Much of the success of any graduating class depends on the guidance and encouragement of the class advisors.

Our advisors supervised Homecoming floats, helped us plan our Prom as well as many other social events, chaperoned our dances, and directed our Senior activities.

We the class of 1965 wish to thank Mr. Tepp, Mr. Kocha, Mr. MacDougal, and Mr. Smith, our special Senior advisor.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Gary Lathrop, Susan Van Lishout, Cathy Piehl, Melanie Helmke

Guiding the class through their final year were: Gary Lathrop, pres.; Susan Van Lishout, V. pres.; Cathy Piehl, sec.; and Melanie Helmke, treas. Our Homecoming float, "We have the InScentive T'win", which featured a stuffed skunk and a live one, received second place. Queen Marianne Miller and King Keith Mueller represented the class at the dance. Another activity this year was the Senior Class Play. We closed our high school career by reaching the top rung of the ladder, GRADUATION!

AWARD WINNERS

DAR GIRL

Valerie Wilkinson

BADGER BOYS

Dick Lubinski, Chuck Blumreich

BADGER GIRLS

Sally Sherman, Marilyn Mastey

This year's DAR girl, Valerie Wilkinson, was chosen for her leadership, dependability, character, and patriotism. She and two other candidates were chosen by the senior class, and SCHS teachers made the final decision by voting.

Badger State candidates for the 1963-64 school year were Dick Lubinski, Charles Blumreich, Sally Sherman, and Marilyn Mastey. The candidates, who were then juniors, were chosen for scholastic achievement, character, and leadership qualities. The representatives went to Ripon or Madison for summer sessions. The Badger Boys and Girls gave speeches to local organizations that sponsored them. Both the boys and girls had commented that they enjoyed the experience very much.

ARAN MEETS SEYMOUR

What a way to start the day.

The big day finally came. On August 4, 1964, Aran Chansawang from Pitsanuloke, Thailand, arrived in Seymour.

Aran's American parents are Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Kollath; Aran has four host brothers and two host sisters.

Throughout the year, Aran spoke to many organizations in school and in the community. He showed slides of Thailand, as well as talking about his country.

Our school and community were especially honored on December 4, when Mr. Lou Setti, Aran's teacher from Thailand, paid a visit to our school. One of the highlights of his visit to our school was his and Aran's demonstration of Thai boxing to the student body.

Aran's phy. ed. team mates found him a talented basketball player.

Aran attended the following classes this year: English, Physics, U.S. History, American Problems, Advanced Math, and Physical Education.

Aran said the things that he will remember most about America are his host family and our school.

Aran came to the U.S. by way of the Pacific Ocean and he will go back to Thailand by way of the Atlantic Ocean.

We are very proud of our foreign exchange student!

The Queen's Dance

"SOUTHERN SERENADE"

The selection of "Southern Serenade" as the theme marked the beginning of the 1964 Junior Prom.

At 10:30 p.m., May 1, the prom court stepped through the doors of the large realistic mansion to the music of Gene Samse and his orchestra.

A lovely garden, a beautiful mural of weeping willows and flamingoes, and a colonial bandstand accented the 1964 Junior Prom.

Steve Van Vuren, prom general chairman, appointed Lana Kollath and David Reinke as decoration co-chairman.

Other committee chairmen were Sandra Cropsey, powder room; Cheryl Mueller, tickets; Sally Kluge, refreshments; Kathy Cumiček, invitations; Pamela Baehler, music; Marianne Mesko, checkroom; Gary Lathrop, clean-up; Burton Dunst, and Sally Sherman, publicity.

Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Miss Judith Severson, Mr. Robert Comstock, Mr. Lorence Schnur, and Mr. Richard Tepp were the Junior Prom advisors.

The Weeping Willow

The 1964 Junior Prom was reigned over by King Ronald King and Queen Pamela Baehler. Donald Gardner and Audrey Vanden Heuvel, the 1963 Prom King and Queen, were present to crown the new royalty. Virginia Roskom and John Baumgart were the crown bearers. The porch of a huge southern mansion was the setting for the coronation.

Other court members were as follows: Charles Kellogg, Sandra Cropsey, Kent Turkow, Cheryl Mueller, Ronald Knaack, Betty Baumgart, Richard Lubinski, and Maribeth Hartwig.

As students we are sometimes more interested in living today than in planning for the future. We all need guidance and direction in meeting the challenges and responsibilities of life.

Our classes give us knowledge of how to make a living tomorrow, but we also need the understanding of adults who impart their knowledge and give us standards by which we may evaluate our goals, helping us to realize that more important than making a living is making a life.

ONLY THREE MINUTES

Freshman Class

The first day at Seymour Community High School was something new and different for the 171 freshmen. Miss Harriet Maas, Mr. Joseph Unrein, and Mrs. Frank Piehl guided the class through their first year.

The slogan for the freshman homecoming float was "We'll Raid the Wolf's Den". A wolf's den with a wolf inside, followed by a huge Raid can made up the float. This entry won third place. Jim Anchutz and Carol Muenster were homecoming representatives from the class.

The freshman initiation dance put on by the Sophomores resulted in all the freshmen doing the bunny hop, followed by other dances and refreshments.

Sophomore Class

The sophomore class again led the '64-'65 school enrollment with a total of 196 members.

Mrs. Thomas Day, Mr. Harold Tech, Miss Ellen Chase, and Mr. Loren Cismoski were class advisors.

The homecoming float "We're All Out For a Victory", featuring an outhouse, was entered under the theme category. Homecoming representatives were Sandra Braun and her escort Gerald Karnzush.

During the time of the National Presidential Election we held a mock election with the students of Seymour Community High as the voters—Mr. Goldwater was defeated by President Johnson.

Junior Class

Scenes from exotic Japan added an international flavor to the junior prom held on April 30. The music was furnished by the Carl Sturdivant Band.

The homecoming float, a large gray seal with blinking red eyes, balancing a football on its nose, captured the grand prize with the slogan, "We've Got the Seal of Victory." Devra Rusch and Steve Spaude represented the class on the homecoming court.

Many oohs and aahs were heard November 3 when the long-awaited class rings arrived.

Mr. Allen Butcher, Mr. Russell Hanseter, and Mr. Oliver Lerum served as class advisors.

K. Gosse and B. Winger discuss "Ripper" plans.

Deadlines and more deadlines! Dummy sheets and 3-R forms to be mailed in! Copy write-ups and pictures! So, little by little, the 1965 "Ripper" was assembled.

Billie Jean Winger and Lynn Schnabl were co-editors. Billie Jean, who attended the 1964 Summer High School Journalism Workshop at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, came back with new ideas and methods to make the '65 "Ripper" better than ever!

Betty DeBruin, business manager, and her staff started work early in September soliciting ads for the yearbook.

After subscriptions were sold, section editors began meeting their various deadlines, and the "Ripper" began to take shape. The emphasis in this year's "Ripper" is on pictures. "We tried to develop our student photographers this year", stated Billie Jean, "in order to get more on-the-spot pictures."

Rosemary VerVoort had charge of the senior section, with Kaye Hebel supervising the faculty and administration section. Diane Mitchell took care of the underclassmen section. Cheryl Mueller led the clubs and activities section. Steve VanVuren took over boy's sports, and Jane Hoff had girl's sports. Janis Mory handled the features department.

Mrs. Charles Jenkins and Mr. Philip Lang were the advisers.

For the fourth consecutive year the "Blue Jay" has appeared in the "Seymour-Black Creek Community Press."

The "Blue Jay" staff consisted of fifteen juniors and seniors enrolled in the speech-journalism course.

Each staff member was assigned a specific beat in addition to writing feature stories and column items.

In October, editors of the "Blue Jay" and "Ripper" staffs attended the Journalism Workshop held in Madison.

Steve Van Vuren was editor-in-chief, with Betty DeBruin as news editor and Marilyn Mastey as features editor.

The other editors were: Valerie Wilkinson, picture editor; Burton Dunst, column editor; Cheryl Brugger and Karen Wilkinson, exchange editors; and June Hoff and Marianne Mesko, art editors. Mrs. Peter Steffen was the speech-journalism instructor.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is officially recognized as the international honorary society for high school journalists. It was founded on April 10, 1926, by a group of high school advisers for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding students' achievement in journalism and allied fields.

Since its organization, the Quill and Scroll has granted charters to over 7,000 schools. Seymour Community High School received its charter in 1948, but the local chapter did not become active until a few years ago.

Membership to the Quill and Scroll Society is selective. After a chapter has been established in the school, its members are picked according to the Society's National Constitutional requirements.

This year began with 22 students enrolled in Quill and Scroll. New members selected from "Blue Jay" and "Ripper" staffs were added in the spring.

Aran Chansawang and his teacher from Thailand demonstrate Thai-boxing.

The first Student Council activity was the election which was won by the conservative candidates, Wayne Sigl, Betty Karweick, and Sally Miller. The elections were held on a volunteer basis in the Guidance Center.

The rest of the council was made up of representatives from each homeroom and all class presidents. The advisors were Mr. Floyd Smith, Miss Judith Severson, and Mr. Robert Comstock.

An over-all project of the Student Council was the welcoming of the second foreign exchange student, Aran Chansawang from Thailand.

This year the Student Council was in charge of the '64 Homecoming. Special attention was centered around the 1954 alumni.

Christmas season brought the charity drive, conducted by the Collections Committee of the Council. The second charity drive was held in the spring.

The Council sponsored the annual Student Government Day. On this day, the students who had applied for positions as teachers operated the school.

All-school lyciums are also in charge of the Council.

Brrr, but it's cold outside!

Promoting scholarship among the students and providing an opportunity for the members to participate in the $100,000 scholarship program are the two main purposes of the National Honor Society.

Membership in the society is earned by displaying the four essential qualities of an ideal person: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. These qualities are displayed in the classroom, in clubs, activities, and in relationships with other students and teachers. The primary requisite for admission in NHS is attaining at least a "B" average, besides being a junior or senior. Students who are eligible for membership are rated by the faculty.

Flag raising and posting the honor rolls are duties reserved for NHS members. New flag raisers are appointed each quarter. This year the National Honor Society has purchased NHS stationery and has sent letters to the parents of students on the honor roll each quarter.

New members are chosen at the end of the first semester. Induction ceremonies take place in the spring of the year.

The National Honor Society is sponsored by National Association of Secondary School Principals, which was founded in 1921. The Seymour Chapter of the NHS, advised by Mr. George Behrendt, is one of 6,500 local chapters.

FRENCH CLUB

"Les Heureux Francais", under the direction of advisors Mrs. Barbara Steffen and Miss Mary Jo Thomson, started off the year with its Homecoming float, a large reproduction of a "Vogue" magazine bearing the caption "We'll Beat 'Em in Style."

The club held its meetings the second Tuesday of each month. The meetings consisted of the monthly business and a program such as a skit or special speaker.

Some of the members, representing the club, attended a French festival which was held on October 24 at Madison. The streets around the Capitol were decorated to represent French scenes.

The club joined forces with the Latin Club again this year and many Seymour residents were entertained by the caroling party one cold December night.

This year the annual "Sadie Hawkins" dance was held on December 11.

The year was climaxed with a picnic which concluded the activities of the '64-'65 year.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club began the year on a successful note. Their entry, "We'll Ram Em" won second place in the theme division of the Homecoming Parade. In November, the club sponsored the movie "The Chalk Garden" as a money making project. The French and Latin Clubs joined again this year and treated the Seymour residents to a chorus of Christmas carols.

A Parents' Night was held to entertain the parents and acquaint them with the activities of the club.

In March, the faculty members were honored guests at the Latin Club Banquet.

New this year was the Latin Club name badge with the emblem and motto of the club on it.

Mr. Kocho, Latin and English teacher, advised the club in its activities.

The Science Club began the year with its float entry in the Homecoming parade.

The club sold coffee and doughnuts at home basketball games to earn money for the Science Fair and a trip in the spring.

The annual Science Fair was held on March 12, in combination with the Ars Nova art show. Grade schools in the Seymour district also participated. For the first time a student was chosen to preside over the activities of the day as "Miss Science Fair."

The main object of the club is to interest students in the fields of science. Many interest groups were promoted this year, including photography, medicine, math, operating the address system, and the training of student projectionists.

All meetings were held on the third Monday of every month under the direction of Mr. Russell Kostrzak, Mr. Russell Hanseter, and Mr. Thomas Day.

"All students who have cars on the parking lot, please report for a safety check." The SCHS Safety Club conducted the check with the aid of the county police in the fall and again in the spring with the state police.

The aim of the club, to promote safety in the community and school, was advanced by the checks. Other activities of the club included a safety poster contest.

In February, the student body listened to a speaker on traffic safety, sponsored by the club.

The four students from Seymour who attended the Teenage Safety Council at the Outagamie County Court House each month were Noramae Stingle, Noranna Stingle, Barbara Bluma, and Sven Nelson.

Mr. Tom Mettlach, Safety Club adviser, helped plan the program for the year.

The club also held a dance after Christmas vacation.

The school and the community benefited from the activities of the club.

Main characters from "Meet Arizona"

"Meet Arizona", a dude ranch operetta, started the year for members of the mixed chorus. It told a story of young love, intrigue, and light-hearted comedy. The mixed chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Darrell Pasch, sang at the annual Christmas, Midwinter, and Spring concerts, and participated in the music tournament. Betty Karweick was the accompanist for these events. The Christmas concert was the main event of the year for the Girl's Chorus, also directed by Mrs. Pasch. The girls also participated in the solo and ensemble contest held at St. Norbert College; those receiving a first rating in Class "A" went to the state contest. Lana Kollath was the accompanist.

The Seymour Community High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Allen K. Butcher, played for many school functions during the year. Football shows, including a pre-game and a half-time show, were presented at each home game. The "Cafe Bleu," a pop concert, was presented November 17. December 17 was the date of the annual Christmas concert which was presented jointly with the choral department. The midwinter concert, also a combined program, was given on February 25.

The dance band gave its first performance of the year at the staging of the Operetta, "Meet Arizona." The group also performed at the pop concert by playing several tunes arranged especially for stage bands.

The band participated in the District Music Festival, which was divided into a solo-ensemble tournament and a non-competitive festival in which the band performed as a unit. First prize winners in class "A" competed in the state contest.

The Pep Band played for all home basketball games. Lively marches and novelty numbers gave the team and spectators a lift. The band also played for pep assemblies.

The purpose of Dramatics Club is to arouse interest in dramatics and give the students a chance to take part in make-up applications, acting, and lighting.

"Active officers and an enthusiastic group of students have made this a worthwhile year for the club," commented Mrs. Charles Jenkins. Mrs. Frank Piehl and Mrs. Jenkins were the club's advisors.

An important project of the year was the study of stage make-up. It was the club's responsibility to take care of the make-up for the high school's operetta, one act play, senior class play, and various programs at the grade school.

The club presented "Love Hits Wilbur" at the annual SCHS Christmas party. This was a student project, with a cast chosen by the student director, June Hoff.

One highlight of the year was the club's attendance at a college dramatic presentation. The study of pantomines, stage lighting, and stage setting ended the year for the Dramatics Club.

BOOKWORM CLUB

The Bookworm Club of the '64-'65 school year was made up of 25 students, and it included assistant librarians and others who were interested in library work.

The club met on the fourth Thursday of every month with Mrs. Charles Jenkins as the adviser.

The Bookworm Club members had a number of projects this past year, such as making posters, putting up book displays, and selling paper back books. The library purchased a fold-up display called "The Booknook", to display paper backs, so the students had a better view of the books. The Bookworms also put out several issues of the "Bookworm News."

National Library week, April 25 thru May 1, was observed by the club. The theme was, "Know what you're talking about—read".

The club had a Christmas party and later decorated the school library for the Christmas season. The new lounge furniture for the library was presented to the school as a Christmas present.

The club also participated in school activities such as the Homecoming Parade. This year's float, a huge worm bearing the slogan, "We'll Maggot Our Business To Win," placed first in the theme division.

By participating in these activities, members may earn points toward a school letter.

This year 30 student librarians devoted free periods to help Mrs. Charles Jenkins, the librarian, in assisting the students in the library.

The student librarians are required to know the library classification system and have many detailed jobs to accomplish.

Student librarians are very necessary to a library the size of SCHS as one librarian is unable to do all the work.

The Guide-O-Ways is an organization for junior and senior students. Its main purpose is to usher at school activities.

The club is under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Greaves.

Club elections are held in the spring, enabling the club to have officers in the beginning of the school year.

Points toward a school letter are awarded to outstanding club members for their effort.

The Future Homemakers of America, with 143 members, is one of the largest organizations at SCHS. The group's busy year started with their Homecoming float entry, "Let's Frost 'Em."

Several representatives attended the Sub-District FHA Workshop held at Crivitz High School in November.

Other activities included the local Demonstration Contest, a Sno-Ball held February 6, the annual spring style show, and the April 13 Mother-Daughter Banquet, the theme of which was "April Showers Bring May Flowers."

The year was concluded with a field trip in the spring and the State FHA Convention held at Green Lake in June.

Degree work received much emphasis throughout the year. As a result, many girls worked toward junior and chapter Degrees of Achievement. Presentation of these degrees took place at the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Good family relationships, in the form of the state goal, "Our Family Sticks Together," were this year's main objective. The meaning and importance of this goal was stressed during the year. Last year's state goal, "Improve Ourselves Through Education," also received much attention.

FHA advisors were Miss Ellen Jane Chase and Miss Harriet Maas. Mrs. Roman Platten and Mrs. Austin Koepfel were the Chapter Mothers.

"Resolved: That nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization." The SCHS debated this topic for the 1964-65 season. Mr. Anthony Sittarich coached the students.

The year began with a trip to the Debate Forum at the University of Wisconsin at Madison in early October. The squad attended tournaments at Appleton Xavier, Kaukauna, St. Norbert, and Green Bay East.

A dual meet was held with Southern Door with Seymour winning 3—2 during December. District competition began in late January with the SCHS squad traveling to Preble.

Debaters were put on A, B, or C, level according to their skill and experience. They met with Coach Sittarich at least once a week for practice.

FORENSICS

One-hundred and fifty-four students participated in the local forensics contest held on February 23. This number represents 22% of the entire student body. A preliminary play contest was held on February 18. Two students from each of the nine categories, except the play category, who received "A"s, participated in the league contest which was held on March 4 at Seymour. There was also a conference contest in which two students from each category participated March 16, at Oconto, for the conference trophy.

Those who received "A"s at league took part in the district contest held at Oshkosh on March 20. Winners there went to the state contest on April 10 at Madison.

Forensic coaches were Mr. Anthony Sittarich, four-minute speech; Mr. Richard McDougal, memorized declamation, non-original oratory, original oratory, and play reading; Mr. Edward Kocha, memorized declamation, interpretative reading of prose, and play reading; Mrs. Frank Piehl, play reading, and interpretative reading of poetry; Miss Judy Severson, original oratory, non-original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking; and Miss Dolores Holmes, chairman, coaching original oratory, non-original oratory, and public address.

One-Act Plays

Arms and the Man: Betty De Bruin, Melanie Helmke, James Muenster, Lynne Schnabl, Micheal Moriarty, Marlene Mueller, Fred Husman, and Wayne Sigl

The Sandbox: Jack Wussow, Sally Sherman, Judy Tierney, Steve Van Vuren, Burt Dunst, and Billie Jean Winger

"Where is my shovel?" "I challenge you to a duel!" "Mommie, it's cold." "Turn those lights down dearie, here's where I die." "I propose marriage to your daughter." These phrases were heard many times during one-act play rehearsals at SCHS.

This year two one-act play performances were given. They were "Arms and the Man" by George Bernard Shaw and "The Sandbox" by Edward Alby.

"Arms and the Man" is a satire on war and the professional fighting man. The cast included Melanie Helmke, Catherine Petkoff; James Muenster, Major Paul Petkoff; Lynne Schnabl, Rainia; Marlene Mueller, Louka; Micheal Moreiarty, Captain Bluntschli; Fred Husmann, Major Sergius Saranoff; and Wayne Sigl, Nicola. Betty De Bruin was the student director. This play was entered in league competition.

"The Sandbox" was presented for senior English classes and at intermission during the Conference Play Contest in the SCHS gym. "The Sandbox" is a modern comedy which pokes fun of low cost television shows. Cast of "The Sandbox" included Sally Sherman, mother; Jack Wussow, father; Judy Tierney, grandmother; Steve Van Vuren, young actor; and Billie Jean Winger, clarinetist. The student director was Burt Dunst.

Both plays were presented on October 23. This performance was open to the public.

Busy behind the scenes were the stage and make-up crews. Good crews are vital for any successful stage production. Those helping with make-up this year were Devra Rusch, Anita Ward, Kathy Gosse, Kerry Van Vuren, Peggy Parks, Kathy Letter, Kathy Van Boxtel, Beverly Denny, and Marie Bundgaard.

Seen carrying bags of sand, lugging risers, and keeping track of properties was the stage crew. Included were Tim Jensen, Dennis Fraser, Gertrude Staplebroeck, Sally Tubbs, Jerry De Roche, Robin Krohlow, and Maryn Staplebroeck.

Both plays were under the direction of Mr. David Hassell.

Seymour's chapter of the Future Farmers of America began the year's schedule at their meeting last August. All of the incoming freshman who were enrolled in vocational agriculture were invited to the meeting to help acquaint them with high school life.

At the beginning of the year the officers, along with the advisors, Mr. Oliver Lerum and Mr. Harold Tech, set up the various committees which conduct the business of the FFA.

Community service takes up the major part of the fall activities of the FFA. The annual project which falls under this category is the sale of rat bait. Pop at the basketball games and magazines are also sold, but this is done for a profit.

Of all the activities, the annual Father-Son Banquet is the FFA event of the year. At the banquet the advisors present the awards to deserving members.

When school is adjourned in June, the seniors who have been members of FFA all four years participate in their final activity, a two-day expense paid fishing trip.

VARSIITY WRESTLING

Head coach Mr. Richard Tepp and assistant coach Mr. Loren Cismoski led the Seymour Community High School matmen to the finest wrestling record in the school's history.

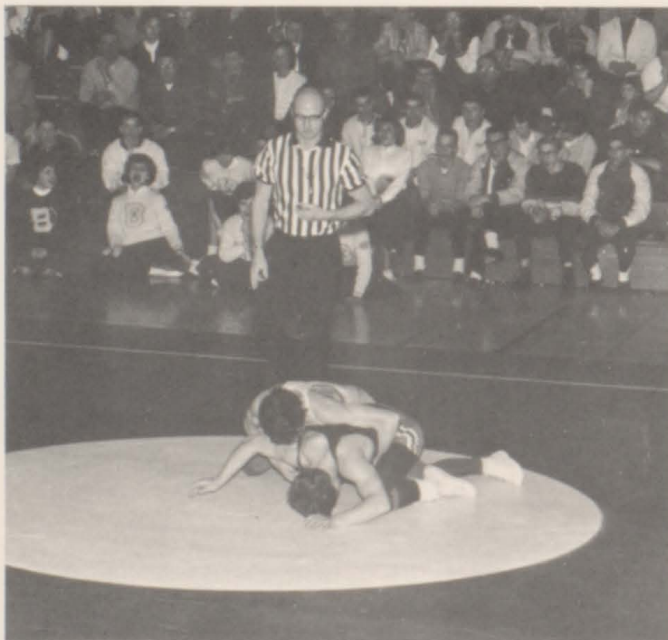

SCHC competed in the Northeastern Wisconsin Conference consisting of Oconto, Oconto Falls, Sturgeon Bay, Pulaski, and Bonduel

SCHS won the second annual Holiday Tournament held at Seymour. The other schools participating, Manawa, New London, Hortonville, Omro, Denmark, Kaukauna, and Kimberly, finished in that order. Dick Dunks and Ken Kraft won their respective division championships while Dale Hodkiewicz, Dennis Sutliff, Ron Mueller, and Ron Roskom were runners-up.

Four seniors, Dennis Sutliff, Ron Roskom, Ken Kraft, and Francis Coonen, completed their varsity competition this year.

Returning varsity for next year will be Dick Dunks, Dale Hodkiewicz, Ron Mueller, John Selmer, Jerry Krahn, Dick Duffek, Tom Cleven, Ralph Smits, Gary Hooyman, and Don Jochman.

Dick Dunks won the 1963-64 most valuable wrestler award.

For the first time since the organization of wrestling at SCHS freshman wrestlers competed against varsity and junior varsity candidates. Due to the interschool competition for all grapplers, it is hoped that SCHS will have more wrestlers with a good knowledge of the sport for next year.

The preliminary bouts before each varsity match were by the junior varsity which was composed of all wrestlers in their freshman, sophomore, or junior year. Through these matches the wrestlers have a chance to gain experience against other matmen.

Head coach Mr. Richard Tepp explains wrestling holds while varsity wrestlers Ron Roskom and Pat Vande Voort demonstrate.

The demonstrations took place prior to the Brillion-Seymour match. It was parents' night as the Indians downed Brillion 22—19.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Approximately sixty boys reported in mid-August for the start of varsity football practice. Under the direction of head coach Donald Brennan and his assistants, Walter Chapman, Tom Mettlach, and Walter Heuer, the boys prepared for their first encounter of the year. The visiting opponent came from Marion. Although SCHS controlled the ball through most of the game, the Indians were unable to score and the game ended a scoreless tie.

Next came the start of the 1964 Northeastern Wisconsin Conference season. The Indians lost their first three games, to Oconto Falls, Pulaski, and Algoma, by close scores. At Kewaunee the Indians were unable to contain the host's speedy halfbacks. Bonduel came to Seymour the following week. Seymour held the visitors until a fourth quarter outburst gave the Bears the win. West DePere hosted the Indians the following Friday. Sparkling defensive play kept the talented Phantoms in check until the final quarter.

East DePere was this year's Homecoming opponent. The Redbirds, the eventual conference champions, dampened the Homecoming festivities by winning 34—0. The final game of the year was a heartbreaking loss for the Indians. Ron Buchman scored two touchdowns and Doug Muenster one, but Oconto won 21—20.

Although the season ended without a win, Seymour played some impressive football. Jack Powless passed for nearly one thousand yards and Ron King was given All-State mention as an end. The defense was highlighted by the play of Ken Kraft, Bill Fisher, and Keith Mueller.

A large number of sophomores and juniors received valuable experience which should make for a successful 1965 campaign.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Seymour Community High School's varsity basketball team compiled its best won-lost record since joining the Northeastern Wisconsin Conference. Head coach Mr. Carl Ibe and his assistants, Mr. Walter Heuer and Mr. Donald Chambers, worked long hours to prepare one of the conference's powerhouses.

We played as a team.

SCHS opened the season with a convincing victory over New London, an annual pre-season test. SCHS placed four scorers on the conference high first three encounters, defeating Oconto, Pulaski, and Oconto Falls, while falling at the hands of Kewaunee.

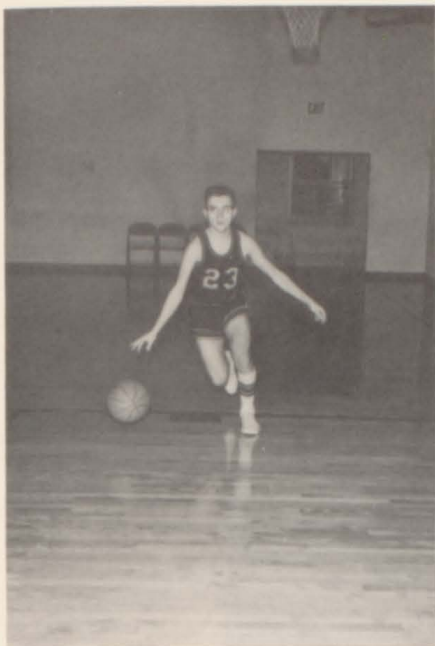

Following Christmas vacation the Indians played inspired basketball. Victories over Sturgeon Bay, DePere, and a revenge victory over Kewaunee were most satisfying.

SCHS placed four scorers on the conference high scoring list. They were: Steve Van Vuren, Ron King, Vern Freemore, and Bruce Decker.

The team was composed of three seniors, eight juniors, and one sophomore. Two seniors and three juniors made up the starting line-up.

SCHS participated in the Regional Basketball Tournament held at Seymour. East DePere, West DePere, and the newly organized Green Bay Southwest were the other participating schools.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

To be a member of the Letterman's Club a boy must earn a letter in a varsity sport, and he must fulfill the requirements stated in the by-laws of the club.

As stated in its revised constitution, the Lettermen's Club was formed, "To instill a desire to develop and maintain the proper ideals of citizenship and competition for the student body . . ." Under the supervision of Mr. Donald Brennan, Mr. Thomas Mett-lach, and Mr. Richard Tepp, the club's members strived to reach this goal.

The club met monthly, and at its meeting decided that its first objective would be to create better attendance at SCHS football games.

The club sold advertising in a football program which gave the names, positions, and grades of the players.

The club members were also kept busy by selling popcorn at various events, and selling advertising for numerous athletic programs.

The club published the Regional Basketball Tour-nament program which contained team rosters, cheerleaders, and information about the participat-ing schools.

An official Letterman's Club jacket, sweater, and lapel pins were adopted and purchased by a num-ber of the members.

The outstanding event of the past year's activities was the second annual Athletic Banquet which was held on May 22. Local merchants, businessmen, and various organizations who helped support the club and banquet gathered in the gymnasium to honor the athletes and their parents.

G.A.A.

The "four seasons" of the Girl's Athletic Association were: bowling, from October to December; basketball, December to March; volleyball, March to May; and softball, May and June.

Any girl who is interested in sports is qualified to be a member of the G.A.A. All members must participate in at least two of the sports. Leading the GAA this year were Marianne Mesko, president; Barb Nelson, vice-president; and Sue Van Lishout, secretary-treasurer. Sportsheads organizing their particular sports were; June Hoff and Billie Winger, volleyball; Marlene Mueller and Valerie Wilkinson, basketball; Mary Ann Hegner, bowling; Jean Rasmussen, softball.

Under the direction of Miss Bonnie Gibbon, the GAA has strived to keep girls in top physical condition while at the same time giving enjoyment through competition and companionship.

CHEERLEADERS

"A" team cheerleaders: Margo Gardner, Maribeth Hartwig, Barbara Nelson, Betty Karweick, Sandie Cropsey, captain.

This year's cheerleaders were chosen by six faculty members and three Student Council officers. The girls were judged on appearance, personality, and cheer-leading ability.

In the past cheerleaders have led the student body at the football and basketball games. This year they added cheering at wrestling meets.

Acting as the girl's advisor was Miss Bonnie Gibbon, the girls' phy. ed. teacher.

zush and Sandra Braun, sophomores; and James Anschutz and Cheryl Muenster, freshmen, as their court.

The floats that were entered in the parade were judged on theme and design. The first place was won by the junior float, a brown seal with a ball on its nose, and the theme "We've Got the Seal of Victory." The senior float, a huge black and white skunk, won second place with the theme, "We've Got The Incentive T'Win."

HOMECOMING '64

October 2, 1964! The long awaited day had finally arrived after a week of hurried preparation and hard work. The Homecoming activities began with the bonfire and pep rally, which were held the night before the game against the Algoma Wolves. Friday afternoon the first major event was the pep assembly. The Homecoming Royalty was presented to the student body, and Keith Mueller and Marianne Miller were crowned King and Queen of the 1964 Homecoming. The parade following the assembly was filled with the excitement of the coming game. The floats of the classes and clubs were part of the festivities. The Homecoming game, at which the '54 team was honored, ended in a 32 to 20 victory for Algoma. The dance following the game climaxed the '64 Homecoming.

The day at SCHS is very busy!

A day at SCHS begins at 8:07 a.m. and runs until 3:45 p.m. with a noon break from 12:07 to 1:50. The day is divided into seven periods, four in the morning and three in the afternoon. At the end of each class period the student has three minutes in which to go to his next class.

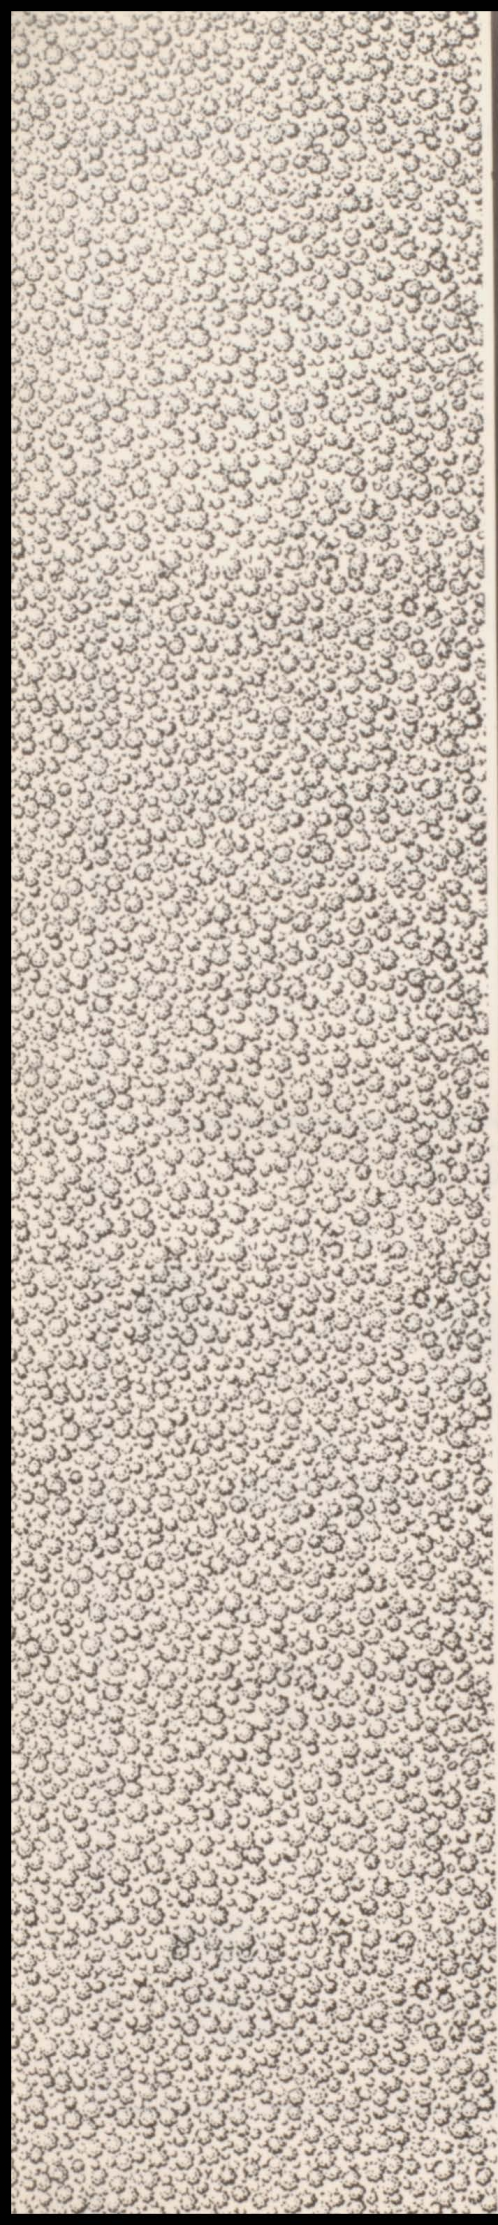

The student follows a regular class schedule and during his free period—study hall—he may visit the library, guidance center, or some pre-scheduled classroom. Also, the noon hour at SCHS is filled with many activities; eating dinner, important meetings, studying, or socializing.
