Construction of the new Seymour Union High School building began early this fall. The building is being built on a 33-acre site facing highway 54, in the southwest section of the city of Seymour. It will contain 17 classrooms, 2 music rooms, a shop, a library, administrators offices, multi-purpose room equipped with kitchen, and a gymnasium with a seating capacity of 1500. Lawrence Monberg and Associates, Kenosha, are the architects.

FOREWORD

This 1954 Ripper has been designed to acquaint you with the new Seymour Union High School District and the future school building that the students will occupy next year. When we look ahead to new things, it is often a good time to cast a backward glance at the more familiar things we have had.

What we know as the grade part of our present building was built in 1903 and the newer high school addition was completed in 1936. Many students will continue to look at the present site as "their" school, and so gathering up all the happy memories of people and events, this year's Ripper Staff would like to say "Thanks for everything" to this school and to the new—"Onward Seymour."

DEDICATION

The Class of '54 wishes to dedicate this Ripper to Mr. Richard Koepke, Jr. We met him as freshmen in Social Studies and renewed our acquaintanceship with him as seniors in American Problems. He has guided us to a broader understanding of what lies before us after graduation.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Secretary Nils Ullmer, Vice President Wayne Conrad, President Marvin Schneider, and Treasurer Delores Vanden Langenberg.

SENIORS

High school life was entirely new for the one hundred and thirty puzzled freshmen who entered Seymour High School on September 8, 1950. We became better acquainted soon, however, as initiation and the Freshman-Sophomore party passed, leaving many pleasant memories with us. We gained recognition when our homecoming float won first prize. That year, our homecoming candidates were Jerry Klarner and Beverly Bartman. Our class president, Chester Bliss, was outstanding in football until injuries kept him from the playing field. The other class officers were vice president Janet Tubbs, secretary Terry Kuehne, and treasurer Glen Mullen.

Introducing the freshmen to the school was the first task of our sophomore year. Our homecoming candidates were Wayne Conrad and Judy Wurtzel. The class officers chosen were: Judy Burns, president; Wayne Conrad, vice-president; Richard Mullen, secretary; and Janice Tubbs, treasurer.

Our class was full of politicians in our junior year, as we had four candidates for vice president of Student Council. The winning candidate was Steve Rohloff. Our homecoming float, with the slogan, "Witches Brew Makes Panther Stew" won third prize in the parade. Duane Wagner and Carol Jean Stephani were our homecoming candidates. The major event of the year, the Junior Prom, became a reality on April 24. Jerry Smith's orchestra supplied the music for the "April in Paris" theme. Kay Plamann and Janet Tubbs reigned as king and queen of the event. Steve Rohloff, class president, was general chairman of the Prom. Other officers during this important year were: Kay Plamann, vice-president; Pat Smith, secretary; and Douglas Buttles, treasurer.

One hundred members of our class were back for their senior year. Richard Mullen and Betty Rankin were king and queen of the homecoming. Steve Rohloff became president of the Student Council. Ralph Hallada and Judy Burns were co-editors of the Ripper, while Nancy Burmeister edited the Blue Jay. President of FHA was Mary Ann Stingle, and Douglas Buttles was the president of FFA.

JUNIORS

After three months of vacation one hundred and eight juniors returned to complete their task of getting an education.

The first big event of the school year for them was the homecoming. Ken Schuyler and Diane Baehler were the junior representatives on the Court of Honor. Everyone was excited when they took top honors in the parade with their float. "The Indians Will Dance While the Blue Devils Burn."

"Strangers in Paradise" was selected by the class as the theme for their prom held on April 30th. Jimmy James furnished the music for the splendid evening in paradise for all prom-goers. A revolving light cast shadows upon the dancing couples as they whirled across the floor especially noticing the littlest Angel.

Many juniors participated in sports. Among them were Winton Severson, Ken Schuyler, John Walters, James Walters, Allen Hurlburt, Jerry Eick, David Wendt, David Peotter, Michael Smith. Donna Van Straten was a team cheerleader.

Eva Kloehn was elected secretary of the Student Council with Winton Severson as the vice-president.

Juniors who transferred from other schools are James House, East Green Bay; Allen Hurlburt, Bonduel; and Glenn Weihing, Shiocton.

The class officers are President David Went, Vice-President Richard Van Dreel, Secretary Diane Baehler, and Treasurer Winton Severson.

Advisors for the group were Mr. Main, Miss Churney, Miss Teetzen and Mr. Rynearson.

SOPHOMORES

The one hundred and eighteen sophomores started the school year by initiating the freshmen and being hosts and hostesses at the Freshmen-Sophomore Party.

Next on the schedule was the homecoming with Donald Cornelius, and his date Harriet Mecikalski as the class representatives.

Otto Goettel, Arthur Haas, David Grunwaldt, Donald Reinke and others showed their abilities in sports. Supporting the team were Yvonne Gilbert and Carol Verbeten A-Team cheerleaders and Fern Eick, and Robert Lotter B-team cheerleaders.

Many sophomores proved themselves in extra-curricular activities. Barbara Wussow and Carol Techlin were active in the vocal department and others participated in Dramatics Club, Band, and Blue Jay.

Kenneth Spaude is president of the class. The other officers are, Vice president Fern Eick; Secretary Carol Verbeten; and Treasurer Carol Wassenberg. Mr. Behrendt, Mr. Halle, Mrs. Jenkins, and Mrs. Nigl are the class advisors.

FRESHMEN

The long awaited first day of school finally arrived and 128 freshmen stepped into Seymour High School for the first time. The first big event of the year, Initiation, helped everyone get acquainted. The girls were decked out in long underwear, shredded skirts, and big boots. The boys were very stylish in their diapers, baby bonnets, and ribbons.

Several freshmen were soon noticed. Bonnie Van Straten and Pat Brooks became "B" team cheerleaders. Jerry Hill and Jean Smith were homecoming candidates. Bob Milburn and others became active in sports. Others soon showed up in clubs, such as FHA., FFA., Dramatics and the Blue Jay.

The class officers are President Jim Eick, Vice-President Gale Wandke, Secretary Janet Landwehr and Treasurer Mary Cook. Their class advisors are Mr. Kopke, Mr. Weaver, Miss Haderlein, and Miss Worwood.

THE FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT

Eva Kloehn at the Speaker's Platform

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Thursday, September 24th brought a busy week of political campaigning in the Seymour Union High School to an end. The posters were torn down, and the platforms had been repeated many times. When the 8:45 bell rang and the halls had quieted, student representatives hurried down the corridors with the very important ballots. At 8:50 the student body was voting for the next Vice-President and Secretary of the Student Council.

Who were the candidates on the ballot? This is what the voters found before them.

The Federalists Party had named Winton Severson as the Vice-President and Donna Van Straten for the Secretarial position. Our Loyalist party was cheering for David Wendt and Eva Kloehn, while the new Union Election had listed Richard Van Dreel and Mary Ann Baehler as its choices.

The ballots were collected and the results were announced at 1:10 p.m. for all to hear! Winton Severson and Eva Kloehn had won the S.A.F. Vice-President and Secretarial positions for 1953-1954.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

A quaint set, Pennsylvania Dutch dialect, and an unusual story made the production "Papa Is All" a memorable evening. The play is a story of Mennonites — a mother, daughter and son who rebelled against dominating, tyrannical Papa. Emma went to a movie without "Papa give the dorst." When Mrs. Yoder, a neighbor, unwittingly revealed the secret, Papa decided to shoot Emma's young man. Jake's solution to the problem provided many a laugh and exciting moments too.

DRAMATICS CLUB

This past year our Dramatics Club had approximately 100 members and were divided into the same major groups as last year: Thespians, Costumes & Make-up, and Stage Crew. Members are taken from each group to help on the various programs and projects of the year.

To lead our group for the year we chose Richard Van Dree, president, Judy Prelipp, vice-president, Judy Wurtzel, secretary and Mary Ann Stingle, treasurer.

For our Thanksgiving program we presented

THANKSGIVING, FAMILY STYLE with Mary Ann Baehler and Dick Van Dree as student directors. It showed us that families can get along together. Also at this program we presented the One-Act Contest play FOG which went to two contests this year thanks to the fine acting of Betty Lou Coonen, Diane Baehler and Nancy Burmeister.

At Christmas time we presented GRANDMA AND MISTLETOE directed by Nancy Burmeister.

The 1953-54 school year seemed like a very successful one for all of us.

JUNIOR PROM

Work began on the big 1953 Junior Prom early last year for both the faculty and the students. Everyone worked overtime to make scenery and to seek out the proper chairs and tables. The theme "April in Paris" found the traditional candles on the brightly colored table cloths to signify the famous French cabarets.

As you entered the gaily colored gym, you paused under a replica of the "Arche De Triumph." Along the walls were scenic Paris street scenes with their numerous small shops. There life-sized scenes gave the "Paris" atmosphere to the park, the bubbling fountain and the spring flowers. The ceiling was decorated with blue crepe paper and the lamp posts in the front of the scenes gave the light and airy feeling of "April in Paris."

Leading the Grand March were King Kay Plauman and Queen Janet Tubbs. The Court of Honor included Mary Ann Baehler and Fred Haase, Yvonne Gilbert and Wayne Conrad, Joyce Haas and Douglas Buttles, and Judy Wurtzel and James Draeger. The pages were Jerry Tierney and Pamala Baehler. Beverly Riehl and Harold Grady crowned the King and Queen of the 1953 Prom. Music was furnished by Jerry Smith and his orchestra.

As the juniors cleaned up the next day and as you overheard various conversations the following week, everyone knew "a good time was had by all!"

LIBRARY

As a place to study, to read, and to do research, our library is filled every hour of the day. The students take advantage of its quiet atmosphere, its recent books and current newspapers. As you enter the library, you can see the students at different tables looking over recent copies of the Post, Time or Sports magazines.

On hand to help the students to find and check out books were eighteen fellow students who worked one period each day to act as assistant librarians. If the librarians are unable to locate the wanted material, the student may go to Mrs. Jenkins, our librarian.

Each year our library grows with the addition of new, attractive books. Several times during the school year displays of new books are made.

 Standing—P. Melter, J. Strutz, A. Brandenburg, B. Bartman, K. Biese, M. Main.

OFFICE WORKERS

"Let's have your excuse" is a common phrase heard in the office each and every morning. "May I please use the stapler?" "May I use the phone?" These and countless requests are handled by Mr. Patchett, Mr. Main, Joleen Mueller and the student office girls for teachers and students alike. The Office is a busy place, and everyone actually appreciates the help given there.

Kitchen Duty during the Athletic Banquet

"FHA, FHA, in happy homes at work and play" is the theme song of the one hundred and twenty-five Future Homemakers of America. Even though the membership is high, all the members participate in some activity at one time or another during the year.

This year's group started by having ninety members attend the FHA rally on November 11, at Hortonville. A FHA movie titled, "Sangaree" was sponsored, and FHA week with a different goal each day was promoted. Each banquet held at school found FHA girls working in the kitchen together until the main event of the year — the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet—when the FFA boys took over part of the K. P. Duty.

Officers were Mary Ann Stingle, president; Pat Smith, vice-president; Mary Ann Baehler, secretary; Ruth Ann Schmidt, treasurer; Diane Baehler, parliamentarian; Sharie Maass, historian; and Barbara Droege, reporter. Miss Teetzen and Miss Ziegeweid were the advisors, and the chapter mothers were Mrs. Walter Baehler and Mrs. Stanley Marnocha.

F.F.A. Banquet: (Seated) D. Buttles, M. Single, R. Miller; (Standing) Mr. Hanson, C. Marcks, D. Wagner, M. Krueger, R. Thomas, L. Landwehr, Mr. Rynearson.

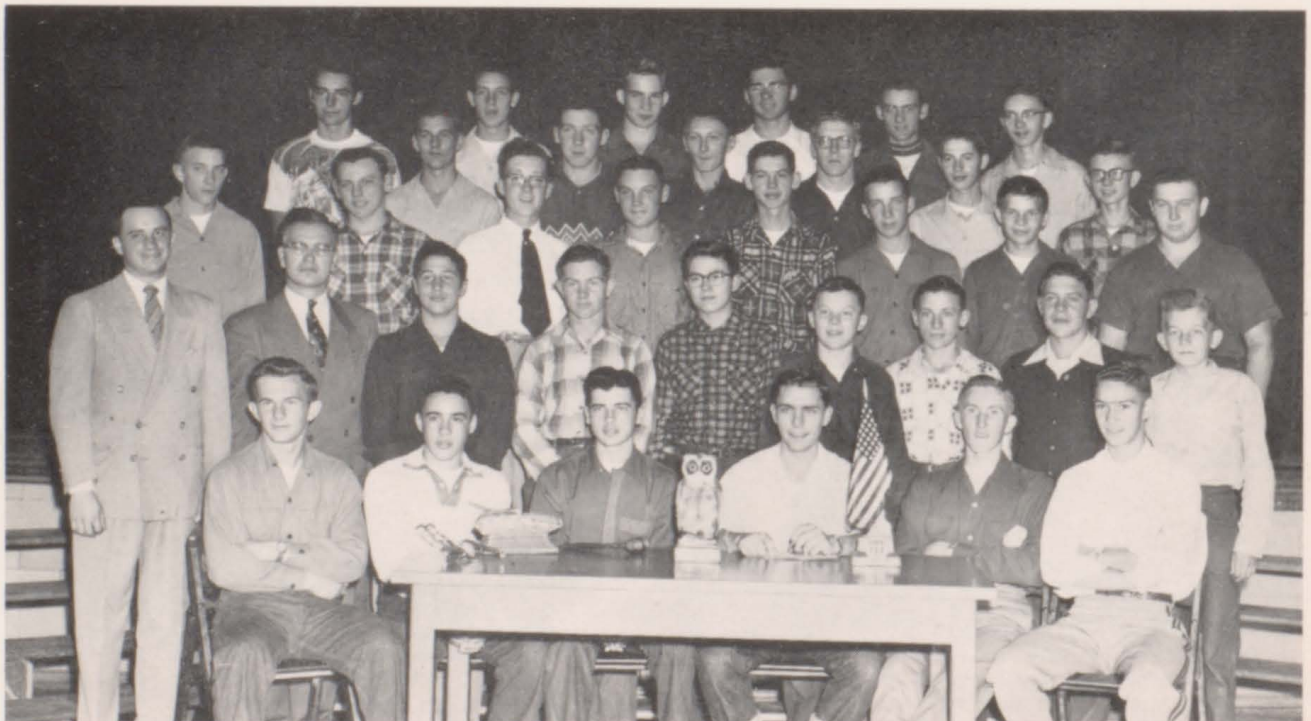

Seymour's local F.F.A. group looked forward to an enterprising year after achieving a Blue Ribbon Booth at the Outagamie County Fair in August. September and the beginning of school brought a well planned program for the chapter members to carry out during the year.

One hundred and fifty people attended the annual Father-Son Banquet. At the big event, the winners of the Wisconsin Hybrid Corn Growing Contest were announced. Dick Haefs repeated from last year by taking first, Donald Barth placed second and Bill Cleven third.

Further recognition had been given for the group last spring when chapter farmers, Douglas Buttles and Richard Haefs, each received a Wisconsin Farmer Degree at the State F.F.A. Convention. At this time, Merle Kreger, our former chapter president and Vice-President of Section IV, was elected State President of the Wisconsin Association.

Our 1953-1954 officers were: Douglas Buttles, president; Robert Miller, vice-president; Leonard Landwehr, secretary; Charles Marcks, treasurer; Duane Wagner, reporter; and Ronald Thomas, chaplin. The complete program was under the supervision of our advisors, M. Hanson and Mr. Rynearson.

SCIENCE CLUB

Since the first meeting of the Science Club, the membership has grown 25 students. Mr. Korth, the advisor directs all the activities which have included Morse Code, photography demonstrations and radio projects. A permanent responsibility of the club is the operating of all the sound and movie projection equipment.

Every second Monday in the month the club meets in the evening. A movie is usually shown along the present interest of the group. The members were excited over placing second in the Homecoming Float Parade last fall.

DEBATE

Resolve: That the President of the United States should be elected by the direct vote of the people is the question before this year's debate team. The debators attended the District Debate Tournament held at Neenah on February 6. Several debates were held in the classes for the benefit of the students and the debators.

FORENSICS

February 25th was the date for the local forensics contest. Thirteen winners were selected by Mrs. Earl Fisk to represent Seymour at Pulaski on March 13. The forensics coaches were Mrs. Nigl, Miss Jenson, Mrs. Jenkins, and Miss Wormwood.

First Row—D. Loos, S. Kollath, R. Schmidt, H. Mecikalski, Second Row—R. Van Dreel, J. Graunke, M. Stingle J. Burns, C. Tecklin, H. Krahn, Mrs. Nigl.

WE WATCH WITH ANTICIPATION

The cornerstone of the new Seymour Union High School was laid on March 2, 1954. (Left to right) Mr. Milton Main, Principal, Steve Rohloff, President of Student Council, Mr. Marvin Babbitt, President of the Board of Education, and Mr. Milton Patchett, Superintendent of the Seymour Public Schools.

Seated—Peggy Melter, P. Hein, M.A. Stingle.
 Standing—Miss Churney, N. Marnocha, B. Droeger.

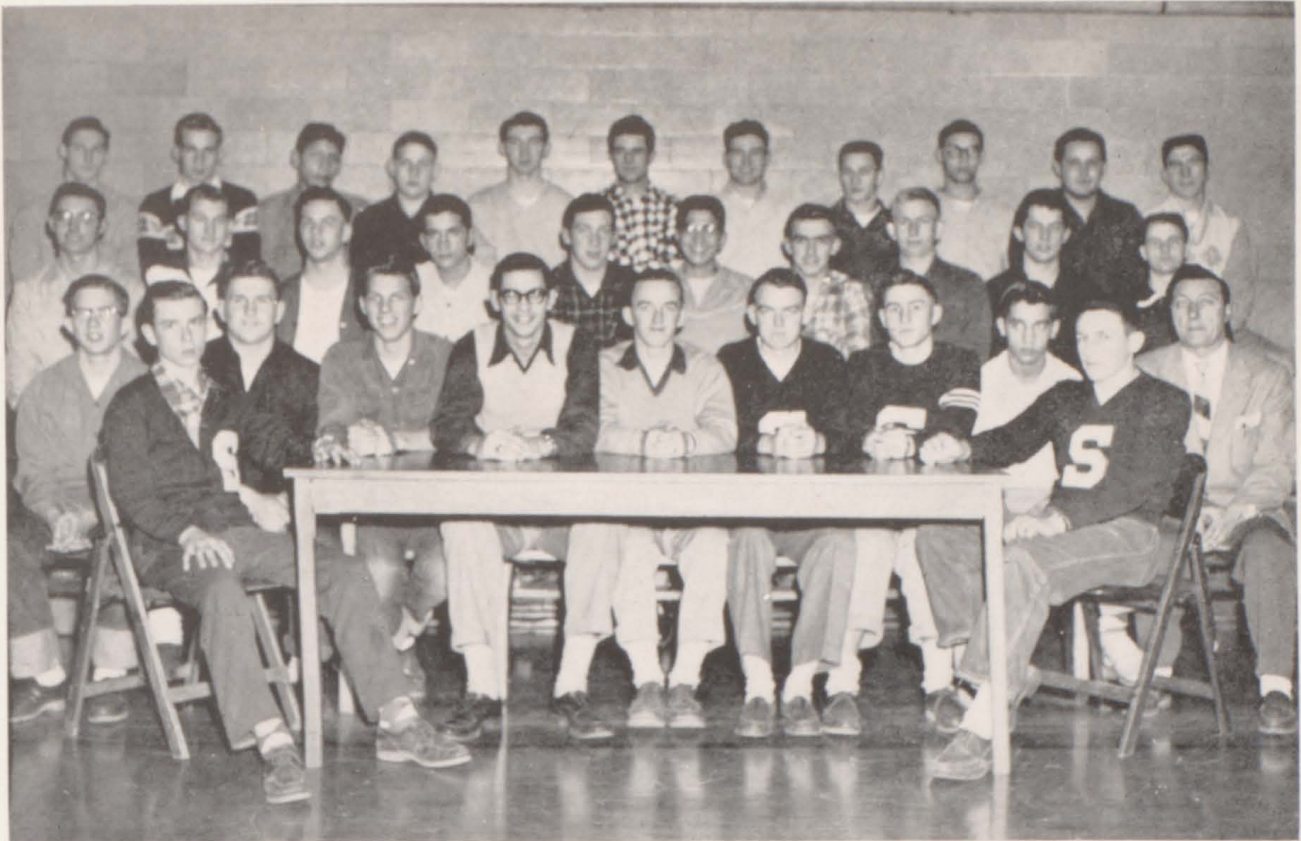

President Pat Hein led the seventy-six cheering members of Pep Club during the school years of 1953-54. Every student will remember some particular poster or some pep assembly activity. (Who could forget the Jug-Band?) We had Allen Hurlburt as guest artist at the piano, various skits and vocal groups. On hand to help us out at all times were the cheerleaders and the Band.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Seymour's Lettermen's Club is an organization made up of all the lettermen in the high school. Each year they sponsored a big dance and the date for it this winter was February 12th. In this way, all the fellows could escort their favorite valentines.

Thirty-five members comprised the group and the officers were as follows: President Steve Rohloff, Vice President Kay Plamann, Secretary Wayne Conrad, and Treasurer Nils Ullmer.

ATHLETIC BANQUET: (Seated) Mr. Weaver, Mr. Doehling, Mr. Pieper, Mr. Wolk.

(Standing) Mr. Hebel, Mr. Patchett, Reverend Berry, Mr. Walter.

HOMECOMING

Our annual two day event began on Thursday, October 15th with the traditional Hobo Day. The best dressed hoboes marched down Main Street in the colorful parade. Those winning prizes for their costumes were: Patti Pierce, most foreign; Lyle Laske, most original; Mary Ann Baehler, most old fashioned; and Charles Marcks, funniest.

Thursday evening the Snake Dance circled down Main Street cheering all the way. It began at school and ended at the fairgrounds, where we witnessed the bonfire and pep rally.

Friday found the students carefully and hurriedly making the floats to appear in the afternoon parade. The junior class received first place with the slogan "The Indians Will Dance While the Blue Devils Burn." Second place went to the Science Club with "We'll Short-Circuit The Blue Devils" and the Lettermen's Carriage won third place.

Twenty-six to seven was the final score for the evening's game against Oconto. After a good fight the large crowd thronged to the high school gym for the Homecoming Dance. The Balladaires furnished the music for the occasion.

Richard Mullen, was selected as King of the 1953 Homecoming and with him reigned Betty Rankin as Queen. The Court of Honor included Ken Schuyler, Diane Baehler, Dan Cornelius, Harriet Mecikalski, Jerry Hill, and Jeanne Smith.

The enthusiasm of students and alumni participators proved to make this affair the highlight of the football season.

FOOTBALL

Our football team had what could only be termed as a "rough time" this year. They only scored one touchdown and one point after the touchdown. Because of injuries and inexperience they didn't seem to have the winning punch that the other teams showed in the conference. There were only five returning lettermen from last season. Some of the injuries were Glen Mullen, Lyle Laske, Fred Haase, Glen Ward, Steve Rohloff, Duane Land and Donald Barth. Regulars for the squad were Winton Severson, Ken Schuyler, Phil Milburn, Kay Plamann, Allen Hurlburt, Dave Dudek, Richard Mullen and Steve Rohloff.

The scores as they stand in the Record Book are:

West De Pere	37	Seymour	0
East De Pere	13	Seymour	0
Kewaunee	31	Seymour	0
Algoma	49	Seymour	0
Oconto Falls	51	Seymour	0
Oconto	26	Seymour	7
Pulaski	45	Seymour	0

J. Sherman, W. Severson, D. Peotter, K. Schuyler, O. Geottel, P. Mullen, D. Braun, D. Wagner, S. Rohloff, K. Plamann.

Seymour's "A" squad finished this season with four wins and twenty losses. In tournament play, the team won two and lost two. This year, the fellows suffered from youth and inexperience, but a great deal of improvement was shown as the year progressed and with only four graduating seniors, we have high hopes for next year's season. The Honorary Captain selected was Steve Rohloff.

TRACK and BASEBALL

TRACK 1953 SEASON

Seymour's '53 Track season was a challenge for the boys that were out for the sport this spring. A great amount of promise and endurance was shown on the field.

Several of the boys that did a fine job were

Bob Coonen, Harry Lange, Eugene Hebel, Larry Wirth, Gerald Zahn, Ralph Hallada, Myron Tucholski, Glenn Mullen, Steve Rohloff and Nils Ullmer. We participated in a Dual Meet with Sturgeon Bay, and Bonduel plus the N.E.W. Conference Track and Field Meet held at Oconto Falls.

CLASS PROPHECY

We, the graduating class of Seymour Union High School, being of sound mind and memory do hereby declare our last will and testament on this thirty-first day of May in the year 1954.

Glenn Mullen leaves his 1928 Studebaker to Drivers' Training class while his brother Pete leaves his "immortal" poetry to the school library. Jeanette Natzke leaves her love for cattle to the F.F.A. while Joan Tierney's speaking ability goes to the Speech Class of next year. Ronald Nettekoven wills his dark hair to lone Ossman, and Patti Pierce gives her French look to Bobby Gosse. Kay Plamann bequeaths his ability to play baseball to Billy Vander Zanden. Steve Rohloff leaves his hair clippers and barber's comb to Kenneth Schwab. Ruth Ann Schmidt wills her clarinet to Allan Mott and Marvin Schneider leaves his math problems for someone else to work. Shirley Schoen wills her frankness with the teachers to Carol Wassenberg. Myron Tucholski and Virgil Jourdan leave their quiet ways to Jim Kettenhoven.

Nils Ullmer gives his manly stature to Jerome Stingle. Judy Wurtzel and Jean Strutz will their bowling technique to Virginia Babbitt and Ida Mae Rollo. Audrey Brandenburg and Shirley Pingel leave their love for the alumni to the girls of the future Senior Class. "Wiggles" Wagner gives his "wise-cracking" ability to Cletus Goffard and Glen Ward leaves his ability to get along with the teachers to Donald Peters. Wayne Warner leaves his "long tales" about New York to his sister Nancy. Delores Weiland wills her secretarial abilities to Donald Hartzheim, who might find a use for them. Janice Welhouse leaves her drum sticks to Judy Worsch as Joyce Haas gives her seat in the flute section to Donna Decker. Nancy Ziegenbein and Shirley Plantikow will their shy ways to Donna Van Straten. Mary Ann Baehler and Fritz Haase leave their high school romance to Yvonne Gilbert and Mert Sherman. Lowell Blake bestows his ping-pong playing ability upon Judy Rankin so she can be the school champ. Eugene Blake gives his innocent look to Roger Eick — it might help him fool someone. Mary Blohm's diamond mining ability is bequeathed to Marie Klarner. Dennis Blom and Jim Heisler leave their cars to the kids from North Seymour, so they can get to school on time.

Marion Hebel and Pat Hein leave their companionship to Trudy Hein and Marilyn Pierce. Kathleen Hilgenberg wills her letter writing ability to Carol Peters. Bob Janosky leaves his musical ability to Donald Peotter. Douglas Buttles gives his ability to conduct F.F.A. meetings to next year's president. Jim Conradt leaves his love for the Junior Class to Ronnie Thomas, while Genevieve Dorn wills her love for Verbeten's to Winton Severson.

Marilyn Doxtator adds her friendly laugh to the giggles of Betty Wojciehowski. David Dudek and Bob Miller leave their dancing talent to Gale Wandke and Neal Kroll. Helen Felton leaves her love for Shiocton to Doris Stutzman. William Frisbie and Eunice Seidl leave their shortness to Ruth Defferding and Kenneth Maass. Francis Gerl wants to keep everything he has, but has considered various exceptions. Marlene Goerl wills her peaches and cream complexion to all high school girls. Donald Knuth wills his truck to Jean Graunke so she may go to all future school activities.

Charles Marcks wills his ability to sing and his studious look to all future Seymour students, while Peggy Melter gives her singing talent to next year's sopranos. Donald Mauthe wills his midnight punctuality to Vernon Stoehr. Ila Mae Mueller and Eugene Timm leave their silence and quiet manners to the Freshman class. So that future students won't be without friendly smiles, Evelyn Schuyler and Marlene Krause gladly leave theirs to any "sober-sides". Mary Ann Stingle would like to will her title of F.H.A. president to any girl capable of fulfilling the job. Lillian Tank wills her blonde hair to any girl who would like to have it while Pat Smith is willing to leave part of her wonderful personality to next year's seniors. (That's going to be a pretty big part because she can spare a lot of it.) Carol Jean Stephani wills her conversation to Roberta Blake. Beverly Bartman gladly shares her talent with all future art editors. Regina Gritt bequeaths her interpretation of Shakespeare to next year's college English students in hopes that they will understand it better than she did this year.

Barbara Droeger and Carole Wagner will their tallness to the Phy. Ed. classes during basketball season. Shirley Wroblewski and Yvonne Jenquin's study habits are given to Jerry Thomas and Bob Vanden Heuvel. Delores Buss gives her sewing basket to Sharon Limberg. Melvin Klarner leaves his pinsetting place to William Heuser, while Jerry Klarner and David Brooks leave their Happy Go Lucky Spirits to David Peotter and Michael Smith. Leonard Landwehr wills his natural curly hair to Bruce Conrad. Lorna Mae Freund wills her love of chewing gum to be given to Donna Mueller. Nancy Burmeister's role in the one-act play goes to Diane Baehler. Janet and Janice Tubbs give their love for geography to Kathleen Biese and Nancy Melter. Janice Baehler, Phyllis Schmit, and Sharie Maass leave their love of dancing to the freshman boys. Margaret John bequeaths her seat in office practice to Nancy Kroner and hopes she won't mind being near the teacher's desk. JoAnn Helein leaves her second floor locker to those unfortunate students who have theirs behind doors.

Arlene Blohowiak leaves her wardrobe-making experiences to the Home Ec. classes. Carol Thomas gladly gives her place on the bus to anyone who is tired of standing. Katheryn Sigl wills her Ripper typing tasks to Carice Culbertson. Wayne Conrad and Duane Doersch leave their escapades to all adventurous souls. Norbert Matuszak wills his farming experiences to Johnny Hebel. Lois Blohm wills her "Gift of gab" to Linda Rusch, while Mary Ann Harrison wills her seat on the bus to Jean Smith. Bob Selberg wills his job at driving the pop truck to anyone who gets thirsty. Janice Melotte leaves her tiny waist line to Jerry Marsh. Delores Vanden Langenberg leaves her dark black hair to Mary Everson and Nancy Bloedorn leaves her love to servicemen to Carol Felton. Betty Rankin gives her Best Wishes to Future Homecoming Queens. Judy Burns wills her nights revising and rewriting Ripper stories to next year's editors, while Ralph Hallada gladly gives his sticky fingers and picture pasting to the annual staff of next year. The last bequest of the year is given by Dick Sutliff, Bill Stuckart, Terry Kuehne, and Jim Draeger; they would like to give their lease on the school to Jim Sherman, the only remaining "Shack Member".

CLASS WILL

The class of '54 is meeting at the New Union High School in 1960 for a reunion. As I start to walk across the crowded room, I see by all his medals that Ralph Hallada is an honored life-guard. He is working at Miami Beach. Ralph has saved 2,987 lives and says he sees Delores Weiland and Patti Pierce working as models in the Dearheart Department Store owned and operated by Marlene Goerl and Helen Felton. Sketching the original gowns is artist Beverly Bartman.

James Draeger and Jerry Klarner are now following their pattern of sleeping right on their jobs as mattress testers!

Douglas Buttles has become a county agent visiting farmers from his class, Duane Doersch, Bob Miller, and Eugene Timm. They all farm on a large scale and make use of their FFA training.

Bill Frisbie and Jim Conradt are planning a trip to Mars. The scientists who are designing the ship are Lowell Blake and Don Knuth. Stewardesses are Delores Buss and Carol Thomas. Kathy Sigl has been signed up as Chief Cook and Bottle Washer. Talking about fast moving objects Donald Mauthe has taken his new Buick to the races at Indianapolis speed way!

In the field of nursing are Betty Rankin, Judy Wurtzel, and Arlene Blohowiak. They told me that their first patient was that tall, dark, and handsome Glenn Mullen. They are all working under Dr. Fred Haase, better known as "Fritz". The hospital is the newest and most up-to-date in this area.

Genevieve Dorn is now testing different types of gum in the Dudsee Bubble Gum Laboratory.

As I mingle on through the crowd I spy Terry Kuehne. You can easily tell he has taken over his father's business. He said he still has his old school chum Bill Stuckart drive truck. These trucks are designed special for Bill when ever he is sleepy he pushes a button and the truck converts into a bed. Just what Bill likes!

Mary Ann Stingle is touring the U.S. as "Alice in Dairyland", while Mary Blohm, Lorna Freund, and Kathleen Hilgenberg are playing the role of housewife and enjoying every moment of it.

I have just heard through the grapevine that Audrey Brandenburg and David Brooks have just returned from an excursion to the South Pole. Their only complaint was that it was awfully cold. Audrey said it was hard walking on the snow until Dave invented the newest type of stationary snow shoe.

All of us were proud to hear David Dudek and Wayne Conrad made the all-American football squad. To help them on toward victory was the great Athletic Director, Kay Plamann.

I just met a few sailors looking "Real George" in their flashy uniforms. Why, I could hardly recognize them as my old classmates, Bob Selberg, Dennis Blom, Jim Heisler, and Eugene Blake.

Ronald Nettekoven has just purchased another farm making this his fifth one. No wonder he can afford many farms, he buys his crop seed from Nils Ullmer who has now gone into this field of work. Nils sells only the best seeds and his slogan is, "If you want money by the piles, just buy your seeds from Nils."

In television work is Janice Welhouse who designs the wardrobes for various actors. Using her ability to argue we find Carol Jean Stephani on the "Information Please" T.V. panel. Carol Jean has won more arguments than any other person in that line. Janet and Janice Tubbs work as Lucille Ball's understudy. When one can't be there the other one is, and in this way, Lucille's show goes on at all times.

I hear Jeanette Natzke now owns a cattle ranch in Texas with Melvin Klarner as the foreman. They tell me they see Virgil Jourdan occasionally as the World's Champion Rodeo Star.

Working in Appleton are Jo Ann Helein and Shirley Plantikow. These two classmates are noted for packing the most bobby-pins in the factory which is operated by Lois Blohm and Ila Mae Mueller. Those two are really career girls.

Wayne Warner, full of charm and friendliness, has become the youngest mayor of New York City.

Bob Janosky and his orchestra are known as "Bob and His Bee-Bop Buddies". It features Janice Baehler as saxaphonist and Joyce Haas on the flute. Bob has Peggy Melter and Steve Rohloff singing with his group and his original writers of the music score are Evelyn Schuyler and Margaret John. Their newest release is "Moonlight in Seymour".

Mary Ann Baehler has graduated from Stout College and is teaching Home Economics in the new school. Yvonne Jenquin is teaching history in Milwaukee.

Ruth Ann Schmidt is a private secretary to an insurance firm in Chicago, while Marion Hebel is working for Julius LaRosa.

Pete Mullen is widely known as Petey the Poet and has gained national recognition. Pat Smith is a short story writer and Delores Vanden Langenberg is her publicity agent.

Pat Hein and Regina Gritt have worked their way up and are stenographers at the Pentagon in Washington D. C.

Glen Ward has just purchased Ciro's and does a fine job of entertaining his guests. Helping him run the business smoothly is Shirley Pingel as hat-check girl. Phyllis Schmidt and Eunice Seidl help by waiting on customers. Shirley Wroblewski operates the automatic dishwasher in the kitchen and as the water splashes against the dishes, she enters contests and thinks of winning the grand prizes.

Myron Tucholski is the town's most eligible bachelor!

Sharie Maass is writing a new joke book called "Sharrie Makes Merry".

Marvin Schneider has gained the title of the best engineer in the U.S. Marv sees Norbert Matuszak and Francis Goerl who are also in the construction business.

Carole Wagner is a ballet dancer and is making screen tests in Hollywood, while Jean Strutz is teaching the Hollywood dip at Arthur Murray's studio. Nancy Zeigenbein is on the west coast working as librarian in the M.G.M. studio. She meets many celebrities and enjoys her work immensely.

Charles Marcks and Leonard Landwehr are both ranching in Wyoming.

Nancy Burmeister and Judy Burns are touring all over the United States for information which they can include in their book entitled, "Folklore and Traditions of the American Anglemorm".

Joan Tierney is a child psychologist in New York City, and Shirley Schoen is her receptionist. Speaking of children, Wiggles Wagner is teaching them out Seymour way. He graduated from this school when he was about 14. His only complaint is that it's hard on the nerves!

Janice Melotte has made quite a name for herself! She is now the World's Champion Shorthand Writer. In her spare time, she coaches the best girls' basketball team in the state!

Lillian Tank has her own newspaper column called "Leave it to Lillie". She gives free advice to the lovelorn.

Barbara Droeger has traveled far and wide as a scout-leader and has just returned from France to receive a medal from the president. Nancy Bloedorn is still sight-seeing in Spain.

The students of '54 feel confident that they have contributed their share for a successful future. We began to wonder as this reunion draws to a close, what each and every classmate will be doing at our next reunion.

We, the class of 1954, wish to express appreciation to all those who helped us with this Ripper.

We wish to thank our advisor, members of the faculty, the students who contributed pictures, the businessmen who purchased ads, Sarrfe Studio, Reliance Printers, and especially, Mr. Patch who made available the plans and architectural drawings used throughout this Ripper.
