Dedication

As we, the class of 1957, leave the happy hours at S. H. S., it is our desire to express our deepest appreciation to you, Mr. Schilleman.

For three years you have guided us with wisdom and a touch of humor. We won't say "Goodbye", Mr. Schilleman, we'll just say "So Long", for we know that your pride and influence in this school will be felt in the years to come.

May the future hold everything good for you.

In Appreciation . . .

To our Mothers and Fathers--whose interests have been in the improvement of our lives--whose love and encouragement have been inspirational--and whose never ending sacrifices have made possible these four years of High School--we respectfully dedicate "The Ripper" of 1957.

"I'll be Seeing You"

In the fall of '53 one-hundred and twenty eight bashful freshmen entered the strange but fascinating world of Seymour Union High School. Chosen to lead our class were president Jim Eick, vice-president Gale Wandke, secretary Janet Landwehr and treasurer Mary Cook.

Next came initiation to bewilder us further, with the girls in stylish outfits of shredded skirts over long underwear and the boys in becoming infant attire complete with diapers. Soon after Homecoming arrived with Jerry Hill and Jeanne Smith as our Homecoming representatives.

Back after a seemingly short vacation one-hundred and twenty sophomores headed by president Ken Maass, vice-president Jerry Hill, secretary Kathy Landwehr, and treasurer Laverne Bubolz began plans for initiation. Homecoming found our class represented by Ken Maass and his date Janet Landwehr.

As Juniors we found in the spotlight Neal Kroll, president; Jim Lotter, vice-president; Grace Moser, secretary; and Judy Kollath, treasurer. Our Homecoming candidates were Jonny Sachs and Shirley Barth. The "Event" of our Junior year was, of course, our prom. The theme "Rhapsody in Blue" was carried out in a misty world, complete with romantic fountain bathed in moonlight. King Gale Wandke and Queen Jeanne Smith ably assisted by their court consisting of Harold Pingel and Janet Landwehr, Bill Stephani and Kathy Landwehr, Carl Parker and Ione Roskom and Larry Rohloff and Joyce Stingle reigned over the "blue wonderland of dreams". Neal Kroll and Jonny Sachs attended Badger Boys State while Judy Kollath and Joyce Stingle attended Badger Girls State during the summer preceeding our senior year.

To represent us on the Homecoming Court we selected Gordon McLester who chose as his date Harriet Schuyler. Our float "We'll Lick 'em and Leave 'em Dragon" won first place and was displayed along with the other prize winners at the field the night of the "Big Game".

Here we are at last! It just doesn't seem possible that we are finally seniors and have such a short time left. We as seniors would like to thank all who have helped or made our path less rocky as we traveled toward graduation.

JUNIORS

The spring of 1957 and another year of our high school life has been completed. The class officers helped with the choosing of class rings and many other activities that took place during our year, including our prom.

SOPHOMORES

Being sophomores we had grown accustomed to the routine of school, and got off on the right foot by setting up committees for freshmen initiation and sponsoring an all school party.

Byron Wendt, V. Pres.; Janice Lathrop, Sec.; Larry Mory, Pres.; Nancy Brownson, Treas.

FRESHMEN

On September 4, 1956 one hundred fifty-eight bewildered freshmen climbed on the band wagon headed for Seymour Union High School. The once dreaded initiation wasn't so frightening after all. In fact, it was sort of fun.

Student Council

As we review the school year of 1956-57 we can see the guiding hand of the Student Council in all activities. This representative group has provided competent, inspired leaders.

The year began with the choosing of the representatives and alternates from each homeroom.

The activity really started buzzing with the campaign for the positions of secretary and vice-president. The very capable candidates running were Penny Burns for secretary and Judy Voeks for Vice-president on the Federalist ticket and Donna Krahn for secretary and Steve Dragosh for vice-president on the Loyalist ticket. After a vigorous and spirited campaign the SAF members of the student body cast their ballots in favor of Steve Dragosh and Donna Krahn.

The Student Council had many responsibilities: among them were choosing all lyceums for the following year, sending get well cards and sunshine boxes to ill students, scheduling school parties, sponsoring dances following the basketball games, organizing the Twirp Week activities, providing noon hour recreation, promoting good citizenship, making collections, and preparing a budget for the school's organizations.

Debate

The debate season, starting with the selection of the topic in November and closing with the tournament in January, was high lighted this year by practice debates. The topic this year on the farm problem was one of importance to many S.U.H.S. students. The affirmative consisted of Donna Krahn and Judy Toms; Bob Goose and Mary Everson formed the negative. Mrs. Rathburn coached the team.

Forensics was off to a flying start, but boys were scarce. The different categories are: interpretive reading; non-original orations; serious and humorous declamations; original orations; and four-minute speeches; extemporaneous reading and speaking.

"How Ya Gonna Keep'em Down on the Farm?"

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America is one of the largest and most active organizations in our high school. Many activities kept the members busy throughout the year. Some participated in the Northeastern Livestock Show at De Pere, and were members of the judging teams. Two activities not directly connected with agriculture were the FFA quartet and the basketball team.

In a local speech contest, each member presented a short speech. Sources of income for the club were selling gloves and magazines, serving refreshments at home basketball games, and sponsoring a movie.

The annual Father-Son Banquet was held on December 4, 1956. Awards were presented to members who had outstanding farm programs as judged by Mr. Lerum and Mr. Tech, club advisors.

"Rip It Up"

F. H. A.

It is now one o'clock in the afternoon. The meeting will now come to order! A business meeting is held--and are they busy! Listen to this! "We need all of you girls to help sell pencils." "All of you must help to sell tickets for our sponsored movie." "Who will volunteer to serve at the athletic banquet?" "A schedule is posted for those selling food at home basketball games." "---- and ---- are going as delegates to the convention at Green Lake." "Our style show will be held this year in May."

Besides this, someone often comes to speak on good grooming, the well-dressed person, and other things of interest to girls. No wonder this is the largest organization in school! They get things done with interest.

Library

Looking in through the many windows, a cozy picture is presented to our eyes. The lamps are lit and present a pink glow in contrast to the dark chairs and couches. End tables of a light wood complete the picture, along with teen-agers seated comfortably in this nook, reading magazines.

Where is this place? In someone's home? No, it can be found in our library, along with tables at which to do reference work and read books, magazines, and newspapers. The student librarians, under the supervision of Mrs. Jenkins, are ready to help you.

Math Club

"Accentuate the Positive, Eliminate the Negative"

Does two and two equal four? That all depends on what you do to get the answer. People in the Math Club who have studied the slide rule and base number system have probably found out the same thing.

In order to promote interest in the cultural gains of mathematics, meetings were held twice a month on alternating Wednesdays and Thursdays. The teacher advising this group is Mr. Huberty.

Science Club

"Off we go into the wild blue yonder"

It is a Monday evening, the room is darkened. What are they doing? I know! Students in the Science Club are learning to run the film projector. Among the other things they do are learning scientific crime detection, photography, and the building of molecules under the direction of Mr. Wolk, Mr. Taylor, and Mr. Gulbrand.

"Waltz of the Flowers"

The "flowers" of which we speak in the above song title are the members of the Girls Athletic Association or, more commonly, GAA. Girls interested in sports may participate in a variety of things. These are: bowling in the fall; basketball in the winter; volleyball, badminton, table tennis, and tennis in the spring.

Officers of GAA are: Kathy Landwehr, President; Audrey Wandke, Vice President; Penny Burns, Secretary-Treasurer. The various sports heads are as follows: bowling, Jane Wassenberg; basketball, Ione Roskom; volleyball, Violet Felton; badminton, Mary Keune; table tennis, Carol Kroner; tennis, Judy Wendt.

Each year we have a volleyball tournament between classes. The class who wins is given the trophy with its name written on it. In May, five girls are chosen to attend Play-Day at La Crosse State Teachers College accompanied by Miss Churney.

Guide-O-Ways

"Seats for adults are in the balcony. Here is a program for the game." "See that young woman over there in the green formal? She will direct you to a seat for the concert." Such statements as these illustrate the very essential service the members of the Guide-O-Ways perform. Mr. Schilleman is responsible for the smooth job they have done.

Office Workers

If you see a strange face or two in the office each hour assisting Trudy and Mrs. Staley, this is to inform you that they are students who are getting experience for a regular job. There are six of them taken from the Junior and Senior classes. Their help is greatly appreciated by all of us.

Cheerleaders

Not only have these girls and Bobby seen trouble, but they've had troubles of their own -- or rather, it should be trials. These involve the huge job of keeping the pep and spirit of the students at a high pitch while the boys fought it out on the football field and basketball court.

In order to improve school spirit, pep assemblies were held once a week during the football and basketball seasons. They scurried around school encouraging students to go to out-of-town games.

Congratulations are in store for the cheerleaders and their advisor, Miss Churney. Without them, the cheers would have little steam behind them.

Varsity Football

"MR. TOUCHDOWN"
Varsity Football

The Seymour Varsity Football Team practiced hard during the month of August, getting in shape for a long, tough season. Coach Edgar Pieper and his staff looked forward to a good season.

Algoma 32

Seymour 7

Captain - Jerry Hill

If the Seymour Indians wanted to get a lot of bad football out of their systems, they certainly did at Algoma! This was Seymour's first game and Algoma's second one. Seymour's only touchdown came after a four yard plunge by Jerry Hill.

Seymour 0

East DePere 0

Captain - Jim Eick

Seymour and DePere were tied for seventh place in the Northeastern Conference, with Seymour a slight favorite. The ball changed hands a number of times during the game, but there wasn't any real threat by either team. This tussle went down in the records as a tie.

Oconto Falls 6

Seymour 0

Captain - Jerry Hill

The Seymour Indians caught the powerful Oconto Falls Panthers off balance. They gave the visitors plenty of uneasy moments before dropping a hard fought 6-0 decision.

Sturgeon Bay 19

Seymour 13

Captain - Bob Seidl

The Indians suffered their third loss of the season and their second in conference play as they were topped 19-13 by the first place Sturgeon Bay Clippers. While the Indians gave a good account of themselves, they could have won with a little more determination. Lynn Prelipp and Jim Eick scored Seymour's two touchdowns, while Jerry Hill kicked one extra point.

Oconto 24

Seymour 0

The Varsity closed the 1956 Season with no wins, seven losses, and one tie. The season was not too successful, but some of the under classmen showed great possibilities for future years. Individual honors went to Bill Stephani and Bob Heuser.

Captain - Bill Stephani

A listless Seymour Football team bitterly disappointed local gridiron fans at Rock Ledge Park by absorbing a 24-0 drubbing at the hands of an aggressive, inspired Oconto eleven.

Preble 32

Seymour 12

Captain - Gale Wandke

The Indians were hampered somewhat by the loss of regulars--Bill Stephani, Bob Seidl, and Jon Sachs, due to injuries. It made the already thin bench that much thinner, and the 80 degree weather made the going rough at times. Seymour was just unable to stop the Preble Hornet's Larry Vanden Avond.

Jerry Hill and Gordon McLester scored for Seymour. West DePere 19

Seymour 13

Captain - Larry Rohloff

The Seymour Indians, inspired by a large Homecoming crowd, played their best game of the season and almost upset the powerful West DePere Black Phantoms. After leading 13-7 midway in the final quarter, fortune dealt the boys in red a cruel blow as the visitors came up with two quick touchdowns to edge the Indians 19-13.

Pulaski 26

Seymour 0

Captain - Bob Heuser

The Seymour Indians traveled to Pulaski for the final game of the season. From the opening kick off Pulaski took the ball and scored. Seymour tried desperately to score but fell short of the mark. Pulaski was rated as number two in the conference.

"Don't Fence Me In"

Varsity Basketball

There may be a controversy as to whether or not this song title fits. After the game with Preble before Christmas when we beat them by fifteen points, however, it seemed to us to be a very apt theme. The one it fits the best, perhaps, is Gale Wandke, Seymour's "dribble artist" who often carried the ball in to the basket. No less credit should go to our high point men - Ken Maass, Jerry Kissinger, and Lim Lotter - and the other team members. Some of these were underclassmen who did a beautiful job.

As far as games are concerned, THE highlight of the year was probably the memorable night that Seymour beat East De Pere, 64-62. Mr. Gulbrand deserves much credit for the fine job he has done. Managers Bob Ciesielczyk, Leroy Gerl, and Carl Kuehne come in for some credit, too.

Below are listed the team scores.

Hobo Day, 1956

"LADY OF SPAIN"

As the curtain opens, we see three people on the balcony of the royal palace in Spain. A young girl of twelve leaves and goes to the interior. It is soon very apparent by her words that she is extremely selfish and threatens to throw a tantrum any minute. When--after the dwarf entered--we see that she has broken his heart, we also see how cruel and unsympathetic she is. Thus the curtain falls on "The Birthday of the Infanta".

The cast included the following: Sue Kollath, Mary Cook, Larry Flanagan, Don Brooks, Neal Kroll, Steve Dragosh, and Penny Burns.

Homecoming '56

Homecoming '56 began, as usual, on Thursday with the annual Hobo Day. Costumes were worn by all and those by their homerooms as either the most humorous, unique, or interesting, participated in the parade.

Also held on Thursday was the election which determined the king and queen. The results were announced later at the bonfire after a long and tedious winding snake dance up Main Street.

The game with West DePere was held Friday evening. At halftime the winning floats were announced. They were; first place, Senior Class; second place, Guide-O-Ways; and third place, Freshman Class. The players tried hard but couldn't beat the strong De Pere team.

Later at the dance the king and queen, Bob Ciesielczyk and Janice Blohm were crowned. Their court consisted of: Freshman, Byron Wendt and Janice Lathrop; Sophomore, Dennis Braun and Jeanne Henn; and Seniors Gordon McLester and Harriet Schuyler. Everyone danced to the dreamy music and a good time was had by all.

Rhapsody in Blue

The Junior Prom of 1956 had the theme of Rhapsody in Blue with an outdoor setting in a city park. As you entered, you walked under a trellis of flowers. Immediately, you were entranced by the soft light and music. To your right, was a silhouette of a jazz band playing against the lights of the city. The orchestra sat on the stage with a huge book of music notes as the background. The throne was on the left with a huge stone bench serving as the royal chair. A huge star was the backing.

Between dances the couples relaxed on the lawn chairs with tables surrounding a huge fountain decorated with evergreens. Colored lights played on the water. A white fence of musical notes encircled the setting.

Silhouettes of the attendants were hung from the balcony railing along with ivy stems. Silhouettes of the king and queen hung near the throne.

A hush fell on the crowd as Gale Wandke and Jeanne Smith came forward to receive their crowns from Joan Johnson and Phil Milburn, 1955 Prom Royalty. The king and queen were attended by Carl Parker and Ione Roskom; Kathleen Landwehr and Bill Stephani; Janet Landwehr and Harold Pingle; Joyce Stingle and Larry Rohloff. The crown bearers were Connie Wendt and Billy Roskom.

The excellent music was supplied by Bob Malada and his orchestra.

Class Prophecy

One night in 1967, we decided to visit the nightclub of Jon Sachs, better known as Ion's Joint. As we enter the club, we see John Ratliff, one of our former classmates, performing on the stage. His Yul Brenner haircut was styled by Jim Eick, his private barber.

Hat-check girl, Donna Vande Walle, gives us the tickets for our wraps and the Headwaiter, Harold Pingle, shows us to our table. Betty Drephal takes our orders as we glance around the crowd.

At the next table is Jim Lotter, famous artist, drawing figures on the tablecloth. Next to him, with his head resting on the table, is Jerry Kissinger, mattress tester at Joe Tremel's furniture store. Neal Kroll, chemical engineer, has just joined them. He has gained wide recognition for his work on the formula to produce the perfect girl.

Some celebrities in the audience are introduced by the master of ceremonies, Vernon Wendt. Some of these are Bob Gosse, champion weight lifter of 1966; Virgie Hartwig, who has gained fame making laughing records with Cousin Fuzzy; and Bonnie Van Straten, the first champion woman stock car driver.

Just arriving are Ronald Baeten, Bob Pintsch, Gordon McLester, and Ken Webster, members of the U.S. Armed Forces. Tailing along behind are sailors Dave Hallada and Larry Stingle, who have just returned from riding the waves.

We see Leon Blumreich and Alice Wojciehowski on a night out from working in the bakery where Leon is really rolling in the dough. Eileen Moeller is babysitting for them.

In town, attending the Cucumber Convention are Harold and Gerald VandenLangenberg, owners of the Cucumber Consolidated Corporation in Oneida. They have just arrived on a flying saucer owned by B.S.S., better known as the Bill Stephani Space-line. Making their trip very comfortable were stewardesses Sherry Crystal and Joyce Stingle, who spent a lot of their time in the cockpit with the pilot and co-pilot, Terry McCormick and Larry Rohloff.

The Vanden Langenberg Brothers have treated their pickle pickers; Dan Cleven, Irene Van Kauwenberg, Ken Felton and Theresa Vander Zanden; office workers, Janet Landwehr, Betty Fischer, Mavis Ganzel and Donna Fassbender, and their truck drivers; Dan Golonka and Don Spaude to a week in the big city.

Vernon announces that Donna Sherman, Miss Burna Road Beauty Contest winner, is in the audience. Donna Mueller, Pat Brooks, and Grace Moser have just finished fixing her make-up and hairdo. Her beautiful gown is one of Carl's Creations. Carl Parker has gained national fame as a dress designer and is really making money.

An emergency announcement interrupts Judy Dreisow's solo with Flanagan's Band, which features Bob Stevenson as trumpet soloist, "Calling DR. Ken Woods and his private nurse, Nancy Culbertson". They leave quickly. Mortician, Ken Maass and Jerry Hill, driver of Hill's Hearse, follow them in hopes of business.

Mary Cook, gossip Columnist of "Mary's Marvels", tells us that Ronnie Lambie, owner of Lambie Large Liver Pills, and his secretary, Mary Jane Olson, will soon be married.

Cigarette girls, Carol Kroner and Linda Peterson, stop at our table with some "Hit Parades".

Sitting at a back table, knitting little garments, are Shirley Barth, LaVern Bubolz, and Nancy Blohm, out for a night on the town while their husbands are babysitting.

Two of our old classmates, Carol Gerl and Karla Gehrke, new owners of the Pine Castle, are now entering Jon's Joint. Alice Platten, their secretary, follows closely behind, hurriedly taking notes as they inspect another prospective business place.

Bob Heuser is tending bar and making the delicious meals are Nancy Landwehr and Delores Sigl. Much of the meat is from Ralph, "Zip", Zibell and Earl Defferding's Cattle Ranch. Harriet Schuyler, Minetta Skenandore and Laverne Anschutz are their cow-girls. Seidle and Seivert's Seafood is sold to Jon's Joint by Ralph Sievert and Bob Seidle.

All eyes are focused on the door as Ronnie Burnham, famous wrestler known as Bully Bruiser Burnham, comes in with his manager Jerry Hoefs. He has won the world championship at Merle Weihing's Wrestling Ring.

The nightclub is decorated with beautiful violets from Violet Felton's Greenhouse.

Donna Decker stops at our table. She is now studying for her second doctor's degree with Professor Ludis Sics. Donna tells us that Judy Kasperek and Jeanne Smith are running a Tall Girl's Shop with Marianne Christiansen as head model.

Our master of ceremonies introduces Bob Smith, producer of horror movies. His latest picture is "Bedlam in Black Creek" starring Earl Marcks and Donald Madison. Gale Wandke, well known bat boy for the Milwaukee Braves, is also in the audience. Nancy Genske is singing opera at the Metropolitan Opera House and performs an impromptu solo to the enjoyment of all.

The Chorus Line comes out accompanied on the piano by Phyllis Mueller. Their beautiful costumes are made by Kathy Landwehr and Ione Roskum. Mary Everson and Judy Kollath are in charge of their hairdos, most of which are peroxide blonde. The music is kept in order by librarians, Edna Mueller and Mildred Werner.

It is now 1 o'clock and Police Officer Terry Du Four comes in to close up the nightclub. As we leave, we see Joan Page, Sheila Shaw, and Mary Ann Larson cleaning off the tables and Jerome Stingle scraping gum off from the bottom of the chairs.

Judy Heuser, mistress of ceremonies, has arrived a little late but she is just in time to say "Goodby" to the class of '57.

LEISURE TIME ACTIVITIES

"INTERLUDE"

Noon Hour Activities

After eating a delicious meal supplied by the cooks, students find relaxation in dancing or ping-pong which are both held in the gym balcony.

Volleyball, basketball, badminton are more of our activities, open both to boys and girls.

Room 185 is available for those who preferred to play chess, checkers, or various card games.

Those who are the studious type find relaxation in the library where a large variety of books are at their disposal.

"When You and I Were Young, Maggie!"

Mrs. Schlack, Mrs. Mc Bain, and Mrs. Landwehr stop for a minute in their routine to pose for out photographer.

I'D LIKE TO BAKE A SUNSHINE CAKE      COOKS

"What is that smell?" "I don't know--oh, yes, I do! I'll bet you ten cents that we have sauerkraut for lunch today!" Whether they think it's good or bad or indifferent, all of the students rush to the balcony to be first in line. As they come up to the serving table, they are handed their food by our three genial cooks--Mrs. McBain, Mrs. Landwehr, and Mrs. Schlack. We couldn't get along without them.

"STEAM HEAT"      JANITORS

Who is it that we see dusting and cleaning everything in sight--lockers, window frames, floors, black boards--etc., etc., etc.? They are always checking everything. If something goes wrong or someone throws a monkey wrench into the works, one of three is around to set it right. Without them the school simply wouldn't run right.

Les Jachow, Eddie Jack, and Al Strutz caught when standing still--momentarily!
