GETTING READY FOR PRODUCTION

Each year the Senior Class of Seymour Union High takes over the publication of the school annual. It was decided to concentrate on our new building this year and to do so by having our readers attend our own 1955 CONCERT. The picture above was taken on November 9, 1954 when we left our familiar surroundings to become acquainted with our present environment.

MOVING DAY - - NOVEMBER 9, 1954

One crisp fall Tuesday, each homeroom boarded a bus to ride up to the waiting building. The teachers had moved during Teachers Convention and on the following Monday, so everything would be in readiness for classes. As Mr. Patchett welcomed the first student, Janice Hoefs, from the bus to the new school, the students found themselves eager to combine the wonders of a building with their abilities to make it a fine school.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1955, wish to dedicate our Ripper to Mr. Milton Main. Now, as we terminate our high school careers, we want to extend our appreciation to him for his understanding and sincere interest which have aided us on our way.

Main, Rev. J. Labno, Rev. W. E. Lange, Lawrence Monberg, Oscar C. Andersen, Milton A. Patchett.

On Sunday, November 28, 1954 the Dedication of the new Seymour Union High School building was held. The main address was given by Mr. V. E. Kimball, Assistant State Superintendent. After the formal dedication, an Open House was planned and carried out by the high school faculty.

To the Readers of the 1955 Ripper:
When our high school moved to its new home last November it was another milestone to mark the continued educational progress of this community.

We are all proud of our new school and grateful to the people of the Seymour Union High School District for providing in its young people, I think, that this community has faith the finest opportunities possible.

The total project extended over a three-year period and is an excellent example of how a community can democratically study and solve its problems. An advisory committee was formed in 1951 to study the problem of a seriously overcrowded building and of an inadequate curriculum. As a result of this study the new Union High School District was organized in 1952, and a year later plans for the building had been completed and construction was begun. Excellent leadership by the Board of Education we are now privileged to occupy one of the finest and most modern buildings of its kind in the state.

It is indeed fitting that the Editors have planned this year's Ripper around a tour through our new building.

Cordially yours,
M A Patchett

THE HOUSE LIGHTS DIM

The first big event for the Juniors was the winning of first prize for their homecoming float, "We'll Send 'Em Back to Cherry-Picking." Carol Wassenberg and Terry Laske were the Junior representatives in the homecoming court of honor.

The Harvest Hop was a money-making project the Juniors sponsored to help defray the expenses of their Prom which was held on May 6. The juniors worked hard and long to make it a success as the first Prom to be held in the new gymnasium. Wally Beau and his orchestra provided excellent music for the evening in an atmosphere of dreamy mist, sea shells, and sandy beach.

Many Juniors participated in sports, among these were: Donald Barth, Donald Cornelius, Donald Doersch, Otto Goettel, Roger Eick, Philip Milburn, Arthur Haas, Donald Henn, David Grunwaldt, Roy Porter, and Merton Sherman.

Three transfer students were added to the class this year. They are George Preston, Elizabeth Ward, and Ed Zepnick.

David Grunwaldt was elected Student Council Vice-President and Betty Coonen received the position of State Student Council Secretary at the November 14th fall convention.

The class officers were: President, Steve Keune; Vice-President, Ralph Melchert; Secretary, Shelby Spaude; and Treasurer, Donna Felauer.

Teachers who advised the group were: Mrs. Nigl, Mrs. Jenkins, Mr. Halle, and Mr. Behrendt.

SOPHOMORES

"Serenade of the Bells" was the theme carried out by the sophomore class for the annual Freshmen-Sophomore Party held on the first day of October. Each freshman had been invited through homerooms for this "get acquainted" evening. The gym was gaily decorated with musical notes and bells to welcome the new students for dancing and games. No one will ever forget the nationally known entertainment presented—Fifty seven's own Chordettes and Crew Cuts. This party was held one week after Freshman Invitation; the sophomores launched their activities early.

Homecoming found Janet Landwehr and Ken Maass representing the class in the Court of Honor. "We'll Snip the Clippers" found itself receiving second place in the float division. Everyone feared Jerome Stingle would never be the same, since it was his head between the scissor blades on the float.

Jerry Hill, Larry Rohloff, Ken Maass, Neal Kroll, Gale Wandke, Jim Lotter and Jerry Kissinger were some of the sophomores who showed their abilities in sports. Pat Brooks became an "A" team cheerleader. Judy Kollath, Bonnie Van Straten, Shirley Barth, and others were active in the music department.

A special long range plan is sponsored by the Class of 1957. In order to go on a senior trip, they have started a special fund for it. This year found them sponsoring a movie at Black Creek and a spring dance to make money for this trip.

President Ken Maass led the class with the help of Vice-President, Jerry Hill; Secretary, Kathleen Landwehr; and Treasurer, Laverne Bubolz. Miss Haderlein, Miss Wormwood, Mr. Weaver, and Mr. Schilleman were the class advisors.

FRESHMEN

The largest of all classes is the Freshmen. They made their debut on Initiation Day as the girls wore overalls back to front and cucumbers around their necks. The boys were decked out in short skirts and lipstick.

Bruce Fassbender and Jane Wassenberg were the homecoming candidates and represented their class well. The float entered in competition was titled "We'll Give the Clippers One Point!"

Penny Burns, Marlene Krizek, and Patsy Van Strat-

en led the cheers for the "B" squad and Penny also distinguished herself in the all-school play. Larry Flanagan, Marie Baxter, and Donna Krahn represent the freshmen in the Senior Band; and James Mueller appeared in the F.F.A. quartet.

The class officers are: President, Thomas McCormick; Vice-President, Thomas Ullmer; Secretary, Patricia Van Straten; Treasurer, David Ward. The advising teachers were: Mr. Flanagan, Mr. Korth, Miss Hendricks, and Mr. Tech. Nice work, Frosh!

GRAND FINALE

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS
Secretary Joan Mielke
Treasurer Judy Prelipp
President Dick Van Dreel
Vice President Lyle Laske

In the fall of 1952, one-hundred twenty five shy and bewildered freshmen entered the portals of Seymour High School. In a short time the Sophomores had the boys in high heels and the girls in an exclusive new fabric, burlap. This was our initiation. The four members of our class who emerged to lead us through the first important year were: Bob Herning, president; Allan Mott, vice president; Judy Prelipp, secretary; and Gerald Marsh, treasurer. With the arrival of homecoming, Ronald Thomas and Nancy Melter became our candidates for royalty.

After a seemingly short summer vacation, one-hundred fourteen members of our class returned as sophomores. That long-awaited day of initiation arrived. It was pleasant to watch the freshmen submitting to upper classmen's demands. Our homecoming candidates for our second year were Lyle Laske and Joan Mielke. Our Sophomore Class President, David Wendt, was aided in his duties by Lyle Laske, vice president; Virginia Ramsdell, secretary; and Winton Severson, treasurer.

Our Junior year was truly an eventful and successful one. One-hundred eight of us were on hand to make our prom, "Stranger in Paradise", a huge success. King, David Peotter and Queen Donna Van Straten led the grand march to the music of Jimmy James and his orchestra. In the court of honor were: Bob Milburn and Janice Drephal; David Braun and Marilyn Fischer; Bruce Conrad and Nancie Marnocha; and David Wendt and Kathleen Biese.

In September, Eva Kloehn and Winton Severson were elected Secretary and Vice President of the Student Council, respectively.

Closely following the elections was homecoming. Our float, "The Indians Will Dance While the Blue Devils Burn", won the first place position on the plaque, and Ken Schuyler and Diane Baehler represented our class in the homecoming court of honor.

Many of the members of our talented class represented us at state tournaments. Among them was Jean Graunke, with an "A" rating in extemporaneous reading at the State Forensic Tournament. In the musical vein: Dick Van Dreel and Jean Graunke took a drum duet to the State Tournament; Carice Culbertson took a saxophone solo; and Nancie Marnocha and Nancy Melter took a vocal duet.

Chosen to lead our sparkling Junior class were: President David Wendt, Vice President Dick Van Dreel, Secretary Diane Baehler, and Treasurer Winton Severson.

The summer vacation found Winton Severson and Dick Van Dreel attending Badger Boy's State. Diane Baehler and Donna Van Straten were the Girl's State delegates.

Our final year found everyone preparing to move into a new high school building. Our class sponsored the last party in the old gym one week after Moving Day. "The Last Roundup" proved to be a success. The gym was covered with fictitious billboards and "wanted" posters, and a western atmosphere prevailed.

Homecoming found our candidates, Dawn Laskowski and Jerry Marsh, as royalty.

Winton Severson ascended to the position of President of the Student Council, and Diane Baehler became Secretary.

Some of the athletes of our class are: Winton Severson, Ken Schuyler, Lyle Laske, David Braun, David Krizek, Bob Milburn, Jerry Marsh, Jim Sherman, John Walter, and David Wendt. Working closely with President Dick Van Dreel were: Lyle Laske, vice president; Joan Mielke, secretary; and Judy Prelipp, treasurer.

The co-operation and work of all the members of the class of '55 combined to make their four years at Seymour High School highly successful. We all find it difficult to leave, but we know we will be hearing of the successes achieved by the members of the class.

STUDENT COUNCIL IN ACTION

Unlike previous years at Seymour Union High School, there were only two parties campaigning for the managerial position of Vice President and Secretary of the Student Council. The Federalist campaign was highlighted by a tall man on stilts promising victory for David Grunwaldt and Diane Baehler. Terry Coonen led the Loyalist party by being an enthusiastic supporter for Betty Lou Coonen and Eva Kloehn.

Excitement ran high as David and Betty Lou competed for the office of Vice President, and Diane challenged Eva's re-election to the position of Secretary. After the close voting in homerooms, the counted ballots showed a victory for the Federalist Party. Winton Severson automatically became president; David Grunwaldt the vice president, Diane Baehler the secretary, and Joan Mielke was appointed treasurer by the faculty.

Student Council directs all the activities of the Student Activity Forum. This year a special project was sponsored when the University of Wisconsin Band held a concert in our gym on February 2nd. It proved to be a very successful and enjoyable evening for all those who attended.

Removal of grease paint presented a problem to the players in "Sunday Cost Five Pesos". This was an one-act play presented by the Dramatics Club; a hilarious comedy with a cast consisting of Nancy Melter, Donna Van Straten, Robert Lotter, Donna Vande Walle, and Mary Cook. Many thanks go to the fine crew who did all of the "behind the scenes" work, and to Mrs. Jensen who cast and produced this play. "Court of Conscience" was presented as an one-act play for the student body. Vernon Wendt, Judy Kollath, Penton Brooks, Nancy Kroner, Dawn Laskowski, and James Brownson portrayed the roles in the dramatic offering.

Richard Van Dreeel acted as President of the organization with assistance from Vice-president Jerome Martin, and Secretary-treasurer Dawn Laskowski.

A Christmas program was organized and presented under the direction of Donna Van Straten and proved highly entertaining. It can be said that the club had a busy and enjoyable year and hopes to do as well in the future.

THE OFFICE

As you step in the lobby on your way to our concert, you will see a very active corner that is known only as "the school's office". Here Mr. Patchett and Mr. Main keep the school in tune all year as helpful advice is given to teachers and students and the necessary routines are carried out.

It was a new experience for absentees to get their passes through the service window each morning as Joleen Mueller and Miss Hendricks issued passes, lunch tickets and handled other daily needs of the average day.

THE LIBRARY

Walking through the halls, the comfort of the lounge area of the library beckons to you to enter, and relax with a book in the harmonious atmosphere provided.

The blending tones of green and brown, the circular tables of maple lend a tuneful attractiveness. Soft, indirect light and the tall windows which comprise one entire wall provide the lighting element. Bookshelves line the walls on three sides.

You will often find Mrs. Jenkins busily at work in her office which looks to the library through glass windows. A visual aids storage room and, also, a conference room are located just off the library area.

It is generally agreed the library is the focal point of our new school, and we are duly proud of it.

The Seymour chapter of the F.F.A. began its 16th year with a membership totaling 94. The boys have many and varied interests. This year they were under the supervision of Ronald Thomas, President of the organization; Donald Henn, Vice-President; Secretary, Glenn Wichman; Treasurer, Donald Peotter; Sentinel, Bobby Thomas; and Reporter, Kenneth Spaude.

The highlight of the season was the annual father-and-son banquet, which was held on December 1. At this time awards were presented and this year's quartet made its debut. Incidentally, this was the initial banquet served in the new multi-purpose room.

The late winter projects included the quartet and speech contests. The boy's basketball team was successful under the direction of Mr. Lerum and Mr. Tech, advisors of the group.

The annual F.H.A.—F.F.A. Picnic was held at the close of the year, ending it on a very pleasant note Oratorical combat waged in Room 185 where Mr. Timm helped the debators to prepare for the tournament held on February 5th.

"Resolved: That the United States should initiate a policy of free trade" was the proposition considered by the debators. Each student had a chance to debate both sides of the question until the "A" teams were chosen. Debates were held in classes for the benefit of students and debators while practicing for league competition.

SCIENCE CLUB

"Do you have a movie operator's card?" was a common question heard among the twenty five members of this year's "Radio Technicians", otherwise known as the Science Club. With the arrival of new equipment each interested student had to be taught to operate the two movie projectors, the slide projector, the tape recorder and the phonographs.

This year's special activity was the study of electricity supervised by the club's advisor, Mr. Irving Korth. Its officers were as follows: Robert Lotter, president; Neal Kroll, vice-president; and Sharon Limberg, secretary-reporter.

CHORUS

Providing the vocal effects for this concert is the girls' chorus consisting of 78 members. The first performance was the Christmas Concert. The girls, as they sang, were surrounded by a golden glow from the two candelabra placed at either side. The deep, rich, color of the robes they wore added to the beauty. Some of the numbers on the program were "Magnum Nomen" sung in English and Latin, "Trepak" from the Nutcracker Suite by Peter Tchaikovsky and the traditional "Joy to the World." The Mid-Winter concert in February featured such selections as the "Lamplighter", and "Hills of Dream" which was the required number for the Spring tournament. Vocal ensembles provided music for the school and other activities.

Many solos and ensembles were entered in the tournament held at Seymour and proved successful.

The officers for the 54-55 season were: President, Donna Van Straten; Vice-President, Barbara Wussow; Treasurer, Diane Baehler; Secretary, Carol Verbeten; and Reporter Betty Lou Coonen.

The Robe Custodians were Sharon Limberg, Alice Henn, and Virginia Babbitt.

The Librarians are Nancie Marnocha, Nancy Melter, Nancy Kroner, and Ione Ossmann.

This was a successful year for the Chorus and is owed to the expert direction of Mrs. Pasch.

PEP CLUB

Under the guidance of Miss Churney and President Eva Kloehn, the Pep Club led the cheering student body. A mock wedding introducing the basketball season was among the numerous skits presented. Posters promoting school spirit appeared in the halls before each game. The band and the cheerleaders were always on hand to lead the cheering section. There was class competition in presenting Television Skits during the February assemblies. The freshmen class presented famous personalities, the sophomores gave "The Jackie Gleason Show," the juniors offered "Captain Hal", and the seniors surprised everyone, including Mr. Wolk, with "This is Your Life."

FOOTBALL

Our Seymour Indians finished in the 1954 football schedule with a season record of three victories and five defeats. They turned back Sheboygan Falls in their only non-conference game of the year.

Seymour proved to be rugged by nearly upsetting the Algoma Wolves, who had among the ranks John Cornell, All-State Quarterback. In the next game the Indians traveled to Oconto and beat the Blue Devils 13-0. The Homecoming game disappointed the players and spectators when the Sturgeon Bay Clippers won 13-6. After winning the next two games, the Indians were held scoreless by Oconto Falls in the last game of the season.

Jerry Hill made the longest run of the year against Oconto by running fifty-two yards for a touchdown. The team was also sparked by the brilliant running of Fullback Dave Krizek. Ken Schuyler was unanimously chosen by his teammates as the Captain of the team for this season. Outstanding regulars for the squad were Ken Schuyler, Jerry Marsh, Winton Severson, Dave Wendt, Bud Hurlbert, Jim Sherman, Lyle Laske, Jerry Eick, Dave Braun and Bob Milburn.

"B" Squad

Seymour's "B" squad finished this year with 11 wins and 8 losses. After getting off to a poor start in the first four games, the team came back to do a fine job. We are looking forward to next season when some of the boys will be playing in our top group. The Honorary Captain selected was Arthur Haas.

1954 HOMECOMING

The week of October 11-15 of this 1954-55 school year found the students of Seymour Union High School looking forward with great anticipation to the Homecoming festivities. All week long the halls were covered with posters denoting the enthusiasm of the student body. Thursday, October 14th ushered in the annual Hobo Day. Prizes were given for the costumes most unique in their category. Bill Heuser topped all by coming dressed in an elaborate robot costume. This day came to a close when at 7:00 P.M. the cheerleaders led the student body in the snake dance. Rain forced postponement of the traditional bonfire, but the crowd congregated in the gym for the pep rally. Friday the festivities reached their peak with the parade, game, and dance.

At 3:00 P.M. the High School band led the beautifully decorated floats down Main Street. Top honors in the float competition went to the Junior Class with "We'll Send 'em Back to Cherry Picking." Second rating went to the Dramatics Club and the Sophomore Class respectively with "Awaken, Oh Victory", and "We'll Snip the Clippers."

After a grueling battle, the Sturgeon Bay Clippers edged out our Indians by a 13 to 7 score.

Bob Gordon supplied music for the crowd at the Homecoming Dance. Here, Jerry Marsh, selected as Homecoming king, and his queen, Dawn Laskowski, were the center of attraction. In the court of honor were: Terry Laske, Carol Wassenberg, Ken Maass, Janet Landwehr, Bruce Fassbender, and Jane Wassenberg.

The '54 Homecoming was a huge success this year despite the outcome of the game. The co-operation and enthusiasm on the part of all participants prevented any possible failure.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

Dave Brewster was accused of murder and bank robbery! He arrived at the summer home of Miss Van Loon on a stormy night, for he expected to trap the real criminals there. Nan McGrew, a fluttery school teacher, and her two pupils sought refuge in the house.

The first act ended with the murder of Steve Latham, accomplice of the gang. The second act revealed the rest of the gang consisting of Procter, Higgins, and Miss Van Loon. A state trooper arrived, and Miss Van Loon accused Miss McGrew of being mentally ill to conceal the evidence. In the nick of time two of Miss McGrew's students arrived with the money hidden in a lunch basket to save the day.

SPRING SYMPHONY

Standing: David Wendt, Robert Milburn, David Peotter, Bruce Conrad, David Braun.

“STRANGER IN PARADISE”

The Junior Prom of 1954 was a Spring Symphony with the theme of Stranger in Paradise. As you entered you found an atmosphere of delightful paradise. The excellent decorations were carried through in a modern key. The main feature of the decorations was a 10 ft. silhouette of you and your date against a pastel blue background. To the left stood an abstract archway, leading to a forest of piney mist. Waterfall and flamingos lent a whimsical air.

Between dances the crowd enjoyed watching the spectacle from a table on a terrace set off by a wall of brick trimmed with miniature evergreen trees. A wishing well was featured on the terrace which was lined with bricks and evergreens, also.

The ceiling represented a blue sky filled with stars. A large revolving spotlight was placed in the center and encircled the entire atmosphere casting a dim light on the scenes as it rotated.

As a hush fell on the crowd, we saw David Peotter and Donna Van Straten march to receive their regal crowns as king and queen of the 1954 Prom from the '53 royalty, Janet Tubbs and Kay Plamann. Attending the royal couple as the court of honor were Bruce Conrad and Nancie Marnocha, Robert Milburn and Janice Drephal, David Braun and Marilyn Fischer, and David Wendt and Kathleen Biese. Terry Jo Van Straten and Mardell Laske, also, shared in the glory of the evening acting as crown bearers.

Music was excellent! It was provided by Jimmy James and his orchestra who played music in a dreamy mood.

An evening of glamour and romance amid a rooftop of stars, finally came to an end leaving only fond memories.

HOUSE PROGRAM

In 1965 we find the members of the 1955 concert who made their first appearance at the new Union High School in Seymour returning to the area for a command performance.

As the curtain rises, Conductor James Baxter strides to the podium. Professor Baxter is directing some of his former classmates, Beverly Schroeder and Rosemary Otto, who are playing the clarinet. Joseph Sobieck, playing the bass horn and Don Peotter, playing the French Horn, provide the "Oomp-Pa-Pas" in the background music. Carice Culbertson is appearing as guest pianist with the orchestra.

As Jim bows toward the Class of '55 seated in the audience, we see Loyal Barth and Director James Brownson of the TV panel show, "What's My Business?" It stars Jerry Martin as Master of Ceremonies, with Virginia Babbitt, Vernon Surman, David Wendt, and Ronald Zahn as the panelists. The show has been a great success. In their latest broadcast, contestants were world famous Jerry Marsh, who did an impersonation of Nat King Cole, and Harriet Mecikalski, who recently played the leading role in "The Starlight Gem". The last guest artists were Ken Schwab and Joanne Schmit, better known as "The Duos". Gale Mielke does a good job shooting the show with Camera No. 2.

Doctor Dick Van Dreel, known as a big operator, and his two nurses, Nancy Melter and Jean Graunke, were called from the concert to the scene of an accident. There they met Jerry Thomas and Jim Maass, who because of their numerous trips to the court house, have decided to become traffic cops.

As we continue looking around the audience, we see many former classmates who are interested in sports. Dave Peotter is known as "The Midget" in the basketball world. Gene Krahn is now pitching for the St. Louis Mudhens. Football stars are Allen Hurlbert and Clifford Klitzke, Sharon Limberg is appearing under the name of "Sweeney" as a lady wrestler, and Jim House is the featherweight champion wrestler. Bob Milburn has just made a fortune at the race track with his horse "Aggie O". Vernon Stoehr and Jerry Hartleben are auto racers, and Bill Heuser recently won the cross-country race award with his motorcycle.

In the right wing of the gym we notice that Dave Krizek is home from the army. He blows reville for his friends with his ever-famous bugle. Among his buddies are John Stingle and Glenn Weihing. Rear Admiral Ronnie Nachtwey has Lawrence Vanden Langenberg and Glenn Wichman swabbing the deck for the Navy. Nancy Kroner and Janice Hoefs have put their heads together and come out with a new hair style, "The Eggbeat", modeled by Marilyn Fisher. Ronnie Thomas is often seen advertising for Viscous No. 9 Hair Dressing.

Due to Miss Hendricks' able office practice class Elsie Mae Thomas, Alice Rohm, JoAnn Mueller, and Beth Hillegas have found secretarial positions in Judy Spaude's and Lynn Kollath's law firm. Joan Mielke is still having trouble keeping up her financial reports for "The Wolf River Review", the newspaper edited by Eva Kloehn. Feature writers are Judy Prelipp and Dawn Laskowski while Mary Tickler advises the lovelorn in the space vacated by Dorothy Dix. Ben Brooks and Lyle Laske furnish the humor and artistic ability with the comic strip, "Jungle Magic". Louise Doaust and Corrine Baumann are the proofreader and the copywriter, respectively. Dave Braun and Winton Severson have an up-to-date sports column.

During the intermission, we spent some time in the lobby catching up on a lot of news. We heard that Carol Felton, Roberta Blake, Marie Klarner, and Alice Henn had difficulty in securing baby sitters, so that they could attend the concert. Jim Sherman, who is now a farm implement dealer, is ready to stand behind all his machinery except his manure spreader. Jim Mastey, Allan Marcks, and Bobby Thomas, efficient farmers in this area, are frequent patrons of Jim's Business. Bob Vanden Heuvel and Roger Roskom, ranch owners, have flown up from Texas on the airline owned by Jerome Stephani to attend the concert. Bruce Conrad delivered them pronto to the school with his taxi service. Don Gregorius' Meat Market has been receiving grade AA beef from the Roskom-Vanden Heuvel ranch.

Mike Smith and Milton Armitage have developed their interest in the field of conservation as forest ranger and game warden, and are dressed in their official garb. Jim and John Walter have established a beverage company and have employed Jerry Eick as "taster". Sylvia Wisniewski and Joyce Carpenter are known as the "polka queens" at Harlen Blumreich's night club. They had to have substitutes in order to attend this performance.

Returning to our places in the upper balcony, we find Allan Mott who is the proprietor of "Mott's Mortuary". Lowell Brusewitz and Lawrence Rettman, who always enjoyed "forty-winks", are testing coffins. Terry Nagel assists as funeral director and driver of the hearse.

Nancie Marnocha is known as a foremost occupational therapist, while Diane Baehler has continued her ability in the homemaking department as a dietician. Donna Cornelius and Margaret Rodgers have taken positions as social workers, studying population problems. Lone Ossmann is found planting cabbage for a local concern, and Donna Van Straten's firm received recognition as Number One Kraut Factory.

In the Scientific World we have Ronald Miller and Joe Schneider working cooperatively as "mad scientists" with Elsie Vanden Heuvel assisting them.

As the concert concludes the participants gather at the Hotel Cleveland owned and operated by Bill Clevon. They are greeted by the hotel hostesses, Kathleen Biese and Carol Blohm. The rooms are kept tidy by hotel maids, Loretta Sigl and Rita Daoust. Janice Drephal is serving the food, while a quick tour through the kitchen finds Ken Schuyler as the Chief Cook and Bottle-Washer. Genevieve Mueller is the public secretary, and we sought her help with this alumni biographical sketch for you. Now, as the time for departure arrives, hurried farewells are said and you can hear in the distance . . . "It's been real nice seeing you and I'll look for you at the very next reunion. Be sure to come!"
