Within Ourselves, Our Future Lies

Co-Editors; Jan Arnell and Kathleen Farley prepares pages for another good yearbook.

“You’re no better than what you think you are”, stated one wise man. A lot counts on our intelligence, yes; but even more is determined by our self-esteem and our self-confidence. If we believe we can do something, such as get an honest “A” on a test; we can and no one will stop us. Each one of us students must realize our potential and develop ourselves, for what we learn now determines what we will have later.

Always remember the “our” in our theme; these United States was created not by one man but by many. The future of America depends on each of us. “Life is what we make it.”

Jan Arnell

The future — so near yet so far away. Each one of us has a life to lead for ourselves. Each one of us has to make the best of life in order to achieve his goals. We all set goals to be reached, and aim for them through the years especially our high school days, when so many decisions and tasks are brought upon us to be answered and worked out to the best of our ability. We also encounter new friends and go forth to seek new adventures. Our teachers, friends, and most of all our parents, shape us for the future and guide us down the path to our careers.

Administration Reviews North-Central Report

The SCHS administration continues with its experimentation of the Modular System, which is now in its second year of operation at our school.

They are also reviewing the North-Central Evaluation Report which deals with the school's program, curriculum, and activities.

Mr. Martens is superintendent of the Seymour school system and is assisted by Mr. Otto. Mr. Otto is also Athletic Director and controls the hot lunch program and transportation system. Mr. Peterson is in charge of the high school program.

Mr. Martens, Mr. Otto, Mr. Peterson.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Mr. Ing Vegoe, Mrs. Carlen Beyer, Mr. Herman Wussow, Mr. Lyle Martens, Mrs. Jean Melchert, Mr. Phillip Sachs, Mr. Norbert Hackl, Mr. Harvey Maass.

A Good Year — To Be A Teacher At SCHS

Mr. Behrendt smiles as he checks a student's progress.

Three new members have been added to the teaching staff — Mr. Land, Mr. Burmeister, and Mr. Wittek.

This year journalism was added to our already varied selection of classes. In this course students produce and distribute a biweekly newspaper known as the "Shaft". These young journalists also produce the "Arrowhead" page of the TIMES-PRESS.

Using the North-Central Evaluation Report as a basis, the faculty members have continued to improve curriculum and provide innovative techniques.

Not only does the faculty teach, but they advise various types of outside activities such as float building, intramural sports, forensics, and social clubs.

Mr. Sittarich uses his fist to make his students understand.

VERN ANDERSON — Metals I and II, General Shop. NORMAN L. BARBER — U.S. History, Am. Problems. GEORGE R. BEHRENDT — Personal Typing, Typing I, Bookkeeping I.

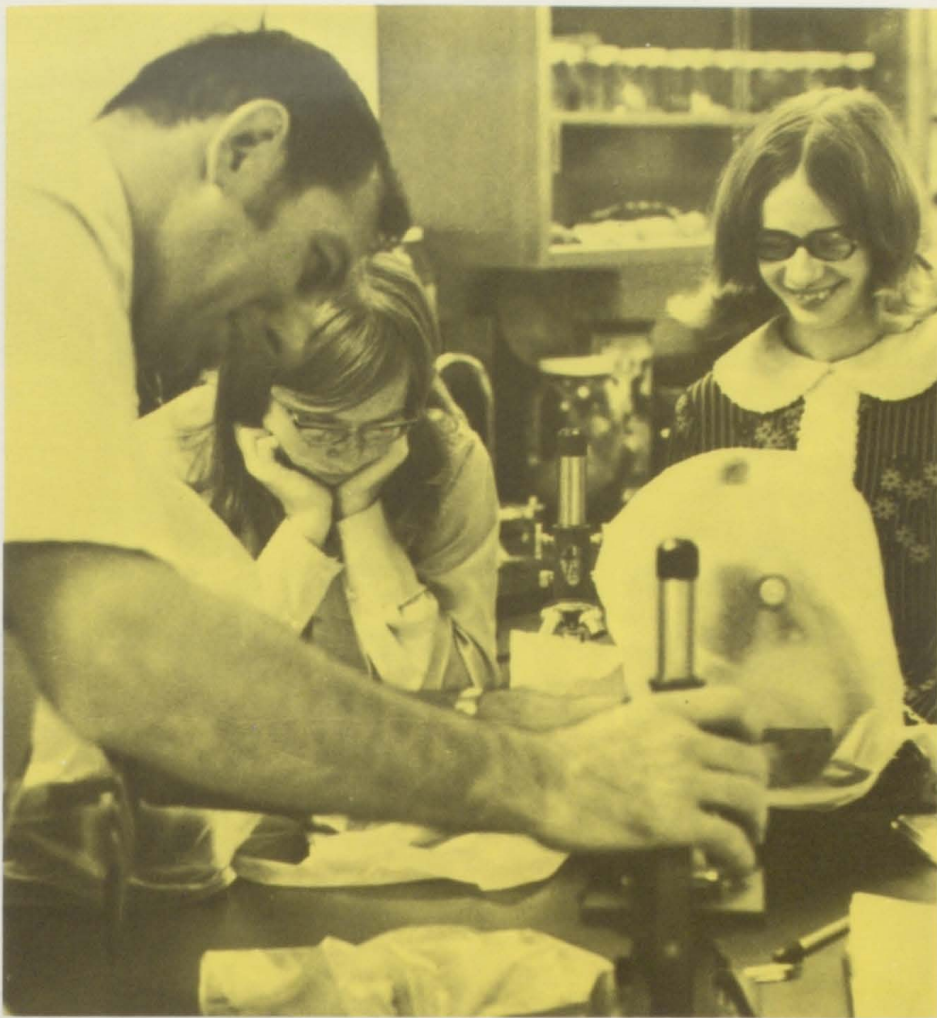

Miss Holmes helps a student in some typing fix.

Don't look so suspicious, Mr. Krueger, I'll bail you out.

JAMES BURMEISTER — Power Mechanics, Engine Mechanics, General Shop. DONALD CHAMBERS — Boy's Physical Education, Department Head. LOREN D. CISMO-SKI — Practical Math, Modern Introductory Analysis, Geometry. S. THOMAS DAY — Earth Science, Physical Science. BONNIE DENZIN — Girl's Physical Education. WILLIAM B. DIEDRICK — American Problems. MARION FREEMORE R.N. GERALD T. FAZI — Speech. PIERCE GIFFEY — Guidance Director.

As two students look on, Mr. Hanseter demonstrates how a microscope is used.

Mr. Burmeister reviews his plans for the following day.

They Give Us A Challenge — Do We Accept?

JUDITH A. GUSE — Clothing and Textiles, Foods and Nutrition, Home Management and Equipment, Housing and Home Furnishings. RUSSELL H. HANSETER — Advanced Science, Biology. DAVID WITTEK — Agriculture, Agriculture Mechanics I and II, Agriculture Economics, Man Environment. ROBERT H. WOLK — Department Head, Chemistry, Physics.

Pointing out many figures on the paper, Mr. Tech advises his class to take notes.

SCHS Secretaries Provide Efficient Business

The smiling faces of our secretaries seem to greet you every time you walk into the office door. The secretaries and teachers' aides this year consist of Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. Seidl, Mrs. Maas, Mrs. Wiedmann and Mrs. Hillegas. Mrs. Gosse, with Mrs. Wiedemann the English and social science aide and Mrs. Maas (the science department aide) are busy filing and typing out papers for the faculty. You may also find them running little errands for the busy teachers who can't find time to do it themselves. Mrs. Gosse is the assistant librarian. They try to help Mr. Peterson in this daily routine of student problems. Handing out lunch tickets and writing out passes keep the secretaries busy throughout their daily work.

BETTY GOSSE — Library Aide, RUTH HILLEGAS — Nurse's Office Aide, SHARI MASS — Science Department Aide, GRACE MUELLER — Office Secretary, MARYLYN SEIDL — Guidance Department Aide, MARLENE WIEDEMANN — English and Social Studies Department Aide.

Mrs. Wiedemann concentrates.

Mrs. Maas runs off materials for the science department.

Camelot

For once there was a spot in one brief and shining moment known as "Camelot". The class of '72' was proud to present "Camelot". With the new high school to bring the joy and excitement even more alive, the castle scenes brought a vivid picture of kings and queens in the days of King Arthur. Even a knight in shining armor appeared in the winter scene to make the castle feel more alive. Once King Curt and Queen Barb arrived, the enchantment of the castle was highlighted by the beauty and romance of the time. The crowning was done by last year's king and queen, Sandy Reis and Pete Hartlaben.

Barb Kielar and Cindy Spaude acted as chairmen with advisor Mr. Hoeft. Days before the prom everyone was busy with long hours of hard work to make Camelot a complete success.

The decor of the commons was arranged in a cafe style where punch was served to the attending couples, while the Senior Exhibit sent sweet music throughout the enchanted forest.

Girls ready the Queen for her crowning.

“Traces And Memories” of 1971 Homecoming

On the eve of October 8, 1971 Tim Ashmann and Kathleen Farley were crowned King and Queen of the 1971 Homecoming. The crowners of the night were Jean Brigham and Laurie Heike.

The bonfire started out the festivities on Thursday night. Friday arrived with the pep assembly in the gym and the parade down Main Street, which the Seniors received 1st place with their float “We’ll Blatz The Schlitz Out of Them!”

The Indians played the Jaguars of Ashwaubenon, who defeated the Indians 21-0. The announcer at the Homecoming game and dance was senior, Bernie Huettl. The music was provided by the H. S. Somma.

Girl representatives ride before the crowd.

Our Future Begins As The Senior Year Ends

As frosh we scurried scared through the hall; never dared to pass the upper-classmen standing near a bubbler — guys banding together to prove frosh are still wet “behind the ears.” Each hill we climbed to our future.

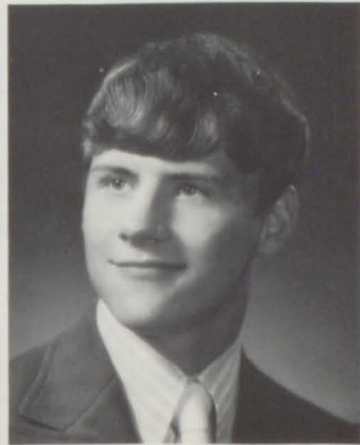

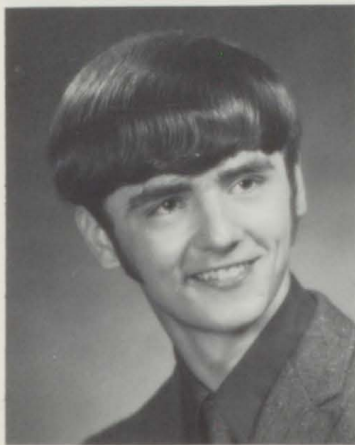

Quiet and study characterized our sophomore year. It was scour each neighborhood on week-ends to clean our ecology, as recycling trends activated us as juniors. “Camolot” became our beautiful Prom, as a lot of us created from within ourselves.

We, the class of 1972, learned — for what is to do in our futures depends on each of us. Anything within our reach is ours, for Seymour High gave us knowledge and skills to pave our ways to success.

New Experiences and Comings as Juniors

Many highlights are featured in the junior year at SCHS from receiving class rings to the biggest event of the year — Prom.

The first big experience for them was the Homecoming. This year's float was built at Melchert's where a large gopher was constructed with the slogan, "We'll Gopher a Victory."

Representing the Juniors on the Homecoming court were Terry Berken and Debbie Katch.

Students Show Extra Abilities And Aptitude

STUDENTS WHO TRAVELED ABROAD: Ken Ambrosius, Barb Kielar, Ann Lubinski.

This year the DAR award went to Jill Dahlman, the senior girl who showed the most scholarship, leadership, dependability, and patriotism. The girl qualifying for the Betty Crocker award was Roseline Mueller. She won the scholarly award for receiving the highest average in a written exam.

Three students traveled abroad during the summer of 1971. Ken Ambrosius, traveled to Switzerland, Barb Kielar, went to Holland, and Ann Lubinski traveled to France.

Journalism Class Edits School Paper — Shaft

Journalism class has been added to the school's roster this year. The class was established to give students experience in journalistic practices. This is accomplished by the publishing of the school's newspaper, THE SHAFT. The students spend four days collecting material for the paper, and the next weeks in the actual production of the SHAFT, Journalism class also edits the ARROW-HEAD. This page is a presentation of school news and is published in the PRESS-TIMES.

Season Was a Big Disappointment For Coach

The Indians started out with enthusiasm and high hopes. They ended with a 1-7-1 record and the last place finish. As Coach Herbst stated, "An impotent offense spelled doom for the Indians." The team started out the season by using the T-formation offense. After the homecoming loss to Ashwaubenon, the offense was switched from the T-formation to the T-wing formation, and the Indians began to control the ball-game. After the switch the "T-wing" lost to the champions, West De Pere, by a score of 7-0 in the last few seconds, tied Bay Port 14-14, and finally won a game by defeating Clintonville 13-3.

Louie Wendt received the "Most Valuable Player" trophy. Bruce King was chosen as the most valuable defensive player. The Indian's most valuable offensive players were Louie Wendt and Dennis Neuman. Coach Gay Herbst named Bruce King as the "Most Improved Player."

Poor Season—No Victories—Attitude to Blame

The Indian's junior varsity football team had a poor season with no victories and an 0-7 record. Coach Gary Sass was very disappointed with the 1971 scores. Coach Sass was of the opinion that the poor season was due to the lack of players, particularly the lack of linemen. He said that many of the J. V. football players had only limited improvement. Sass also felt that the poor attitude of the players contributed to the team's constant defeats.

The players showing the most promise for the next year's season are Steve Wenninger, Jeff Ver Bruggen, Jeff Lerum, Tom Raymaker, Ron Leisgang, Tom Heiden, and Dave Hoffman.

Coach Sass named Jeff Ver Bruggen and Steve Wenninger as the most valuable players of the season. Ron Leisgang and Jeff Lerum were named the most-improved players.

Indians Strive For Victories

The 1971-1972 basketball team placed seventh in the conference. Coach Mike Mullen said there was good team morale and that all the players played to their potential.

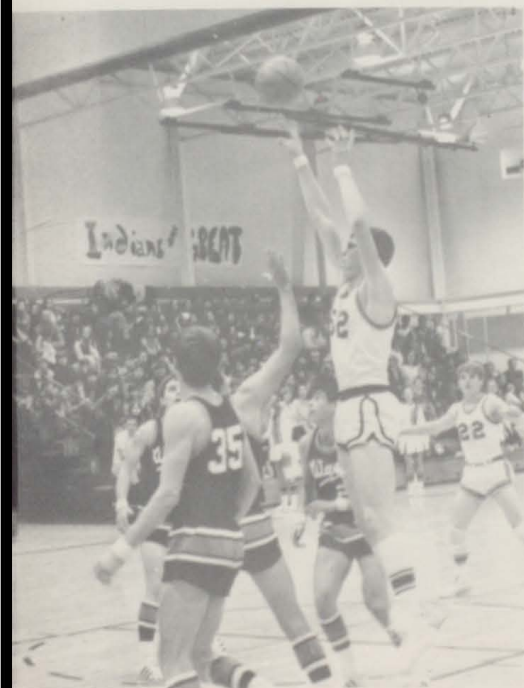

Rick Johnson was the high scorer of the season with 345 points. Rick was also chosen as the most valuable player on the team and was awarded a second-team birth in the all-conference ratings.

Dave Blohm was the chief rebounder.

The Indians scored a total of 994 points in 18 games.

Indians Rise Triumphantly to Defeat All Foes

The Indians had an exciting wrestling season this year — placing first in all the tournaments and suffering only one loss. Five wrestlers went on to the sectional at Appleton East High School. There, Terry Coonen, Gary Cornelius, and Tom Van De Hei were defeated, while Ron Grunwald and Glen Vissers went on to state finals. Glenn Vissers placed third at the state wrestling tournament in Madison in the heavy-weight division.

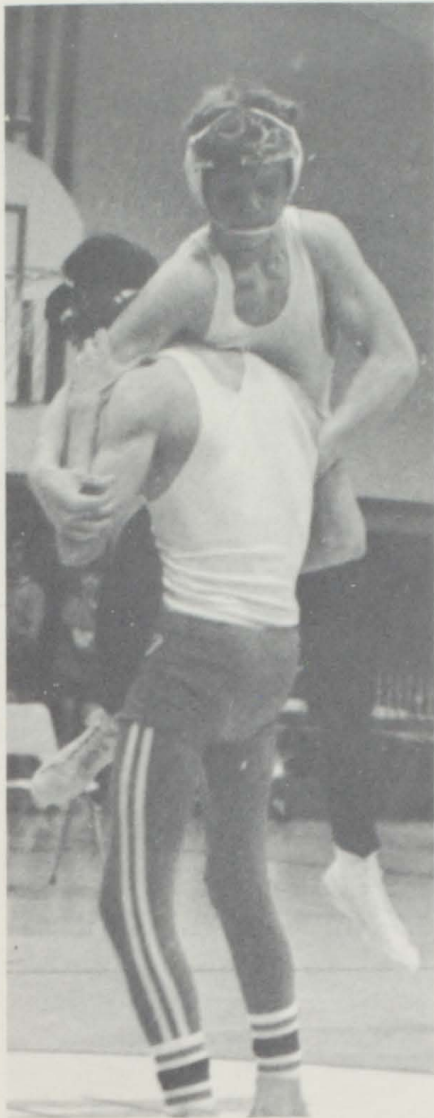

Coach Tepp named Tom Van De Hei the most-improved player. The most-valuable player and fastest-pin awards were given to Glenn Vissers.

The varsity team earned 188 total points and lost 90 during the season.

Mr. Offerdahl was the J.V. wrestling coach. The J.V. team earned 82 total points and lost 50.

The Indians Place 3rd In State Regionals

The Indians' 1971 track season showed vast improvement over previous years. The number of participants was up and the quality of performance improved. The Indians beat five of their opponents, among which were Clintonville, Bonduel, and Bay Port, while losing to five competitors in duo-triangular meets. The mighty Indians also placed third in the tough Luxemburg-Casco Spartan Invitational and third in the State Regionals.

The Indians ran into rough weather this season, with rain, low temperatures, or high winds at almost every meet.

Glen Quast received a trophy for "Most Valuable Trackman." Coach Gay Herbst named Paul Hoffman and Harland Grandy as the most-improved trackmen of this season.

Seymour Indians "Skunk" Wrightstown 23-1

The Indian's 1971 baseball team had a fair year, winning half the games played. Many of the losses were close, but as Coach Deidrick had to say, "We failed to come up with the clutch hits at the right time . . . we have no one to blame but ourselves."

The highlight of the season was Steve Hill's perfect game against Ashwaubenon.

The "Most Valuable Player" award was granted to Tony Kraft; Bernie Huettl received the "Most Improved Player" award. The leading hitter of the season was Tony Kraft.

Indians Stroll in Sixth at State Regional

This year's cross country team beat thirteen schools out of a possible forty during the season for a percentage of .325. The J. V. team beat twenty-three schools out of a possible thirty-four.

We had a very young team with no graduating seniors. The team should become very strong in the next few years.

The most-improved runner was Greg Puls. Greg Marnocha was named the most-valuable runner.

The Indians ran into continually bad weather throughout the season. This did not prevent them from placing in the state regionals though.

Mr. Robert Rankin coached both the varsity and the J.V. teams this year.

Seymour females may compete under the WIAA rules in three sports: volleyball, basketball, and track. Miss Denzin, the senior high phy. ed. teacher, coaches the varsity and junior varsity teams in each sport.

The varsity volleyball team pulled through with three wins and two losses. Laurie DuFour was named most valuable player.

Ev Rueden, top scorer, spurred the basketball team on in their 4-2-0 season. High rebounders were Ellen Piehl and Laurie Heike. The team voted Jeanette Coonen most-valuable player.

The track team sent three girls to state — Sue Ambrosius, Charla Phillips, and Kathy Ganzel.

Charla Phillips was a great asset to the team.

have to stick together."

The 1972 cheerleaders did an outstanding job in the pepping up of the Indian's morale. New cheers were introduced to the student body, which inspired and encouraged our players on to victory.

In addition to leading cheers at games, the cheerleaders also plan pep assemblies and make arrangements for buses to out-of-town games.

Varsity cheerleaders do their thing.
