SEYMOUR HIGH SCHOOL

Done it.

Goodbye 2014-2015 school year! What better way to remember your past than with a book full of memories? "Done it. Said it. Quoted." was chosen to say we were here and we captured the essence of our school within this book. Throughout this edition you will see speech bubbles to represent our theme. We really focused on getting student content this year so that all aspects of the stories were covered. Our yearbook would not have happened without the help of the yearbook staff students, the lovely parents and businesses who supported us, and Mrs. Harpold who put in countless hours far beyond what anyone will ever see. Now, sit back and enjoy the book of the year.

SENIOR CLASS OF 2015

Lacey Simon

I will never forget all the moments I've had in ceramics class, because I got to create things I never thought I could.

Especially when I brought a project idea called the Fairy Tale House to Mrs. Harpold's attention. Now it is an actual project, that I got to do and many other students will get to do in the future.

Taylor Brunette

I will never forget Mr. Timm's civics class. Freshmen year I really enjoyed how fun he made our class.

Dylan Wolter

My favorite memory is when Mr. Schroeder, Matt Stedl, and Trevor Rohloff were all at the small animal barn at the fair.

Erica Xiong

Mrs. Boo's classes have been the best of my high school years!

Xuanyu-Carrie Zou

My French classes were the best classes I ever had.

Kylex Williamson

My favorite memory of high school was standing everyday by Kyle's locker goofing around before school started.

Kyle Maroszek

I will never forget when Akia blasted his music in Brice's class.

Hannah Ebert

My art classes were the best!
I could be who I wanted to be without worry.

remember when....

Gianna Hill

I will never forget driving back from a boys football game and some maniac almost killed me, Maddy, Asia, Julie, and McKendra. Maddy screamed her head off and Julie had no idea what was going on. Luckily, I swerved around the car after they blew the stop sign barely missing them.

Isaiah Wigner

I remember scoring my first touchdown in high school during football sophomore year after switching positions. As running back I had to learn all the new plays.

Paul Mastey

I will never forget when I brought my motorcycle to school for the first time.

Brittany Marcks

Bradley Kobs almost killed me and Lexi Hanson with his horrible driving.

Jordan Bastian

My favorite memory was when French Club won school spirit, even though we were just a bunch of nerds having fun with face paint.

Tylor Leisgang

Freshmen year a group of us did not know our locker numbers, so we all used Kyle's locker.

Blane Shepard

Using Kyle Maroszek's locker all throughout high school because I could never remember where mine was.

Alesha Friestrom

My favorite memory would be having friends over on our days off.

HOMECOMING week

THE LAST LUNCH. As the senior girls wait in anticipation for their turn to take on the sophomore class in dodgeball, they enjoy their last high school homecoming lunch in the commons. The seniors went undefeated throughout the tournament until they met the teachers on the battlefield, where they fought until the last girl standing. "My favorite part of dodgeball was playing the teachers. They were very intimidating, especially Mr. Jefson and Mrs. Collins! Even though we were intimidated, we still tried to kick their booties!" -Baylee Mauthe

"It was EXTREMELY cool to see a lot more people dress up this year!"
-Marissa Richmond

HOMECOMING game

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL

SHS TRACK AND FIELD

"We had high expectations because we had a lot of returning letter winners, and the boys in the previous year had a really good year at state. We had a lot of new people come in and fill in roles and do different things. We had newcomers and the girls really performed very well and had a phenomenal season and we ended up winning the major three: Conference, Regionals, and Sectionals. I look forward to next year with the girls because we really didn't lose that many that graduated and the senior girls stepped up and performed at conference with the boys and that's why we had a season like we did. It was a great time and we had a lot of fun. It was a year I'll never forget." -Mr. Schwantes

SEYMOUR WINS THE BAY CONFERENCE. In May 2014 the Seymour High School track team took first place in the Bay Conference Meet at Denmark High School. After a long day in Denmark and with a team effort, Seymour had the highest scoring points out of the 13 teams. "Even though I didn't participate much in the Bay Conference, it was a nice experience to see the team bond and reach our goal as winning the conference title," said Lydia Javoroski.

MOMENTOUS achievement

Madilyn Heinke was one of the three students selected to go to Badger State. To be a representative, you have to have the ability to lead, work well with others, and be organized. Madilyn was the first governor ever, of Girls or Boys State, in 73 years from Seymour. She commented, "Going to Badger State allowed me to meet girls from all across the state who had the same outlook on life as I do. We were able to work together for the greater good of the 51st state without arguing too much. Being elected Governor was the most humbling experience of my life thus far. I hope those who have the chance to participate in the future seize the opportunity, it's definitely life changing."

3. Represent Seymour
4. Capture memories
5. Have fun!

YEARBOOK STUDENTS IN ACTION. Danielle Ward and Taylor Holtz take pictures for the homecoming activities. Taylor states, "Watching the dance team and all the activities was very interesting. It was a great day."

SENIORS

NOW WALK IT BY YOURSELF. Midway through the dance, students form a line for the "Cupid Shuffle" near the DJ table.

SADIE HAWKINS dance

What will you remember from the dance?

It was fun because there weren't a lot of people there. I liked it better being in the commons than in the field house lobby like homecoming."

Keelie Murphy-Besaw, grade 9

I couldn't be there the whole time because I came late after a dance team competition. But I loved the decorations and I wish the photo booth was open later so I could've used it."

Sarah Rohm, grade 9

It was nice because it wasn't as formal. You could just kind of throw on a dress and go! The music was good and there were a lot of fun songs to dance to. It's nice when there are fewer people because you feel like it's more your own."

SAID IT.

Quoted.

As you can see, there were quite a few of these who did not know the name of Dennis. This is a very common mistake as many people do not know the name of the person who is quoted. This is a very common mistake as many people do not know the name of the person who is quoted.

Done it.

SAID IT.

Quoted.

As you can see, there were quite a lot of things we did, said, and quoted this year at Seymour High School—many more than we could possibly fit in the yearbook. Continue to be part of the memories next year by submitting photos, providing interviews, or applying to be a yearbook staff member! Thanks for a great year!
