We Are Happy to Dedicate . . .

Mr. Orson Weaver

We, the students of Seymour High School, would like to dedicate our 1961 RIPPER to Mr. Orson Weaver, who has devoted his entire teaching career to SUHS. His well-known vim, vigor, and vitality have led him through ten successful years of teaching and coaching.

In school Mr. Weaver is found either in front of Room 177 exchanging pleasantries with passing students or inside conducting his civics and geography classes. He has contributed much to Seymour High athletics in his capacity as Athletic Director, assistant basketball and football coach, and baseball coach.

On his free days one may see Mr. Weaver leaving Seymour with his horse trailer, heading for Sharon, Wisconsin, his home town. Outagamie fair-goers have been able to follow the horse races better because of Mr. Weaver's expert announcing of the various racing events.

Mr. Weaver has been truly a great part of our school. We'll miss you.

No printed word nor spoken plea,
Can teach young hearts what men should be
Not all the books on all the shelves,
But what the teachers are, themselves.

(Arthur Guiterman's "Education")

Mr. Weaver and "friend."

Command Performance

Mr. Bill Rahl and Mr. Milton Main

The students of Seymour Union High School would like to extend a very appreciative vote of thanks to Mr. Main.

His fifteen years as a member of our faculty, both as a teacher and principal, have also been the students' gain of fifteen years of achievement.

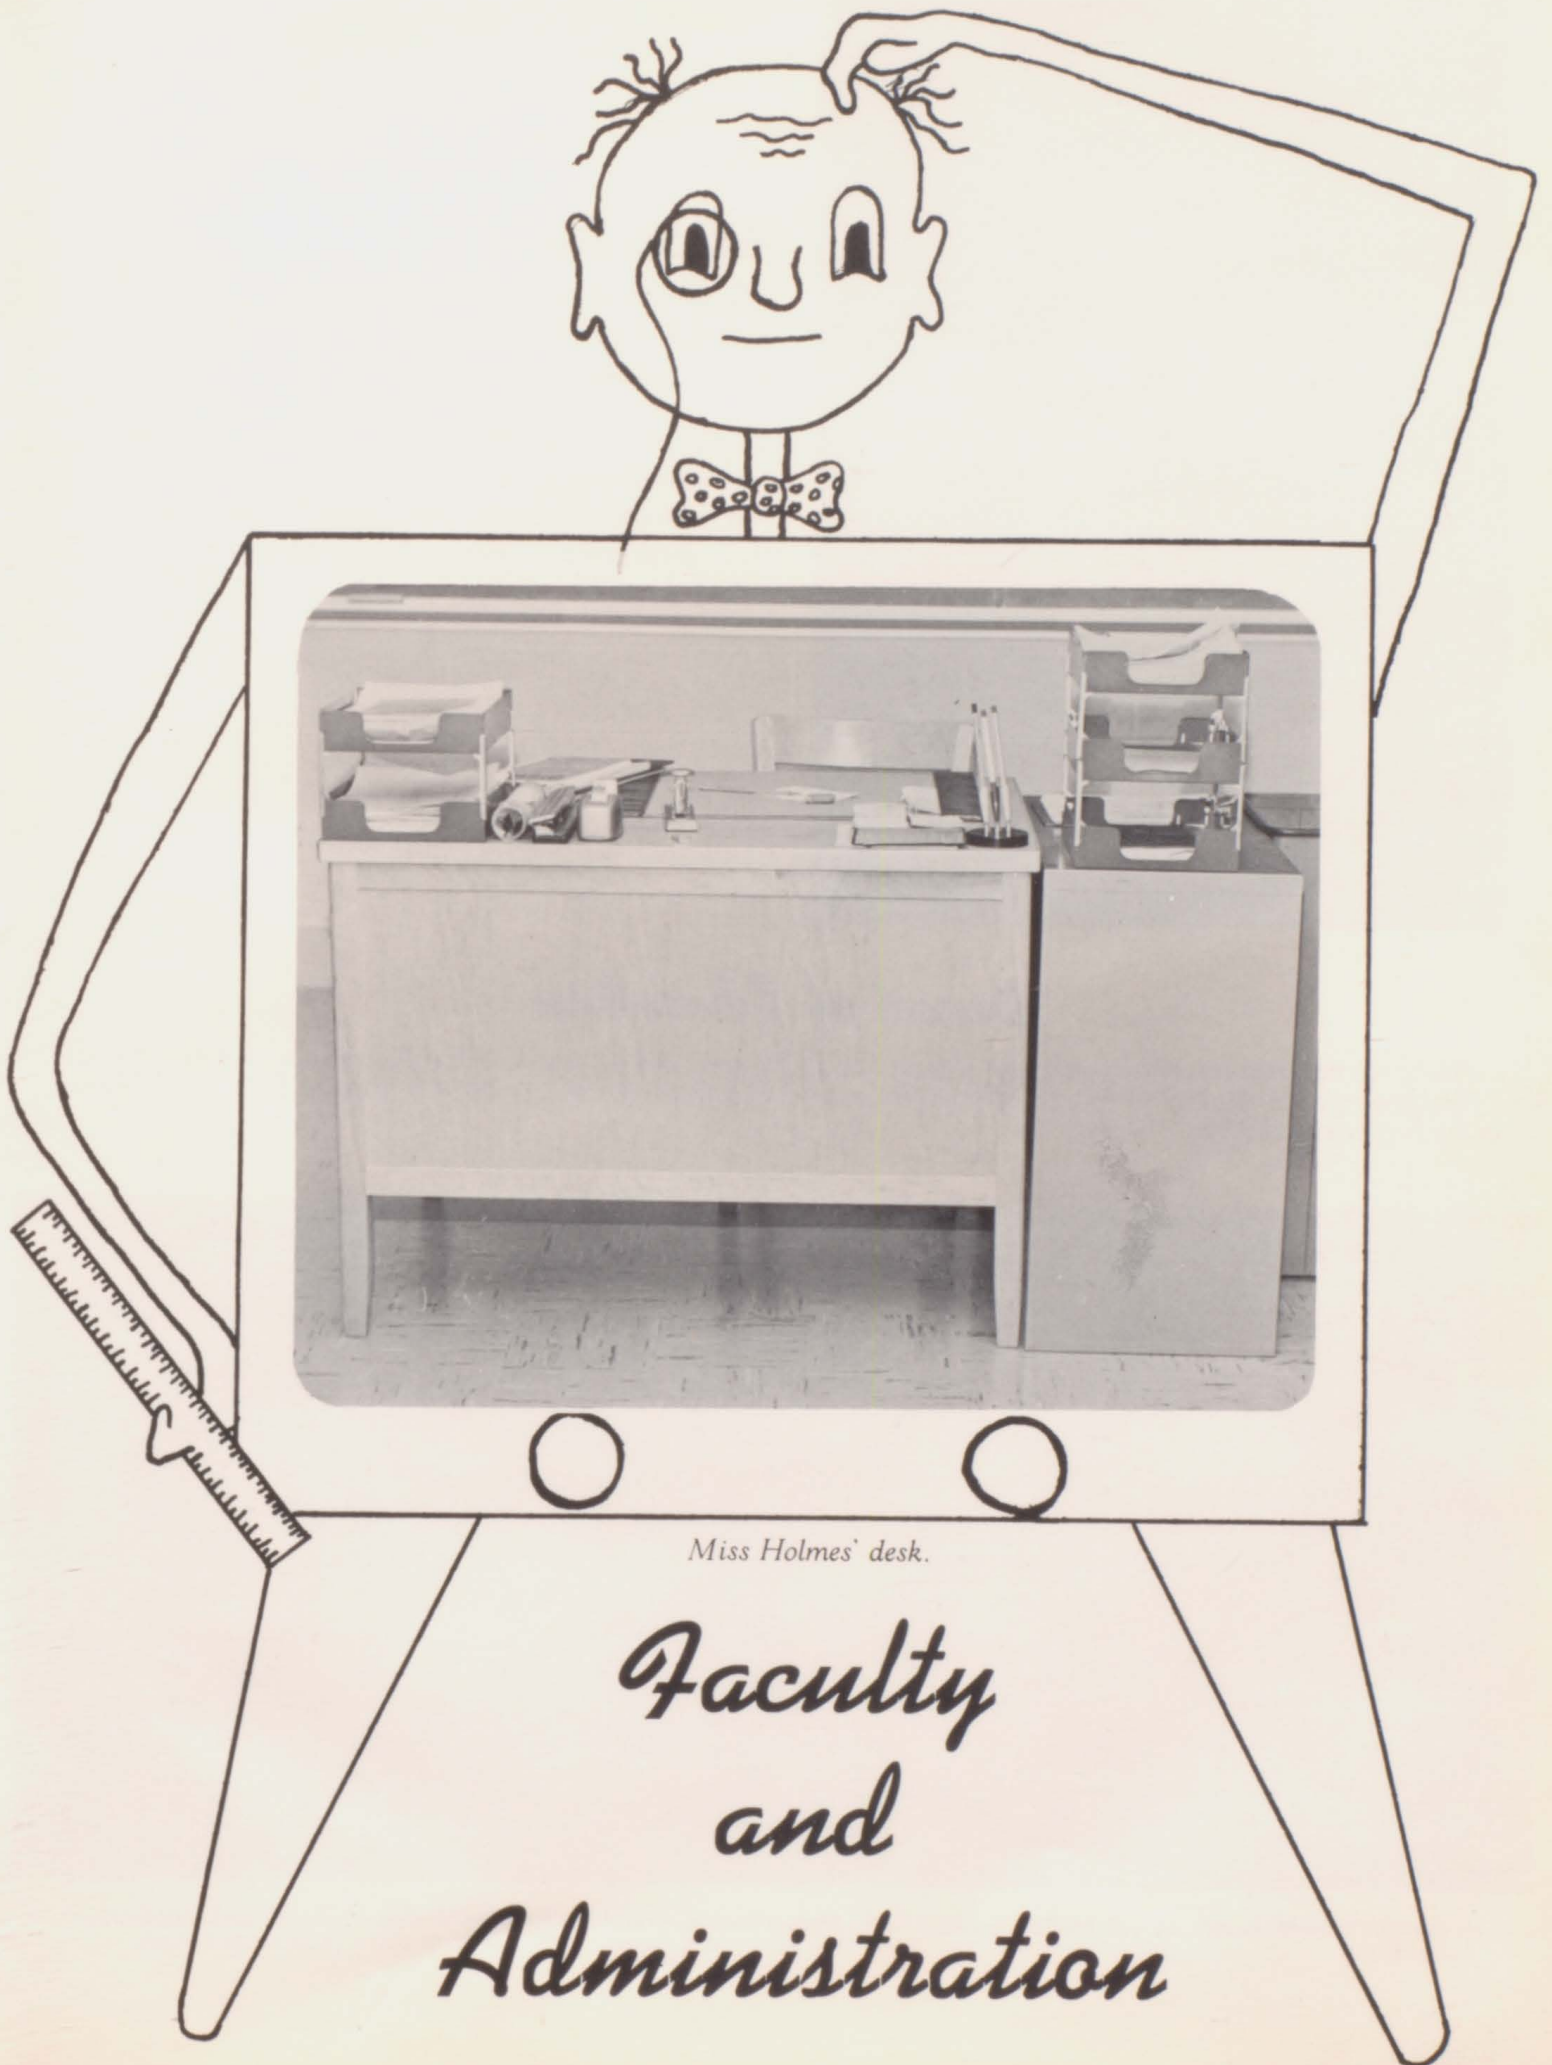

We would like to extend our most sincere greetings to our new principal, Mr. Bill Rahl, who came to us from Grafton High School.

Our first impressions of Mr. Rahl were of unceasing loyalty and dedication to education. These characteristics have been proved during his first year here.

We are very fortunate to have both men in our school.

Miss Holmes' desk.

L. D. Culver

Wisconsin State College, Stevens Point: BE
University of Wisconsin: MS
Superintendent of Schools

Busy! . . . from 1959 school construction to 1960-61 school integration meetings . . . a fisherman . . . "Has the school board agenda gone out yet, Trudy?" . . . great pride in Seymour Public Schools reflected throughout the system.

Board of Education

Public spirited citizens, who give freely of their time to the great public service of helping education in this district. We give special mention to Marvin Babbitt, Board of Education President, who was elected State Assemblyman in the November election.

Bill N. Rahl

Wisconsin State College, Stout: BS, MS
University of Wisconsin

THE CUSTODIANS

Al Strutz, Les Jarchow, Eddie Jach

THE COOKS

Mrs. Schlack, Mrs. McBain, Mrs. Sherman.

What would we do without them? Learning is a pleasure (well, almost!) in this well kept building. The seniors will always be grateful for the help of Les, Al, and Eddie on their Prom.

The torturers of the third period study hall with enticing smells of cooking . . . pleasant, cheerful ladies . . . "May I have a second helping?"

Seniors

Senior Class Officers

Donald Wendt, treasurer; Janice Reinke, president; Janet Voeks, secretary; John Cumicek, vice-president.

In September 1957, 178 curious but bewildered freshmen entered Seymour Union High School. On Initiation Day the girls wore night gowns, boots, and had their hair in pigtales. The boys were decked out in long underwear, gym shorts, hats, earrings, lipstick and rouge. Our class officers were Gus Blom, president; Karen Kellogg, vice-president; and Jim Fischer, secretary and treasurer. Our Homecoming Court representatives were Sharon Lange and Norbert Lucas.

After a nice vacation, we returned under the leadership of Jerrald Braun, president; Barbara Treml, vice-president; and Nancy Birkholz, secretary and treasurer, and began making plans for the Freshman Initiation and an all-school party with the freshmen as guests. Mary Wagner and Gustave Blom were our Homecoming Court representatives.

Our Junior year was busy and successful. Our class officers were Bob Keune, president; Janice Reinke, vice-president; Mary Wagner, secretary; and Charles Mueller, treasurer. Our Homecoming Court representatives were Virginia Kraft and Terry Rettler. We selected our class rings. The main event of our Junior year was the Junior Prom, "The Enchanted Sea." Our queen was Flora Warner and our king was Jerome Witthuhn. Their Court: Karen Kellogg and Merlin Maass, Jean Ann Kroner and Michael Hallada, and Virginia Kraft and LeRoy Lathrop. The Balladaires provided the music. Gay Kollath and Kathleen Stephani were chosen as the Badger State girls and Robert Keune and John Cumicek were chosen as the Badger State boys.

In our last year at Seymour High our class officers were Janice Reinke, president; John Cumicek, vice-president; Janet Voeks, secretary; and Donald Wendt, treasurer. Our Homecoming Court representatives were Dorothy Rettler and Norman Stingle. Frances Babbitt received the National Merit Scholarship Letter of Commendation.

As graduation approaches, we seniors would like to express our thanks to our parents, faculty and fellow students for making our four years at Seymour Union High School, enjoyable and successful.

Your patience and understanding will be remembered always by the class of '61."

In Memoriam

Elaine Anschutz

May 26, 1943 — December 11, 1960

Farewell, the maze has been threaded,
This is the ending of strife:
Say not that death should be dreaded—
'Tis but the beginning of life.

Wenonah Stevens Abbott

J.V. "Emmy" Award

Mr. Norman Gesteland, Miss Ruth Rothe, and Mr. Russell Kostrzak.

The Class of 1961 wishes to thank Miss Ruth Rothe, Mr. Norman Gesteland, and Mr. Russell Kostrzak, whose patience and guidance have brought spirit to all endeavors of the Class of '61 in our junior and senior years.

Their outstanding interest in the progress of our class and our personal goals has been unceasing. That interest was truly shown by their expert guidance on our 1960 Junior Prom.

Class Officers

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class started off the year successfully, as they received not only first place for their Homecoming float, "The Coach and Team Will Haul in a Victory," but their representatives, Ken Platten and Carla Decker, reigned as king and queen at the dance.

Chris Anschutz and Mary Gosse were elected as Student Council vice-president and secretary, respectively, after a lively election.

The highlight of the junior year was the Prom, which was scheduled for May 5. "Shangri-la" was the theme.

Guiding the class were Chris Anschutz, president; Robert Butters, vice-president; Darhl Elhert, secretary; and Mary Gosse, treasurer.

Junior Class Officers:
Mary Gosse, Chris Anschutz, Bob Butters, Darhl Ehlert

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Taking the place of the annual freshman initiation, the Sophomores held a get-acquainted dance for the freshmen. A disc-jockey provided the evening with entertainment.

The float entered into the Homecoming competition was titled "Our Aces Will Win." Harlan Mueller and Barbara Gardner represented the Sophomore Class.

Harlan Mueller was elected president of the class. Other officers were Gail Kroner, vice-president; Sally Eick, secretary; and Sharon Murphy, treasurer.

Sharon Murphy, Harlan Mueller, Gail Kroner, Sally Eick

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

The long awaited first day of high school finally arrived, and the freshmen stepped into Seymour Union High School.

Instead of Freshman initiation this year, the Sophomores sponsored a Freshman Dance.

Rodney Blom and his date, Audrey Vanden Heuvel, were the Homecoming candidates for their class. The class put great effort on their float, "They'll Never Ketchup," which won second prize.

Class officers were Mary Ann Fassbender, president; Gerald Hackl, vice-president; Virginia Melchert, secretary; and Betty Kettner, treasurer.

This year the Student Council worked under the leadership of advisers, Mr. Behrendt and Mr. Steuber.

In the fall a campaign got under way for a new vice-president and secretary. The candidates for the Loyalist Party were Steve Prelipp (vice-president) and Mary Gosse (secretary). The Conservative Party nominated Chris Anschutz (vice-president) and Janet Reese (secretary). The outcome was a split ticket, Chris Anschutz of the Conservatives as vice-president and Mary Gosse of the Loyalists as secretary. Sharon Trembl was appointed treasurer. Bob Keune was president, as he was elected vice-president the previous year.

The Council is divided into several committees, and each representative has a part to play on a committee. The committees are Noon Hour Recreation—takes care of noon hour entertainment, Citizenship—conducts locker inspection and promotes good citizenship, Courtesy—supervises good manners, Entertainment—Christmas Party and lyceums, Social Affairs—school parties and dances, Constructive Criticism—acts on criticisms, and Collections—has charge of all charity drives. This year $481 was collected in the first charity drive. They also held a "Teens Against Polio" drive and a Student Government Day.

Chris Anschutz, Mary Gosse, Barb Trembl, and Natalie Sager were sent to the State Student Council Convention, held at Waukesha, Wisconsin, October 21 and 22.

Membership in the National Honor Society is earned—not by a single, spectacular accomplishment—but steadily—in the classrooms, in clubs and activities, and in maintaining excellent relationships with teachers and other students.

Spring of 1961 saw the induction of the 22 charter members into the newly formed Seymour High School Chapter. These ten seniors and twelve juniors were inducted into the Society by members of the West DePere Chapter at a special assembly held April 27.

The main purpose of the National Honor Society is to honor scholarship and to provide opportunity for members to participate in its $100,000 scholarship program. The primary requisite for admission is at least a "B" scholastic average. Leadership, character, and service are also prime factors in the selection of members. The rating is done by the teachers.

Arrangements for starting the Seymour High School NHS Chapter were made by the Student Council. The adviser for both groups is Mr. George Behrendt.

Guide-O-Ways getting ready to "Usher Redbirds out of this world."

The Guide-O-Ways is an organization composed of Junior and Senior girls and boys. Students signing up for this club are examined by a Board of Admissions as to their fitness and qualifications as a member.

Juniors automatically become members in their Senior year, unless they decide to withdraw before that time.

New Juniors and Seniors may sign up each year; however, preference is given in this order: Seniors who have been members as Juniors, new Juniors, then Seniors who have not been members the previous year.

Their job is to usher at Open House and other events throughout the school year. The girls pass out programs at football and basketball games and the various concerts that are put on by the Band and Chorus. The girls wear formals while ushering at the Senior Class Play, and the Junior Girls also wear formals while ushering for Baccalaureate, Class Night and Commencement.

The boys direct traffic at the football games, usher and maintain order at basketball games.

The Club's entry in the Homecoming Parade this year was a float entitled "We'll Orbit the Redbirds."

The officers of the Guide-O-Ways were Carl Brocker, president; Janet Voeks, secretary-treasurer. The adviser was Mr. Schnur.

Safety Club—Heed Their Warnings!

Mr. Main demonstrates brake reaction time.

The officers of the Safety Club were Sharon Peters, president; Dorothy Rettler, vice-president; Andrea Hanson, secretary; Karen Blohm, treasurer; Nan Reed, reporter. The adviser was Mr. Main, who is also a drivers' training instructor.

The Safety Club sent representatives to the Outagamie County Safety Council: Charles Mueller, Mary Ann Weyers, Mary Krohlow, Andrea Hanson, and alternate Joyce Vanden Heuvel. The purpose of the Safety Club and the Safety Council were the same; however, the Council promoted safety throughout the entire county, while the Safety Club operated on more of a local level.

The purpose of the Safety Club was to promote not only safe driving, but also home safety, fire safety, water safety, etc.

Safety was promoted through a Safe Driving Rodeo, a safety poster contest, and a student vehicle check, in which cars that were brought to school were checked for deficiencies. A Civil Defense program was presented. Through the functioning of the Safety Club, safety was promoted for the benefit of the entire body.

The 1960-61 Dramatics Club was under the direction of Mrs. Jenkins.

For the Homecoming parade, the club members assembled the float, "We'll Stage a Victory," which placed second in its category. Next the Club presented the play, "Orchids for Thanksgiving," which was the highlight of the Thanksgiving program. At the annual school Christmas program, the Nativity Scene was staged by the Dramatics Club. A trip to a play in Green Bay enabled the members to learn more about the theater in real life.

At the monthly meetings this past year, the members participated in studying stage makeup, lighting effects of the stage, construction of the Elizabethan theaters, and some of Shakespeare's writings. Members dressed dolls in Shakespearean costumes to portray scenes from four of Shakespeare's plays.

Officers this year were Barbara Tremel, president; Bob Keune, vice-president; Sharon Zepnick, secretary; Mary Gosse, treasurer.

An extensive campaign was carried out by the Future Homemakers of America for the state goal, "Getting to Know You." Some of the projects they did were foreign pen-pals, a big and little sister program, a rally with Pulaski, making stuffed toys for a Green Bay hospital, and giving programs at several old folks' homes in the surrounding communities.

Money-making projects were selling pencils, stationery, wash'n'dri, hanger covers, vanilla, food at the County Dress Revue, and ice cream and candy at basketball and football games.

The annual events included the State Convention at Green Lake, Initiation, serving at the FFA Banquet, Demonstration Contest, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Style Show, and making a fair booth.

Officers for this past year were Marlene Zibell, president; Joan Weyers, vice-president; Margo Melchert, secretary; Karen Blohm, treasurer; Dorothy Rettler, parliamentarian; Paula Reed, recreation leader. Advisers were Miss Krinke and Mrs. Miller.

7.7.A. Keeps Them Down on the Farm

The FFA, or Future Farmers of America, (not "Father Farms Alone"! ), are all enrolled in a class in agriculture.

The purpose of this organization is to encourage its members in the development of individual farming programs and to make an establishment in farming. Each member must be able to recite the "Creed" of the club. There are two grades of active membership: the "Green Hand" Degree and the Chapter Farmer.

Regular meetings occur once a month. To raise money, the members sold magazines, light bulbs, rat bait, and pop at home basketball games.

On the less serious side were a Father and Son banquet, a Christmas party, a barbecue for the parents, and an FFA-FHA picnic.

The advisers who have charge of the future farmers for the Seymour area are Mr. Tech and Mr. Lerum.

Officers were Ronald Marien, president; Lee Griesbach, vice-president; Clifford Baumann, secretary; Gene Gorges, treasurer; Clark Schabo, sentinel; Wayne Muenster, reporter.

First with the Latest Scoop

The Blue Jay, our school paper, brought us up to date on all the happenings in and around school. It kept up with the activities of our clubs and other organizations.

The first issue had a little piece about all new teachers, so that the students could get better acquainted with them. Also each issue had a run down on all sport activities and just how we were standing. Each issue contained some jokes and a few cartoons to keep everyone smiling.

There were seven issues this year, plus one big Senior Issue. This was something new, containing the Class Will and Prophecy, which used to be in the "Ripper."

Mr. Lueck, the Blue Jay Adviser, guided the many staff members to make each edition possible. Under Mr. Lueck were Fran Babbitt, Editor; Janet Reese, Associate Editor; Jenö Bessette, Feature Editor; Nance Birkholz, Society Editor; and Le Roy Lathrop, Sports Editor.

Anyone in school is eligible to be on the "Blue Jay" staff.

Additional improvements were noticed this school year at the school Guidance Center. Room 174 was remodeled at the beginning of the school year into two small offices and a Testing-Conference Room. In addition, an outer-office for informational material on careers and other materials was provided for, along with office equipment for a student receptionist. The school Guidance Director, Mr. Douglas Steuber, supervised the operation of the school Guidance Center. He also taught one class of American Problems. A new Guidance Cumulative Record was adopted by the school district this year. The change over to this new record presented many extra hours of work on the part of Sophomore and Junior homeroom teachers. Miss Marva Faulds, Developmental Reading Teacher, assisted with Guidance activities two class periods each day this past year. She prepared the new records for Freshmen and provided counseling services for this class group and transfer students.

Student receptionists helped students locate occupational and education materials which are located at Guidance Center. The services of the school guidance program were very helpful to the student body.

OFFICE WORKERS

Junior and senior girls taking clerical courses can be chosen to work in the school office.

They gain much experience for a regular job by assisting Trudy Nagel and Ruth Staley in their regular office work. Many of the things the office assistants do are collecting absence slips, typing them out and delivering a list to each teacher, checking the lunch count, filing passes, and running errands. Other jobs to be done are typing envelopes for report cards each quarter and stamping lunch tickets each week.

For working in the office, the assistants earn points toward a letter.

The Bookworm Club was started in September, 1960. It consists of librarians and students interested in library work.

The following students were elected to lead the Bookworm Club in its first year: Flora Warner, president; Suzy Piechocki, vice-president; Diane Moeller, secretary; Eugene Bunnell, treasurer; Jacob Weber, historian; Marlene Zibell, reporter.

The Bookworms edit a newspaper named Bookworm News for distribution in high school. The newspaper tells what new books are in the library and gives descriptions of interesting books.

During the year, the Bookworms can earn a library pin for doing extra credit work in the library. Some of the work would be ideas and good work on the bulletin board and displays in the library display case. The Bookworms also decorate the library for special seasons or holidays.

The Bookworms are advised by Mrs. Jenkins.

The Latin Club's motto is "May Knowledge Increase."

This club accomplished many things this year under the leadership of the adviser, Mrs. Jensen, and the officers: Janice Reinke, president; Janet Reese, vice-president; Susan Sutliff, secretary; Chris Anschutz, treasurer; Gay Kollath, reporter; and Sharon Zepnick and Karen Kellogg, historians.

At each meeting some of the members presented a program, designed to give a greater knowledge of the Latin-speaking Romans and how they lived. At Christmas the Latin Club members went Christmas caroling; however, instead of singing songs in English, they were sung in Latin.

For the benefit of the student body, the members held a lyceum. During Latin Club Week more was done to promote Latin. Also, for parents' visiting on Parents' Night, a booth was set up to give the parents a better idea of what the club does.

A Roman banquet was held in honor of the teachers. At this, the teachers were dressed in togas and ate the same foods as the Romans of long ago. The teachers even had "slaves" to serve them!

"Les Heureuse Francais, the Happy Frenchmen," made their debut this year as the French Club under the guidance of Mrs. Jensen.

Their plans and activities started immediately, and every second Tuesday of the month was set aside for club meetings.

Their first task was a Homecoming float. The Frenchmen titled theirs, "We'll Paint Them Black and Blue," and used the effect of an artist painting a bird black and blue.

As the Christmas season came around, the French and Latin Clubs planned a caroling program through Seymour, with refreshments at the Scout Building.

The French Club also planned a meeting, inviting another club, and another one for the parents.

Admittance to the club was based on grades. In order to be accepted, one had to have a "B" average in French. If one received a "C," he was put on a nine-week probationary period.

Joyce Hartwig, the president, was in charge of the meetings. The rest of the officers were Sharon Zepnick, vice-president; Joan Stueflat, secretary; Phyllis Krahn, treasurer; Bonnie Peterson, reporter.

The French Club closed their activities with a picnic.

On the third Monday of every month, the members of the Science Club, along with their advisers, Mr. Wolk and Mr. Kostrzak, met in Room 104.

At the first organizational meeting the club officers were elected: Darlene Matuszak, secretary; Carl Brocker, treasurer; Donald Wendt, vice-president; Robert Schroeder, president.

The members of Science Club meet for the purpose of furthering their interest in science, increasing their knowledge and their skills in science, and understanding the importance of science in their lives.

To create interest in scientific projects in both the students and in the public, the members decided to hold a science fair, March 20. Any student in high school was eligible to enter.

Science Club has added a new Hi-Fi section to its many projects. Photography may also be learned by any interested Seymour high school student.

Members of Science Club provide the service of operating the school movie projectors, tape-recorders, and film-strip machines.

The setting up of microphones and other equipment for lyceums and various school activities is also the responsibility of the members.

This year the debate team, under the direction of Mr. Watson, had a very successful season, becoming the proud owners of the title "Conference Champions."

A practice discussion tournament was held here October 29, and other debate practices were held on November 12 at Preble, December 3 at Green Bay West, at Appleton on December 10, and at Neenah on January 14.

The District Debate was held at Kaukauna. Seymour won 2 and lost 4. On February 4 the Northeastern Debate Conference was held at Algoma. By winning 4 and losing 2, the Seymour debate team became the Conference Champions.

The topic this year was Resolved: That the United Nations should be significantly strengthened. This topic was debated on the A level by John Cumicek and Barb Treml, Affirmative. Bob Schroeder and Mike Tierney were on the Negative side. All the debaters on the A level this year were seniors, so a new squad will have to be formed next year.

"The Purple Doorknob," Seymour's one-act play for this year, portrayed the story of the elderly Mrs. Bartholomew (Connie Pautz); Amanda, the maid (Diane Wussow); and Viola Cole, the actress (Janet Reese). Mr. Clyde Peterman was director, with Joyce Hartwig as student director.

The story revolved around the actress' visit to Mrs. Bartholomew's home. Viola Cole is intrigued by the doorknob on the Bartholomew mansion and is sure she is going to get it just as she has always gotten everything.

The play received a "B" rating in the one-act play contest held in Pulaski.

"Home Sweet Homicide" was the name of the senior dramatic production this year. All seniors pitched in to make this comedy-mystery a big success. The story centered around Marian Carstairs, a mystery-story writer and her three teen-age children. When a murder occurs next door, the Carstairs children take on the task of getting their mother involved in the solution of the mystery. They also interest her in the handsome, unmarried police lieutenant to whom the case is assigned. These circumstances lead to much amusement and suspense.

Committee chairmen included: Daphne Babbitt, Jeno Bessette, Mary Wagner, Karen Kellogg, Joyce Hartwig, Pete Blom, Bob Schroeder, and Jean Kroner.

Mr. Clyde Peterman and Barb Tremel were the directors.

For another year the Lettermen's Club has done its job of helping to interest boys in athletics. Under the direction of Mr. Weaver, they have done their best to create a real and close understanding between the participant and the sport. Encouragement has always been a main idea of Seymour's Lettermen's Club.

Many thanks to the Seymour Theater for giving the club the opportunity to sponsor a movie and earn money to buy a blanket award to be given to the most deserving senior athlete.

The club also contributed to the Homecoming parade with a Model-A coupe painted with "We Have the Redbirds in the coupe."

Officers of the club this year were Merle Maass, president; Jim Fischer, vice-president; and Gustave Blom, secretary-treasurer.

The 1960 Cross Country team experienced a rather poor season. Great things were expected with the return of five lettermen from the 1959 squad that finished eighth in the state that year. As things turned out, only one of these men turned out for the sport last fall. Only a total of 13 boys made up the team. The majority of these were sophomores and first-year men.

Two boys, John Rothlesberger and Harlan Mueller, battled throughout the entire season for the top spot on the team. Each crossed the finish line leading the field four times. Harlan registered the best time of the campaign in the meet against Hortonville with a time of 10:44 for the 2.2 mile course.

The outlook for the 1961 season is fairly good, as the top seven men of last year will be back.

1960 Varsity Football Season

The Seymour Indians started the 1960 season under two new coaches, Mr. Thomsen and Mr. Becker. The first game was played on the road against Kewaunee and the Indians came out on the short end of a 20-6 score.

The first home game at Rock Ledge Park was played on a wind and rain swept field against West DePere and the Indians were defeated 19-0. At times in both of the first two games, the Indians showed signs of developing into a good team.

The third game supplied the only winning thrill as the Indians, led by Bob Heagle, jumped off to a 13-7 first half lead and held on during a rain drenched second half to post their first win of the year against Algoma.

The team followed this victory with a hard fought game against Preble. The final score found Seymour behind 26-25. The Indians came from behind twice in the second half, but failure to "cash in" on the all important extra point cost them a possible victory.

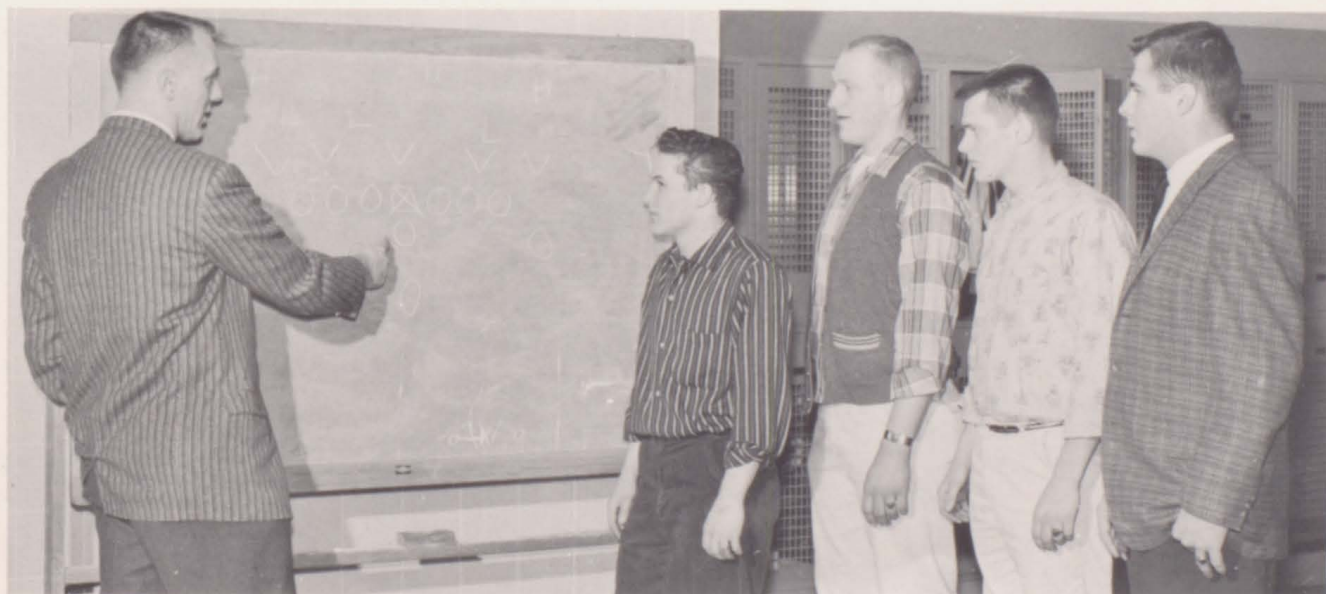

Hard luck continued to plague the Seymour team as they dropped a 6-0 heartbreaker to Oconto. The team moved very well, but could not penetrate a stubborn goal line defense.

After a close first half, the East DePere Redbirds mastered the Seymour defense for a 28-6 victory. This Homecoming defeat was followed by a 44-0 onslaught at the hands of the Sturgeon Bay Clippers, the number one team in the conference.

The season ended with a very hard fought game against traditional rivals, the Pulaski Red Raiders. This was probably one of the Indian's best games offensively and an especially good game was played by the seniors. Final score was Pulaski 28-Seymour 19.

The team developed well as they progressed through the year and with a few breaks, they might have had a more successful season. Most of the returning lettermen are looking forward to next year's season. The team elected Merlin Maass and Pete Blom co-captains and Jim Fischer, Most Valuable Player for the season.

Junior varsity football is a very important part of the high school's football program; the object is not to win games but to drill and teach football fundamentals. These fundamentals and also good sportsmanship are taught to freshmen and sophomores so that when these students become juniors and seniors, the varsity coaches can devote most of their time to the finer points of football.

The junior varsity has a seven game schedule each year, playing other JV teams from this area.

Junior Varsity Basketball Season, 1960-61

The Junior Varsity program is designed to provide an opportunity for younger players to develop the fundamental skills of basketball in preparation for the varsity. Long hours of practice are required, and the team plays the same schedule of games as the varsity.

This year's team was composed of players from the junior, sophomore, and freshman classes. The backbone of the team, however, is the sophomore class.

Although this year's team did not compile a long list of impressive wins, the boys gained valuable experience and provided several exciting preliminary games to the varsity schedule.

Freshman Basketball Season, 1960-61

The freshman basketball team had a fairly disappointing season, copping only four decisions in 14 starts. One of the few bright spots in the campaign came when the freshmen took the Consolation Crown in the Pulaski Invitational Meet. The Little Indians claimed this title, after dropping their opener to Coleman and then knocking off Bonduel and Oconto Falls.

The Seymour yearlings were at their best in their 46-23 decision over Oconto Falls. That 23-point spread was the maximum for the season. The freshmen faced no "set-ups" in the season, squaring off against such big schools as Xavier of Appleton.

The Little Indians gained momentum as the season progressed, with seven lads carrying the major share of the load. Wayne Gaul set the scoring pace for the quintet with 145 points in the 14 matches, while John Kroner was the runner-up with 92 points. The remaining five were Carl Doersch, Chuck Miller, Charles Krahn, Don Hacker and Leonard Schnabl. It's expected that many of these boys will see varsity action in the 1961-62 campaign.

1960-61 Varsity Basketball Season

In early November under the capable guidance of Coach Ray Gulbrand, the Seymour Indians began basketball practice. Coach Gulbrand's team lacked experience, with four lettermen returning from last year's team.

The Indians jumped off to a quick start with a close win over Hortonville. Following two non-loop losses, the Indians began conference play at Oconto. Before Christmas the Indians, hindered by inconsistent play and lack of scoring, couldn't get on the right track and found it hard to win.

However, entering the new year, the boys began finding themselves. Aided by the scoring punch of LeRoy Lathrop and floor play of Don Wendt, the Indians looked forward to future victories. In the following games the boys began to show more aggressiveness and desire to win. The team lost some well-played games and then avenged an earlier defeat by trouncing Bonduel, 51-29. The boys played with lots of determination and drive in this game. They also played a terrific defensive game, recovering numerous loose balls. The Indians continued playing well and lost close ones to Preble and Pulaski in the closing minutes. Then the team went to Sturgeon Bay and with terrific hustle upset the Clippers, 64-61. Lathrop and Wendt scored 26 and 19 points respectively, while Rohm did a tremendous job on rebounding.

In late February the Indians played in the Regional Tournament at Green Bay and were beaten by Green Bay East.

LeRoy Lathrop was the year's top scorer with 285 points. He was followed by Don Wendt with 131. Lathrop and Rohm grabbed the majority of the rebounds.

Many underclassmen played often and should provide a solid nucleus for next year's team. Five juniors and two sophomores saw a good deal of action and gained valuable experience.

This year for the first time, the girls in GAA have participated in various sports with other schools. Four girls represented Seymour at the Neenah Play Day, January 7. Sports new to Seymour were learned by these girls. February 25th found the GAA basketball team at Waupaca, where they participated in a tournament. Late in April, five girls attended the annual Play Day at La Crosse State College.

The officers were as follows: Fran Babbitt, president; Judy Rohloff, vice-president; Sandy Page, secretary-treasurer; Sportsheads: Nanc Birkholz, Bowling; Daphne Babbitt, Basketball; Bonnie Peterson, Volleyball; Sharon Peters, Badminton; and Barb Treml, Tennis.

N. Birkholz, S. Eick, M. Gosse, B. Treml, S. Sutliff.
