Senior class advisers: Mr. Leon Flanagan, Mr. Edward Mealy, Mrs. Karen Christiansen, Mr. Harold Tech.

Dedication

It is with deep appreciation and gratitude for your patience, friendship, and hard work, that we respectfully dedicate the 1963 RIPPER to you, the Senior Class advisers: Mr. Leon Flanagan, Mr. Edward Mealy, Mrs. Karen Christiansen, and Mr. Harold Tech.

During the last four years the library was the site for many of the senior class meetings. Prom, Homecoming, and graduation were a few of the many activities the advisers guided the senior class through. Right: Mr. Harold Tech talks over graduation plans with Lee Enrico, Sharon Murphy and Robert Zuleger.

The 32 members of the SHS faculty possess a wide variety of interests and ambitions. They differ as much as the subjects they teach.

One of the members of the English department spends much spare time training hunting dogs and tells of the trouble he has with their coming back to him after being returned to their owners . . . a second member of the English department enjoys being affiliated with the Community Theater of Green Bay; besides taking part in productions, he is also a member of the Board of Directors . . . a teacher of sophomore English classes tells of his interest in philosophy, and the fact that he traveled throughout the United States while in the service . . . other members of the language department enjoy listening to music, from jazz to opera, writing short stories, some hoping to have something published.

Others enjoy painting landscapes with oil, participating in all types of sports, and traveling from the Pacific to the Atlantic coasts.

Did you ever think of touring Europe? An SHS teacher can tell of the summer she spent seeing Italy, Greece, France, Germany, Spain, and Africa; she says that she would like to go back . . . another of the faculty members finds pleasure in taking, developing and printing pictures; among his many pictures is one of a tropical bird and another of two wrestlers . . . joining the Peace Corps is being seriously considered by a SHS teacher and her husband; she was also a member of a sailing club while attending college.

Members of the teaching staff have held some unusual summer jobs while attending school. One teacher tells of the summer he spent sailing on the Great Lakes in a commercial freighter . . . another had some unusual experiences working on an island where there was no electricity; she watched the raccoons raid the garbage cans at night . . . a third conducted drawing classes at a playground in a settlement area in Minneapolis.

These 32 faculty members are busy furthering their educations. They have attended or are planning on attending summer sessions at Montana State College, the University of Wyoming, Oshkosh State College, River Falls State College, the University of Wisconsin, and "wherever they will take me."

One of the science and math instructors can tell of many experiences he had while in the service, traveling to Alaska, Japan, Okinawa, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Hawaii, the Wake Islands and Spokane, Washington . . . another says that he would like to travel, but so far has only been as far east as Milwaukee; meanwhile, he enjoys horseback riding, playing cards, and working math problems . . . many students tell fish stories, but SHS teachers enjoy, too, discussing experiences with the hook and line—muskie fishing is very good, one teacher revealed, on the Oconto River and the Wolf River.

Lee Witthuhn and Joan Stueflat
(Mr. Smith)

Four Years of

"Oh dear, do we have to wear THAT?" Yes, this was the comment of several unhappy freshmen on initiation day. Girls wore "longies" under their gym shorts, hair in pigtails, swim fins, rubber gloves, and onion necklaces. Trying to masquerade as ladies were the boys, who wore skirts, clattering high heels, and make-up. This was the first big event of our freshman year.

One hundred and forty-five freshmen had entered Seymour High School in the fall of '59. Phyllis Krahn headed our class, assisted by Ben Seehafer, Mary Ann Mory, and Sally Eick.

Homecoming was something new for the freshmen. Our float was "We'll Can 'Em." Kathy Parks and Mike Reis were the freshman representatives on the homecoming court. That year the freshmen sponsored an all-school party.

Planning the freshman initiation dance was the main event of our sophomore year. Harlan Mueller was elected president of the class. Working with him were Gail Kroner, Sharon Murphy, and Sally Eick. Sophomore representatives on the homecoming court were Barbara Gardner and Harlan Mueller. The homecoming float was "Our Aces Will Win."

Finally—our junior year! The year to choose class rings! and—THE PROM! Reigning over "Enchantment" were Queen Gail Kroner and King Harlan Mueller. On the court were Joan Stueflat and Mike Reis; Judy Kranzush and Marlin Nelson; Sharon Murphy and Danny Christiansen; and Mary Lee Stritzel and Ken Bosin.

Junior attendants were Mary Lubinski and Raymond Helms. Ray Reis and his orchestra provided the music for the evening of "Enchantment."

Junior class activities were directed by president Gail Kroner, assisted by Dick Lathrop, Lois Melchert, and Maxine Loritz. The Junior homecoming float theme was "To Heck with the Blue Devils," and Lois Melchert and Gary Krueger represented the class on the homecoming court.

At last—our Senior year! Heading our class again was Phyllis Krahn. Other officers were Betty Wagner, Don Sedo, and Ronda Mitchell. The first order of business was meeting with the senior advisers to pick graduation announcements—already!

The senior float, "We'll Dragon to Victory," was the second place winner in the homecoming parade. Barbara Gardner and Mike Reis reigned over the dance as king and queen; Kathy Parks and Karl Kemp were senior court representatives.

Winning the annual charity drive made the seniors very proud; Kathy Parks and Dan Christiansen were the royalty for the dance.

With the presentation of the senior class play, "Andy Hardy," in April, the final whirl of senior activities started, continuing with the banquet, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement on May 31.

Our four years at SHS will always remain in our minds as years of learning and of pleasure. Thank you and good-bye.

Project: Foreign Exchange Student . . .

"We've accomplished it!" was the cry. For the past several years the Seymour High School Student Council was working on a project to get a foreign exchange student to come to SHS for a school year. AFS Committee chairman, Phyllis Krahn, along with her committee, received notice that Seymour, as of January 1963, had become a member of the Foreign Field Service.

A special project this year was the adoption of a merit system for the Student Council. Under this system each member was required to attend all meetings but was excused with a valid excuse. If a valid excuse was not produced by the member, he was dismissed from the Council.

Officers were Marlin Nelson, president; James Veitch, vice-president; Darlene Marcks, secretary; and Ronda Mitchell, treasurer. Advisers were Mr. George Behrendt and Mr. Floyd Smith.

The Student Council reorganizes each year with the election of representatives and alternates in home rooms in September. In October, elections are held for vice-president and secretary.

The Student Council had eight standing committees: the AFS: Phyllis Krahn, chairman; Constructive Criticism: Mary Mory, chairman; Courtesy: Sally Eick, chairman; Citizenship: Donna Brocker, chairman; Social Affairs: Jenelle Peterson, chairman; Collections: Betty Wagner, chairman; and Noon Hour and Entertainment: James Veitch, chairman.

Each year four students attend the State Student Council Convention. This year Mary Mory, Darlene Marcks, Robert Mory, and James Veitch attended the convention at Wausau.

Among Student Council-sponsored activities are the organization of the all-school Christmas party, the charity and polio drives, Student Government Day, and the planning of Parents Night.

Dreams . . . Plans . . . and Work

Deadlines and more deadlines! "Has the band picture been taken yet?" "Who's in charge of the FHA write-up?" "Can you be here early to work Saturday morning?" So, Tittle by little, the 1963 RIPPER was put together.

Barbara Gardner, editor-in-chief, had attended the 1962 Summer High School Journalism Workshop at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She came back with many new ideas and recommendations to pass on to the various RIPPER committees.

This 1963 RIPPER, consisting of 112 pages, is the largest yearbook ever put out at Seymour High School. The division pages now cover two pages. The senior section is quite different. The graduation pictures are smaller, and the page layouts are different from those of the past few years. Gone are the traditional senior sayings, nicknames, and the Will and Prophecy.

Located in the back of the book is an index to assist you in finding a certain club or organization and the pictures of all the people in school this year. This index should grow more valuable as the years go by.

Gail Kroner, business manager, and her staff started work early in September soliciting ads for the book. Later they took subscriptions in home rooms.

Boys sports was headed by Harlan Mueller and Mark Ullmer, while Cherylene Noack took care of girls sports. Ronda Mitchell was chairman of the underclassman section. Mary Lee Stritzel planned the faculty and administration section. Clubs and activities was headed by Barbara Gardner, and Joan Stueflat had charge of the senior section. Judy Reese planned the features. The typing was done by LaVerne Stephani and Betty Wagner. Supervising student photography was Jerry Vissers, who also assisted Mr. Don Fraser, the professional photographer.

Mrs. Barbara Steffen is faculty adviser for the 1963 RIPPER.

"We'll Caesar Victory" was the theme of the Latin Club float in the 1962 homecoming parade. This "float" was almost a miniature parade in itself, consisting of a triumphal march, complete with dancing girls.

A November activity was the club's sponsoring the movie, "Boys' Night Out," as a money raising project. Braving bitterly cold December weather, the Latin Club joined the French Club to sing bi-lingual Christmas carols around Seymour.

Starting the new year, the members presented a pep assembly. Here all varsity coaches and athletes were invited to the annual Latin Club Banquet, which took place in February, at "Caesar's Royal Palace"—(the SHS multi-purpose room).

Members' parents were entertained at the April meeting by demonstrations concerning the group's activities during the year.

All Latin Club projects were supervised by Judy Reese, president, and Mr. Edward Kocha, adviser. Other officers were Mary Stritzel, vice-president; Judy Kranzush, secretary; Ginny Melchert, reporter; and Kaye Hebel and Lynne Schnabl, historians.

To become a member of this club, a student must complete one semester of Latin and maintain a "B" average in that subject.

The French Club produced their Homecoming float with the theme "Eiffel for a Victory."

"Les Heureux Francais, the Happy Frenchmen," started the year with the election of new officers: Joan Stueflat, president; Natalie Sager, vice-president; Lois Melchert, secretary; Charles Kellogg, treasurer; and Mary Schmit and Sue Seidl, historians. Mrs. Barbara Steffen was the faculty adviser.

Meetings, consisting of a business and an informative program, were held monthly.

The first item on the year's agenda was the float, "Eiffel For A Victory," in the homecoming parade.

A Sadie Hawkins dance, sponsored jointly by the FHA and the French Club, honored all basketball players in November.

In December the French Club and the Latin Club members combined in below zero weather to go caroling, to bring a touch of "Joyeux Noel" to the people of Seymour.

The traditional "tres chic" red berets, with "Allons" in white, ("Let's Go!"), were purchased by the new members.

French Club membership is open to any student who is taking or has taken French. To be admitted to this organization, one must maintain a "B" average in French. If the student receives a lower grade, he is put on a nine-week probationary period.

Gerry Hackl explains an experiment with cupric oxide to Carol Henn, a non-Science Club member.

On the third Monday of every month, the members of the Science Club, along with their advisers, Mr. Russell Kostrzak, Mr. Ray Gulbrand, and Mr. Edward Mealy, gathered in Room 104 for their meeting.

President Pat Edwards took charge of the meeting, with the aid of Richard Piehl, vice-president; Lois Melchert, secretary; and Kathy Parks, treasurer.

The members of the Science Club met for the purpose of furthering their interest in science, understanding the importance of science in their lives, and increasing their knowledge and skills in science.

Programs usually held after each meeting were dispensed with, and interest study groups were organized under the supervision of the club advisers. The groups included a camera division, a biology division, and a general division. Projects were undertaken in the three divisions, and members studied and worked accordingly.

The responsibility of setting up microphones for lyceums and other school activities, and operating projectors, tape recorders, and film strip machines, is undertaken by members. The portable PA system, set up at football games and track meets, is also the responsibility of Science Club members.

Fifty-five students, representing all the classes, had their names recorded on this year's Science Club roster.

"Think Safe, Be Safe!"

"Think Safe, Be Safe" was the slogan that started the ball rolling for the Safety Club. This motto headed the Safety Club pen sale, which was the club's biggest project for the year. Club members canvassed Seymour and the surrounding area during this sale.

Officers were John Kroner, president; Byron Kasperek, vice-president; Sally Sherman, secretary; and James Veitch, treasurer. Mr. Clifford Andreoli advised this organization.

Each year four SHS Safety Club members are selected to attend the Outagamie Teen-Age Safety Council meetings held monthly in Appleton. Representing Seymour this year were Donna Hartsworm, Byron Kasperek, and Jerry Tierney.

All members made a trip to the Outagamie County Court House, where they talked with Judge Gustave Keller and saw the Traffic Court in operation. Local and county police assisted this group in a surprise safety check on all cars in the SHS parking lots. During National Safety Week the club sponsored a safety poster contest. They also made tentative plans for the showing of a movie concerning safety.

With a membership roster of 106 students in the Dramatics Club this year, the club had many varied programs at the meetings held on the second Monday of each month.

Some of the year's activities included a prize-winning float in the Homecoming parade in October. This entry was based on the slogan, "We'll Tickle Them to Defeat." Since all the floats were walking ones this year, the club members walked inside a huge foot to portray the theme. The club also participated in the annual Christmas program by giving their traditional Christmas pageant.

Dramatics Club members also did the make up for the senior class play and several grade school programs.

To close the final curtain, the club held a picnic at Rockledge Park in May.

The officers were: Gail Kroner, president; Judy Reese, vice-president; Kathy Muehl, secretary; and Mary Stritzel, treasurer, with Mrs. Marjorie Jenkins as the faculty adviser.

Resolved: That the United States should adopt a policy of reciprocal free trade with non-communist nations.

On September 27, Mr. Clyde Peterman, the debate coach, announced at the first meeting of the debaters that this was to be the official WHSFA debate topic for the 1962-63 season.

Robert Mory, Richard Piehl, John Grunwald, Mildred Considine, and Marianne Mesko were among the students attending the first meeting.

Other students who showed interest were Valerie Wilkinson, Cathy Piehl, Sally Sherman, Kay Hebel, Byron Kasperek, Christine Stellmacher, and Kathy Koeppel.

Robert Mory and Byron Kasperek debated affirmative, with Valerie Wilkinson as alternate. Mildred Considine and Richard Piehl debated negative, with Sally Sherman as alternate.

The SHS team tied for second place with Oconto at the Conference meet at Preble.

"Scenes from Macbeth"

"Lay on, Macduff, and damned be he who first cries, 'Hold enough!'"

This quotation, taken from Shakespeare's five-act play "Macbeth," was one of the lines in the SHS entry in the 1962 One-Act Play Contest. The original play was cut down to a one-act play, which Seymour entitled "Scenes from Macbeth."

The story centers around Lady Macbeth, who prompts her husband to kill the ruling king of Scotland.

Members of the cast included: Betty DeBruin, the messenger; James Tubbs, Macbeth; Marlin Nelson, the doctor; Judy Reese, the gentlewoman; and Melanie Helmke, Lady Macbeth. Mr. Anthony Sittarich directed the play; Judy Dryden was student director.

Oconto, Oconto Falls, Pulaski, and Seymour competed for ratings at the League Contest, held at Seymour High School, on October 25. Oconto Falls and Seymour received "A" ratings and went on to compete at the Conference meet.

For the second year, the "Blue Jay," Seymour High School's paper, appeared as a weekly page of school news in the local "Seymour Press." Its slogan continued to be: "Serving the community as well as the students."

Editor-in-Chief Joan Stueflat brought back new ideas from the High School Journalism Workshop held last summer at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She had won a scholarship from the "Seymour Press."

Getting out the weekly page was the responsibility of the Speech-Journalism class. Serving as feature editor was Phyllis Krahn, with Mary Nachtwey as her assistant. Mark Ullmer was news editor, with Lois Melchert assisting. Pat Edwards took a great many of the pictures, assisted by other members of the Camera Club. Mary Nachtwey did all art work.

Reporters and feature writers were other members of the class: Betty Vander Zanden, Ginny Melchert, Judy Dryden, Judy Kranzush, and Marlin Nelson. Former journalism student, Ronda Mitchell, did special articles, such as the series on safe driving. Mrs. Barbara Steffen was the Speech-Journalism instructor.

We Work with All

Nineteen new members earned membership in the Seymour Chapter of the Quill and Scroll Society this year.

Added to the membership roster were Joan Stueflat, Betty Vander Zanden, Mark Ullmer, Judy Dryden, Ginny Melchert, Pat Edwards, Judy Kranzush, Marlin Nelson, Phyllis Krahn, Mary Nachtwey, Lois Melchert, Mary Lee Stritzel, Judy Reese, Harlan Mueller, Gail Kroner, Bill Birling, Jerry Vissers, and Kathy Parks.

Barbara Gardner, Ronda Mitchell, and Lynn Turkow attained membership in their junior year.

The Quill and Scroll Society, which was re-activated in Seymour High School last year, is the international journalism organization for high school writers. Students who make important contributions to either the "Blue Jay" or the "Ripper," are of junior or senior standing, and rank in the upper-third of their class scholastically, are members of this group.

Types of Publications . . .

"The early worm gets the bird" was the theme of the Bookworm Club's Homecoming float, which was under the chairmanship of Pat Dey. The float placed second in the theme division.

The Bookworm Club and student librarians honored National Book Week by displaying posters, selling paperback books, and arranging a book display. The librarians also put up a bulletin board and gave bookmarks to students who checked out books that week.

At the December meeting, the members decorated the library for the Christmas season and arranged a display. The Bookworms also observed National Library Week in April.

They check books in and out, shelve books, file cards, and keep accounts of library fines. They also check magazines in and out, arrange displays, and keep the library and conference room in order. They assist students in finding books, information, and magazine and newspaper articles. Librarians who performed these services were Patricia Danforth, Valerie Jourdan, Eloise Kazik, Joyce King,

Margaret Hooyman, and John Lueck.

Others who worked this past year were Betty DeBruin, Barbara Bauman, Beverly DeRuyter, Robert Heagle, Kris Mills, and Gerre Ashmann.

Other Bookworm Club members included Mary Vander Zanden, Darlene Marcks, Judy Weyers, Mary Ward, Sandy Kasten, Judy Wisniewski, Betty Vander Zanden, Pat Dey, and Vonnie Hegner.

Also working with the above were Ellen Hillegas, Rosemary John, Wanda Hill, Connie Bunkelman, Lois Halverson, Byron Kasperek, Susan Dey, Lynne Hillegas, Rosemary Felton, and Mary Ann Hegner.

The executive committee of the Bookworm Club included its adviser, Mrs. Marjorie Jenkins, and the officers: Byron Kasperek, president; Lynne Hillegas, vice-president; Darlene Marcks, secretary; Pat Dey, treasurer; Betty Vander Zanden, reporter; and Judy Weyers, historian.

New Horizons . . . !

"Toward New Horizons" was the motto carried out this year by the Seymour Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. The club's colors are red and white; the red rose is the flower. Some of the projects this year included making stuffed animals for a children's hospital and presenting a pep assembly skit.

The climax of the year's activities was the Mother-Daughter Banquet, February 14. Other activities were Initiation, Style Show, and the Demonstration Contest.

Diane Staley was FHA president the past year. Other officers were Darlene Marcks, vice-president; Suzanne Court, treasurer; Ruth Lehrer, reporter; Lone Tubbs, historian; Sharon Gorges, parliamentarian; Mary Sutliff, recreation leader; and Pam Baehler, degree chairman. Chapter Mothers were Mrs. Walter Baehler and Mrs. Maynard Nelson.

Advisers were Mrs. Penny Coffin and Mrs. Karen Christiansen.

"Magazines, rat bait, tractor seats for sale!" These were the items sold this year by the Seymour Chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

Heading the FFA this year was Bob Moehring. Working with him were Harlan Mueller, vice-president; Jerry Vissers, secretary; Bill Moehring, treasurer; Leonard Schnabl, reporter; and Roger Bosin, sentinel.

A big annual FFA affair is the banquet, where the advisers, Mr. Oliver Lerum and Mr. Harold Tech, present awards to members.

Spectators at home basketball games quench their thirst with pop sold at the FFA stand in the multi-purpose room.

The purpose of the FFA is to encourage the members to develop individual farming programs and to get acquainted with all the new methods of farming. These boys must be enrolled in a class of agriculture at SHS.

GUIDE O'WAYS

Not Hard to Follow!

"Follow me, please" is the slogan of the Guide O'Ways, an organization of junior and senior boys and girls, which was founded in November 1954.

Students signing up for this club are examined by a board of admissions as to the qualifications for membership: (1) pleasing personality (2) good general appearance (3) at least a "C" scholastic average (4) a sense of courtesy, dignity, and tact (5) promptness, reliability, and willingness to accept responsibility.

The girls hand out programs at home football and basketball games, the senior class play, concerts, Open House, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. The boys usher at basketball games and Open House and direct traffic at football games.

All points earned by working at these events during their junior and senior years are received by the students in their senior year.

This group held a skating party on February 29 at the Green Bay Arena.

Officers for the year were Jerry Vissers, president; and Joan Stueflat, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Lorence Schnur is the faculty adviser.

Right: Joyce Mueller, Mr. Lorence Schnur, Donna Brocker, and Marilyn Malueg talk over the evening's schedule.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Our Aim: To Serve

On April 2, 1963, two seniors and six juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. These members were Kathleen Flanagan, Robert Mory, Lynn Raether, Darlene Marcks, James Veitch, and Barbara Van Vuren, juniors; and Sally Eick and Mary Nachtwey, seniors.

At the induction ceremony, Principal Lyle Martens was guest speaker. The student speakers for the ceremony were Richard Piehl, history and purpose; Ronda Mitchell, emblem; James Tubbs, scholarship; Barbara Gardner, leadership; Byron Kasperek, service; and Glenn Dreisow, character.

Membership in the Society is earned not by a single accomplishment, but by displaying the four essential qualities of an ideal person: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. All this is accomplished in the classrooms, in clubs and activities, and in keeping good relationships with the teachers and other students. The primary requisite for admission is attaining at least a high "B" average, being a junior or senior, and having the four qualities of an ideal person. Students who are eligible for membership are rated by the faculty.

The main purposes of the National Honor Society are to promote scholarship among the students and to provide an opportunity for the members to participate in the $100,000 scholarship program. Raising the flag and posting the honor rolls are honor duties reserved for NHS members. New flag raisers are appointed each quarter.

Mr. George Behrendt is adviser to the Seymour Chapter of the National Honor Society. This year's officers were: Richard Piehl, president; Jim Tubbs, vice-president; Maxine Loritz, secretary; and Judy Kranzush, treasurer.

Through Honor . . .

Mrs. Ruth Staley and Miss Sharon Kettner have been assisted in their work in the SHS office this year by three senior Office Practice students and a sophomore and a junior typing student.

Diane Pierce collected the absence lists in the morning and Mary Lou Krizek picked them up in the afternoon. Diane also typed and distributed the absence lists to each teacher first period in the morning.

The student secretaries took all telephone messages and notified the students or teachers to whom they were directed.

Donna Brocker, who worked third period, and Carol Schuyler, working fourth hour, had the extra duty of preparing and typing report card envelopes and the absence lists that are sent to all students' parents at the end of each quarter.

In general, besides the specified tasks assigned, the girls performed other general office duties, such as typing letters and filing papers.

Room 174 is one of the rooms most popular with the students, especially during their senior year. Mr. Floyd Smith, Director of the SHS Guidance Center, is in charge of helping students become aware of future educational and vocational opportunities. All students are interviewed by Mr. Smith at least once a year so that all new materials can be referred to each student.

Mr. Smith is also in charge of arranging conferences between students and college representatives when college entrance is discussed. Representatives from most of the state colleges and many of the private colleges within the state visit SHS during the school year.

The Guidance Center has a well-stocked library, containing information and catalogs from colleges within and outside the state of Wisconsin.

Additional information on jobs, vocational trends, and vocational education is available to all students in the vocational file.

"Ars Nova" . . . New Art . . .

"ARS NOVA," Greek for the "new arts," was the official name adopted by art students as the title of the newly formed art club.

On the first Tuesday of each month, members of the Ars Nova gather in room 209 to hold their meetings. The presiding officers were Mary Nachtwey, president; Evalyn Rusch, vice-president; Joyce Mueller, secretary; and Jerry Tierney, treasurer. Miss Barbara Olson was the adviser.

The first order of business was to draw up a constitution and present it to the Student Council for approval. This constitution, after minor changes were made, was accepted and approved by the Council at its February 1 meeting.

The general purpose of the Ars Nova is to further the interest and appreciation of art in this community.

Art works were put on display in the multi-purpose room throughout the year. In March the members set up an art exhibit in the library.

Benefit Game for Polio!

February 11-15 marked a week of charity at Seymour High School, for the Student Council Collections Committee sponsored a "Teens for Polio" drive, under the supervision of chairman Betty Wagner.

Every morning and afternoon, collections—from pennies to dollars—were taken up in the homerooms.

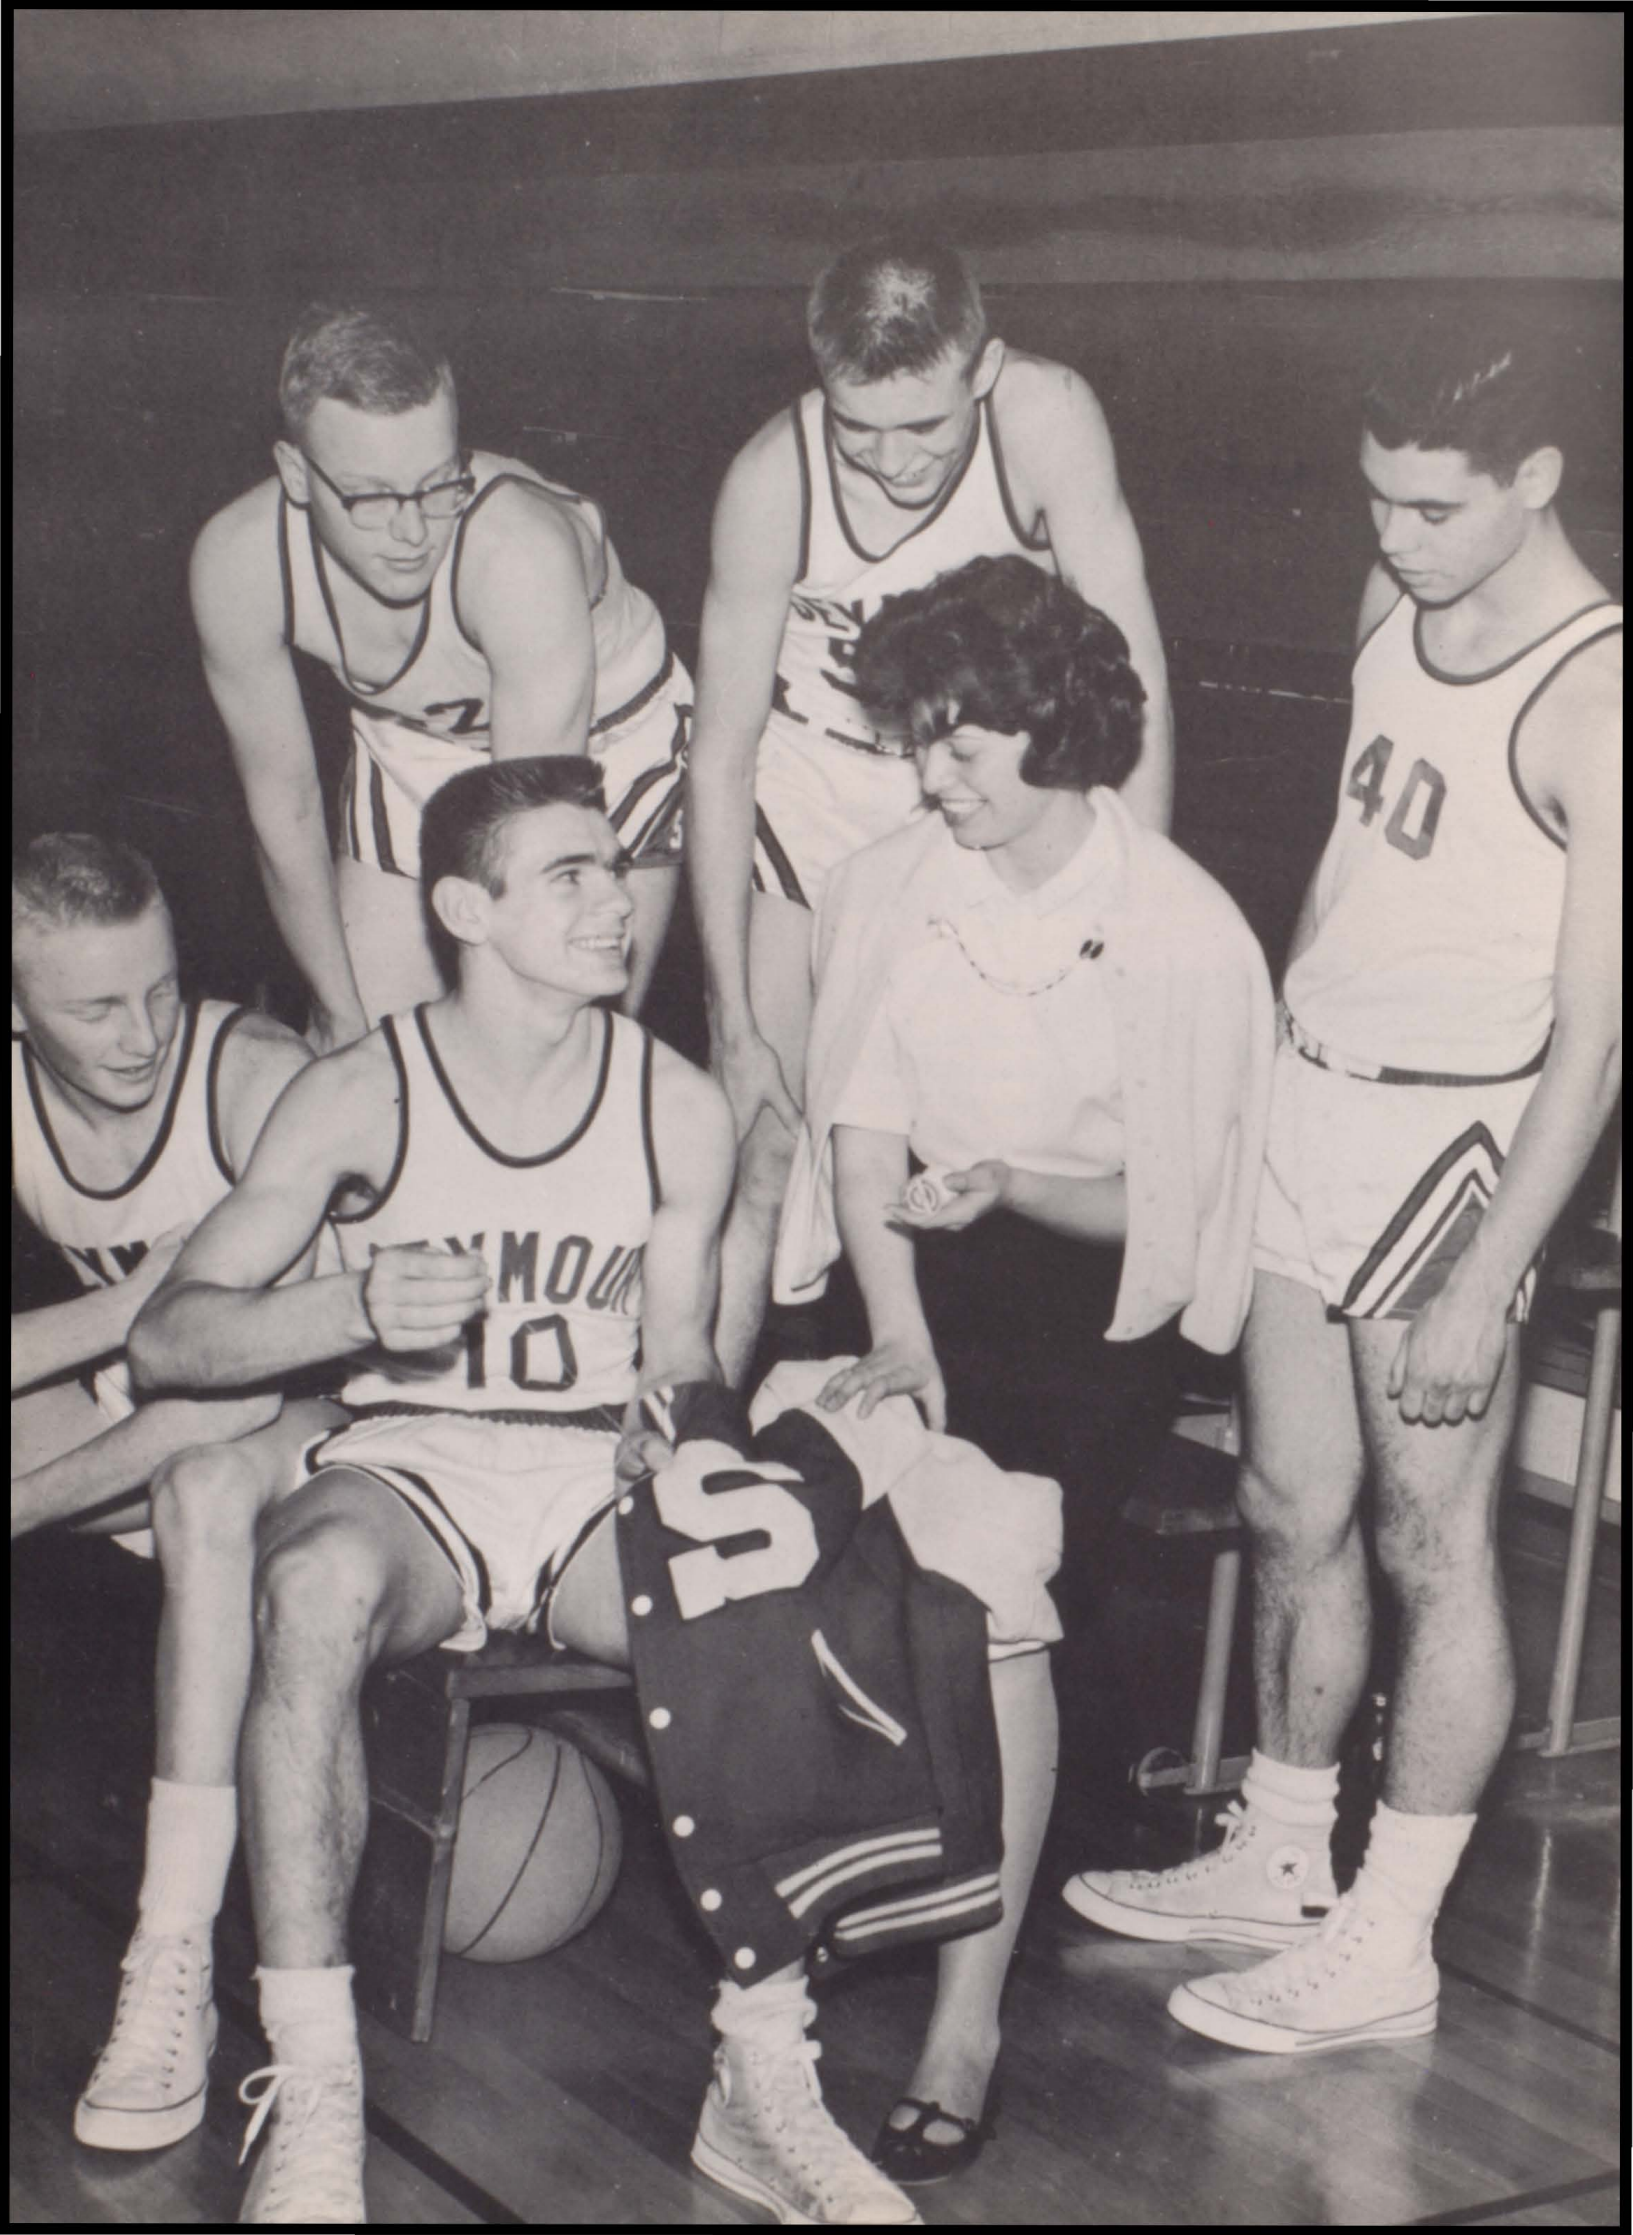

The drive was so organized that each class chose a candidate to be a member of the Court. This candidate then chose a girl to accompany him to the dance, which was held on Friday night, February 15. At the dance, the class contributing the most money would have its candidate and his date proclaimed royalty.

The king and queen were seniors Daniel Christiansen and Kathy Parks. Others on the court were Donald Gardner and Janet Blohm, juniors; Donald Kettner and Sally Kluge, sophomores; and Jerry Moehring and June Gritt, freshmen.

Totals were: seniors—$125.16, juniors—$111.86, sophomores—$92.21, freshmen—$75.14. The amount collected at the dance was $66.50; the total amount collected during the week was $471.25. All the money was sent to the March of Dimes.

Seymour played Oconto Falls for the Benefit Game. The final score was Oconto Falls 60, Seymour 52. Right: Ronald King, Seymour's number 12, fights for the ball during a decisive moment.

A Team Backed with Spirit!

In mid-August, 1962, thirty-five boys reported for pre-season football practice. They labored for about two weeks before the opening game, getting into shape and indoctrinating themselves into the systems of Mr. Joe Unrein, their new head coach.

In Seymour's first game, against Weyauwega, the Indians were plagued with a series of injuries. The most serious ones were a shoulder separation suffered by Bob Heagle and Keith Mueller's fractured knee. Seymour thus lost half of its starting backfield.

Several youths came out near mid-season in an attempt to bolster the team. But it seemed to be too late—for the team, so hampered by injuries and lack of depth, was reeling from a series of defeats.

Seymour came very close to victory against Algoma but didn't quite make it, losing 14-6. Seymour players set aside a night to honor their parents, but the game was against Preble, the eventual conference champs. Seymour was decisively beaten.

In a hard fought homecoming game, the Indians played second-placed DePere. The score was DePere 26, Seymour 7. At Sturgeon Bay twelve seniors played their final game; the score was Clippers 26, Indians 0.

The final slate read 0 won-8 lost, but the players had gained valuable experience in posting this mark.

Head coach Joe Unrein and his assistants, Mr. Carl Ibe and Mr. David Olson, had used a lineup consisting of many sophomores and juniors during the season, thus promising a bright future.

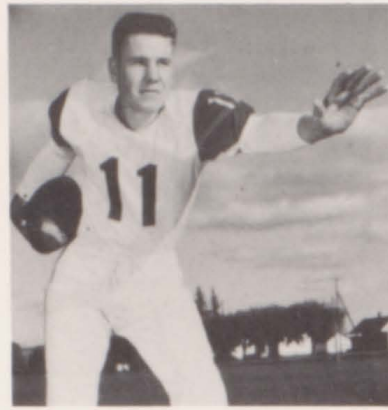

Seymour cagers get in condition for their starting game against Weyauwega in the 1962 football season.

Our Future Power House!

The freshman football team learned their fundamentals and improved steadily under the direction of their coach, Mr. David Olson, during the '62 football season.

They indicated that they had the desire to play good, clean, hard football with a competitive spirit, while compiling a winning record during their rookie season of high school ball.

In showing a solid defense, along with a potentially powerful offense, they pose a threat to take over some of the varsity positions on next year's team.

Have 3-9 Record

Seymour High School wrestlers participated in two conferences this year, the Packerland and the Northeastern Wisconsin.

Other teams in the Packerland Conference are Green Bay East, and West, Mishicot, Preble, and Pulaski. The Northeastern Wisconsin Conference also included Oconto, Oconto Falls, Sturgeon Bay, Preble, and Pulaski. Seymour also took the mat against Hortonville and Bonduel in compiling an over-all record of three wins and nine losses.

Seymour met and defeated Peshtigo in its first meet; other victories came over Hortonville and Green Bay West. It also participated in both conference tournaments and the Regional Tournament.

This was the last season for four senior wrestlers: John Lueck, Everette Wilkinson, Sam Rettler, and Adrian Metoxen.

John wrestled in the heavyweight class and placed third in the Northeastern Conference tournament in one of his best performances.

Everette was in the 180 pound class and one of the most consistent winners over the last two seasons, losing only once in dual meets as a junior.

Sam also had a very successful junior year but was somewhat hampered by injuries while wrestling in the 165 pound class this season.

Adrian got off to a fine start this year in the 154 pound class, winning four and having a draw in his first five matches.

Next year's squad could be a great one with many underclassmen turning in fine performances this year.

Returning varsity performers are Ken Kraft, John Grunwald, Ron Roskom, Wayne Helms, Bradley Anderson, Ralph Smits, Pat VandeVoort, Al McClone, Ted DuFour, Ron Wilinski, Robbin Olson, and Dennis Sutliff. Also many talented youths who did not see varsity action this year could make up the nucleus of a solid team.

This year's matmen were coached by Mr. Loren Cismoski, who was assisted by Mr. David Olson.

All Senior Team Wins

November 20, 1962, was a big date—the opening game of the 1962-63 Seymour High School basketball season. The game was at home against New London. We lost, 44-63.

The season had been tabbed by some as a rebuilding year and in that it was a success. Several underclassmen saw extensive action and gained valuable experience. But as far as victories were concerned, it was a lean season. Seymour posted a record of three wins and fifteen losses.

Seymour finished in an eighth place tie in the ten team Northeastern Wisconsin Conference. The Indians defeated Oconto Falls in its conference opener and Oconto in its finale. The main problem was a 12 game conference losing streak sandwiched between those two victories. Seymour's other victory was a 61-59 thriller over Hortonville in non-conference action.

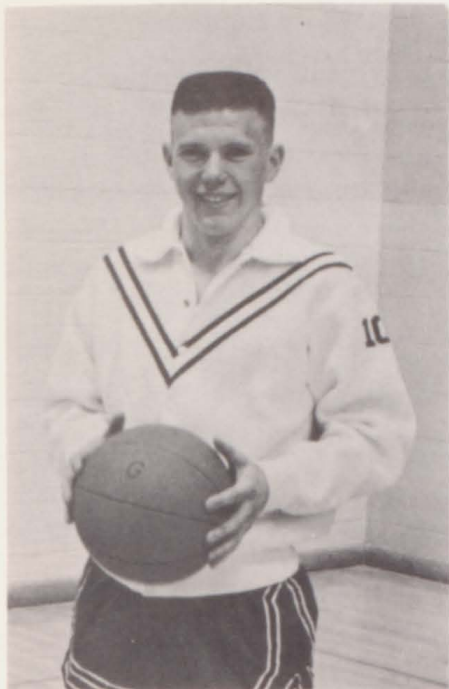

This season ended the high school basketball career of six Seymour High senior athletes. Providing the fans with many thrills during their careers were Ben Seehafer, Dan Christiansen, Dick Lathrop, Pat Edwards, Jim McGlin, and Charles Holzer.

Head coach Carl Ibe and his assistants, John Rice and Don Chambers, aided in the development of underclassman talent. Two underclassmen rated among the conference's leading scorers: Wayne Gaul, a junior, with 129, and Bruce Decker, a freshman, with 83.

The leading varsity scorer this year was Ben Seehafer, who amassed a total of 204 points in conference action. Ben also had the individual high scoring effort for Seymour in one game, as he scored a total of 44 points in a losing effort against Waupaca in the Regional tournament, which was held in the Seymour gymnasium this year.

Bruce Decker and Pat Edwards rebound for the ball in the Seymour-New London game.

Frosh Basketball Team Has 15-0 Season

As the freshman basketball team, coached by Mr. Don Chambers, quietly and modestly picked up its sixth straight win of the season, SHS suddenly realized that here was a potential powerhouse!

The Seymour frosh, in scoring a total of 755 points to their opponents' 449, fulfilled the earlier expectations by ending their season with a 15 won-0 lost record. They averaged 51 points per game to the opposition's 29.9. The leading scorer was Bruce Decker with 178 points. Next in line was Vern Freemore, closely followed by Richard Jochman.

Freshman and sophomore basketball players gained valuable experience playing junior varsity basketball this past season. Although victories were not plentiful, the team showed a solid nucleus.

These players will be battling out next year for the starting varsity positions vacated by this year's graduating seniors. The leading scorer this year was sophomore Steve Van Vuren, who scored 105 points in 16 games for a 6.6 per game average.

Mr. John Rice was the junior varsity coach.

Cross Country Has 8 Senior Letter Winners

The cross country team finished with a 6-4 record: Some of the highlights were the victories over Appleton and Shawano. Seymour also placed third in the Shawano Invationals and fourth in the Sectional at Schofield.

This year's team was made up of ten seniors, eight of whom were letter winners. Two of the underclassmen, junior Roger Bosin and freshman Eugene Bosin, also won letters. Six freshmen won their numerals. There were no sophomores on this year's team.

Team captain Harlan Mueller and Roger Mielke were the top runners for Seymour. The other top runners were Roger Bosin, Gary Hodkiewicz, Charles Holzer, Ken Bosin, Richard Piehl, and Jim Tubbs.

Mr. Loren Cismoski is the head coach.

Regional Tournament a Real Success

A few years ago a group of athletes at Seymour High School organized the first "Lettermen's Club." One of the club's main tasks this year was the revision of the original constitution.

The purposes they outlined for their organization are: to install a desire to develop and maintain proper ideals of citizenship and competition among the student body by sportsmanship and fair play; to promote physical, mental, moral, social, and emotional well-being of high school athletes; to promote participation of boys from this high school in sports; to make available sports material; and to promote fellowship through work and recreational activities.

Early last October the Lettermen elected officers: Ben Seehafer, president; Everette Wilkinson, vice-president; and Dick Lathrop, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Joe Unrein and Mr. Clifford Andreoli were the advisers for the year.

The club's major project for the year was to furnish programs for the regional basketball tournament. The programs contained team rosters, team and cheerleader pictures, and advertisements from the respective localities. The club members worked to get program ads and have the programs published in time for the tournament. The job was completed in time to issue a free program to every person who attended the tournament.

It is an honor to be eligible to belong to the Lettermen's Club! A member of the student activity fund must first win a letter by participating in a varsity sport or by serving as a manager.

High Strikers . . . !

"It's a strike!" was a phrase heard often as the Girls Athletic Association participated in bowling. Five bowling leagues, with approximately 80 girls, were organized this year. Ronda Mitchell's score of 215 set a new GAA record for the highest bowling score. Late in March the girls were in the mailographic bowling tournament.

Eight basketball teams were formed in January and played during the night hour on Mondays and Wednesdays. The girls named their teams such names as the Seymour Packers, the Globetrotters, the Raiders, and the Oneida Indians.

Spring saw the organization of other teams: volleyball, badminton, and softball.

Leading the GAA this year were Natalie Sager, president; Judy Kranzush, vice-president; and Ronda Mitchell, secretary-treasurer.

Sportsheads for the year were Diane Staley, bowling; Kathy

Muehl, assistant bowling; Rosella Genske, basketball; Carol Henn, volleyball; Sally Eick, badminton; and Mary Eisenreich, softball.

Miss Helen Probart was GAA adviser.

Miss Helen Probart, girls' physical education instructor, introduced the Squad Leaders and Squad Captains to SHS. These girls acted as Miss Probart's assistants in the gym classes. The Squad Leaders were selected from the junior and senior classes, while the squad captains were selected from their individual classes. The duties of the Squad Leaders varied. Each leader took attendance, made out absence reports, explained and demonstrated the activities, directed and refereed them, and saw that all necessary equipment was on hand and ready to use.

The Squad Leaders have many standards to live up to. These standards are: a pleasing personality, keen interest in sports, the ability to be fair and impartial, resourcefulness, responsibility, cooperation, and tolerance of other people's point of view.

Our Junior Prom . . .

Our Court Attendants . . . Mary Lubinski and Raymond Helms.

Sharon Murphy admires our fountain.

King Harlan Mueller and Queen Gail Kroner reigned over the 1962 Junior Prom, ENCHANTMENT. Members of the court were Joan Stueflat and Michael Reis, Judy Kranzush and Marlin Nelson, Sharon Murphy and Daniel Christiansen, and Mary Stritzel and Kenneth Bosin. The crown bearers were Mary Lubinski and Raymond Helms. The 1961 prom King Christopher Anschutz and Queen Diane Lange were present to crown the new king and queen. Many long hours were put into the prom by the Junior Class . . . stuffing well over 50,000 napkins . . . building huge frames . . . painting trees and benches. On May 4, 1962, the long awaited night showed the transforming of a gym into a world of clouds set in a blue-lit fantasy.
