THE 1966 RIPPER

SEYMOUR COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL

SEYMOUR, WISCONSIN

Today, as in the past, students form the backbone of the world. A school assumes the responsibility of transforming the young men and women of America into earnest and dedicated citizens needed to "man the fleets of the United States".

This book is a pictorial representation of the training received by every student as he is indoctrinated in the duties and responsibilities he must take up in the position of a United States citizen.

In future years the Ripper should prove a pleasant reminder of one of the most important periods in a person's life.

The years spent in high school are not easy, but of necessity are rigorous and demanding. This training is diligently planned and administered in order to develop the strength of character, loyalty, and patriotism in every trainee so as to prepare him to defend his country, its ideals and people, against any foreign aggressor.

The sophomore class began the 1965-66 school year with a total of 171 students.

Cathy Moeller and Glenn Hill served as homecoming representatives. The sophomore float entry, "We've Trained For Victory," featured a train and achieved second place in the design category.

Class advisors were Miss Harriet Maas, Mrs. Frank Piehl, and Mr. Joseph Unrein.

Terry Van Straten, Pres.; Margo Gardner, Treas.; Susan Feurig, Sec.; Barbara Stephani, V. Pres.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The largest freshman class ever to enroll at Seymour Community High began its high school career with a total enrollment of 214 students.

Representing their class at Homecoming '65 were Becky Lembke and Gary Stephani. The freshman class float featured a colorful lion which bore the slogan, "No Lion—It's a Victory."

Mr. Richard McDougal, Mr. Gerald Fazi, and Mr. Arthur Greaves served as class advisors.

Betsy Piehl, V. Pres.; Glenn Hill, Pres.; Patti Stephani, Sec.; Ranee Heike, Treas.

JUNIOR CLASS

This year's junior class ranked second in size with a total of 189 students enrolled.

Marian Lehrer and David Haas were junior class homecoming representatives. Receiving third place honors in the float competition was a large cash register, the theme of which was "We'll Ring Up a Victory."

Mr. S. Thomas Day, Mr. Harold Tech, and Mr. Loren Cismoski were the class advisors.

ROSE MARY MEETS SEYMOUR

A friend points out an interesting item to Rose Mary.

On August 26, 1965, our third foreign exchange student, Rosa Marie Vargas Arias, arrived in America.

When Rose Mary reached Seymour she met her American parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tubbs, who reside on a farm outside of Seymour. While attending SCHS, she took the following subjects: American Problems, U.S. History, Art II, Physical Education, English III, and Speech and Journalism. Rose Mary says that SCHS is quite different from the school, the Instituto de Clajueda, which she attended in Costa Rica. There, students take fourteen subjects for five years, each year going into more detail of the study. She finds SCHS much easier than the Institute.

Rose Mary and her family reside in Alajuela, Costa Rica. In contrast to her American family (having one sister) she has one brother.

The things Rose Mary will remember most about America are: the town of Seymour and its many friendly people, a tour of the South, and her first experience in an American high school.

She enjoys telling people about Costa Rica and also likes to listen to Americans talk about their country.

Rose Mary likes America very much. She says that she will never forget this country and especially Seymour—a small, but to her, an important city of America.

Rose Mary's Home

Rose Mary and her American parents are welcomed at an AFS banquet.

KARYU-KAI

1965 PROM LAND OF FLOWERS AND WILLOWS

After many months of planning and hard work by the Juniors, plans finally materialized into an enchanting atmosphere for a memorable evening—the night of the Junior prom had at last arrived.

The oriental setting and delightful music of Carl Sturdevant and his Balladiers provided a perfect scene for the theme, Karyu-Kai. Ralph Smits, general chairman, aided by Kathy Gosse, started the initial plans. Black and gold were the colors selected to be most prominent in the 1965 prom.

Upon entering the gymnasium, one passed by large fans and through oriental beads into a dream land of flowers and willows. A pagoda lit by real Japanese lanterns, was set off by a golden weeping willow with branches sweeping to the floor.

Six foot letters outlined by a vine of flowers and willow branches announced the prom theme. To the left of the stage was a spot-lighted water fountain.

A mural of a Japanese sunset, seen through a tree shrine and authentic rickshaw, was the setting for the coronation of King Robert Derus and Queen June Hoff by the former royalty, Ronald King and Pamela Baehler.

The crown bearers were Kurt Schleicher and Kim Gritt. Other court members included: Richard Eisenreich and Noranna Stingle, Douglas Dudek and June Gritt, Wayne Sigl and Billie Jean Winger, Gary Hieden and Karen Schleicher.

Also in keeping with the atmosphere, the refreshment room featured lighting by Japanese lanterns, beaded doorways, and punch and oriental fortune cookies served by girls garbed in kimonos.

Miss Harriet Maass, Mr. Russell Hanseter, Mr. Oliver Lerum, Mr. Allen Butcher, and Mr. Paul Kopp were the Junior class advisors.

Crown Bearers: Kurt Schleicher and Kim Gritt.

SCHOLARSHIP STUDENTS

Students who attended summer school programs last year are: Fred Husman, Joy Haefs, Sally Miller, and Richard Jochman.

Richard Jochman spent nine weeks at the University of Texas, attending the Summer Biology Program for High Ability High School Students. This program was sponsored by the National Science Foundation and helped to develop Rick's interests in Micro-Biology.

Another summer school student was Sally Miller who studied at the Grinnell Behavior Science Institute in Grinnell, Iowa, under another program sponsored by the NSF. She attended psychology lectures and worked in specially designed laboratories from June 13 to August 12.

Joy Haefs attended the High School Journalism Workshop for two weeks at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Sponsored by the Seymour-Black Creek Community Press, Joy studied newspaper writing and mass communications.

Also attending the University of Wisconsin, Madison, was Fred Husman. The "Alternate Forage Handling System for Dairy Cattle" was the name of the program, also sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Senior class officers: Karen Wilkinson, secretary; Susan Hansen, treasurer; Betty Karweick, president; and Rose Mary Vargas Arias, vice-president

For the class of '66, the final year at SCHS is drawing to a close. But with the sadness that comes at graduation are the fond memories of four years well spent. The journey on the road of education will be over for some, but for others, graduation means only one more rung on the ladder of success has been reached.

But whether or not one continues with an education after high school makes little difference in how he has spent the past four years. For the senior year is more than a Homecoming float first place, or a class play success. It is a time when young adults must stop and look back before going ahead—a time to recollect the past before going on to conquer new horizons.

AWARD WINNERS

Badger state candidates are Billie Jean Winger, Nikki Van Cuick, Vern Freemore, and Wayne Sigl.

Four candidates were chosen as juniors for their scholastic achievement, character, and leadership qualifications. The girls spent a week at Madison during June, and the boys visited Ripon, Wisconsin. Billie Jean Winger and Nikki Van Cuick were the girl Badger Stage candidates for the 64-65 year and Vern Freemore and Wayne Sigl the boys. Their experience in student government proved to be memorable.

This year's DAR girl

This year Betty Karweick was picked as our DAR girl, for her leadership, dependability, character, and patriotism. Candidates were chosen by the senior class and the faculty.

Governing activities of the student body, organizing lyceums, sponsoring football and basketball dances, supervising the Homecoming, backing the Christmas charity drive and Student Government Day, and planning noon hour recreation are the main jobs of the SCHS Student Council.

Each homeroom elects a representative and an alternate. Class presidents are also included in the council. Election of officers is held in the spring of the previous year. This year's officers are: Wayne Sigl, president; David Jenkins, vice president; Nikki Van Cuick, secretary; Margo Gardner, treasurer.

Committees within the council are formed voluntarily by representatives and alternates. The chairmen of the committees are appointed by the executive committee. These seven groups organize the various activities of the student council.

A revision of the student council constitution was made. The members, particularly the constructive criticism committee, are rewriting an improved student handbook.

The council's advisors are Mr. Floyd Smith, Miss Judith Severson, and Mr. Robert Comstock.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll Society was founded on April 10, 1926, as an honorary society for high-school age journalists. It was organized to recognize and reward ability and achievement in writing and other journalistic work in high school.

The purpose of the organization is to instill in students the idea of scholarship, to advance the standards of the profession by developing better journalists, to produce a higher code of ethics, and to promote exactness, clear thinking, and clear, forceful writing.

Since its organization, the Quill and Scroll Society has granted charters to over 7,000 schools. Seymour Community High School received its charter in 1948, but the local chapter did not become active until a few years ago. New members are selected by the advisors of the club in the spring of the year. They are selected on the basis of outstanding work on either the "Ripper" or the "Blue Jay" and are installed at a candlelight ceremony which is held in the spring.

Qualifications for membership are decided by the executive board of the national organization, and all memberships must be approved by the secretary-treasurer of the society.

Mark Twain once said, "There's more to a blue jay than any other creature. He's got more moods and more different kinds of feelings than other creatures; and mind you, whatever a blue jay feels he can put into language."

The above quote precisely describes Seymour Community High School's student paper, as the "Blue Jay" strives each week to put the feelings of the students into a weekly edition. The "Blue Jay" has been a part of the "Seymour-Black Creek Community Press" for the last five years. Consisting of twenty pupils, the staff is made up of nine juniors and eleven seniors. Mr. Gerald Fazi, the students' advisor, has completed his first year in journalism work.

Each member of the "Blue Jay" staff holds either an editor's position, where he is in charge of a certain section of the paper, or is a reporter, responsible for covering assigned beats throughout the school. Editors and staff members include: editor-in-chief; news, feature, column, picture, art, sports, and exchange editors, and the reporters. These positions are changed quarterly.

The "Blue Jay" enables the students at Seymour Community High School to keep up with school news, helps acquaint them with fellow students, and allows them to express opinions on various subjects throughout the school year.

S. Miller and W. Sigl edit a copy of the "Blue Jay."

CHEERLEADERS

"A" team cheerleaders: Betty Karweick, Cathy Moeller, Susan Feurig, Margo Gardner, and Barb Nelson

In past years, the cheerleaders have been chosen as soon after football season as possible. This year tryouts were changed to spring, enabling the cheerleaders to be better organized at the beginning of the school year.

The tryouts are judged by six faculty members and the student council officers. The basis for judging includes poise and personality, leadership, pep, fitness, and personal appearance. Cheerleaders must have one year's experience to be on the "A" squad.

The cheerleaders practice two nights a week, each session consisting of one hour. Extra practices are held when a special event is coming up.

It is the duty of the cheerleaders to take charge of the pep assemblies, put in announcements for the games, cheer for football, basketball, and wrestling, decorate the field for Homecoming, and organize Parents' Night.

The advisor for the cheerleaders is Miss Bonnie Gibbon.

The cheerleaders present a skit at the Homecoming pep assembly.

From the moment Dale Heagle galloped 74 yards for a touchdown on the opening play in the first game with Marion, Seymour's varsity football team was destined for success.

The Indians went on to defeat Marion 14—0 and win four other games to make 1965 that longed-for and long overdue season of victories.

After that preliminary test, the Indians bussed to Sturgeon Bay for their first NEW Conference tilt. There they upset the Clippers 18—12 in a thrilling come-from-behind action, as quarterback Ron Mueller threw two touchdown strikes to John Powless and another scoring pass to Vern Freemore. The tribe now had their first conference victory under their belts after 38 consecutive setbacks and traveled home in wild delirium. The victory bug was still biting hard the following week when they bested their traditional rivals, the Pulaski Red Raiders, 13—0 in their first home game. A scoreless deadlock was ended late in the third quarter when Bill Fischer recovered a blocked punt deep in Pulaski territory to set up a Heagle touchdown.

But then came disaster. On a cold Saturday night at Oconto Falls, the Panthers jumped to a 20—0 advantage before Seymour rallied late in the third stanza. Mueller's three paydirt pitches were not enough as Seymour, without the aid of injured place kicker Ron Buchmann, tallied only one extra point.

Despite high hopes for a victory, Homecoming festivities were dampened by a 15—7 loss to Kewaunee the next week. Although Jim Danforth sped 51 yards for a TD in the first quarter, Seymour was unable to contain the visitors' deadly outside running game.

Scoring on drives of 99, 65, and 63 yards, the Indians resumed their winning ways in Algoma's mud trouncing the Wolves 20—0 on a wet, drizzly night. Seymour took their only severe drubbing 40—13 from West DePere, the eventual undefeated conference champs who won their closest game by two touchdowns. At Bonduel the following week the slumping Indians lost their second single point decision 7—6 even though they gained twice as many yards as the Bears.

The highlight of the season was the final game against Oconto. Past shortcomings were easily forgotten as our gridders overwhelmingly obliterated the Blue Devils 37—0. Halfback Heagle ended the season as spectacularly as he had begun it, scoring four touchdowns, setting up a fifth, and intercepting a pass at the goal line to stymie Oconto's only threat.

Head coach Tom Mettlach was the mastermind of the strategy which brought victory back to Seymour. Together with assistants Walter Chapman, Joseph Unrein, and Paul Shusta, he molded 30 individuals into a team Seymour could be proud of.

Captains Vern Freemore and John Powless provided the squad with leadership. Freemore, an end on the first defensive unit and the second offensive platoon of the All-Conference team, also won the most valuable player trophy. Heagle, an All-NEW halfback who piled up 888 yards rushing and was also the leading scorer with 61 points, first in kickoff returns, second in punt returns, and third in pass receiving, was the obvious choice for the best offensive player award. The best defensive player was aggressive middle guard Bill Fischer. The most improved player, tackle Steve Wickesberg, was an offensive lineman on the All-Conference squad. Another standout was junior signal caller Ron Mueller who completed 61 of 112 passes for 970 yards and 12 touchdowns, with a completion percentage of 58.9.

The offense scored 147 points during the season for an average of 16.3 points per game, while the defense held opponents to 95 points for an average of 10.6. The team averaged 236 yards per game and held opponents to a game average of 167 yards.

SENIOR BAND

The band puts in many hours of practice before a football show is perfected.

The SCHS band is one of the few in this area which presented a pre-game and half-time show at each home football game. During first hour marching practice, one could see band members, with wet feet and chilled fingers, learning the formations for the next show. A clown band, the "Bohemian Indians," succeeded in amusing the crowd during half-time of the final game. The entire band played spirited marches during the games and for pep assemblies.

Each year the band presents several concerts for the enjoyment of the student body and the general public. A cafe concert, which provided a relaxed atmosphere, was presented in November. The Christmas and mid-winter concerts were presented jointly with the choral department. The band concentrated most of its time preparing for concerts and for the music festivals in the spring.

The district music festival consisted of a non-competitive presentation, in which the band was judged as a unit, and the solo-ensemble tournament. In the latter competition, first-prize winners in class "A" were eligible for state competition.

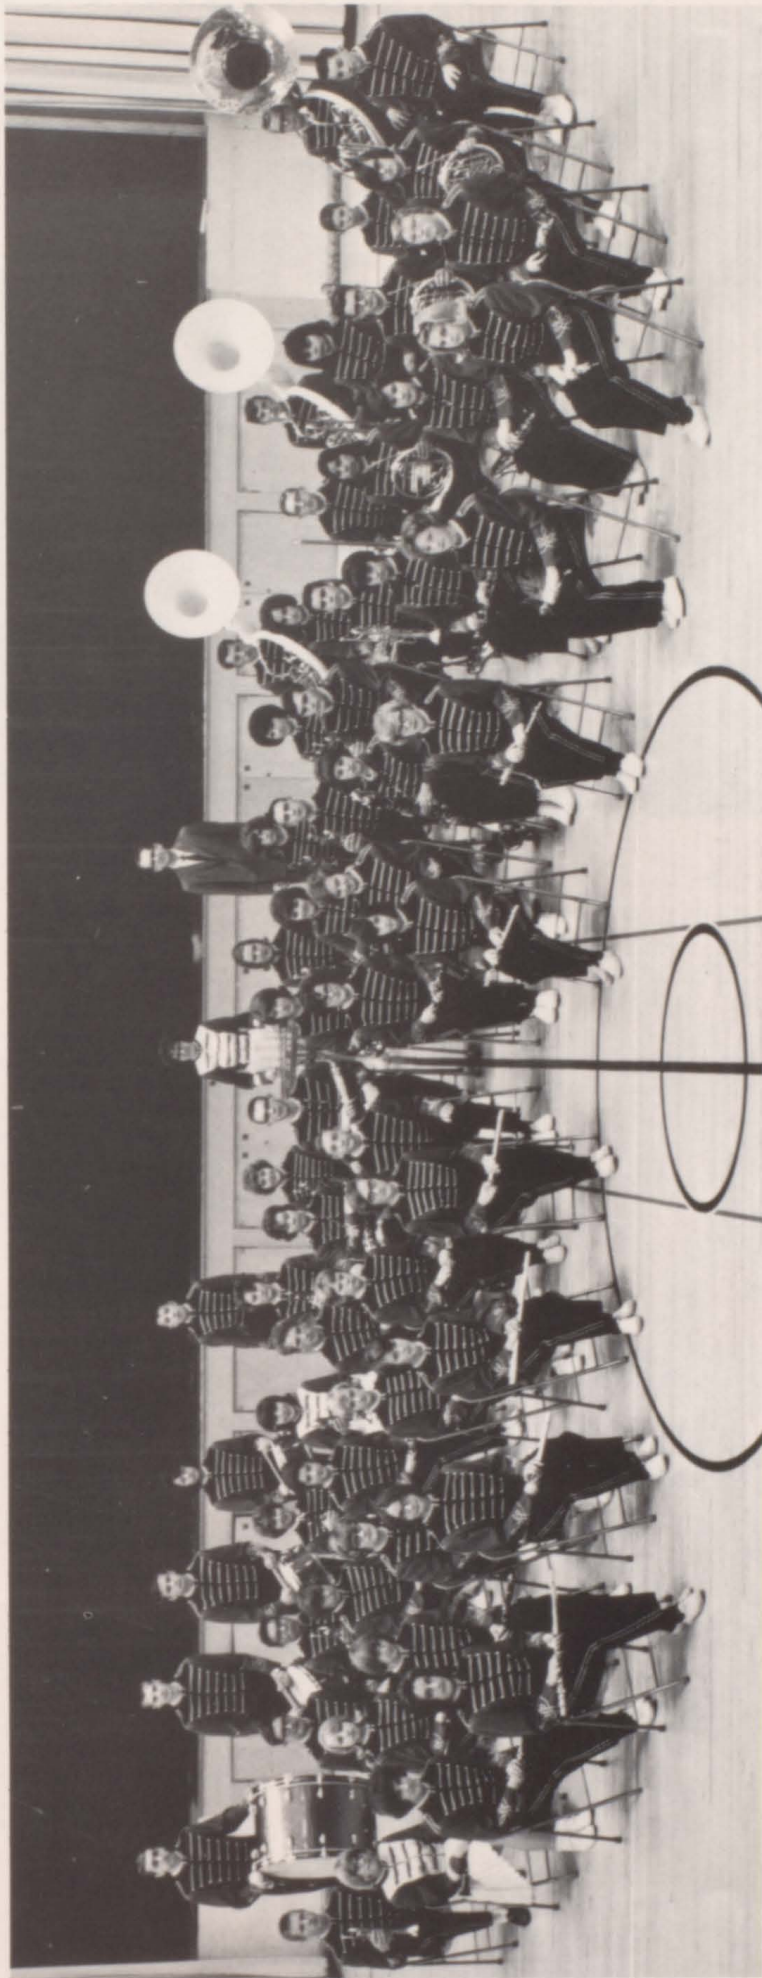

Because the band plays a major role in school activities, band members receive letter points for participation in these functions.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Allen K. Butcher.

In full-dress uniform, the band leads the Homecoming parade.

This year's National Honor Society, in order to carry out its purpose of promoting scholarship, presented certificates to those persons who have been named to the honor roll for all four quarters.

The members are selected by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Induction ceremonies, which take place each spring, were held in front of the entire student body. Parents were present and were invited to a tea after the ceremony.

Honorary duties of flag raising and posting the honor rolls are reserved for NHS members.

Mr. George Behrendt is the organization's advisor.

NHS members Betty Karweick and Kathy Koepfel are shown folding the flag at the end of the school day.

ARS NOVA

Ars Nova members put their talents to use in constructing their '65 Homecoming entry.

The 1965-66 Ars Nova has brightened the corridors of SCHS. The club was responsible for special displays, both in school and in the community, and also created many of the posters on display in the halls.

Ars Nova is open to any student of the art or music department. Thus the programs presented were of musical as well as artistic interest.

The organization took its annual field trip in the spring of the year. Proceeds from money-making activities financed the trip.

Mr. Robert Comstock, the art teacher, was the Ars Nova advisor.

During the past school year, many students interested in various fields of science joined the Science Club, under the guidance of Mr. Russell Kostrazk, Mr. Russell Hanseter, and Mr. Thomas Day.

Showing real school spirit, the Science Club entered a float in the '65 Homecoming parade. The theme, "We'll Blast 'em," was depicted by an explosion over a football field.

Last fall the Science Club sponsored a field trip to the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago, where students viewed many educational exhibits.

To encourage students to put their scientific knowledge to use, the Science Club sponsored a science fair in March. Prizes were awarded in various divisions. Both high school and grade school students participated.

The camera club, which is part of the Science Club, helps students learn correct photographic techniques and provides pictures for the "Ripper" and the "Blue Jay." The audio-visual department trains students to operate projectors and sound equipment.

The 1965-66 executive committee consisted of: David Tesch, president; Michael Moriearty, vice president; Nikki Van Cuick, secretary; Margaret Considine, treasurer.

Experimenting with nuclear physics equipment are Nikki Van Cuick, George Hallam, Mike Moriearty.

The Letterman's Club was established in 1945 for the purpose of developing and maintaining good sportsmanship and proper ideals of citizenship in both the athletes and the students.

To be a member of Letterman's Club a boy must earn a letter in a varsity sport, and he must fulfill the requirements stated in the by-laws of the club.

This year, under the supervision and guidance of Mr. Carl Ibe, the club met monthly and undertook numerous activities beneficial both to the club and the school.

Red and white Seymour booster buttons were sold by members of the club to promote better school spirit. The club also sold advertising in football, basketball, and wrestling programs, which gave the names, positions, and grades of the players.

The official Letterman's Club jackets, sweaters, and lapel pins were made available to members and were purchased by many.

The third annual athletic banquet, held on May 20, climaxed the year's activities. Businessmen, members of various organizations, and people from our school district assembled in the gymnasium to pay tribute to the athletes and their parents.

K. Beyer, B. Simon, and K. Gosse plan lay-outs for the activities section.

Billie Winger, editor of Seymour High's annual the "Ripper," started last school year getting experience to fulfill the duty of chief organizer of the yearbook. Being a co-editor last year gave her many new ideas which she put into effect in the '65 "Ripper." Assisting Billie were the assistant co-editors Kathy Van Boxtel and Sandra Braun.

The staff did a lot of thinking and came up with changes and improvements in this year's annual. One of the big changes was the addition of a candid section in the front of the "Ripper." June Hoff was the head of this new division. The senior section, headed by Sally Miller and Laurie Wilson, was altered also. Pictures and names were included in the section, with the listings of clubs and activities of the seniors printed in a separate section in the back of the book.

Chris Stellmacher was one of the first of the staff to start her work. Chris and her workers started early in the school year soliciting ads to finance the yearbook. Managing the clubs and activities was Kathy Gosse. Joy Haefs was in charge of underclassmen. Handling the faculty and administration part of the yearbook was Lorrie Mielke. Tim Jensen was in charge of sports, and David Jenkins was the photography head of the "Ripper."

Advisors were Mrs. Charles Jenkins and Mr. Philip Lang.

ONE-ACT PLAY

Play Cast: M. Moriearty, K. Zuleger, F. Husman, K. Van Bostel, S. Braun, W. Sigl

The stage crew loads props before traveling to the district contest at Kaukauna.

This year's one-act play, "The Bald Soprano," by Eugene Ionesco is a satire on English life and on plays in general. It takes the ordinary world and turns it upside down.

The cast included: Wayne Sigl, Mr. Smith; Sandra Braun, Mrs. Smith; Michael Moriearty, Mr. Martin; Kathy Zuleger, Mrs. Martin; Kathy Van Bostel, Mary, the maid; Fred Husman, fire chief. Tim Jensen was the student director.

The play was presented on October 28 at the league contest in Oconto where it received an "A" rating. "A's" at the district and sectional contests sent the play to the state contest at Platteville to compete with thirteen schools, Seymour received a "B" rating in the state contest.

The play was under the direction of Mr. David Hassell.

DEBATE

Members of the Debate Club began work early in the year under the able leadership of Michael Moriearty, president, and Chris Stellmacher, secretary. Mr. Gerald Fazi advised the club throughout the tournament season.

The debate team was divided into A, B, and C levels, according to the ability and experience of the debaters. Each C level debater was assigned to a B level team to provide for individual help.

The proposition debated this year was "Resolved: That the federal government should adopt a program of compulsory arbitration in labor-management disputes in basic industries."

Spotlighting the four seasons of the Girl's Athletic Association were bowling, basketball, volleyball, and softball.

Any girl who was interested in sports and wanted to learn more about them was eligible to be a member of the GAA. All members participate in at least two sports during the year.

Officers chosen during the fall election to head the GAA this year were Barbara Bluma, president; Peggy Parks, vice-president; Barbara Stephani, secretary. Sport heads were chosen at this time, too. Organizing their particular sports were: Jane Gavronski, bowling; June Hoff and Marion Lehrer, basketball; Noramae Stingle, volleyball; Barbara Nelson, softball.

MIXED CHORUS

"The Singing Freshman" was the first main event for the mixed chorus. Featuring Devra Rusch and John Zuleger, the operetta portrayed life on a college campus. It was presented to elementary students on the morning of November 1, and to the public on the evening of November 2.

The mixed chorus, singing four-part harmony, participated in all concerts and festivals.

An added attraction to the mixed chorus was the madrigal, a select group of sixteen singers who performed at various meetings and banquets, and also participated in the music tournament.

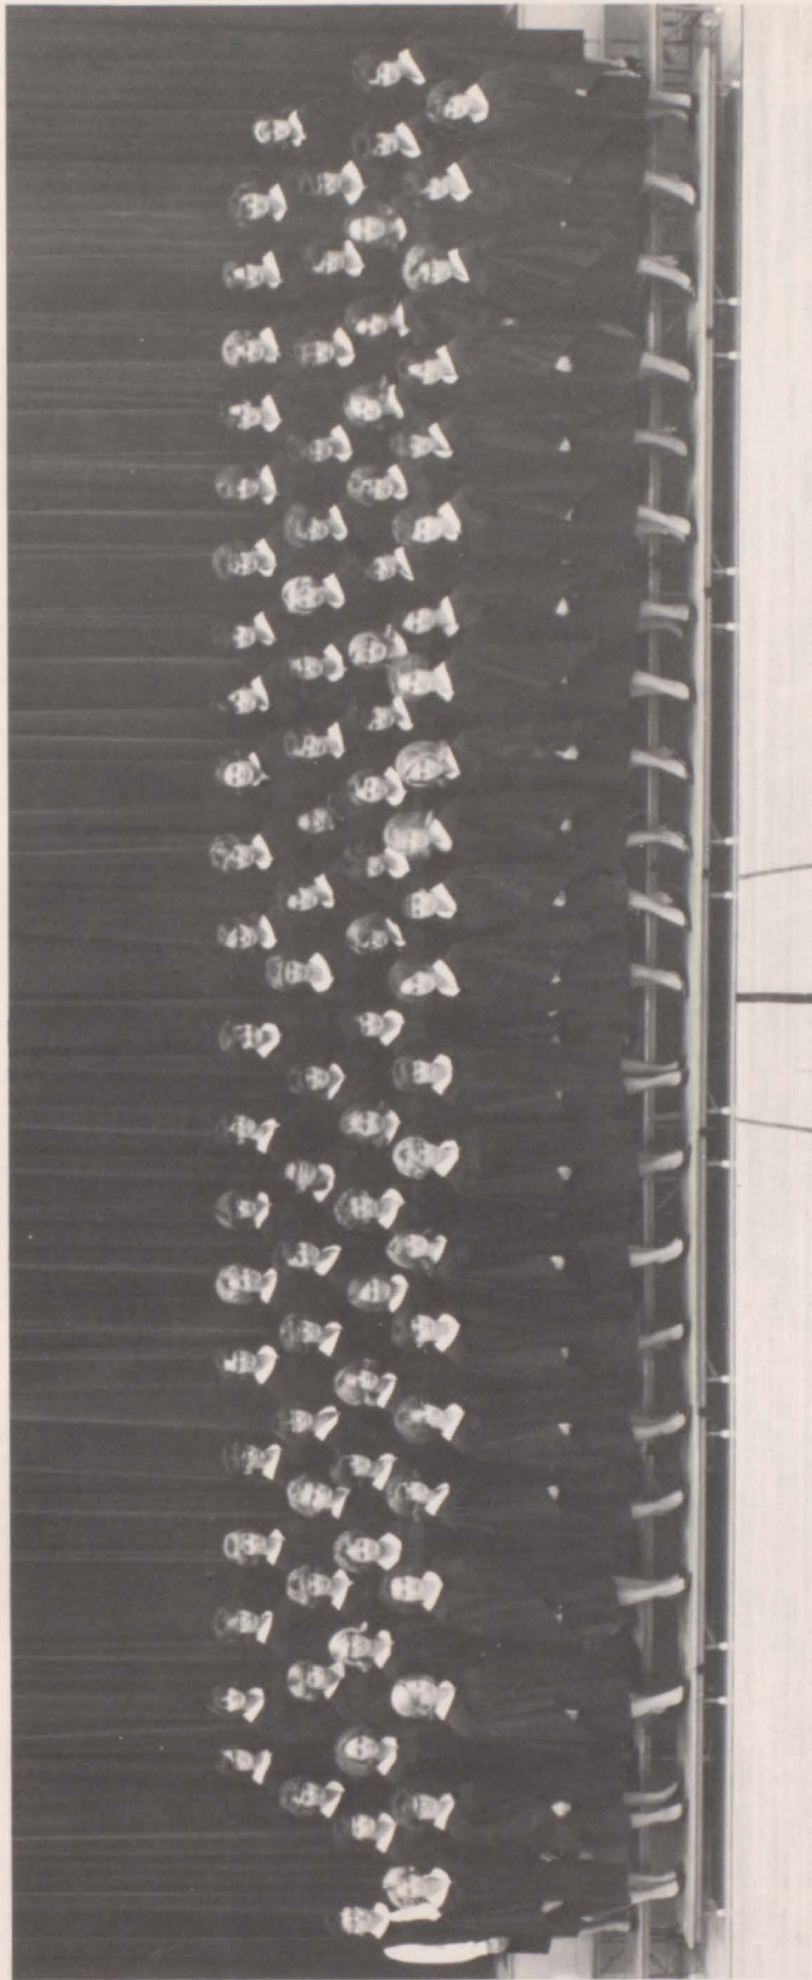

"The Singing Freshman," the mixed chorus operetta, was presented November 2.

GIRL'S CHORUS

The girl's chorus concentrated its efforts on preparing for concerts and tournaments. The Christmas and mid-winter concerts were presented in cooperation with the band and mixed chorus. Mrs. Darrell Pasch, director of the mixed chorus and girl's chorus, made use of student directors at various times during the year.

The chorus again performed class "A" music at the district festival. The girls also participated in the solo and ensemble contests, where those receiving first ratings in class "A" went on to state competition.

The Future Homemakers of America, a national organization, is an active club with nearly 130 members. One must have completed a semester of home economics to be a member.

Year round activities included a style show, in which the girls modeled their self-made garments, a Mother-Daughter Banquet, Daddy Date Night, a summer trip and picnic, a car wash, and cook book sales.

Degree work received much emphasis during the year. Many girls worked toward Chapter and Junior Degrees which were presented at the FHA initiation.

The national goal this year was "Top New Talents" (TNT).

FHA advisors are Miss Ellen Chase and Miss Harriet Maas. Mrs. Edward Ciesielczyk and Mrs. Stephen Simon were the chapter mothers.

Community service is a part of FFA activities. The annual fall sale of rat poison, a magazine campaign, sale of pop at basketball games, and a chili dinner in the spring were the FFA's many projects.

The highlight of the year was the annual Father-Son Banquet, at which awards were presented to deserving members.

After school has adjourned in June, seniors who have participated in FFA all four years are entitled to a two-day expense paid fishing trip.

In an effort to promote interest in the library and to stimulate school spirit, the Bookworm Club decorated the library with goal posts, a huge football, and special bulletin boards during Homecoming week. The club's entry in the Homecoming parade, a "victory" stamp, won third place in the theme division. Bonnie Ziesemer headed the float committee, and Peggy Hooyman served as chairman of the library decorations.

Other club projects included publishing "The Bookworm News", selling paperback books, making posters for National Library Week, decorating the library for special holidays, and packing a Christmas box for needy children.

Working at the circulation desk, shelving books, checking in the many magazines and newspapers received daily, and locating materials for other students are part of the student library assistants' many duties.

This year thirty-six students volunteered to work in the library under the supervision of Mrs. Charles Jenkins, SCHS librarian. These students worked during free periods and the noon hour and received points toward an activity letter for their services.

Student librarians B. Ziesemer, B. Piehl, and D. Holz work at the circulation desk.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club and French Club co-operated in constructing this prize-winning Homecoming float.

One of the first activities of this year's Latin Club was the building of a prize-winning float for the '65 Homecoming parade. The float, built in co-operation with the French Club, won first prize in the theme category with "We're Roman to Seymour Triomphe." Other activities included sponsoring a movie at the Seymour Theatre, caroling with the French Club, holding a Latin Banquet in the spring, and inviting the members' parents to a meeting held especially for them.

President Kris Mill stated, "The main goal of the club this year is the revision of our outdated constitution." Assisting Kris in directing the work of the club were the other officers: vice president, Chris Stellmacher; secretary, Carol Runnoe; treasurer, Kathy Koeppel. Advising the club is Mr. Edward Kocha.

The membership requirements for the club are either maintaining a "B" average in Latin class or having completed one semester of Latin with a "B" average.

FRENCH CLUB

"Parlez-vous francais?" The French Club began the year by receiving a first in the theme division on the French-Latin Club float, "We're Roman to Seymour Triomphe."

Each month, a business meeting was held and a program, varying from a French skit to a guest speaker, was presented.

Along with learning about the customs and language of France, the members participated in many activities. In December, the club again joined with the Latin Club to carol to Seymour residents. The annual "Sadie Hawkins" dance was held February 11. To conclude the year, the club held a picnic, at which senior members were presented with mementos.

"Joyeux Noel!" French and Latin Club members caroled to Seymour residents during the Christmas season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

ROW 2: Mr. Ibe, R. Jochman, J. Ciesielczyk, V. Freemore, T. Hopkins, B. Decker, Mgr. R. Buchman.
ROW 1: E. Danforth, R. Eisenreich, P. Thomas, J. Powless, J. Danforth.

Seymour Community High School's varsity basketball team finished its season with a 6—8 record in conference play and an 8—9 season record. Under head coach Carl Ibe, the eight seniors, three juniors, and one sophomore turned long practice hours into rewarding victories.

The Indians lost their first game of the season to Oconto, but emerged victorious in the following games against Kewaunee and Pulaski. The Indians then fell unfortunately in five straight games, one of which was a non-conference game with Marinette. The Indians, in their second game with Oconto, gained revenge on the Blue Devils but lost to Kewaunee, whom they had defeated in an earlier meeting.

In a non-conference game against Hortonville, the Indians' record received another win. Following that game was a strenuous battle with Pulaski. After one overtime period, the Pulaski Raiders also fell in defeat.

The Seymour team won three more games, which included a return non-conference encounter with Marinette. They lost two other games to Bonduel and West DePere, but only after giving their foes magnificent battles.

In the Regional tourney at Clintonville, Seymour emerged victorious over New London but lost to Clintonville in the final game.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

ROW 2: Mr. Diedrich, K. Abel, H. Kettner, J. Nelson, J. Anschutz, E. Court, S. Mory. Mgr. R. Buchman. ROW 1: D. Murphy, R. Lerum, J. Garsow, G. Hill, M. Spaude, absent S. Danforth, J. Gorges.

J.V.

Under the coaching of Mr. Bill Diedrick, Seymour High's junior varsity turned in one of the best records to come along in years. With a record in conference play of 10—4 and a season record of 11—6, this year was certainly worthwhile. The high points of the season were five straight wins, followed by one loss, and a final victory against West DePere. From the looks of this past JV season, Seymour's basketball future is bright.

FRESHMEN

This year's freshmen team turned in a good season by winning half of their games for a 5—5 record. The freshmen were coached again this year by Mr. Donald Chambers. The frosh team found the first part of the season to be a bit rough, but they soon discovered the victory secret. This is proven through the fact that they won four out of their last five games. The high point of their season came with the defeat of New London in their second meeting. The game ran into an overtime period, but the Indians' frosh showed their true ability and brought home a victory.

Wickesberg on top with a tight waist and ankle ride in the Holiday Invitational.

Wrestling, a comparatively new sport at Seymour Community High, was started in 1961 with Coach Loren Cismoski heading the first group of Seymour matmen. In the last few years under head Coach Richard Tepp and assistant Coach Cismoski, Seymour has become one of the most powerful wrestling teams in northeastern Wisconsin.

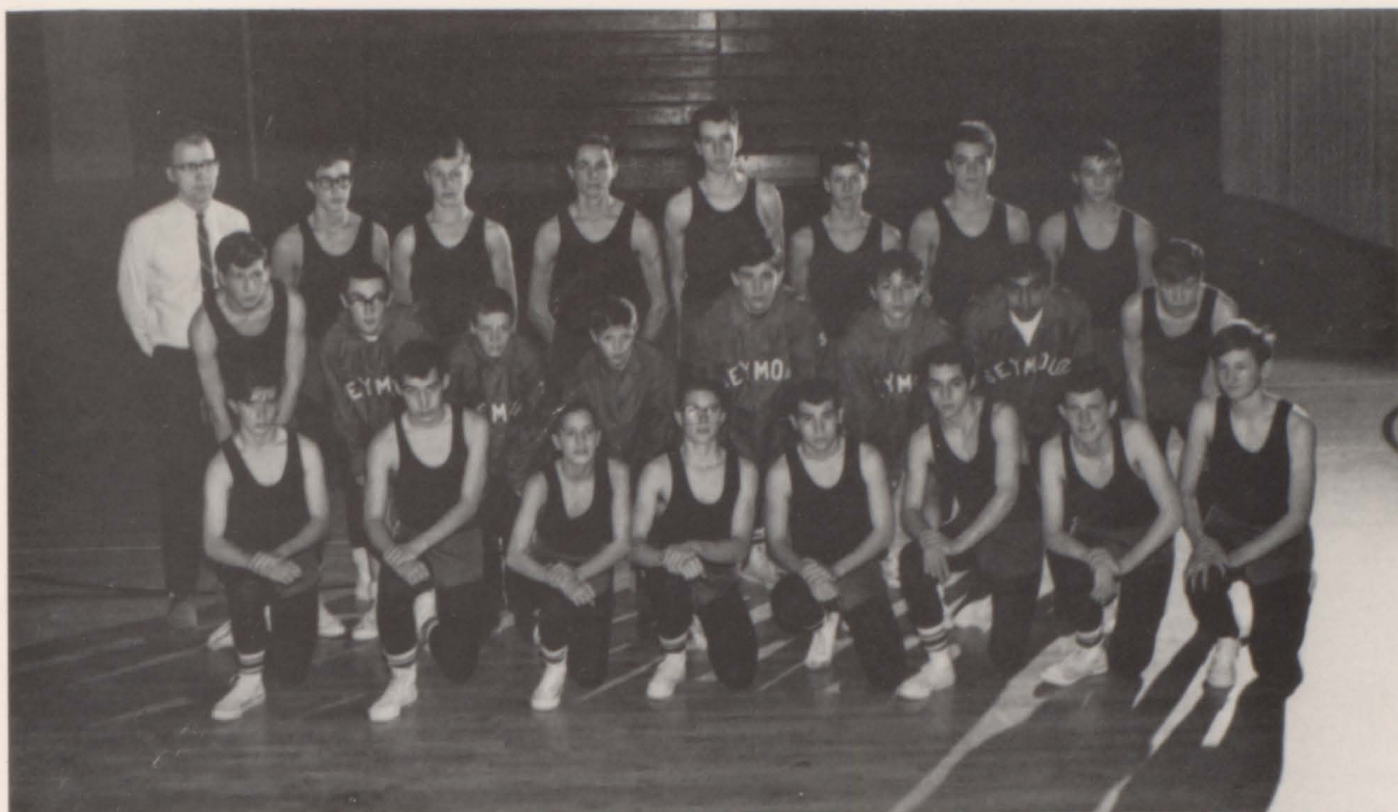

Seymour competed in the NEW conference against Oconto, Oconto Falls, Sturgeon Bay, Pulaski, and Bonduel. SCHS matmen were defending the conference title and again had an impressive season.

Last year Seymour's determined twelve, with the help of state-going Dick Dunks, copped three trophies—the Holiday Invitational, the Conference, and the Regional. This year the victory hungry grapplers already have the Holiday Invitational trophy under their belts and are eagerly searching for additional trophies. SCHS won the Holiday Invitational with eleven men placing. Among these were two championships and three seconds.

Four seniors, John Selmer, Ralph Smits, Rob Olsen, and Steve Wickesburg, completed their varsity competition this year.

Next year the team will have depth in returning varsity members, Dick Dunks, Dale Hodkiewicz, Ron Mueller, Jerry Krahn, Gary Hooyman, Don Jochman, Pete Wachtendonck, Dave Dunks, Tom Cleven, and Dick Vande Hei.

Running over land, rocks, and through water, for a distance of $2\frac{1}{4}$ miles is the sport of cross country.

This year by out distancing all other conference teams, Seymour received the title "Northeastern Wisconsin Conference Champs."

The team placed third in the Shawano Invitational, paced by Dale Hodkiewicz with fourth place and Dave DeBruin with fifth.

Other runners contributing to a successful season were seniors: Ricky Eisenreich, Doug Dudek, and Dick Runge; sophomores: Steve Mory, Mike Spaude, and freshman: Randy Butters, and Steve DeBruin.

The team finished the season with a fourth out of 16 schools at the Sectional at Waupaca. This along with a 7 win, 2 loss record in dual meets give justice to the great coaching ability of Don Chambers.
