herning and Dorothy Heuser are the magnificent duo now appearing on the Metropolitan stage for a nine week run. Mary Jane Ziegenbein has reached stardom by playing her saxophone with Wayne King and his orchestra. Maynard Maas and Robert Nagel are now star directors, with their academy award winning production being "Gone With the Wind, Back With the Breeze," starring Donna Kasperek and Bruce Buttles in the love scenes, James Miller as the comedian, and Joan Thomas as the man-snatcher. The publicity was furnished by Clarissa Doxtator's ability to spread the word throughout the telephone world. Quintin Adamski has graduated from Marquette University and is now pulling his way to success as a dentist. John Wurtzel in his pharmacist work is aiding Quintin by selling drugs to his patients. John is also receiving business from Dallis Goerl, who is a registered M.D. Bennett Severson also enters into this cycle as a mortician. Together these four boys have climbed the ladder to success. Shirley Coonen, Janice Peotter and Janet Stingle have graduated from Stout Institute and are now Home Ec. teachers. Helen Reis's title role is serving her country as a W.A.F. Melvin Briggs is also serving his country in the Navy and holds true to the Navy tradition of "a girl in every port."

We find these boys in the sports world: Richard Sachs, as an all-star football player; Douglas Shufelt as the heavyweight boxing champion of the world; Dave Husman as head basketball coach at Yale University, and Ken Ganzel is the number one hitter in the American League. Belvina Tyczkowski is in New York, offering her services as a registered nurse in a children's home. Sally Baumann has displayed her talents in this field also and is employed at the St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Appleton. Jane Haas, Dorothy Powless and Janis Ward are now grade school teachers. Dick Kuehne took his hot rod to the Indianapolis Speedway and on Memorial Day he won the title, "Champion of Champions." Lois Limberg has made her home in Tennessee as a social worker. Norbert Moeller has visited her recently as he toured the United States giving senatorial speeches with views toward the Presidency. Suzanna Larkin is Norbert's campaign manager for she has the ability to influence the public through her radio work. The last time we talked to Bernice Brugger, Patsy Matuszak, Ruth Philipsen, and Marie Peters, they agreed that stardom can be reached through marriage and thus they have chosen the roles of housewives as their careers. Jerry Wickesberg and Ronald Sievert are still continuing their wandering as in former years. We are sure they are doing quite well for themselves. We find Joann Fassbender and Barbara Braun working in New York City as a fashion designer and interior decorator. Donna Mae Mueller does exclusive modeling on Broadway. Guy Daniels has become one of the top scientists through his invention of the V-8 Diesel Engine. Walter Wieckert has contributed many ideas to the world of science and is noted as a second Einstein.

Glenn Knox, owner of "The Palms" Night Club has on contract the beautiful singer, Joan Reed and the world-famous comedian Ronald Jens, who has a solo act to amuse the public for a two year term. Ila Mae Plamann works here as a hat-check girl. George Vissers and Ivan Ward have penetrated the unknown and treacherous parts of Africa and have become widely known as hunters and explorers. We are well aware of Joan Wussow's acting ability as she stars on Broadway, after seeing her in "Lift Thine Eyes." James Tierney now owns his own dairy in Seymour and is very prosperous in his business. Joanne Vanden Heuvel has settled in Wyoming on her 350 acre horse ranch. Geraldine Ciha is helping Joanne by doing the cooking and the housework on the ranch. Bob Gritt has finished his studies in aeronautics and is now a pilot for Trans-Atlantic Airways. Marlin Wagner has also completed his studies in engineering and is now working in Milwaukee for the General Electric Company. We weren't at all surprised to find Janet Blair, also, in Milwaukee teaching a Kindergarten class. Betty Stuckart is touring the South as a U.S.O. entertainer for all the Air Force bases. She told us that William Abel is now a five-star General and is threatening to run for president next year. We discovered that Bob Appleton is still working at the University of Wisconsin on his plan for a three-day-week school term. We wish him the best of luck!

Mary Ann Vanden Heuvel is writing a new Joke Book as she travels from state to state in her trailer. The last time she journeyed through California she stopped off at Darlene Roepcke's nationally advertised restaurant, "Cuddle Cove", run by her efficient waitresses, Beverly Defferding, Esther Felton, and Elaine Buss. South of the Mason-Dixon line — in Georgia — Vernon Court and Vernon Driesow own a large southern plantation, their principle crop being "Georgia Peaches." Weyno Ohlrogge is delighting the public as a pianist and is playing at Carnegie Hall. Audrey Sobieck has become editor of the Chicago Tribune and is known as the "Eyes and Ears" of the newspaper world. Delores Drews is kept busy with her job as hair-stylist in a New York beauty salon.

And as the footlights are dimmed and the curtain closes on this review of stars, we feel assured that the Class of "52" has won national acclaim.

OSCARS

We, the members of the senior class of '52 of the Seymour High School, being of sound mind and memory make and declare this our final will and testament, in manner and form in the proper procedure as follows.

Vernon Court leaves his interest in farming to Jane Zillmer, (I don't know why, but he is). Guy Daniels gives his mechanically inclined brain to the next year's physics classes, a precaution so none of the students will lose interest. Delmar Mueller and Glen Ward receive cheerleading ability from Darlene Roepcke and Helen Reis. Richard Sachs wills his football shoes to Bob Coonen so he may follow in his footsteps. Gunars Eidemanis gives his skill in cracking gum to anyone in Miss Haderlein's history classes, in hopes that it will keep the students popping. Cletus Goffard gets Vernon Dreisow's truck so he may continue to get to school in the morning. Ken Braun, David Wussow, and LaVern Sassman receive the friendship of Ronald Sievert, Marlin Wagner, and Gerald Wickesberg. Mary Jane Ziegenbein very unwillingly gives up her love of the junior boys to the next year's senior girls. Bernice Brugger's love letters from Germany go to the library, so other people may get a kick out of reading them. Donald Swiecichowski receives Doris Domke's ability of doing the Charleston. Elaine Buss, Delores Drews, and Esther Felton's quiet manners go to Audrey Fischer, Ruth Reinke, and Audrey Brandenburg. Joan Thomas and Joann Fassbender give their good taste in clothing to the needy. Bob Appleton will give back anything he received from this school, because he thinks it is no asset to him. Janet Blair shyly gives her height to Nils Ulmer, so they will balance up more evenly. Clarissa Doxtator's telephone operator's voice goes to Bob Weishoff, while Richard Kuehne, and Maynard Maas give their bookkeeping ability to Alan Mott, and LeRoy Rahn. Dorothy Heuser and Jeanette Herning give their rehearsing doing the polka to the phy. ed. classes so they may continue to keep up the good work. Jane Haas, Janice Peotter, and Lois Limberg give their clarinets to the band; maybe they can find some practical use for them. Dave Consoer and Jo Ann Van Straten receive Bruce Buttles and Donna Kasperek's seats on the Black Creek bus. Morton Munger gives his artistic ability to James Wolff. Robert Nagle gives his flashy sport shirts to the sewing classes; maybe they can make them over, while Dolores Lembcke and Geneva Platten will their jobs at Reese's to their little brothers. Gwen Spaude leaves her beloved trombone to the remaining "Fearless Four." Jim Tierney and George Vissers give their "that morning after look" to anyone with a car. Jim Miller's hard studying goes to Pat Lotter. Joanne Vanden Heuvel, and Joan Reed give their never ending pep to Eugene Van Kauwenberg and Darrel Doersch. Belvina Tyczkowski leaves her famous soprano voice to the chorus. Weyno Ohlrogge and Suzanna Larkin give their pepsodent smiles to Wanda Rollo and Violet Cornelius. Ivan Ward and Douglas Shufelt will their friendliness to Eugene Hebel and John Melotte. Beverly Defferding's long curly locks go to Terry Kuehne. Something has to keep his neck warm. Quintin Adamski gives his wavy hair to the highest bidder. Donna Mae Mueller and Jeanette Rohm give their love of Five Corners to Merle Krueger and Charles Sommers. Norbert Moeller, Dallis Goerl, and Glenn Knox leave their experience in the F.F.A. to the F.H.A. Bob Gritt gives his scouting eye for girls to the freshmen boys. He feels that they could use the experience. Ken Ganzel gives his fox-y escapades to Glen Mullen. Audrey Sobieck gives her love for Seymour High School to her sister, Arlene. Walter Wieckert wills his Ford station wagon to the kids he transports so they may continue to keep coming to S.H.S. Johnny Wurtzel and Bud Severson give their places in the shower room to the janitors, in hopes that there will be less work in cleaning up. Bill Abel's quietness goes to Bob Weishoff. Melvin Briggs career as a waiter goes to Tom Welhouse. The lovely red blushing of Joan Wussow and Shirley Coonen go to Don Abel and Armen Armitage. Betty Stuckart and Janet Stingle's dreams of no homework go to Tom Skelly and Janet Ziesemer, while Geraldine Ciha's interest in drummers is received by Donna Van Straten. Barbara Braun's temper is pushed onto her little brother Whitey; (he can maybe make a better use of it). Dave Husman's escapades on the basketball court are given to Tom Welhouse, while Ronnie Jens wishes to confer the joy he got from sleeping in class to anyone who needs the rest. Patsy Matuszak and Dorothy Powless give their brown eyes to anyone who wishes to have them. Janis Ward and Janet Stingle give their shyness to Marilyn Schreiber and Mary Elyn Weishoff. At the same time Mary Ann Vanden Heuvel gives her roaring Pontiac to Randall Peters, so he may sell his Ford. Sally Baumann gives her smile to Patti Pierce. Ruth Philipsen gives her pep in classes to Lynette Veitch. Ila Mae Plamann wills her friendly smile to anyone who needs it.

The class of '52 wants to give the class of '53 all the luck and hope of which we received from this school. And to the school, it's a memory and remembrance of four years well spent.
