About Academic Decathlon

Academic Decathlon is a ten-event scholastic competition for high school students and features a theme every year. This years theme was WWII.

So far the group has advanced the local competition where they had the second highest team score in the CESA 7.

Senior Benjamine Wears has won a ribbon for the highest overall score of any student at the competition. The group has also impressively made it to the state competition dated to be in March at Wisconsin Dells. Which is also the first time that seymour high school has made it to state for Academic Decathlon.

Logan Biese grade 11

Why did you decide to join Academic Decathlon?

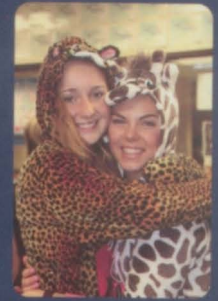

"I decided to join decathlon because it seemed like a good opportunity to learn with some of my peers, and to perfect my study habits."

What do you think of it so far?

"I think that decathlon is difficult thus far. It's been many late nights studying, trying to memorize as many parts of a given topic as possible, and getting supplies late. I am enjoying my time within this prodigious group, however. I do enjoy the challenge of taking several tests in a day, which I believe will help me with my ACT's in a few months."

ASHWAUBENON BOYS HOCKEY

Standing Apart From the Rest. Senior David Michaelson has been playing hockey for more than 13 years, and has been a part of the Ashwaubenon Jaguars for four years. Michaelson says that "the late night practices, the thousands spent on hockey equipment and gas, the countless hours I've dedicated to the pursuit of self-betterment- they will all be well worth it when I can look back on these years and know with absolute certainty that I've given my all, and have never left anything on the ice." David finished off his final year becoming first team all-conference goaltender.

Evan Gady, freshman, is in his first year playing with the Ashwabenon Jaguars, but has enjoyed playing this sport since he was four years old. Ashwaubenon combines students from different schools that wouldn't have enough students to create an entire team. Gady plays left defense and says that "my favorite part of being a member of the Jags is getting to be with all the guys and being a part of something that is bigger than just me."

The Clutch Moment. Shooting a free throw involves a mental process of calming the mind, blocking out the crowd, and relying on muscle memory. For Trent Blake, making a free throw gives confidence to the team to move on in the game. Blake says, "In those clutch moments when you're five points ahead, you want to be the guy they're afraid to foul because they know you'll make it."

Coach's Corner. "Coaching for 30 years at Seymour Community High School has truly been a labor of love. Even today, I can honestly say that being in the gym with a group of kids is one my favorite places to be. I have had the opportunity to grow and develop along with so many young men. Hopefully my influence, along with that of long time assistants Tom Wilson, Troy Cornell, Matt Kuse and Todd VandeHei, has left a positive imprint on many of these individuals. Beyond the wins and losses, I hope many life lessons were fostered along the journey as well as fond memories and lasting friendships. I hope my many players have gained a sense of what commitment is. I hope they understand the value of being prepared and working together as a group to achieve a common goal. I hope my players have gained a healthy sense of respect for each opponent. In the end-- I hope they love the game and can look back with at our time spent together and cherish the memories."

We are passionate.

Sarah Krause loved dancing with all her heart. It was her passion. She shared her passion with many ages through the Seymour Dance Club and through being an assistant coach for the Seymour Thunder Dance Team. THE BEST FOR LAST!

REMEMBER WHEN

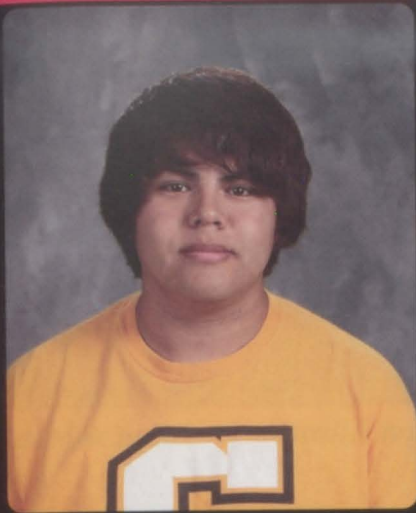

"My favorite high school memory was during Advanced History my Junior year. Mr. Brice was lecturing about the policies of communism during World War II. Suddenly he jumped on the tables and ran across to the closet in the back of the classroom. He threw himself at the door, screaming, "Communism must be contained!" -Ashley Thomas

"I've had a lot of memories in this school, but one of the most prominent is from my time in the musical. My junior year, on the Saturday performance, I was acting my part like the hundreds of times before then, but this time was different; I went to say my next line, but it wouldn't come to me. So I improvised as most actors do and I pretended like it was a part of the script for me to forget what I was saying. The rest of the actors went along with it, amazingly. I've never had such a crazy, fun time."-Tanner St. John

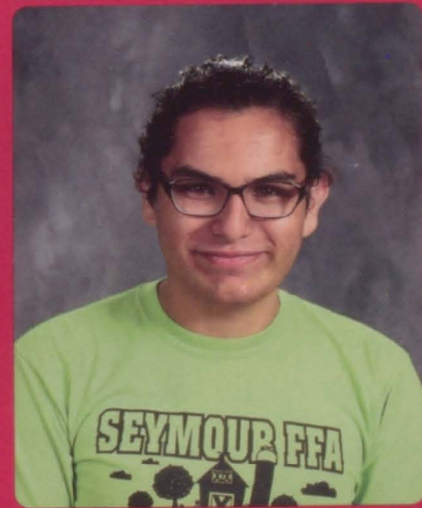

"I can't remember what year it was, it was either freshmen year or sophomore year. On homecoming week it was gender swap day and Carson Moore was walking around in a dress. I don't think I have ever laughed so hard in my life seeing him walk down the hallway in a dress."-Zach Martin

"My time here at Seymour flew by really fast, and along the way I have made so many memories with friends. From playing music in the lunchroom to track-it would be quite hard to choose the best time I had here. Performing at Disney, Chicago, going to Tennessee, and the time I was on the Grand Ole Opry radio show were all great, but the best one would be when Logan Morgan, Helena Jefferson, Liz Wix, and I went and bought a Christmas tree. After we strapped it to the roof of Logan's truck we did donuts on the way home. Then early the next morning we snuck it into the band room and decorated it. It was quite the surprise for Mr. Alban when he returned from Chicago."-Alex Acevedo

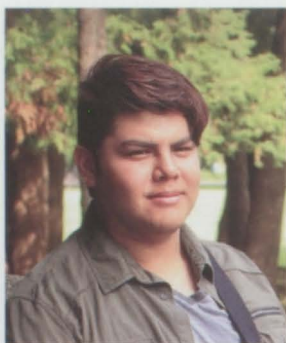

"I remember when the whole first hour Spanish 2 class busted out laughing when I blurted out a horribly translated phrase, 'No me gusta pez' on the first day of school."- Christopher Gourd

"There was a huge problem with couples in the school, and Mr. Steltz had enough of it. So he decided to put up a sign in the hallway saying "Stop PDA! I know your parents' phone number!" and would roam the halls saying that phrase for literally a month!"-Shayleen Schomisch
