The faculty of Seymour High spends much more time at school than just the usual school hours.

A number of the teachers spend their preparation period and after-school hours as coaches.

Teachers also spend many after-school hours in the same manner—instructing. Many faculty members are forensic coaches, debate coaches, and directors of various school activities.

The lounge provides a place where teachers can prepare daily assignments, correct papers, duplicate tests, and just plain relax.

In the above picture, Mr. Hanseter, Mrs. Christensen, and Mr. Schnur are shown preparing material for their next class. Many members of the faculty serve as advisers of clubs and the preparation period is very useful.

The newly organized Pep Band under the direction of Mr. Allen Butcher is shown at the right. The Pep Band is made up of twenty members from the concert band. They play at athletic events and add much "new" spirit and enthusiasm to the spectators.

A Time to Plan . . .

Officers are: Carol Henn, secretary; Robert Mory, president; and Carol Weihing, treasurer.

The long awaited first day of high school finally arrived, and 159 new freshmen stepped into Seymour Union High School.

Instead of Freshman initiation that year, the Sophomores sponsored a Freshman Dance. Homecoming was something new for the Freshmen. Rodney Blom and Audrey Vanden Heuvel were the Homecoming candidates representing the class. The class put great effort on the float "They'll Never Ketchup," which won second prize. Class officers elected by the new high school students were Mary Ann Fassbender, president; Gerald Hackl, vice-president; Virginia Melchert, secretary; and Betty Kettner, treasurer.

After summer vacation, we returned as sophomores under the leadership of Natalie Sager, president; Kathy Muehl, vice-president; Virginia Melchert, secretary; and Mike Lotter, treasurer. Our first project for that year was our Homecoming float, "We'll Race To a Victory." Serving as our candidates on the court were Judith Stritzel and Gary Meyer.

As Sophomores we took first place in the annual charity drive, with Barbara Van Vuren and Leonard Schnabl reigning as King and Queen over the dance.

The class reached the middle of the ladder when we became Juniors. We began the year by selecting our class rings. Our Junior year was a busy and successful one. Our class officers were Leonard Schnabl, president; Judy Dryden, vice-president; Darlene Marcks, secretary; and Mary Eisenreich, treasurer. We placed first on our walking Homecoming float "We'll Crawl All Over Them." Carolyn Gritt and Wayne Graul represented our class on the Homecoming Court of Honor.

The main event of our Junior year was the Junior Prom, "Hawaiian Sunset," held on May 3. Music was furnished by Duke Janda. Queen Audrey Vanden Heuvel and King Donald Gardner led the Grand March. The remainder of the court included Judith Stritzel and Roger Bosin, Barbara Van Vuren and John Kroner, Kathy Muehl and Mike Lotter, and Virginia Melchert and Wayne Graul. The Junior attendants were Scott Vanden Heuvel and Connie Henn.

That year Judy Dryden and Darlene Marcks were chosen as Badger Girls, while Robert Mory and James Veitch were Badger Boys. James Veitch and Darlene Marcks were elected vice-president and secretary, respectively, of the Student Council.

Finally we reached our goal—Our Senior Year! Heading the class was Robert Mory, president; James Veitch, vice-president; Carol Henn, secretary; and Carol Weihing, treasurer. Our senior float, "We'll Have A Whale Of A Victory," which featured a huge stuffed white whale and her baby, received Grand Champion in the Homecoming parade. Queen Barbara Van Vuren and King Wayne Graul, representing our class, reigned over the Homecoming Dance.

Judy Dryden was chosen as our DAR girl. Representing the Senior class in the annual charity drive were Roger Bosin and Sharon Pautz.

Our last major activity as Seniors was the presentation of the Senior Class Play, "The Spiral Staircase," on April 7.

Our four years at Seymour Community High School were concluded with our banquet, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and finally Commencement on June 4.

Having reached our ultimate goal—graduation, we would like to express our gratitude to parents, teachers, and fellow students for making these four years a success and filling them with cherished memories.

The class of 1964 will always remember your patience and guidance.

SHE'S HERE! This is what students said August 17, 1963, when they welcomed their first foreign exchange student, Elisabeth Graf, from Zurich, Switzerland.

Elisabeth heard about the A.F.S. program from American visitors in Zurich. She put in application and three weeks before her departure, she was notified she had been accepted.

Elisabeth left Zurich on August 12 and arrived in New York City, where she had a three day visit. On August 16 she departed for Seymour, where she was to make her home with the Norman Maass family for a year.

Throughout the year Elisabeth spoke to many clubs and organizations in school and around the community. She showed slides of Switzerland, along with giving talks and answering questions asked by members.

Elisabeth attended the following classes this year:

Arts & Crafts, U. S. History, American Problems, Speech and Journalism, Reading Improvement, Physical Education, and English IV.

She found American school systems to be easier and the students to have more social life in comparison with the Swiss schools.

Some of the things Elisabeth said she would remember most were: 1. her first day at Seymour High, 2. the Homecoming and Prom, 3. President Kennedy's assassination, 4. New York City, and 5. the interest the people of this community had in her and her country and the warmth with which they greeted her.

Elisabeth will leave Seymour around June 20 and will join a group of A.F.S. students for a tour of some of the larger American cities. On July 25 she will return to her home.

This is what the A.F.S. did for Seymour High!

Mr. Smith offers guidance to underclassmen.

Students signing out of study hall for library.

JUNIOR CLASS

This year's Junior Prom, "Southern Serenade," was held on May 1. The decorations included a large southern mansion, flower gardens, fountains, and a bandstand. The music was furnished by Gene Sames.

The class entered their homecoming float in the design class. The float was a large octopus with the slogan "We're Armed for Victory." Representing the class on the court were Lana Kollath and Ken Kraft.

The selection of class rings was a big event for the class. This year's ring, called the "Swing Ring," was a unique oval style.

December 27 was the date of the "Holly Hop," an all-school dance.

This year's junior class ranked second in enrollment with 178 members.

Advising this year's junior class were Mr. David Olson, Mr. Richard Tepp, Mr. Robert Comstock, and Miss Judith Severson.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The sophomore class started the '63-'64 school year with a bang by receiving the second place award on their homecoming float, in the design category. The theme was a large black and white dog with a big bone sitting in front of him. The slogan was "We'll Bury 'Em." The sophomores selected Barbara Nelson and Glen McClone to represent their class on the homecoming court. The class also held a freshman initiation dance in the fall.

The enrollment of the sophomore class was 171 members, ranking third with this number. As freshmen, the class had a total of 174 members.

The advisers of the sophomore class were Mr. Clifford Andreoli, Mrs. Kathryn Pasch, and Mr. Oliver Lerum.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman Class, with 195 members, made its grand entrance into Seymour Community High. Though the first few weeks were thoroughly confusing to them, they plodded on. Mr. Leon Flanagan, Mr. Russell Kostrazk, and Mrs. Karen Christensen advised the class throughout the first difficult year.

"We Smell De Feet" was the slogan of the freshman float. A large foot, followed by a live dog, comprised the float. Keith Soldner and Peggy Parks were chosen to represent the class at Homecoming.

The freshman football team, coached by Mr. David Olson, had a record of three wins, two ties, and one loss. The team consisted of approximately 30 freshmen. The freshman basketball team had about 25 members.

The freshman class held an all-school dance on January 16, which was a "thank-you" to the sophomores.

This year the Student Council changed its procedure somewhat. Instead of having monthly meetings, the group met every other week.

Room 174 was used as polls for the Council elections held in September. This year the procedure was changed so that the entire student body could vote instead of only SAF members as in previous years. Three parties were set up to compete for the offices. They were Loyalists: Steve Van Vuren, Pamela Baehler, and Sandra Cropsey; Liberals: Richard Lubinski, Lana Kollath, and Millie Considine; and running under an independent ticket: Dianne Hoff.

The officers were James Veitch, president; Richard Lubinski, vice-president; Lana Kollath, secretary; and Millie Considine, treasurer. The rest of the Council was made up of representatives from each homeroom and all class presidents. The advisers were Mr. Floyd Smith and Principal Lyle Martens.

This year the main project of the Student Council was receiving the first SCHS foreign exchange student, Elisabeth Graf from Zurich, Switzerland.

The Council was in charge of the '63 Homecoming. The main theme was centered around the alumni of SCHS.

The Council also sponsored the annual Student Government Day. On this day students who applied for positions as teachers operated the school right down to the last school board member.

Last spring the Council conducted a charity drive, with the Collections Committee of the Council in charge.

"Who is that anyhow?" "Remember that deadline!" Little by little, this year's "Ripper" was put together. Judy Dryden, editor-in-chief, attended the 1963 Summer High School Journalism Workshop at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, as did Mark Ullmer, boys sports editor. They came back with many ideas to make the '64 "Ripper" "bigger 'n' better than ever!"

The theme this year is "a year of firsts." This theme was chosen since this is the first year Seymour High School existed as Seymour Community High School. For the first also, SHS had a foreign exchange student. The cover is also a first; the Indian head is of bronze.

Ginny Melchert had charge of the senior section, with Shari Reese supervising the faculty and administration section. Diane Mitchell took care of the underclassmen section. Clubs and activities were the province of Lynne Schnabl. Besides Mark Ullmer on boys sports, Kathy Muehl planned the girls sports section. Billie Jean Winger handled the features department. Donna Hartsworm supervised the typing.

Miss Delores Holmes, Mrs. Barbara Steffen, and Mr. Philip Lang were the faculty advisers.

Latin Club

Latin Club parents wined and dined at the annual Latin Club Banquet, which took place in the "Roman Forum"—(multi-purpose room), in March.

"We're Roman for a Victory" was the theme of the Latin Club's 1963 Homecoming float entry. It consisted of a triumphal march led by "Caesar."

In November the club sponsored a movie entitled "A Gathering of the Eagles." In December the Latin Club joined the French Club and sang bi-lingual Christmas carols around Seymour.

To become a member of this club, a student must complete one semester of Latin and maintain a "B" average in that subject.

French Club

"L'Heureux Francais" started off the year with plans for the Homecoming float, "We're Fishing for a Victory."

La Fete, a "Sadie Hawkins" dance sponsored by the club, was held November 15.

At the November meeting, SHS art instructor Mr. Robert Comstock gave a talk on his wartime experiences in France.

On a crisp evening in December, the members of the French and Latin clubs joined forces to bring joy to the people of Seymour with a Christmas caroling party.

A picnic was held to close activities of the '63-'64 year.

The Seymour High School Science Club's schedule this year was highlighted by a science fair, the first of its kind in the surrounding area. All schools in the Seymour district participated in competition for the best project dealing with a field of science. Cathy Piehl was the general chairman of the fair.

The Science Club entered a float in the 1963 Homecoming Parade. Many members helped in the construction with the theme, "We'll Bury 'Em."

The club also participated in the Yuletide celebrations by holding their annual Christmas party following a brief December business meeting.

Many members of the club also went on scientific field trips, one of which was held this spring.

The main object of the SHS Science Club is to promote the students' interest in the vast field of science. So, the club has many branch projects concerned with different phases of scientific work. Two of these projects are photography and the training of several student projectionists for the teachers. Jerry Tierney headed the camera division. At the January meeting he demonstrated to all interested club members, the process of film developing and dark room procedures. Mark Ullmer, who was in charge of the projectionists this year, also explained how to operate projectors and filmstrip machines.

All meetings were held on the third Monday of every month under the direction of Mr. Russell Kostrzak and Mr. Russell Hanseter.

The officers included: Mark Ullmer, President; Cathy Piehl, Vice-President; Millie Considine, Secretary; and Kathy Muehl, Treasurer.

Row 2: L. Gagnow, S. Van Lishout, R. Lehrer, J. Tierney, J. Weyers, M. Miller, L. Schultz, R. Wolberg, J. Wussow.

The '63-'64 Safety Club, under the direction of Mr. Clifford Andreoli, was headed by president, Judy Weyers; vice-president, Mary Nelson; secretary, Janet Blohm; and treasurer, Ruth Lehrer.

"Think safe, be safe," the club's motto, was stressed by the club throughout the year by concentrating on the general safety of the community and school.

To begin the year's activities for the Safety Club, the members constructed a Homecoming float in the shape of a car with the theme "We're Driving to a Victory."

Safety Club members conducted local safety checks under the direction of state policemen. These checks were for the purpose of finding automotive defects in locally owned cars. The scene for one of these safety checks was the SHS parking lot for the students' cars. Another safety check was held on State Highway 55 to check the cars of the city in general. A survey was conducted to determine the percentage of drivers who use seatbelts.

February 26 was the deadline for all members' entries in the club's safety poster contest. These winning entries were then sent on to the national contest to be judged.

One of the social events of the year was a tobogganing party on February 6 for all club members and guests.

The club's main safety project of the year was to sponsor a movie under Mr. Andreoli's direction, which highlighted the local driving conditions and local drivers. The movie was shown in the city of Seymour and the surrounding areas.

The annual Christmas concert was the first main event of the year for the Girls Chorus, directed by Mrs. Darrell Pasch. At this time Mrs. Pasch made use of a student director, Mary Eisenreich, who was selected from 114 girls to direct Louis Lewandowski's "Praise Ye The Lord." Lana Kollath acted as accompanist for most of the program. It was at the concert that Mrs. Pasch received a light green sweater and skirt from the members of the chorus.

Other events of the year were the Mid-Winter Concert held on February 25, and the Spring Concert. Some of the girls were entered in the Solo-Ensemble contest held in Chilton on April 18. One ensemble was a quartet made up of Lana Kollath, Mary Eisenreich, Kathy Muehl, and Cathy Piehl. Those who placed first in Class A went to the state tournament held in Oshkosh on May 2.

Officers are: Kathy Muehl, President; Judy Dryden, Vice-President; Darlene Barth, Secretary, and Barbara Nelson, Treasurer. There were also two librarians in each class and two robe custodians.

This is the second year Mrs. Katherine Pasch has had Mixed Chorus at Seymour High. The chorus boasted fifty-six singers; this year about thirty more students joined. Mrs. Pasch said that next year she expects more students to be in Mixed Chorus.

The biggest achievement of the Mixed Chorus was getting new outfits. The boys wore black suits, white shirts, and black ties. The girls wore black shifts, white tie blouses, and black heels. The girls sing in both Mixed and Girls Chorus, so they put on their robes before they sing in Girls Chorus.

Mixed Chorus sang at the Christmas Concert, the Mid-Winter Concert, and the Spring Concert.

At the Christmas Concert, December 19, Elisabeth Graf, first SHS foreign exchange student, sang a solo in the song "O Tannenbaum."

This year many students in both Girls and Mixed Chorus directed songs at the concerts. Maribeth Hartwig was the director in Mixed Chorus. Billie Jean Winger was the accompanist.

Mrs. Pasch and a few helpful bystanders taught Wayne Graul to play the guitar. He played it while the chorus sang "Come Out of the Valley."

This year, Mrs. Pasch sent for more music with a modern note. One of the songs is the national favorite Blue Velvet.

With a membership of 52 students, this year's Dramatics Club had many varied programs. Club meetings were held on the second Monday of each month in the school library.

The purpose of the Dramatics Club is to give the students an opportunity to put on stage make-up, to give them the chance to see college and professional plays, and to encourage and further the cause of drama in our school.

One of the club's activities included giving its annual play at the school's traditional Christmas program. This year's play was a melodrama entitled, "Egad, Wat a Cad!" The cast included: Fowler, Barbara Van Vuren; Ursula Greystone, Judy Dryden; Milly Smith, Virginia Melchert; Constant Hope, Mary Eisenreich; Betram Oleander, Charles Miller; Manly Rash, Wayne Graul; Augustus Greystone, Carl Doersch.

Club members were active in working with make-up for several grade school programs. They also attended a play during the year.

In summarizing, Pat Dey, the club president, has said "During the past couple years the Dramatics Club hasn't been too active. This year we were trying to change it back to a participating club. We put on a program for the school at Christmas. We put on a skit for a pep assembly in the winter. We contemplated taking a bus to go to a good play somewhere."

The final curtain fell when the club held a picnic at Rockledge Park in May.

The officers were Pat Dey, president; Sharon Reese, vice-president; Mary Eisenreich, secretary; and Barbara Van Vuren, treasurer, with Mrs. Marjorie Jenkins as the faculty adviser.

Debate

Row 2: Mr. Sittarich, M. Moriarity, D. Tech, J. Krahn, C. Peters, V. Wilkinson, K. Koepl, D. Jenkins.

"Resolved that social security benefits be extended to include complete medical care" was the topic debated by the SHS debate team this year directed by Mr. Anthony Sittarich.

Three teams were organized on A, B, and C levels. Mildred Considine, Carol Peters, Kathy Koeppel and Michael Moriarty comprised the A team. Valerie Wilkinson, Chris Stellmacher, Margie Marcks, Marianne Mesko, and Karen Mamerow debated on the B level. The C level team was made up of Keith Zeitler, David Tesch, Jim Krahn, and David Jenkins.

All potential debaters attended the Speech-Debate Forum held at the University of Wisconsin in October. Actual competition began at Oconto with a dual meet held there.

Later in the year, a seven-school competition was held at St. Norbert College in West DePere. Here the team finished third. Two additional major tournaments were also part of this year's schedule. In the tournament at Green Bay West High School, the A team placed seventh, the B team, second, and the C team, third.

The debate season came to an end with the conference debate tournament held in Seymour during February. During the entire season, the SHS debaters acquired ten hours of actual debate experience in addition to the many inter-squad debates held at the high school.

One Act Play

The Monkey's Paw, this year's one act play, centered around the deep love Mr. and Mrs. White bore for their son Herbert.

A soldier of fortune, Sgt. Major Morris, informed the couple of the magical powers of a monkey's paw. When Herbert is accidentally killed, the parents are so grieved that they resort to the monkey's paw to try to restore him to life.

The exposition of the monkey-paw tale as a superstition formed a climax to this tragic play.

For three consecutive years the "Blue Jay" has appeared in the weekly "Seymour Press."

Because of the increase in the membership on the "Blue Jay" staff, the members were divided into two groups, A-Staff and B-Staff. Each staff put the paper out every other week. The "Blue Jay" staff consisted of juniors and seniors enrolled in the Speech and Journalism course.

Reporters were assigned to specific beats and wrote feature stories on special events which occurred during the school year.

In October, members of the "Blue Jay" and "Ripper" staffs participated in the Journalism Workshop held in Madison.

One of the main features in the "Blue Jay" was the survey made by Lynne Schnabl. The survey asked personal questions concerning dating, smoking, and part-time jobs.

Again this year the "Seymour Press" sponsored the editor-in-chief of the "Blue Jay" to the Editor's Workshop held in Madison in the summer.

Editor-in-chief was Mark Ullmer and associate editors were Kathy Muehl and Barbara Van Vuren. Mrs. Barbara Steffen was the Speech and Journalism instructor.

Quill and Scroll

This year, the Seymour Chapter of the Quill and Scroll Society, the international journalism organization for high school writers, had thirty-seven members. They had done important work on either or both the "Blue Jay" and "Ripper" to become members of this group.

Besides doing work in high school journalism, students must be of junior or senior standing and rank in the upper-third of their class scholastically.

This year thirty-one new members earned membership in the Quill and Scroll Society. Added to the membership roster were: Sally Sherman, Susan Van Lishout, Atta Genske, Sharon Fischer, Kaye Hebel, Lola Schultz, Susan Dey, Kenneth Kraft, Judy Tierney, Linda Olsen, Janet Blohm, Barbara Van Vuren, Elisabeth Graf, Pam Baehler, Jeanette Platten, Suzanne Court, Sharon Reese, Kathy Muehl, Lynne Schnabl, Richard Lubinski, Sandra Cropsey, Cheryl Mueller, Rosemary Ver Voort, Audrey Vanden Heuvel, Betty De Bruin, Ellen Hillegas, Diane Mitchell, Marianne Miller, Janice Mory, Valerie Wilkinson, and Marianne Mesko.

The phrase "there's room up on the top" was used by many of the members of Guide-O-Ways. The club consisted of thirty-two Junior and Senior members under the supervision of Mr. Lorence Schnur.

It was the duty of the girls to distribute programs at all home football games and basketball games. They also provided this service at music concerts, the Senior Class Play, and other events. The boys directed parking at home football games and also ushered at home basketball games and Open House.

The '63-'64 officers, elected in the previous May, included President, Darlene Barth and Secretary-Treasurer, Sandra Kasten.

This year the Guide-O-Ways' activities were highlighted by a bowling party. Many club members also participated in the final event of the year, the spring picnic.

Assisting Mrs. Ruth Staley and Mrs. Janet Gavronski in the office this year were the student office secretaries.

These office secretaries are girls who give up their study halls to do various jobs in the office. The list of secretaries includes Donna Hartsworm, Carolyn Gritt, Carol Platten, and Jeanette Platten.

Among their duties are filing absence passes, typing out absence lists, delivering messages, running errands, and many other jobs that come up in the office routine.

The student office secretaries have various reasons for giving up their free periods to assist. One of them is to get valuable experience in office work, which will undoubtedly help those who plan to do this type of work after graduation.

In payment for their time and effort the workers are given points toward a school letter.

 Row 3: Mrs. Piehl, K. Mamerow, L. Wilson, N. Van Cuick, J. Jordan, B. Karweick, J. Haefs, W. Brownson.

"Aren't you nervous?" "I'm so scared!" "Where is that speech?" "Oh, I can't go . . . I have forensics practice tonight." "If I could only remember that one line." "What is taking the judge so long?" "Guess what, I got an A!" These gambits of conversation were all part of the forensics program held at SCHS this year.

One hundred eighteen students participated in the local forensic contests on March 18, 22 and 24 at SCHS. This number represents fifteen percent of the entire student body. This is an increase of three hundred percent over the number of last year's contestants.

Those who received "A" ratings at the local contest were qualified to attend the Central League Forensics Contest held at East DePere on February 27. They included Kathy Koeppel, Carol Runnoe, Sally Sherman, Darlene Koeppel, Marlene Mueller, Pat Krohlow, John Zuleger, Melanie Helmke, Mari-beth Hartwig, Terry Van Straten, Ellen Hillegas, Carolyn Gritt, Rosemary Ver Voort, Mary Schmit, Betty Vander Zanden, Robert Comstock, Mark Ullmer, Jack Wussow, Judy Tierney, Cheryl Mueller, Jeff De Roche, and Valerie Wilkinson.

Thirteen of these participants received "A" ratings and were qualified to attend the district forensics contest at Oshkosh on April 4. The thirteen included: Rosemary Ver Voort in public address; Pat Krohlow in declamations; Sally Sherman in original oratory; Betty Vander Zanden in four minutes speech; Judy Tierney and Jack Wussow in interpretive reading of prose, and Ellen Hillegas and Mary Schmit in interpretive reading of poetry, also the play reading cast of "King and I." Those receiving "A" ratings at this contest were able to attend the State Contest at Madison, on April 25.

Students participating in the forensic program were able to choose from the following nine categories. Public Address: an original speech eight-minutes long prepared by the contestant on a particular subject. Four-Minute Speech: an original speech presented from memory by the contestant.

Row 1, Left to Right: C. Runnoe, J. Gavronski, M. Miller, C. Miller, B. DeBruin, B. VanderZanden, M. Schmit, S. Matuszak, R. Carpenter, E. Hillegas.

Row 2: Mr. McDougal, J. Wusow, J. Tierney, D. Marcks, C. Grunwald, L. Schultz, A. Genske, K. Hebel, L. Olsen, J. Erickson, M. Mesko.

Row 3: M. Helmke, C. Piehl, R. Williamson, R. Wolberg, V. Wilkinson, C. Gritt, T. VanStraten, F. Husman, M. Moriearity, K. Kraft, Miss Holmes.

Row 1, Left to Right: Mr. Sittarich, L. Schnabl, S. Reese, T. DuFour, D. Kaczowski, P. Sherman, R. Ver Voort, M. Mueller, V. Halverson.

Row 2: Mr. Kocho, D. Weiland, R. Lubinski, P. Baehler, M. Hartwig, S. Cropsey, T. Smits, D. Koeppl, C. Mueller.

Extemporaneous Speaking: the topic is some current affair. The contestant has an hour to prepare an eight-minute speech. The speaker may use note cards to deliver this speech.

Original Oration: an original eight-minute speech prepared and memorized by the contestant. Non-Original Oration: an eight-minute speech given from memory by the contestant but written by someone else. Interpretative Reading of Prose: the activity of reading aloud from literature with the printed page before the reader.

Play Reading: the only group activity is a script-in-hand, interpretive reading of a portion of a play. Try-outs for parts in the plays were held and the cast was selected by the coach.

Twenty-two SCHS forensics students participated in a project dubbed "Operation Forensics" when they traveled to Bayport High School, near Howard-Suamico, on March 11.

The purpose of the trip was to demonstrate to the Bayport students just what's involved in a forensics program and how profitable it is. The forensics program is well worth the time and effort involved in preparing a speech, reading or declamation. Forensics helps develop self-confidence, personality, poise, and a speaking ability to be proud of.

Forensics members were coached by four coaches this year: Miss Dolores Holmes, chairman, and coaching original and non-original oratory, and public address; Mrs. Eleanor Piehl, play reading and interpretive reading of prose; Mr. Edward Kocho, memorized declamations and interpretive reading of prose; and Mr. Anthony Sittarich, extemporaneous speaking and four-minute speech.

Starting the list of activities this year was the Homecoming parade in which the FHA entered a float with the theme "We'll Beat 'Em."

Among their other activities were the Sub-District Officers' Meeting, the annual spring Style Show, and the local Demonstration Contest, which took place on January 27.

At the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, which was held on March 17, AFS student, Elisabeth Graf, showed slides and spoke on "Family Life in Switzerland."

The FHA officers for the 1963-64 school year were Suzanne Court, president; Ione Tubbs, vice-president and state historian; Ruth Lehrer, secretary; Betty Karweick, treasurer; Lynn Raether, reporter; Sally Kluge, recreation leader; Audrey Helein, parliamentarian; and Darlene Barth, historian. The advisers were Mrs. Penelope Coffin and Mrs. Karen Christianson. The Chapter Mothers were Mrs. Norman Maass and Mrs. Emil Barth.

Future Farmers of America is the National Organization for farm boys of high school age who are enrolled in or have completed a vocational agriculture course. It is under the guidance of Mr. Harold Tech and Mr. Oliver Lerum.

This year was highlighted by the annual Father-Son banquet with guest speaker Tom Bleck the state FFA President and presentation. During last autumn the boys conducted a corn growing contest. A community service project was the selling of rat poison.

The FFA usually had joint meetings with the FHA and recreation afterwards.

The summer picnic held with the Future Homemakers of America, concluded the year except for the Senior FFA members who went on a summer four day fishing trip. The local chapter sent their delegates to Green Lake to participate in the annual convention.

Bookworm Club

The Bookworm Club was made up of 34 students who were interested in the library and worked as student librarians. The club met on the fourth Thursday of every month with Mrs. Marjorie Jenkins as the adviser.

The officers were Mary Ward, president; Sheri Pautz, vice-president; Carol Weihing, secretary; Pat Dey, treasurer; Karen Maleug, historian; and Lola Schultz, reporter.

The theme for the '63 National Library Week was "The Fifth Freedom—Read." "Three Cheers for Book" was the theme of National Book Week.

The Bookworms had a poster party at which they each made a humorous poster to promote interest in the library.

The student librarians have various tasks. There are two librarians working each hour. One works at the desk, while the other works in the conference room.

At the end of each day, the librarian counts the books that were checked out. This way the school has an idea how many books are circulated through the library.

Student Librarians

Assisting the students in the library this year were the student librarians, who are a service group and give up their free periods to help Mrs. Jenkins, the head librarian. They are not paid but may earn points towards a letter through their work. A knowledge of the Dewey Decimal System is required of them.

A few of the many things they did were checking out books, making out fine slips, placing books on the shelves, and, in general, helping students find needed information.

At Christmas time they joined the Bookworm members in decorating the library.

"National Library Week" was observed the week of April 12-19, 1964, with the theme "Reading is the Key." The student librarians made posters and displayed them in the school and downtown.

Student librarians are very necessary to a library the size of Seymour High, as one librarian is unable to do all the work.

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character are the four essential qualities necessary to gain membership in the National Honor Society. These qualities are displayed in the classroom, clubs, and activities and in relationships between other students and teachers. The primary requirement for membership is a "B" average. The other qualification which must be met is being either a junior or senior. Students who are eligible for membership are rated by the faculty.

The main purpose of the National Honor Society is to promote scholarship. It provides an opportunity for students to participate in a $100,000 scholarship program. Flag raising and posting the honor rolls are duties reserved for N.H.S. members.

College scholarships are awarded each year to top-ranking senior members throughout the nation.

The society is sponsored by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals. It was founded in 1921. The society has over 6,500 local chapters throughout the United States. Its national headquarters are located in Washington, D. C.

Mr. George Behrendt is adviser to the Seymour Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Members this year were Robert Mory, Barbara Van Vuren, Darlene Marcks, Lynn Raether, and Kathy Flanagan. New members will be inducted into the society at a later date this spring.

The Beaux Arts Ball, one of the main projects of "Ars Nova," Greek for the "new arts" club, was a costume ball held in early spring. All club members participated in this by working on various planning committees.

The high point of the year came in May when the club took a trip to Milwaukee. The purpose of the trip was to visit the Art Center, the Layton School of Art, and other places of interest.

Another activity was entering a float entitled, "We'll Draw a Victory," in the '63-'64 Homecoming parade. They captured the first prize in the theme category.

They also held a campaign which boosted club membership from 11 members at the first meeting to the present membership of 80 students.

Their meetings were held on the first Tuesday of each month in room 209 with these officers presiding: Kay Esauk, president; Barbara Reitz, vice-president; and Susan Miller, secretary-treasurer, with Mr. Robert Comstock as faculty adviser.

Varsity Football

Under an entirely new coaching staff headed by Mr. Don Brennan and assisted by Mr. Richard Wojcik and Mr. Clifford Andreoli, the SHS gridgers began preparation for the Northeastern conference games.

The pre-season practice started in mid-August with the turn-out of close to 80 boys, but this number diminished sharply by the end of the season because of injuries which hurt the team. Due to the lack of seniors the team consisted of sophomores and juniors. The Indians' first game was against the Raiders from Pulaski, which was the first defeat of the season by a score of 13 to 0.

Seymour was unable to come back after this loss as the next five games against Oconto Falls, Kewau-nee, Algoma, West De Pere, and Preble, respectively, ended in defeats for the Indians. The Homecoming game was expected to be a victory as the injury list was down and the team was up for the game. The rain and the loss by a score of 25 to 7 dampened the Homecoming that evening. The final game against DePere was to be rough as the Red Birds had only one loss. The team wanted to play their best to make up for the previous games. When the final whistle blew, the Indians had lost and finished the season without a victory.

Each week the Nook gave free malts to the best defensive and the best offensive players of each game. In addition, Woody's Restaurant gave a pizza dinner to the players at the end of the season.

The team elected Keith Mueller and Ken Kraft co-captains for next year. Among the awards presented were the most valuable defensive players' which went to Ken Kraft and Bill Fischer, and the most valuable offensive player awarded to Keith Mueller; also the most improved player award was presented to Tod Hopkins.

Because this year's team consisted primarily of underclassmen, who gained valuable experience, next fall's team should show great improvement over this year's team.

Mr. R. Wojcik, Mr. D. Brennan, Mr. C. Andreoli.

Seymour Community High School initiated two new football programs during the 1963 season.

One called for the starting of a grade school program to acquaint boys with the fundamentals of football.

The other program called for the creation of a junior varsity football team. This team was composed of freshman, sophomores, and juniors. The junior varsity games gave these underclassmen the opportunity to play against boys their own ages.

Mr. Richard Wojcik coached the team which had a one win and two loss record.

SENIORS

There were seven spirited seniors on the 1963 varsity football team. They were backfield men: Wayne Graul, Gary Meyer, and Allen Treml; and linemen: Leonard Schnabl, Jim Benzschawel, Allan McClone, and Carl Doersch.

Several upperclassmen joined the varsity at mid-season. These boys lacked experience but their aggressiveness sparked the team to play better football during the second half of the season.

Freshman Football

Mr. David Olson and his assistant, Mr. Clifford Andreoli, coached the 1963 freshmen football team to a three win, one loss, and two tie record.

The team scored their victories over freshman teams from Bonduel, Oconto Falls, and West De Pere.

Approximately thirty boys participated in the sport. This large number of prospects made it possible for the coaches to substitute freely. Most of the players stayed with the team the entire season. If these boys continue to participate in athletics, the quality of football played at Seymour Community High School will rise.

The biggest asset to the freshmen team was their ability to score. On many occasions the opposition was completely baffled because of Seymour's varied offense. The freshmen operated from a straight T offensive formation, which made it difficult for the opponents to determine whether a run or pass was coming. The straight T formation gave the freshmen practical experience because it is the same formation that is used by the varsity.

Defense was also an important term among the members of the freshmen team. The squad managed to stiffen its defense whenever necessary and thus limited their opponents few points for the entire season.

Memories of their victories will give the boys a desire to take some of the varsity positions away from last year's varsity players.

Pin or point, that is the goal in wrestling, and that is what the Seymour Community High School matmen tried for, with the wrestling knowledge that the new head mat coach Mr. Richard Tepp and assistant coach Mr. Loren Cismoski gave the wrestlers this year.

SCHS competed in two conferences: the Northeastern, consisting of Oconto, Oconto Falls, Sturgeon Bay, Pulaski, and Preble; and the Packerland, made up of Mishicot, Preble, Pulaski, Green Bay East and West, and Valdars. This gave SCHS the chance to participate in two tournaments. At the NEW, SCHS has its first conference champ, Marlin Abel. At the Packerland, Dick Dunks was SCHS's second conference champ.

During the Christmas vacation SCHS hosted a holiday invitational with Omro and Peshtigo. SCHS had Dick Dunks and Ron Roskom each taking a first place.

At the regionals the team had a good team effort, and had Dick Dunks and Marlin Abel placing second at SCHS and going on to the sectionals at Preble. Although they were eliminated in the first bouts, it did indicate that the team is getting stronger.

As far as next year's team is concerned SCHS will be losing three seniors, Al McClone, John Grunwald, and Marlin Abel, but will be strong in the lower weights and have a good crop of freshmen coming up.

Returning varsity for next year will be Dennis Sutliff, Dick Dunks, John Selmer, Robbin Olsen, Earl Metoxen, Ken Kraft, and Ron Roskom.

During seventh hour the freshmen began to learn the fundamentals of high school wrestling. This year was the first for Seymour in interschool freshman wrestling. Wrestling is one of the few sports in which a freshman can make the varsity. Dick Dunks did this this year. Due to the freshman wrestling program, Seymour High will have some tough grapplers with a good knowledge of the sport next year.

The preliminary bouts before each varsity match were by the junior varsity, which was composed from all classes except seniors. Although no score was kept and the rounds were one minute each, the wrestlers had a chance to gain experience and a chance to compete against wrestlers from other schools.

Varsity Basketball

Seymour Community High School's varsity basketball team compiled its best won-lost record in recent years during the 1963-64 basketball season. Head coach Carl Ibe and his assistants, John Rice and Donald Chambers, worked long hours to prepare a young team that temporarily led the conference.

SCHS opened the season with losses to two non-conference teams. The opening of Northeastern Wisconsin Conference play seemed to spark the Indians. After posting three straight wins, SCHS was defeated by traditional rival, Pulaski. The Indians rebounded to defeat Oconto and remain in a second place tie over the Christmas holidays.

East DePere was the victor in a very close game when SCHS returned to action. The following week the Indians proved they could win close games by defeating Sturgeon Bay. The Indians then trekked to Algoma to meet the eventual conference champions. SCHS scored well but could not keep the Wolves from scoring. The loss again seemed to spark the Indians to play better basketball. Kewaunee, Oconto Falls, and Bonduel were easily handled by the Indians. SCHS played fine basketball in the last four conference games but was unable to register another victory. The final standings showed SCHS in a fifth place tie with Oconto, but the better team was made known when the Indians humbled the Blue Devils in tournament action. Three seniors, two juniors, and seven sophomores played in their final game of the season against Pulaski in the Oconto Regional Championship game.

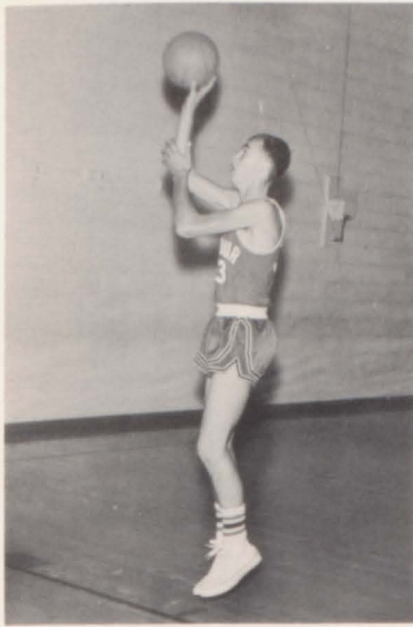

SCHS was definitely a young team. The starting five was composed of one senior, two juniors, and two sophomores. Two other seniors and a number of sophomores saw plenty of action in reserve.

SCHS placed four players on the conference high scoring list. They were Wayne Graul, Ron King, Vern Freemore, and Bruce Decker. Sophomore forward, Vern Freemore, was also named to the all-conference second team. Ron King had the highest one game point total for SCHS when he scored 24 against Oconto.

Senior Basketball

SCHS fans were shown an exciting brand of basketball during the season. Six games were decided by five or fewer points. The season also provided some especially gratifying victories like those over Preble and West DePere.

Only one injury marred the season. Steve Van Vuren broke his wrist in a game against Oconto. It is possible that this accident may have cost the Indians the Regional Championship.

Although the 1964 SCHS varsity basketball team was considered a young team, the senior class was well represented. Carl Doersch, Carl Cunningham, and Wayne Graul showed the team leadership qualities that were expected of them. Wayne Graul was the only starter of the three seniors, although they all saw considerable action.

Wayne ranked among the highest scorers in the conference for the second consecutive season. His best point total of the season was twenty-two against Oconto Falls.

Carl Doersch was easily the second fifth man on the team. On numerous occasions he was called on to grab vital rebounds.

Carl Cunningham was also a valuable rebounder on the team. The big forward came in from reserve to score eight points in the second Oconto Falls game.

All three seniors broke into the scoring column in the final game of their high school careers.

JV and Frosh Basketball

To present a chance for all classes to participate in a basketball program, there are junior varsity and freshman teams.

Under the coaching of Mr. John Rice, freshmen, sophomores, and juniors made up the junior varsity and gained valuable experience this year to provide competition for next year's starting five on the varsity.

Although this season did not hold many victories for the freshmen, they played together with good team effort and determination. Mr. Don Chambers, freshman basketball coach, taught them the fundamentals that should prove helpful for next year's junior varsity competition.

Cross Country

Running over land, rocks, and through water, for a distance of two miles is the sport of cross country running.

The runners this year were mostly underclassmen, though they will be losing Roger Bosin, who placed third in the Shawano Invitational, and David Moore, the other senior on the team.

Other top runners are Eugene Bosin, Jeff DeRoche, Terry Butters, and Dick Lubinski, all of whom will be back next year to run again.

Mr. Don Chambers replaced Mr. Loren Cismoski as cross country coach this year and came up with another well-balanced team.

Lettermen's Club

To be a member of the Lettermen's Club a boy must earn a letter in a varsity sport, and he must fulfill the requirements stated in the by-laws of the club.

As stated in its revised constitution, the Lettermen's Club was formed, "To instill a desire to develop and maintain the proper ideals of citizenship and competition for the student body . . ." Under the advice of Mr. Clifford Andreoli, the club's members strived to reach this goal.

The club met monthly, and at its first meeting decided that its first objective would be to create better attendance at home football games. The club sold "Go Team Go" pep vests and gave free football programs to create better student participation. At the close of the football season, the club members were hosts to a social gathering honoring the varsity team.

The club members were also kept active by selling popcorn at various events, selling tickets to hockey games and building a scoreboard for the use of the wrestling squad. During the past year, official Lettermen's Club sweaters, jackets, and lapel pins were adopted.

The outstanding event of the past year's activities was the Athletic Banquet which was held on April 4. Local merchants, businessmen, and organizations who had supported the club gathered in a gaily decorated gymnasium to honor the varsity athletes and their parents.

After a meal prepared by the school's chefs, presentations of the annual awards were made. The highlight of the evening was an address prepared by the guest of honor, Jerry Kramer, all-pro guard of the Green Bay Packers.

G. A. A.

Any girl who is interested in sports is qualified to be a member of the Girls Athletic Association. Members receive two points toward a letter for each of five sports they participate in.

The opening sport of the season was bowling, which began in October and continued into February when a tournament was held.

Following bowling was basketball, which produced a winning team in a sports night at Pulaski held March 5.

Volleyball was played during the noon hours in the late winter season. The volleyball team also traveled to Pulaski.

Spring announced the baseball and badminton competition.

The officers were as follows: Mary Eisenreich, President; Kathy Muehl, Vice President; and Valerie Wilkinson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Sportsheads were Margaret Peterson, bowling; Ruth Lehrer, basketball; Kay Van Boxtel, volleyball; and Pat Dey, badminton and softball.

Under the direction of Miss Helen Probart, the G.A.A. has strived to keep girls in top physical condition.

For the second consecutive year, Squad Leaders were carefully chosen to assist the physical education teacher, Miss Helen Probart. Each Squad Leader was a member of the senior class and fulfilled various qualifications.

After many weeks of diligent work, by the juniors, that long awaited evening, the night of "their" prom, finally arrived. Their picturesque Hawaiian setting and the enchanting music of Duke Janda and his orchestra provided the perfect setting for the theme, "Hawaiian Sunset."

The court as pictured are the following: J. Stritzel, G. Melchert, K. Muehl, B. Van Vuren, C. Henn; 1962 prom queen G. Kroner; Queen A. Vanden Heuvel; King D. Gardner; 1962 prom king H. Mueller; S. Vanden Heuvel, J. Kroner, M. Lotter, W. Graul, and R. Bosin.

King Donald Gardner and Queen Audrey Vanden Heuvel reigned over the 1963 Junior Prom, Hawaiian Sunset. The 1962 Prom King Harlan Mueller and Queen Gail Kroner were present to crown the new king and queen. Crown bearers were Connie Henn and Scott Vanden Heuvel. The crowning of the king and queen took place in the hollow of a huge colorful seashell.

Members of the court were Barbara Van Vuren and John Kroner, Virginia Melchert and Wayne Graul, Judith Stritzel and Roger Bosin, and Kathryn Muehl and Michael Lotter.

Prom King and Queen

Plans for the 1963 Junior Prom began in November with the selection of the theme, "Hawaiian Sunset."

The Junior Class sponsored a movie to help underwrite the cost of the prom.

James Veitch, general chairman of the event, appointed Sharyn Reese and Judy Dryden as co-chairmen of decorations.

Actual work on the decorations began in February.

The greatest challenge was the construction of the palm trees.

A realistic thatch hut, which enclosed Duke Janda and his orchestra, contributed to the Hawaiian atmosphere.

Mrs. Marjorie Jenkins, Mr. John Rice, Mr. Lorence Schnur, and Mr. Joseph Unrein were the Junior Prom advisers.

The 1963 Homecoming

The '63 Homecoming marked the end of an exciting week for all students and teachers at Seymour High. Wayne Graul and Barbara Van Vuren reigned as king and queen of the Homecoming with their court as follows: Kenneth Kraft and Lana Kollath, juniors; and Glen McClone and Barbara Nelson, sophomores.

The Homecoming activities got off to a "hot" start at the bonfire and pep rally, which were held the night before the game against Oconto.

All of the classes' and clubs' efforts of the past weeks were displayed in the Homecoming parade. The seniors' float, "We'll Have a Whale of a Victory Over the Blue Devils," won first place. Second place was won by the sophomore float, "We'll Bury 'Em." The junior float was "We're Armed for a Victory" and the freshman float was "We Smell De-Feet."

The Homecoming game, at which the '53 team was honored, ended in a 25 to 7 victory for Oconto. The dance following the game climaxed the '63 Homecoming.

The upper left hand corner and the lower right hand corner picture the SHS band and the senior football players as they arouse the students' enthusiasm at the 1963 Homecoming bonfire.

In spite of losing the game, everyone was in a fitting mood for dancing to the delightful music of Ray Reis and his orchestra. Gym decorations added to the Homecoming dance festivities.

The 1963 Homecoming

Homecoming activities started with the traditional bonfire and pep rally on Thursday, October 18. "Hobo Day" was held on Friday, October 19. The most outstanding "hobos" were chosen to participate in the Homecoming Parade held in the afternoon. Prizes were given to the students having the most unique costumes.

The long anticipated day finally arrived. Students were rushing around making last minute preparations on their floats. The Seniors took top honors with their float "We'll Have a Whale of a Victory." Second place went to the Sophomore class with "We'll Bury 'Em," and third place was won by the Junior class for "We're Armed for a Victory."

The Seymour Indians played the Oconto Blue Devils in the Homecoming Game but lost 26 to 6.

The Homecoming King and Queen were Wayne Gaul and Barbara Van Vuren. The Court of Honor was Kenneth Kraft and Lana Kollath, junior representatives; and Glen McClone and Barbara Nelson, sophomore representatives.
